Hold fast your dreams as you climb
the heights of success.

There are many words of wisdom friends and teachers will impart, but the wisest of all will come from deep within your hear. So follow not the road well toiled, nor walk another's way, but find the path that's yours alone and bodily seize each day.

This is your time to fly; the endless sky is your domain.

We are very proud of you!
Love, Mom, Michael, and Charis

your heart's dream!*

To do anything that you want to do.

To trust yourself to test your limits.

That is the courage to succeed."

Editor's Note:

I would like to take a little time to thank everyone who helped me put this book together. Thanks to Sarah Wolin, David Koren, Tracey Weisheit, Jennifer Saylor, Shannon Burney, Alan Clark, and Matt Woellert. Without all of their help I could not have done it.

Also, I would like to wish the Class of 2002 all the best and the rest of you a great 2003-2003 school year.

Valerie Sitzman

To the Students:

We would just like to apologize for the quality of this book. Excuses cannot be made, however, it should be noted that the staff has been behind for quite some time, and we are just now catching up. We took on the responsibility of finishing this book without even being part of the year's staff, and we are sorry that some things are left not fully completed. We feel it is a step up from the previous book and have every intention of continuing that process of producing better quality books in the years to come.

As a side note, we would like to thank the staff, particularly Sarah Wolin, David Koren, Jennifer Saylor, and Valerie Sitzman for contributions they made as well as several member's of the 2002-2003 staff for their help in completing this late delivery book!

Sincerely,
Tracey Weisheit & Leah Mathis
Co-Editors for the 2002-2003 book.
