

PANTHERS' PRIDE

1967

The Senior Class of 1967

Proudly Presents

Panthers' Pride

Dedication

In appreciation of her many contributions during our high-school years, we, the senior class of 1967, dedicate this year's edition of the Panthers' Pride to Mrs. Mary Jane Salvers.

She was a friend to all and a member of the faculty of Deputy High school from 1961 to 1966.

Without her co-operation and talent our Prom and Junior class play could not have been the successes they were.

She was an inspiration to all of us in her many interests.

The coronation of the royal court highlighted the evening. Ronnie Sipe and Shirley Terrell were crowned king and queen to reign majestically.

There was dining under the moonlight for those who attended the Prom.

Dancing under the starlight night to familiar tunes was enjoyable to those attending.

"In the Misty

Early in the 1965-1966 school year the theme "In the Misty Moonlight" was chosen for the Junior-Senior Prom. Months of planning and preparation followed in order to make the evening one of enchantment for everyone. In the spring orders were sent for decorations, invitations and memory books. During the week preceding the Prom, Juniors worked hard on the actual decorating.

Moonlight"

The big night finally arrived on May 7, 1966, and the evening flourished with splendor. These pages of Panthers' Pride tell the story of that "Moment to Remember." Enchanting and beautiful, "In the Misty Moonlight" will never be forgotten by juniors and seniors of 1966.

The garden, complete with fountain, provided a beautiful setting for an evening "In the Misty Moonlight."

Entertainment for the evening included presentation of the "Grasshopper Opera" by the Deputy Faculty.

Sheila Gray was all smiles as she enjoyed the Halloween Carnival.

Randy Barrett served as Master of Ceremonies at the Carnival.

King and Queen candidates for the Carnival were (from bottom to top) Paul Manns, Lynetta Sipe, Van Persinger, Barbara Sipe, Max Saylor, Betty Barnes, Ronnie Sipe, and Shirley Lamb.

Halloween Carnival

Sandy Neff and Delma Lamb were in charge of the Senior Cider Cafe.

Shirley Lamb and Ronnie Sipe were crowned queen and king of the Carnival by Brenda Griffith, senior class president and Melvin Collins, vice-president.

Freshman Initiation

George Gray and Keith Gaffney show evident signs of admiration for sophomores.

'67 Freshmen were initiated into the high school student body by the sophomores. This is an annual occurrence at D.H.S. After the Initiation, Freshmen were treated to a party with fun and food for everyone.

Freshman Charles Mosley poses for picture in his attire for the event.

Katherine Barrett applies finishing touches to Joyce Barrett for the appearance of a perfect freshman.

Members of freshman class seemed to enjoy their initiation into high school.

Providing musical entertainment for the activity were sophomores, Warren Aldridge, Van Persinger, and Ronnie Povaleri.

Winter Wonderland

December 10th, 1966

As an annual occurrence the F.H.A. Club sponsored a Winter Wonderland party for members and their dates. The party was graced with a gentle snow and an atmosphere of gaiety was present. The Theme of this year's party was "Christmas Around the World" and was carried out through the decorations and program. Sandra Neff and Karlyn Lamb were chosen as King and Queen for the evening.

The evening was highlighted by soft music and dancing.

Santa's helpers, Sandra Neff and Becky Burnette, paid a visit to the Winter Wonderland and added a touch of merriment.

King and Queen candidates were: Keith Perkinson, Wanda Terrell; Randy Barrett, Dianne Rea; Betty Barnes, Danny Ellis; Sandra Neff and Karlyn Lamb.

Music for the evening was provided by the "Stroh Bohemians."

A banquet began the festivities.

Seniors Present "Grandad Goes Wild"

Members of the cast look on as Officer Grogan checks Hooley's shoe for some stolen goods.

Hooley proves to Officer Grogan that he doesn't have any stolen loot on him as a sleepy Kip Shadduck looks on.

Mrs. Morton prepares Grandad for the arrival of Mrs. Harrington and daughter, Della.

On December 9, 1966, under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Miller, seniors presented their class play, a three act farce, entitled "Grandad Goes Wild".

The play concerned Hooley, a tramp, trying to get Grandad interested in his new invention, a rat trap. Distinguished Mrs. Harrington and her daughter, Della, are visiting the Mortons when a quarantine is placed on the Morton residence because Hooley is believed to have been exposed to smallpox.

During the confusion, several items begin to disappear and Hooley nearly makes his get-away before Officer Grogan comes on the scene. The comedy ends with Hooley going to jail and Grandad recovering the money he had invested in Hooley's rat trap.

Deputy's "Big Red Band" got off to a flying start early in the school year when the bandsmen were invited to appear at the Indiana University stadium on High School Band Day in October. They were honored with several newspaper photographs and articles, notably in the Louisville Courier-Journal and Madison Courier. The unit played for a number of home basketball games and presented a floor show at two of them, with Doris Eversole leading the floor maneuvers. At Christmas time the band contributed a group of instrumental numbers to the school's pre-holiday program before the large crowd assembled to see the arrival of Santa Claus.

On March 24 the members of the band represented D.H.S. at the annual Southern Indiana Music Festival, held this year at Austin. Five persons from its roster were chosen to be in the Select Band, honor group of the festival. A concert tour, the annual Spring Concert and participation in the closing activities of the school year rounded out a full and ambitious schedule for the bandsmen.

Economics

Through a study of home life, Mrs. Walker helped junior girls learn their future responsibilities as homemakers.

To Gain Knowledge Is the Goal

English With the aid of Mr. Compton, seventh graders began to realize the importance of English in everyday life.

Through her many years of teaching experience, Mrs. Hutchinson has discovered that setting goals helps her shorthand students to develop their abilities.

No Deputy student can forget these two sights. Students have entered to find knowledge and wisdom and left better prepared to face the challenges of life.

D.H.S. Seasonal Spirit

The Seniors Traditional Christmas Tree.

Earlyn Lamb, a 1966 graduate of D.H.S., returned as speaker during the Christmas Program.

It seems like everyone at D.H.S. likes to smile once in a while. For instance; Katherine Barrett and Margaret Marshall.

Lorena Shelton has a motto: Keep Smiling.

Melvin Collins and Sandy Neff helped Santa during the school gift exchange sponsored by the seniors.

Some people like jokes. It's evident that Mr. Compton and Mr. McKay found some gifts amusing.

Mrs. Walker

The mystic power of the mistletoe caught Mrs. Kinders and Randy Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells Shirley Terrell

The word "food" ranks high in the vocabulary and spirit of D.H.S.'ers.

At first, four years seemed like a long time to be in high school. But these four years are behind us now and as we look back we realize that they passed all too quickly.

As each graduating student of Deputy High School looks back at these four years there are memories which will never be forgotten. Among these are: becoming accustomed to high school as freshmen.....initiating the "green" freshmen during the sophomore year.....boosting the Panthers on to victory in a big game.....biting nails during final exams.....ordering class rings.....studying lines for class plays.....making final plans for the prom.....taking college entrance exams.....enjoying that last senior activity.....and finally holding back tears while receiving a high school diploma.

All these moments and many more will be remembered by every graduate of Deputy High School. They can never be forgotten, for they are the times which make life at D.H.S. so rewarding.
