Dedication

When we think of the year 1942, we think of a year of great struggle and sacrifice. It was a year when the people of our country stood united against the forces of evil. It was a year when the young men of our country gave their lives for their country. It was a year when the people of our country showed their courage and their faith. It was a year when the people of our country showed their love and their compassion. It was a year when the people of our country showed their strength and their resolve. It was a year when the people of our country showed their hope and their faith. It was a year when the people of our country showed their love and their compassion. It was a year when the people of our country showed their strength and their resolve. It was a year when the people of our country showed their hope and their faith.

Dedication

We owe many teachers much for their help during our four years. There are many to whom we could dedicate this yearbook, but one person has been so outstanding in her assistance to us this year that she is our only logical choice to place on this page of honor.

We dedicate this book to our senior sponsor, Miss E. Opal Sherman, for her help to us in the senior class activities, for her tremendous help in publishing this annual, for her ready assistance in directing the senior play, but most of all, because she has taught us the way to live.

We can never repay you for all you have done for us, Miss Sherman. We can only thank you. And to a person like you, a great personality, a great teacher, and a great friend, we are glad to dedicate our Mahisco.

To the Class of 1942:

Four years was too short a time to have you with us. However, there are three things we hope you have acquired. The first of these is a belief in yourself. The confidence of knowing yourself and abilities is a great asset. The sound trait we hope you have gained is the ability to get people to believe in you. To this add a third—a belief in others. We have to live with and around other people. No progress has been made which does not represent cooperation of many minds and hands. These assets you can cash in on.

Class History

As we near the end of our high school life, let us look back over our past four years of work and play, and see what we have accomplished to keep the class of '42 in the memory of M.H.S.

'38-'39

In the fall of 1938 we entered high school as a very happy and ambitious group of Freshmen with many views of the future. We elected no officers in our Freshman year.

'39-'40

Having left our Freshman days behind us, we felt more important as Sophomores. We chose the following class officers:

Harry Colgate _____ President
Elizabeth Lyon _____ Vice President
George McLaughlin _____ Secretary
Norma Scheser _____ Treasurer

'40-'41

Upon becoming upperclassmen, we chose Keith Hand to guide us as President with Calvin Hassfurther, Vice President, Martha Kalb, Secretary, and Norma Scheser, Treasurer.

During the year we had a school dance which was quite a success.

The class was also honored by having eight boys on the varsity.

With expert assistance from Miss Lotz, Junior Sponsor, and much preparation on our part, we succeeded in giving the outgoing Seniors a most memorable prom.

'41-'42

The last year! When we were Freshmen, it seemed as if we would never graduate. Now we can hardly realize that the time has passed so rapidly and we are ready to graduate.

This year, Dana Winn, was elected to guide our destinies with assistance from Wayne Montgomery, Vice President; John Paul Foxworthy, Secretary; Norma Scheser, Treasurer, and Miss Sherman as a most capable sponsor.

We were fortunate to have Wayne Montgomery from our class chosen as King at the dance sponsored by the Seniors.

We still have the honor of seven boys on the varsity. They are Bill Lodge, that "high point man" we will never forget, Wayne Montgomery, Eugene Cheatham, Johnny Armstrong, Norman Smith, Calvin Hassfurther, and Graham Bock.

Following the examples of the classes of '40-'41, we undertook an annual. Junior-Senior Prom, Class Day, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and all the other activities caused the last four weeks to pass quickly, and, though they be gone, we will never forget them.

Class Prophecy

It was a cold, wintry night in 1967. Johnny Armstrong was amusing his four year old grandson with tales of his youth in M. H.S. "But, Grandpa, where are they now?" asked Johnny III. "Well," answered Johnny, "it's a long story, sit down, and I'll tell you what happened to the class of '42!"

"Alice Alcorn, who used to have such a little voice, is now the World's Champion hog caller, while Rogers Walker has replaced Jack Benny as a violinist. This year Elizabeth Lyon won her 15th straight 'Miss America' title in a beauty contest.

Dana Winn and Mark Lytle felt there were no new worlds to conquer in popular music, and have invaded the symphony orchestras. "Jerk" McClure prefers to stick to his jazz band, however. Scheser and Thomas have become a famous television comedian team, along the Brenda-Cobina line. Betty Ann Lowe is a typical army wife, and Keith Hand has joined the navy to forget.

Richard Heck went moose hunting just once too often, and Martha Kalb divorced him. Irvin Stoner and Betty Vaughn celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary by visiting one of his girl friends in Scottsburg.

Mary Jane Reed is still the biggest thrill on the movie screen, with Graham Bock busily fluttering femme hearts. J. P. Foxworthy married a rich widow and is now living in style. Rosemary Faught has made a business out of suing old millionaires, with Selma Turner as her chief competition. Margie Ryker is now a famous opera star at the Metropolitan, playing opposite Joe Toomey at present.

Betty Delzell is dancing on the New York stage. June Hulett and Forry Douglass have been going steady for thirty years and still haven't gotten married. Pat Davis, Mary Jane Corbin, and Rosemary Dipper run a skating rink, among other things. Larry Gordon has finally realized his ambition and has opened a military kindergarten five miles from West Point. Curly Richardson holds the speed record for the United States.

Wayne Montgomery has retired from the Yankees and is running a fruit stand on the sidewalks of New York. Jack Coppage is professor of English Literature at I.U. Charles McNimery owns a bus line between Madison and Hanover. Louis Owens recently opened the "Joe Bud" Theatre in St. Louis. Bonnie Lou Lowry is opening her tenth photographic studio. William Bellamy, the sports writer, is the happy hubby. Raymond Wolf owns a coast to coast chain of garages.

Bob Hughes and Richard Pryor have opened a psychopathic residence (nut house), where they feel at home. Inez Hunt is private secretary to Arthur Schafer, the airplane magnate. "Pansy" McLaughlin is business manager of the New York Times. Fred Norris owns a grocery store chain. George Distel is a burlesque show producer of the Billy Rose type. Alice Lynch and Wilma Born are his stars.

Jack Wilson is a famous novelist and play-boy in New York. Lucille Curtis is one of the ten beautiful secretaries he employs. Virginia Baglan is now a millionairess and is planning to run for president as soon as Roosevelt vacates. Eugene Cheatham is lightweight champion—and proud! Jannie Mae Handlon is running a beauty shop in Saluda. Mary Alice Mayfield is an artist's model.

Billy Lodge is now coach at Harvard. Calvin Hassfurther's three sons are all on his team. Mary M. Geyman is still breaking hearts—over the radio, now. And Charles Osborn forgot to quit growing and is the world's tallest man. Gilbert Winkel runs the side show he appears in. Donal McKenna is the world's champion parachutist.

Norman Smith is a junior partner of the Smith Bros. Cough-drop Co. Phyllis Gwinn's three old (horse) recently won the Kentucky Derby. Eddie Klopp, the famous gambler, won ten million on the race and retired. Frances Clarkson is the house mother at a disabled veteran's home—and does she love her work. Then there is one last, sad, case—Paul Needler got disgusted with the human race and became a hermit.—And that's what happened to the class of '42.

Class Will

We, the class of 1942, feeling a generous impulse as our school days draw to a close; and although we are in a doubtful state of mind, will declare this to be our first, last, and only will and testament.

We, the Seniors of 1942, do will the Juniors the Senior Home Room and our sponsor, Miss Sherman, hoping that they will pass both on to the Seniors of 1944 in good condition.

To the faculty we leave peace and quiet for a change—at least during summer vacation.

To the underclassmen we leave our reputation of the best basketball players, so Madison can be State Champs for a couple of years.

INDIVIDUAL WILLS

I, Alice Alcorn, do will my serene habits to Jeanette Gans, who can surely use them!

I, Virginia Baglan, bequeath my superior grades to next year's Basketball team. Straight one's too, boys!

I, Graham Bock, do will Libby Hughes to anybody having trouble finding a date next year.

I, Wilma Born, will my ski-jump nose to Herman Kasper. Adequate, Hermie?

I, William Bellamy, will my sleepy nature to Coach Eddy, for use only at Basketball games.

I, Gene Cheatham, bequeath my bicycle to Tommy Thomas, so he may get to school on time.

I, Jack Coppage, will my studious manner to "Moonie" Vawters. 'Nough said.

I, Frances Clarkson, bequeath all my soldiers to Uncle Sam. Now, we'll win the war!

I, Lucille Curtis, will my ability to get around to my sister Bunky so she'll quit following me.

I, Betty Delzell, will my dancing technique to Jack Roell. That ought to solve a lot of problems, Jitterbug!

I, Rosemary Dipper, bequeath my ability to "get response from my winks" to Betty Price. That's all you need, Betty.

I, Pat Davis, do will my skating ability to Nancy Ross.

I, George Distel, will 150 lbs. to Coach Delph. It's time you grew up, little boy!

We, Forry Douglass and June Hulett, will our consistency in going together for the past six years to Poodle and Jay-Jay.

I, Johnny Armstrong, will all my girl friends to Putt Layton. Now take your choice, son.

I, John P. Foxworthy, will the line of girls that are always chasing me to some good track man. They're fast, boy!

I, Larry Gordon, will my position as head trumpet player in the band, to anyone good enough to fill it.

I, Mary Margaret Geyman, will my nickname, "Maggie," to anyone. That's one way of getting rid of it.

I, Calvin Hussfurther, will my perpetual smile to Faye Winn. It takes less effort, Faye, since fewer muscles are used to smile than to frown.

I, Bob Hughes, bequeath my blush to my young sister Millie. Be quiet, sis!

I, Keith Hand, will my position as yell leader to Boopsy Luckett.

I, Richard Heck, will my ability to acquire plenty of money for dates to "Rat" Horton.

I, Inez Hunt, will my job at Petrakos's to someone who has a crush on Ingie.

I, Martha Kalb, will my appetite to M. M. Mills, but I'll keep the "bankrolls" for future use.

I, Markt Lytle, will my abundant supply of hair to Andy Taff. You could use it, Cue-ball.

I, Phyllis Gwinn, will my reputation as manhater to Betty Turner.

I, Betty Ann Lowe, will my nickname, "Bubbles," to Sonny Walton. I hope you like it more than I do, Sonny.

I, Bonnie Lou Lowry, do will Jimmy Bayne to Mr. Cottman, for future classes.

IND COL
373.7721
MAD

I, Alice Lynch, will my home loving habits to Bettie Johann. There's no place like home, Bettie—not even the Fiesta.

I, Bill Lodge, leave my basketball ability to George Owen. We'll need some big huskies like you next year, Joe-Bud!

I, Elizabeth Lyon, bequeath my personality plus my ability to date when and whom I please and still get straight ones to any poor, dumb wallflower.

I, Mary A. Mayfield, will my persistence in trying to thaw out Dana Winn, to anyone brave enough to take over.

I, George "Pansy" McLaughlin, leave Myrtle to the boys in general, and dare anyone to try and get her!

I, Lavon "Jerk" McClure, will my lady-killing technique to Dick Miller.

I, Wayne "Potsy" Montgomery, bequeath to the Madison boys all of the local girls. I, myself, prefer Lexington.

I, Paul Needler, will my mustache to Charles Humphrey, hoping to add a finishing touch to his personality.

I, Richard Pryor, will my plentiful supply of wind to next year's track team.

I, Louis Owens, will my movie enthusiasm to Matt Hoffman. That'll give you some place to go when the tires wear off your car.

I, Mary Jane Reed, bequeath my stag line—50 at the last count—to anybody that wants to take on the responsibility of that many boys.

I, Merle "Curly" Richardson, will my driving speed (and I do mean speed) to Joan Holsclaw, for use when she gets the Crosley.

I, Audrey Thomas, leave my very, very, bashful manner to Suzanne Thomas.

I, Selma Turner, will my Kate Smith voice to Mary Beth Ashby.

I, Norma Scheser, do will my dislike of boys to Corrine Lyon.

I, Mary Jane Corbin, will my skating ability to Senator Horton.

I, Donal McKenna, bequeath my superior pool playing talent to Bill Standerford. Now you can be a "shark," too, "Stinky"!

I, Charles McNimery, will the Hanover Confec. to the Madison jitterbugs. I'll keep Wilma, though, boys.

I, Fred Norris, leave my quiet manners to Bill Cranford. What a relief!

I, Charles Osborn, do will my giant stature to "Beans" Holsclaw.

I, Arthur Schafer, will my nickname "Dodo" to Libby Hughes.

I, Norman Smith, bequeath Winnie back to Ingie Petrakos.

I, Irvin Stoner, leave my address book to anyone who can't get a date in Madison.

I, Joe Toomey, will my voice to Jimmy Bersch.

I, Betty Vaughn, do will my blonde hair to Alda Lee Carnahan.

I, Rogers Walker, bequeath my scientific brain to Bill Sauley. Carry on, big boy.

I, Margie Ryker, will my ticklefishness to Betty Turner.

I, Jack Wilson, bequeath a Louisville address to anyone who has tires to get there.

I, Jannie Mae Handlon, will my constant companionship with "Daisy Mae" Martin, to Turk Klein. That'll be a change from the Bill's, Daisy.

I, Edward Klopp, will my constant smile to Aldean Alford. Use it a little, Aldean.

I, Gilbert Winkel, will my proficient (?) driving to Nancy Ross. At least I don't strip the gears, Nancy.

I, Rosemary Faught, will my sisters to all the college boys who insist on having a Faught.

I, Dana Winn, will my bachelor status to Tommy McKay. We've got to have one woman hater after I leave, Tommy.

I, Raymond Wolf, bequeath my out of town girl friends to Ronald Kelly. You'll have to buy the gas, though, Ronnie.

IT WITNESS WHEREOF, we hereby affix our seal this twenty-second day of May in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-two.

The Senior Play

On April 21, the Seniors presented for their class play the mystery farce entitled "One Mad Night." It was a three act production full of action and thrills.

The Story centered around Don Cutter, a young playwright who had retreated on an old mansion to complete his latest "brainstorm" in peace and quiet.

The mansion was a supposedly haunted shelter in which a number of murders had been committed. After a few uncomfortable encounters with "Ghosts," Don discovered that because of a fire on the previous evening, Dr. Bunn had temporarily brought a number of harmless but insane inmates to the mansion for shelter.

After a thrilling rescue of Lucille, a beautiful inmate subjected to persecution, Don aided in the capture of an escaped murderer, and the play came to an hilarious climax.

Juniors

In the fall of 1941, after struggling through two years as underclassmen, we found ourselves juniors with a superior grin for every little freskie.

Enthusiastically we set about to accomplish the usual objective of every Junior Class—to raise funds for the Junior-Senior Prom. We surprised not only our schoolmates but also ourselves in that we reached our quota before the close of the second six weeks. A supernatural phenomenon!

We rolled all our social festivities into one big Autumn Hop. We displayed our super-salesmanship by selling magazines, schedule pencils, and ice cream.

Taff, Black, and Miller, varsity members, represented our class in athletics, and the junior boys won the inter-class tourney. We were represented in the school play by Mary Beth Ashby and Eugene Graves; in the fashion show by Mary Jane Hertz and Doris Kremer; and on the Madisonian staff by several members.

The school recognized our true worth by choosing from our class both president and vice president; namely, Bill Standerford and Emery Muncie.

In keeping with the spirit of national defense, we spent a portion of our class funds for defense bonds. The climax of the very successful year was the enjoyable but inexpensive prom held on May 5.

Sophomores

We sophomores feel that ours is a very determined class. We began our first year as an ambitious group and elected the following freshmen officers:

Herman Kasper	President
Jack Warren	Vice President
Lizabeth Hughes	Secretary
Mildred Hughes	Treasurer

Our sophomore year has been a successful one under the leadership of

Warren Luckett	President
Mary Nash Ross	Vice President
Janet Tharpe	Secretary-Treasurer

Although we had no varsity members in basketball we were well represented on the second team and also in track, baseball, musical organizations, and social societies.

Bob Gray, Mary Kasper, Margaret Scott, and Suzanne Thomas were our student council members.

We now look forward to being upperclassmen and intend to make our next and last two years in high school, happy and worthwhile ones.

Freshmen relations

The history of the Freshman class is very brief as yet, but before we leave Madison High School we hope to have blazed a trail of glory.

We began our Freshman year with Coach Ray Eddy and Mr. W. C. Delph, the new assistant coach and teacher, as our sponsors.

We elected the following as class officers:

President _____ Mary Margaret Mills

Vice President _____ Corrine Lyon

Secretary _____ Annabelle Manaugh

For Student Council we elected Ella Jean Evans and Kenneth Guthrie to represent us.

Because of the Government project, the Proving Ground, we gained a few new students in the Freshman Class. We are glad they are with us and hope they like our High School as much as we do.

We were proud of the fact that Corinne Lyon, chosen to represent our class, was elected by the student body as M.H.S. Queen. This is the first time in a number of years a freshman has held this honor. Our king, Clem Hoffman wasn't easy to beat!

We have representatives from our class in the band, Choral Club, and on the Second Team. A few of our members had small parts in the school play, "The Hoosier Schoolmaster."

Now as we progress on in High School, it is our sincere wish to make Madison High School as proud of us as we are of it.

The Mahisco was first published in 1916, before that date it appeared under the name "The Apothem," which was first published by the graduating class of 1895-'96.

In 1928, '29, and '30, the Mahisco was printed with leather covers. From 1933 to 1940 it appeared in mimeographed form, with the exception of 1937 when no annual appeared due to the great flood.

Miss Sherman helped with this Mahisco as she has done in other years. The staff of this year's Mahisco follows:

Student Council

The Student Council in Madison High School was organized in 1928.

The purpose of this club is to give the students representation and an opportunity to work for the best interests of the school through the combined effort of faculty and students.

The organization annually sponsors a clean-up campaign, and each week awards the banner to the home room with the highest percentage. Such things as paper in the desks or on the floor, and the general appearance of the room are among the points considered. Tardiness and unexcused absence are other items included in this campaign. By this undertaking the council hopes to arouse the student body to a greater interest in the appearance of the school.

Assembly programs are planned by the Student Council program committee.

The club lends its services to other organizations by selling tickets to various school functions.

This year the organization sponsored a campaign for new yells and songs.

Journalism

Madison's High School paper has been published under the name of the Madisonian since 1919. Before that it was published under various other names, one of which was the "Arrow." The Madisonian was once hand printed and has been of many different sizes.

The Madisonian is published every two weeks by the Journalism class with Miss Sherman and Mr. Reul as faculty advisors. Jack Wilson was editor of the paper this year, and for the first time there were two assistant editors instead of one.

Among social activities of the school the Madisonian did its part by sponsoring the Journalism Jump, complete with a floor show.

Industrial Arts

The Industrial Arts Club was organized to promote interest in all branches of industrial education, such as Manual Training, Arts, and Mechanics. The club promotes friendship among its members and provides a more cooperative spirit.

Shortly after school opened the club held a very enjoyable weiner roast. This year the organization sponsored the model airplane drive for the government. The annual fish fry was held this year on May 13.

Hi-Y

"Clean mind—clean thought—clean speech" are the principles for which the Hi-Y organization stands. Only boys of high caliber are admitted as members.

In the past few years this club has been quite active. In '38 the Hi-Y attended its first S.E.I. Conference. In '39 it was also represented. In '40 Madison was honored by having one of its members elected as secretary-treasurer of the conference. In '41 delegates attended conferences in Greensburg and Jeffersonville. In '42 the local Hi-Y has been inactive.

Choral Club

Composed of forty selected voices, the Choral Club added numerous laurels to its extensive record during the year. An unusually active season opened with appearances at the state convention of the King's Daughters and the district meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs, both held in Madison in October. The last of that month found a representative quota taking part in the state choral festival in Indianapolis, which was broadcast coast-to-coast by NBC. November activities were concentrated in special music for the observance of P.T.A. Founders' Day.

The holiday season brought the efforts of the group into full swing, high-lighted by the annual broadcast of Christmas carols over radio station WHAS, Louisville. Tabulated reports showed that the program was heard in nine states. Other Yule-tide programs included one at Cragmont and an appearance at midnight mass at St. Michael's church.

The entire personnel of the club aided the band in presenting the theme-song of the style show given at the Madison-Columbus game on February 10, "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody." Attired in red, white and blue, the vocalists were impressive.

Representing Madison in the Valley Choral Festival, the choristers journeyed to North Vernon in April. The festival program was radiocast by remote control over WHAS.

Baccalaureate service and Commencement brought a useful close to a year of ambitious service.

Science Club

The Science Club was organized in 1936 by our science instructor, Mr. Evans W. Cottman. It was organized for the benefit of students interested in science. It is an honorary organization with membership determined by grades in the different classes in science.

During the year, due to the courtesy of the Madison Merchants, many places of interest were visited by the club. Among these was Glass' Dairy where the club was allowed to see the functions of a dairy.

Other programs of interest during the year were a talk on the testing of soil, and a talk on the testing of blood by Dr. Anna Goss Turner. Several of the students gave individual experiments.

An election held at the beginning of the year put into office the following students:

Sunshine Society

The largest and most active group in the school is the Sunshine Society.

The purpose of this club is to spread sunshine throughout the school and the community. At Thanksgiving time and at the Christmas season baskets of food are sent out to the needy families in the community. Through the Kiwanis-Sunshine Santa Claus fund, toys and candy were again given to the needy children of Madison.

As they have done in past years, the society took an active part in the distribution of Tuberculosis seals for the Jefferson County Tuberculosis Association.

The society purchased a seventy-five dollar defense bond, contributed five dollars to the Red Cross, and five dollars to the Child Welfare fund, and bought a phonograph for the use of the school.

School Calendar

Band

Comprising a personnel of fifty-two members, the band experienced a year of activity useful to both the school and community, under the direction of Mr. Rothert. At each home basketball game the band supplied music during the intermissions, and at the conclusion of each game members of the band served as a guard of honor at the outer extremities of the playing floor, helping visitors and local fans to leave in an orderly manner.

This year the band made the longest out-of-town trip in its history when it went to Greenwood to play at the Greenwood-Madison game. After the game, the local bandsmen were guests of the Greenwood band and faculty at an informal reception.

The band made a definite contribution to the national defense effort in the part it took in the Defense Rally held in February, when it headed the huge defense parade and later provided music at the rally.

At the final home basketball game the band presented a unique style show, featuring seven girls chosen from the student body to model garments provided by Madison dress shops. Reigning over the event as "Miss M.H.S." was Elizabeth Lyon, chosen by popular vote of the student body.

Spring activities of the organization included the annual benefit concert and the Band Ball, a restricted social function open only to band members and their personal guests. A full culmination of a busy year was achieved in the band's musical contribution to the commencement exercises.

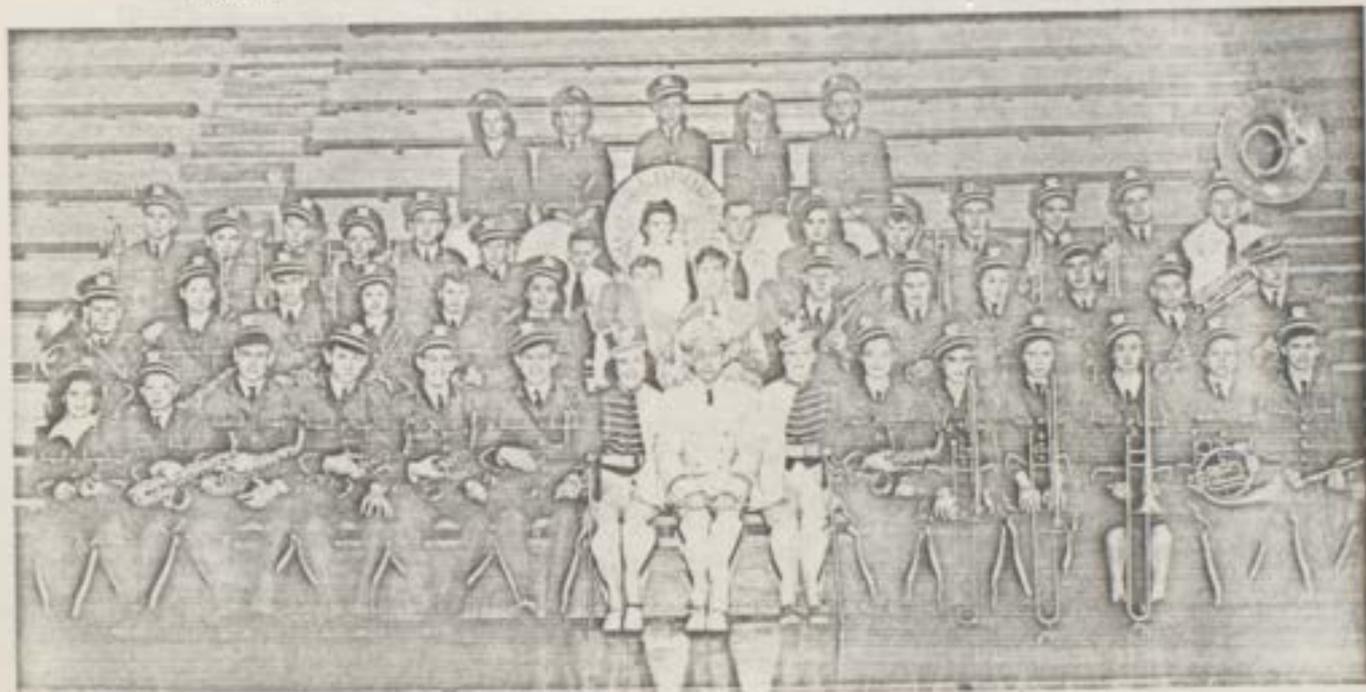

Particular mention should be accorded the band's majorettes, Mary Moffett Inglis and Bettie Johann for their brilliant twirling exhibitions at the games and for their capable maneuvering of the organization while on the march.

Coach Eddy

Madison owes a tremendous debt of gratitude to Coach Ray Eddy, who has guided the Cubs for the last three years. Mainly due to Mr. Eddy's coaching, Madison's basketball teams in the past two years have been among the very tops of Indiana basketball.

Last year's team was runner-up in the state tournament; this year's team was picked by the sports writers to win the state, and although we were eliminated in the semi-finals, the brand of ball Madison played proved their choice to be a good one. The Cubs have been defeated four times in the past two years, never losing a conference game or a game on our own floor. This impressive record is a credit to Coach Eddy in itself!

But beyond that record, we can boast of one of the cleanest teams in Indiana, of good sportsmanship in all our games. This record is also one of which we can be proud, and reflects the character of Coach Eddy.

And so, we salute a great coach and a great man—Mr. Ray Eddy!

Yell Leaders

When the M.H.S. basketball team of '41 and '42 is spoken of in the future, the names of yell leaders Keith Hand, Betty Turner, and Bill Klein will be mentioned—but not casually.

These "go get "" yell leaders, backed by a sportsmanlike Madison crowd, was a deciding factor to the Cub cause. These three added strength to victories and a "silver lining" to Madison's only two defeats.

Newcomer Betty Turner added zest to the heretofore "all man" yell leading. Veterans Bill and Keith improved old yells and introduced several snappy new section yells which clicked perfectly.

Bill and Betty will probably lead a new Madison team to many victories next year. Keith will leave an empty place in the ranks of yell leaders as he is a '42 graduate.

General Review

Our Team

When a fine group of ball players, backed by a superb coach, finish a season they will usually leave behind a record such as the one left by Coach Ray Eddy and the Madison Cubs in the past '41-'42 basketball season.

The Cubs opened the season by handing Corydon a 32-24 beating on the Brown Gym floor. The Eddymen then swept on through a seven game winning streak smothering Vevay, North Vernon, Scottsburg, Greenwood, Lawrenceburg, and Salem in their stride. The Cubs then journeyed to a non-conference game at Jeffersonville where they suffered their first loss of the season.

On January 1st the Crimson retained their championship title over the annual New Year's Day blind tourney between Madison, Aurora, Lawrenceburg, and North Vernon. The Cubs first defeated the Lawrenceburg Tigers 45-30 in the afternoon game. The North Vernon Panthers outpointed the Aurora Red Devils by a bare 37-36 and then succumbed to the Cubs 31-18 in the night encounter.

The Cubs coasted through the remainder of the season adding 11 more victories including a 33-20 trouncing of the highly touted Columbus Bulldogs.

The Madison boys then entered the Sectional Tournament and with little trouble outscored the Saluda Lions, the Scottsburg Scotties, the Lexington Minutemen, and in the final game romped over Anstin 46-15.

After engaging the Greensburg Pirates and beating them, the Cubs then proceeded to overwhelm easily the Franklin Grizzlies in the finals of the Shelbyville Regional Tournament after the Grizzlies had sunk a strong Columbus team.

The Eddymen closed their season in the first game of the Semi-Finals at Anderson when they dropped a 30-29 last minute decision to the Crawfordsville Athenians. Crawfordsville went on to win the Semi-Finals by trouncing Lawrence Central. In the final game, Aurora was beaten by Central in a closely contested afternoon game.

Captain Bill Lodge, who proved to be Madison's biggest scoring threat, along with Graham Bock, Calvin Hassfurder, Wayne Montgomery, Gene Cheatham, Norman Smith, and Johnny Armstrong will drop from the Cubs' list this year through Graduation.

Sectional Tournament

With a minimum amount of difficulty Madison's Cubs coasted through the Sectional Tournament for the first step of the "State Championship Staircase."

Saluda's Lions fought to the gun against the Cubs in the initial game but were no match for the Eddymen. Captain Bill Lodge looked best for the red and white with fifteen of Madison's 56. Hutsell led the Lions with 10 out of 16.

Following the Madison-Saluda fray the Paris Crossing Pirates pulled away from the Dupont Red Devils in the last six minutes to pull down the heavy end of a 27-21 score.

In their second encounter the Cub pack bested Scottsburg, their traditional tourney enemies, 47-20. The Lexington Minutemen disposed of Deputy 40-20 Friday afternoon and went on to trounce Paris Crossing 62-26 in the night encounter. Perkinson hit for 23 points for the Manaughman. Austin battled the Central Wildcats to a 32-34 victory in the second game Friday. North Madison's Tigers led the Hanover Bulldogs 37-31 at the gun in the "scrappiest" game of the tournament.

The Cubs set back Coach Charles (Poodle) Managh's Lexington Minutemen 40-23 Saturday afternoon. The Minutemen turned in one of the finest performances of the Sectional tournament and are to be congratulated for three well played, well-coached tourney games.

Austin edged out North Madison in this session, the scores at the end of each period being 8-2, 15-5, 22-17, and 28-24.

The crimson and white registered an easy 46-15 win over the Austin Eagles Saturday night to wind up the Sectional. Lodge, Taff, Smith, Black, and Montgomery hit the net in the first period while Kelly flipped in a one-hander for the Eagles' lone first period two pointer. The second and third quarters ended 24-7 and 31-10—Madison. Smith turned in a brilliant combination defensive-offensive work at guard.

It was the last game in which the seven Senior boys appeared on the home floor, but each one contributed his share in enabling the Cubs to win the sectional tourney of 1942.

Regional

Coach Ray Eddy's Madison Cubs, playing in top form, rolled over Franklin in the finals of the I.H.S. A.A. Regional Tournament at Shelbyville, March 7, after fighting off a superb challenge by Greensburg's Pirates in the afternoon session. Franklin showed unusual strength in the second game of the afternoon by setting back a favored Columbus quintet 31-29 in an overtime period. Final scores were—Madison 32, Greensburg 29; Franklin 31, Columbus 29; Madison 40, Franklin 18.

In the Pirate-Cub tilt, Smith started the action, hitting one out of two charity tosses. The Eddymen then piled up a comfortable lead which lasted up to the final quarter. In this quarter Klene and Martin snared a basket apiece. Martin then left the game on fouls but Klene hit another long to make the score 28-26. As Madison's Montgomery left the game, Demoss hit a free throw to make it 28-27. Eineman then put the Pirates in the lead with a follow up shot. The Cubs then moved calmly down the floor. Cheatham smoothly hit from center to pull the game off the coals, and a minute later Lodge made good a follow-up attempt to set the Cubs ahead by 3 points at the gun.

The surprise of the day occurred when an underrated Franklin five backed by a strong defense took an early lead and in an overtime period with a goal by Logston and free throws by Graham and Crowe out-scored the Columbus Bulldogs 31-29.

Lodge and Cheatham started the firework in the night encounter with a field goal apiece after a Franklin guard hit the net. Lodge went on to hit for 9 points and Taff gained three field goals before the gun was fired at the half. The Jefferson county boys led at each quarter respectively 6-3, 19-6, 29-15, and 40-18. Lodge was high point man of the tourney making 12 in the first and 17 in the final game for a 29 total tourney score.

By reigning over the Shelbyville sectional, the Madison Cubs won the right to play Crawfordsville in the Semi-Finals held in Anderson, March 14, 1942.

Semi-Finals

The Madison Cubs' magnificent drive toward the I.H.S.A.A. basketball championship was cut short at the Anderson Semi-Finals as they lost a heart-breaking 30-29 decision to Coach Charles Cumming's Crawfordsville Athenians.

Brilliant performances by Andy Taff and Bill Lodge kept Eddy's Cubs in the ball game up to the final 50 seconds of play. Lodge, after being held scoreless in the first quarter, came out fighting after the first gun and bombed the basket for five field goals and a foul shot. Taff looped in four fielders and two charities. Cheatham and Miller completed the Crimson's scoring with two two-pointers apiece.

In the last fatal fifty seconds, with Madison trailing one point, Black broke up an Athenian attempt to advance by picking the ball from the hands of Bill Wright and going on to score. The referee's decision charged Black with a foul and Wright converted the winning one pointer. The Jefferson County boys dropped in three of nine gift shots while the Athenians scored eight out of thirteen. Two of the Cubs foul shots rolled off the hoop in the last few seconds of play.

Wright turned out to be Crawfordsville's biggest threat as he marked up 12 points to his personal record. Hybarger also turned in remarkable offensive work.

After trailing the Aurora Red Devils at the third gun, the Lawrence Central Bears, with a sudden attack, blasted the Devils from the tourney by a 38-36 margin. The same battling Bruins succumbed 42-38 to Crawfordsville in the final night encounter.

Interclass Basketball

The interclass tournament was held in the Brown Memorial Gymnasium in the second week of October.

The Sophomores and Freshmen started hostilities, the latter losing 30-4. In the same session the Juniors bested a fighting Senior five in a close 10-8 contest.

The next night the Seniors opened against the Freshmen, trouncing them 34-9. The Sophs then engaged the Juniors in a heated final battle. Led by Horace Black the Juniors finally overcame the flashy Sophomores 20-9.

Coaches for each team were picked from the varsity squad. Eugene Cheatham and Bill Lodge refereed the games.

Each member of the champion Junior team received a miniature gold basketball.

Second Team

Under the direction of William Delph, former Indiana University track star, the Junior Cubs enjoyed a good season with twelve victories in nineteen starts. The Cubbies encountered three overtime games this year, and came out on top once. The team won over such outstanding teams as Corydon, Lawrenceburg, Salem, Jeffersonville, Greensburg, etc.

The starting five during the season shifted to many different boys, but the following had the majority of starts. Bill Standerford, Tommy McKay, Herman Kasper, Bob Wallace, Bill Klein.

Kasper led the scoring brigade this year with Standerford, Bill Horton, Klein, Wallace, following in that order.

Seven boys will be chosen for next year's varsity team, and with this abundant material, the Cubs should enjoy another successful season.

First Row—Bill Horton, Herman Kasper, Bob Horton, Bill Roell, Ingram Petrskos, Charles Maddox.

Tennis

The bracketmen copped the conference championship again this year and by virtue of their triumph they received a trophy. Wayne Montgomery, Dick Miller, Tommy Thomas, and Bill Standerford were the outstanding letter men. The Hodgersmen lose "Potsy" Montgomery by graduation this year. Wayne defeated Dick Miller and was awarded the title of city champion.

Track

Many boys turned out for track and those pictured below were chosen for Delphmen. The Cubs lose two outstanding veterans, Keith Hand and Louis Owens by graduation. Hand was known for his hurdling ability and Owens was known for his broad jumping and running dashes. Other veterans are, Dick Miller, Bill Standerford and Richard Heck, who is also a senior. Because of the graduation of these seniors, the Delphmen will experience a real loss in '43, but their places will no doubt be filled by newcomers in the various track events.

First Row—Tommy Thomas, Ingram Petrakos, Keith Hand, Rogers Walker, Charles Maddox, Charles Cole.
 Second Row—Jack Coppage, Sondley Littrell, Bill Standerford, Don McKenna, Horace Black, William C. Delph, coach.
 Third Row—Warren Luckett, Bill Cranford, Richard Heck, Dick Miller, Nathan Mayfield, Louis Owens.

One of the major embarrassments to which lectures are submitted is the audience's looking at their watches. I once asked John Erskine if, in his lectures, he found the ordeal particularly trying.

"No," he replied, "not until they start shaking them!"

"No, I don't. But if I marry your daughter, I don't see how I can get out of it."
