Dedication

We, the 1947 graduating class, proudly and affectionately dedicate this Mabisco to our parents and teachers to whom we owe everything. It is through their proper guidance, staunch persistence, and untiring efforts that we have successfully completed our high school course—the first major step of our education.

We know that we can never repay them for what they have done for us; thus we dedicate this annual to them, as our pledge that we shall strive earnestly to fulfill their highest expectations.

Mr. Muncie

"Tomorrow's leaders are in today's classrooms," is a very truthful statement. All of your life you have been growing, learning, discovering and participating in many activities. Your main idea has been to get ready to function in a progressive society. However, progress is based upon intelligent leadership and upon an intelligent citizenry. You have arrived when many serious world problems need to be solved. You will have the joy of participating in one of the greatest world programs yet to be presented. Our wishes go with the class of '47 and trust that their actions will lead to the establishment of democratic principles and government throughout the world.

Mr. Salm

A farmer had an old blind horse which had outlived its usefulness. One day the horse fell into a well and the farmer found him there, standing knee-deep in the water. There was no way to get him out, and as both the horse and well were useless, the farmer decided to fill the well up and leave the horse buried in it.

He shovelled dirt into the well as rapidly as he could. But the horse was not ready to be buried alive. When dirt began to pour in on him, he shook it off and kept treading on the dirt under his feet. Gradually the well filled up and the horse, at the same time, rose higher until he was able to step out and walk away to the pasture.

That is true of everybody. None of us can be buried under our discouragements and worries unless we are willing to be.

It is to be hoped that your high school education has proved this vital fact to you. Most of you have had discouragements and worries in the last four years, and you will have many of them in your future lives. If your high school education has been able to prove to you the truthfulness and sincerity of this statement—no one can be buried under his discouragements unless he is willing to be—then it has gone a long way toward helping prepare you to meet life's many problems which will try to bury you.

It is our sincere hope that each and every member of this class of 1947 has been able to incorporate this bit of wisdom into his philosophy of life.

—Principal C. K. Salm.

FRESHMEN

With faltering and hesitant steps, typical of freshmen, we passed through the welcoming doors of M. H. S. in the fall of 1945. After being informed of the general procedure we held an election in which the following officers were chosen:

President	John Hoffman
Vice-President	Robert Clegg
Secretary	Theresa Kasper
Treasurer	Charles Orrill

Expressing our views on the Student Council were Patricia Bersch and Phil Kahn.

Although the upperclassmen saw to it that the term "green" followed us wherever we ventured, we began to take an active interest in many school functions.

We swelled with pride when Marianna Johann and Bill Moorhead were elected queen and king of M. H. S. They were the first freshmen in many years to attain this honor.

The cast for the school play, The Home Front, included one of our fellow classmates, Carolyn Schnaitter.

The dignity of the class was upheld by our athletes who participated in such sports as track, baseball, football, and basketball.

SOPHOMORE

The following year we shed our coats of green and became "Sophs." After electing Charles Grooms, Wanda Tanksley, and Priscilla Eckert, as class officers, we chose Phyllis Strong, Bill Moorhead, Carolyn Schnaitter, Charles Orrill, Marianna Johann, and Frank Armstrong to represent us on the Student Council. We wasted no time in proving that we were outstanding students. For having above average grades and a major letter in sports Frank Armstrong, Bill Moorhead, and Jimmy Landry received Interscholastic medals.

This year our theatrical talent was displayed by Bob Clegg and Charles Orrill in the school play.

To bring our sophomore year to an end we sponsored a pencil sale to supply us with a little money in preparation for the next year's prom.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR YEARS

Having become accustomed to the ways of the high school we entered our junior year which was in all respects filled with more fun, excitement, and work than the previous ones. Realizing that such busy and important people as juniors should have expert guidance we elected the following class officers: Pat McDonald, president; Bob Gray, vice-president; Virginia Klopp, secretary; Paul Conklin, treasurer; Judy Wingham, Theresa Kasper, Bob Clegg, and Bob Cheatham served as Student Council representatives.

Success was achieved in various ways by members of the class. Theresa Kasper and Ruth Irwin were major participants in the school play, Mountain House Mystery.

Georganna Gray and Lloyd Risk were chosen by the student body as cheer leaders.

The juniors were not only Interclass Basketball Champs but also boasted five first team members—Bill Moorhead, Phil Kahn, Bob Clegg, Jimmy Landry, and Robert Cheatham.

The outstanding occasion of the year was the Gay Nineties Prom, which was worth all of the time and effort given by the class.

One might think that juniors were too busy to be interested in many outside functions; this, however, was not true as all of the extra curricular activities received much of their support from third-year-students.

Although we approached our fourth year with a great deal of pride, it was with some sadness that we realized our days as M. H. S. students were soon to end.

The presiding officers who were chosen for this final year were Frank Armstrong, Charles Orrill, Patricia Bersch, and Shirley Faught. Elected to voice the opinions of the seniors in the Student Council were Rosamond Scott, Jimmy Landry, Charles Chowning, Priscilla Eckert, and Bob Clegg.

Supported by seniors Bob Clegg, Bill Moorhead, Jimmy Landry, Phil Kahn, and Oscar Tullis, the Cubs won many victories.

Georganna Gray was again honored by being elected to lead the cheering students.

We were quite proud of our talent expressed in the school plays by Virginia Klopp, Freddie Buchanan, Carolyn Schnaitter, Barbara Ketterman, Priscilla Eckert, Frank Armstrong, Pat McDonald, Bette Cole, and Coburn Jackson.

Among the members of our senior class many were officers in various organizations such as S. S. S., Hi-Y, Science Club, G. A. A., Band, and the Choral Club.

These students have proved to us, as they will to the world, that they are fit and progressive leaders.

Some of the varied tasks which filled our "finem annum" were selecting cap and gowns, announcements, class colors, presenting our Class Day program and the outstanding dramatic achievement, Shrubbery Hill, and editing the Mahisco.

Bidding adieu to our o'd Alma Mater we left with high hopes to find our places in the world.

Class Will

I, Frank Armstrong, bequeath my Pork Pie Hat to Emmett Kelly. Now, when a big wind comes up, Kelly, just put it on and you won't blow away.

I, Mary Lou Bennett, (although I hate to do it) leave my large circle of friends at Hanover College, particularly the male sex, to my younger sister, Emma Jean. We're counting on you to uphold the family tradition.

I, Bill Bilz, will my large bank account and job at the shoe factory to my friend, Leon Cheatham. How about negotiating a loan, Ed?

I, Bob Cheatham, better known as Cheato, pass on my position as All Star Forward on the famous Monsters Intramural Team to our two remaining players, Dick Thorpe and Tommy Nichols. Keep up the good work fellows!

I, Chazz Chowning, will my high I. Q. concerning the principle of radio to Vince Goebel. (Goebel sings a nice "Turkey in the Straw" on the radio.)

I, Bob Clegg, will my love to argue American Problems questions with Mr. Salm to Paul Goebel. (We're betting you two to one you don't win an argument.)

I, Bette Cole, leave my desire to uphold women's rights to anyone in high school, girl, that is, who doesn't care to be shoved around by cave men.

I, Mary Cosby, bequeath my interest in the famous North Town Tigers to Central High School. You might as well, Mary, they have it any way.

I, Charles Eaglin, will my ability to skip out of assemblies without getting caught to Lot Turner. Brother, for goodness sake, don't get caught. You'll be in the tardy room for the rest of your high school career.

I, Pat Bersch, leave my habit of never missing a day of school to my younger sister Donna Jean. Come to think, Andy does leave for college about school time every morn.

I, Georgetta Earls, will my slender shape to all the students of M. H. S. who have large appetites.

I, Pris Eckert, bequeath my small feet to Rita Stolte. "Nuff said."

I, Shirl Faught, will my ability to use fifty-cent words in Civics class to Janet Kestner. (It sounds as if you were intelligent Shirl, but we know better than that.)

I, Louis Garlinghouse, will my half interest in the Red Star Pool Room to George Buchman. You'll be in the chips from now on.

I, George Gray, better known as "Pig Nye," leave my bowling ability, like the famous Clarence Albert to Kathleen Peddie. Now you'll get some of those dream scores, Cass.

I, Bob Gray, leave my nice, curly, black hair to Seando Schnaitter. Oh well, you can't play basketball looking like a music lover.

I, Joann Haak, (known hereabouts as Maudie) leave my "Specs," dog gone 'em, to Joann Short. I can see Bill's face now.

I, Erta Belle Helton, bequeath my ability to make out with "those syncopatin' rhythms" in band practice to Maxine Bever.

I, John Hoffman, have nothing to leave, all my brothers are gone; I am the last one to graduate. Who would like to have my car? Don't rush, morons, its a trap. We've been trying to get rid of that junk pile for the last three years.

I, Bob Hoffman, will my brand new, shiny '46 Plymouth to Jim Craig. Now you can save the money spent on the City Bus and buy gas for the car instead.

I, Margaret Inglis, will my ability to get lost on the Ohio River to Jane Ann Knoebel. When she sees some of those handsome Coast Guardsmen coming to her rescue, she'll be glad she got lost.

I, Ruth Irwin, will my ability for safe driving to Mary Frances Hill. Now, Mary, perhaps Clem will let you drive.

I, Marianna Johann, will that horrible nickname of "Fats," (originated by the great Phil Kahn) to Mary Frances Hill. Now, I can laugh at you.

Class Will—continued

I, Coburn Jackson, leave my ability to sleep peacefully through shorthand and bookkeeping class to Don McCauley. Remember, buddy, no matter how much noise they make just concentrate and you can do it.

I, Theresa Matilda Kasper, bequeath my middle name Matilda to any girl who would like to have it. Gosh, I sure hate to part with it.

I, Phil Kahn, will my Junior-G-Man badge and membership in the Dick Tracy Club to Ronnie Irwin. Remember, Ronnie, always get your woman!

I, Barbara Ketterman, leave my four years experience in the Choral Club and my ability to handle Mr. Rothert to Mary Jane Sauley.

I, Bill Kiser, will all my gay suspenders and loud socks, to Jack "Hoghead" Wallace. Yes sir, you should be the mischief in those, Jack.

I, Virginia Klopp, leave my studious ways, and excellent marks to Nancy Joyce. You're awfully sweet, Nancy, and I'm sure you can carry on with no trouble.

I, James Landry, will my ability to sell Mahiscos to one Cedric Klein. Now go in and put that high pressure salesmanship on them, Cedric.

I, Bill Lohrig, leave my paper agency to Louis Dalhover. You can give the orders from now on, Louis.

I, Joann Melton, bequeath my ability to stay away from high school wolves as long as I did to Dorothy Rowlett. You'll be needing some of that ability, we think, Dot.

I, Bill Moorhead, leave my famous one-hand push shot to Donald Hummel. Yes sir, I can hear those nets singing now.

I, Pat McDonald, will all my troubles with the Madisonian and the sweating over the Mahisco, and a supply of Alka-Seltzer to Mary Ann Vincent. Such worries you have never had!

I, Nancy McKay, (known well in Scottsburg) will all my knowledge of the famous "Star Light," just outside of Scottsburg to my younger partner, Norma Overstreet. Say, Norma, with all that brain food we think you would make a hit with the Warriors from Scott County.

I, Virginia Colleen Olmstead, bequeath my golden locks to Jane Twineham. We won't hear anyone calling Jane, "Matchstick Red" from now on will we, Jane?

I, Charles Orrill, leave my nickname of "Dead Eye" to brother Eddie. Now when you go night hunting Ed, you'll come home with the coons.

I, Suzanna Peddie, bequeath my will power to keep away from lipstick as long as I did to all underclassmen and on-coming Freshies who think it will make them more popular. Believe me, you don't need the stuff!

I, Bernice Rusk, will my large "bunny rabbit mittens" to Oodie Johnson. You can keep Tuck Cheatham warmer on those hay rides now, Oodie.

I, Carolyn Schnaitter, bequeath all my worries, wails, and jobs in Madison High School to any two people who think they can handle them. It did keep my waist slim, running around all the time.

I, Rosamond Scott, will my nickname "No-Sox" to Frances Foxworthy. Now all the boys will be chasing you and remember, Francie, don't run too fast.

I, Oscar Tullis, leave my four years experience in the tardy room to Jimmie Green. Don't let it get you down, Jim, after the first three years you get used to it.

I, Richard Vaughn, will my title as director of the Hi-Y hat and coat check to Kenny Lee. You can really knock down on the dough now, Herbie.

I, Alene Zapp, (better half of the twins, I think) will my ability to set a good example for my twin sister, Nadine, to Helen Vincent. Keep that big sister of yours in hand.

I, Nadine Zapp, will my ability to look like my twin sister to Harry and Richard Hill .

I, Allen Stewart, will my scientific ability to next year's chemistry class. With my example as your "guiding star" how can any of you fail to make straight 1's?

I, Fred Buchanan, will my "man of the world ways" to Tom Davis. Carry on from there, Tom.

I, Stanley Vawter, will my popularity with the Madison Police to Chuck Gautier. Whenever you get hauled in, Chuck, just tell them you know me, and you'll get the best cell in the jail.

I, James McConnell, will my bookkeeping ability to Junie Burkhardt. Now you can make Mrs. Reul proud of you, Junie.

I, Gail Sample, leave my southern accent to Carolyn Scott. You can really slay the boys now, Carolyn.

I, Joe Winkel, will my high grades in the commercial course to Tuck Cheatham. Give it your best, Tucker.

I, Kenneth Guthrie, will my large repertoire of songs to Mr. Rothert for the Choral Club. Now, you won't have to sing "The Deaf Old Woman" at every performance.

Juniors

Entering high school in the fall of 1944, we elected Mary Ann Vincent, president, and Caroline Lynch, secretary-treasurer to lead us in our freshman year. Our Student Council representatives were Mary Frances Hill and Bob Houze. Bill Bear gave a splendid performance in the school play, Happy Landings. Six of our members held positions on the second basketball team.

As sophisticated sophomores, we chose Mildred Johnson, Bob Knoebel, and JoAnn Short as our class officers. Bill Bear, Bonnie Hugeback, Norma Vestal and George Wesbecker expressed our views as members of the Student Council. Bob Beetem obtained a role in the school play, Mountain House Mystery. Jack Server and Harold Muncie upheld our athletic skill by making the varsity basketball team.

This, our junior year, has indeed been an extremely busy and successful one.

Our class officers were Caroline Lynch, president; Jack Server, vice-president; Donna Cottrell, secretary; and Bonnie Hugeback, treasurer. Raymond Green, Nancy Joyce, Wilma Eades, and Harry Hill represented our class in the Student Council.

We boast of having several members on both of the basketball teams. Harold Muncie, Raymond Green, Jack Server, and Tom Cheatham are members of the varsity and John Kasner and Kenneth Lee have positions on the second team. The juniors were declared the champions of the Interclass Tourney.

To raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom we sold schedule pencils and had the annual magazine drive.

Having enjoyed three successful years in M. H. S., we are looking forward enthusiastically to our senior year.

Sophomores

Nineteen forty-five was the year we entered the halls of M. H. S. As is usually the case, we were a very "green" but determined group of freshmen. It was our ambition to prove to others, as well as to ourselves, that we were worthy of having our names remembered as a credit to M. H. S.

In our beginning year we sought guidance from our president, Jr. D. Monroe. To assist him we chose Eddie Orrill. They led us through a very exciting, although not too eventful year. Marilyn Demaree represented us in the field of dramatics with an excellent performance in The Mountain House Mystery, and our athletes "held high the torch" in all sports.

Our athletic ability was shown in Jr. D. Monroe who advanced to the varsity, and the following members of the second team: Jim Werbe, Eddie Orrill, and John Cain.

Again this year we raised a "crop" of actors and actresses shown by our representatives in the school plays. In the Lucky Accident, appeared Frances Foxworthy. The Christmas Rose contained in its cast Joanna Sherman and Bill Haines. We were represented by Peggy Bunton and Mary Jane Sauley upon the roster of Stoney's Brides.

To direct our functions for the year we chose as officers:

Jim Werbe	President
Chuck Gautier	Vice President
Peggy Bunton	Secretary
Eddie Orrill	Treasurer

Our Student Council members were Marilyn Demaree, Mary Jane Sauley, Jr. D. Monroe, and John Cain.

Nor will we stop with these memories of the past, for in recalling them we resolve to fulfill our ambition in the two years yet to come.

Freshmen

"Hey freshman," we were hailed when we entered the portals of M. H. S. in September of 1946.

Although we were not yet accustomed to the ways of high school life, we elected a very efficient staff of officers including Donald McCauley as president, Minerva Crozier, vice president; Joan Hoffman, secretary; and Kathleen Peddie, treasurer.

We soon learned that high school was a very democratic place where the students had a voice in many of the things that were carried on by the school. To give our opinions on such matters we chose Mary Alice Hill and Jimmie Green as Student Council representatives.

No class could have been prouder to have a member chosen for yell leader than ours was when David Long secured this position.

Our dramatic talent was displayed by Mary Alice Hill and Joan Hoffman, who had parts in the school plays.

Freshmen—continued

We freshies were not without athletes. Don McCauley, Edward, "Bardo" Cheat-ham, Jimmie Green, and Spencer "Scando" Schnaitter played on Coach Manaugh's second team.

It didn't take long for us to become adjusted to the ways of this institution of higher learning and soon many ninth grade students were taking part in such extra-curricular activities as Sunshine Society, G. A. A., and intramural basketball.

We also boasted a number of Band, Choral Club and Glee Club members.

At the beginning of the second semester several new students crossed the threshold of M. H. S. and became a part of the student body.

They made their home in the assembly with the rest of the freshmen and the same officers served both 9A's and 9B's.

Many of these new freshies took a ready interest in the school activities. We have great expectations for them in the future.

ROW I—Billy G. Miller, Tommy Ryker, Benny Goins, Ted Server, Charles Kloss, Gerald Frazier, Charles Van Wye.

Mahisco Staff

Through the efforts and abilities of the Senior Class and the able guidance given them by their co-operative advisor, Miss Sherman, this 1947 Mahisco was produced. The local Democrat Printing Company was very helpful to the staff, as well as doing the printing of the annual. Engravings were done by the Bush-Krebs Company of Louisville, Kentucky, and Leslie O. White was the photographer.

The members of the senior class wish to take this opportunity to extend their most sincere thanks to the advertisers and subscribers of the yearbook, and to any others who assisted in any way in the organization and production of this 1947 Mahisco.

The Mahisco staff was:

Co-Editors: Pat McDonald, Frank Armstrong.

Business Managers: Pat Bersch, Shirley Faught.

Advertising Managers: Phil Kahn, Bob Cheatham, Mary Cosby, Charles Orrill, and Priscilla Eckert.

Circulation Managers: Jim Landry, Theresa Kasper, Nancy McKay, Bernice Rusk.

Madisonian Staff

No high school is complete without some means of informing the students of current happenings about the school and giving them a voice in affairs. For this purpose, the Madisonian made its initial appearance as a six by eight weekly paper in 1919. The popularity of this paper caused it to develop rapidly and gradually it became the sixteen inch, five column, periodical which we read today.

The present circulation of the Madisonian is approximately five hundred copies bi-monthly. In addition to the students, faculty, and townspeople, many alumni and servicemen are included in the subscription list.

The motto of the Madisonian—"To Print Your Name Will Be Our Aim"—has been very faithfully carried out by the members of this year's journalism class, who serve as reporters, as well as by the editorial staff.

The Madisonian staff for this year was the following:

Co-Editors: Marianna Johann, Pat McDonald.

Assistant Editors: Mary Ann Vincent, Bonnie Hugeback.

Sports Editors: Kenneth Lee, Thomas Cheatham, Graham Taylor.

Business Managers: Norma Overstreet, Norma Harding.

Reporters: Members of the journalism class.

Faculty Advisors: Opal E. Sherman, George V. Reul.

Student Council

The Student Council, as its name suggests, is the all-student organization formed for the purpose of discussing problems which arise and promoting the welfare of the school through the voice of the student body. The council is composed of selected representatives from each home room. During the past year, this group has functioned in many ways to benefit the school as a whole. Members have served on the Civic committee, which has conducted a clean-up campaign in the various rooms; a program committee has secured many interesting speakers and entertainers for the general assembly programs. Student Council members have assisted in the efficiency with which the sectional tournament was carried on, as well as officiating at all home games this year.

The officers of the Student Council this year were:

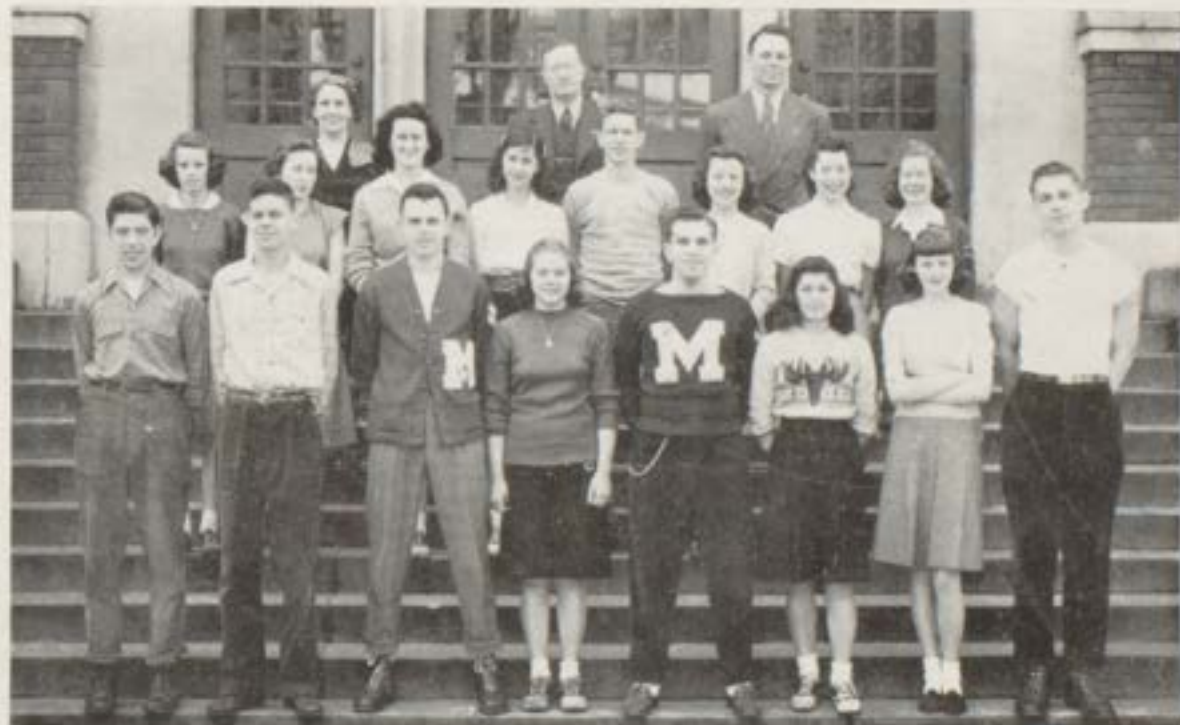

President	Raymond Green
Vice President	Nancy Joyce
Secretary	Rosamond Scott

ROW I—Donald Hummel, Harry Hill, Robert Clegg, Emma Jean Bennett, James Landry, Rosamond Scott, Norma Harding, Raymond Green.

ROW III—Norvella Wallace, Maxine Willey, Mrs. Carpenter, Laura A. Mills, Minerva Crozier, Martha J. Manaugh, Marian Cofield, Carmethia Tullis, Mary Jane Souley, Peggy Bunton, Sue Davison, Margaret Inglis.

ROW IV—Mary Helen Crozier, Vivian Schiphorst, Mary J. Poddie, Theresa Kasper, Mary F. Hill, Mary Jo Dattilo, Norma Burkhardt, Mary Kay White, Janet Kestner.

ROW V—Mary A. Ackerman, Wilma Eades, Marjorie Wilson.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association of Madison High School is one of the most popular of the girls' extra-curricular activities. Sponsor of the group is Mrs. Carpenter.

The officers elected to serve for the year 1946-47 are:

President	Wilma Eades
Vice President	Theresa Kasper
Secretary	Mary Jane Beetem
Treasurer	Marian Cofield

The organization is divided into six teams which meet on different nights of the week to engage in such sports as basketball, volleyball, and softball.

The annual G. A. A. picnic was held before the close of school.

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y Club is an organization to which only those boys of high character may belong. The creed of the Hi-Y states that the club stands for clean mind, clean speech and thought, with the purpose of rendering service to the school and community.

The Hi-Y Club sponsored the coat and hat check at the basketball games this year.

Each year an award of five dollars is given to the senior boy ranking high in scholarship and character.

The Hi-Y Club has continued to grow under the capable leadership of its sponsor, Mr. Manaugh.

The officers this year were:

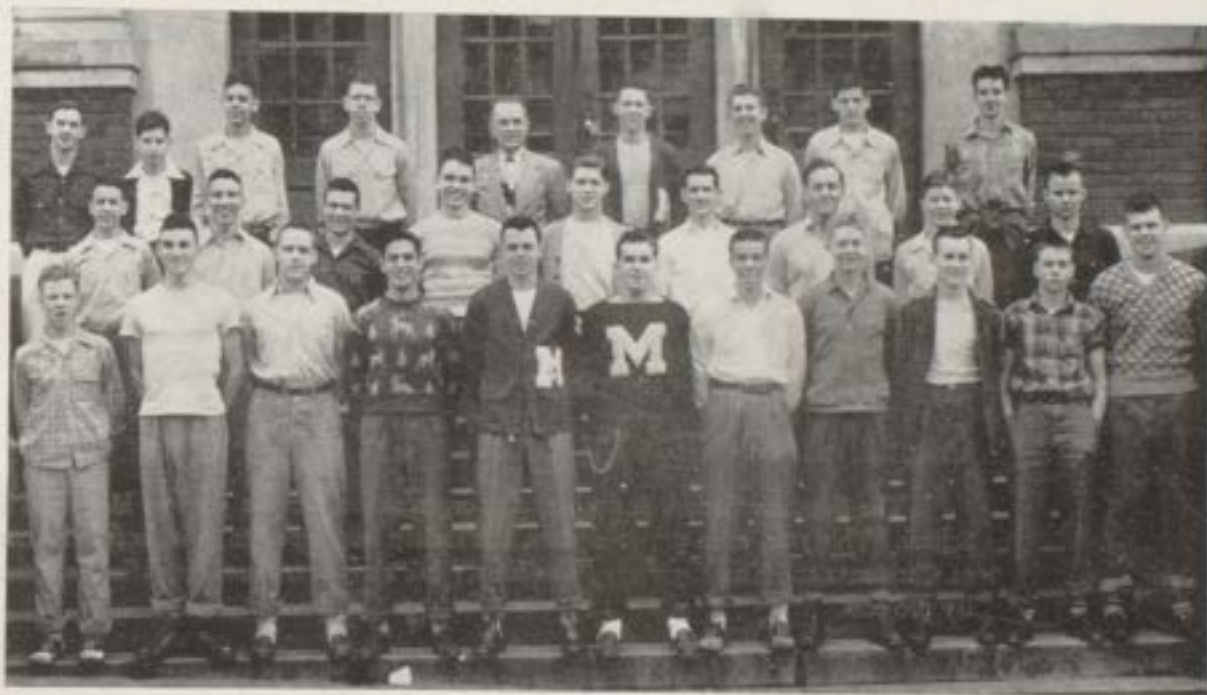

President	Robert Clegg
Vice President	Harold Muncie
Secretary	Jimmy Landry
Treasurer	Bill Bear

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club is a newly-organized club of the school this year. Its purpose is to give girls who are interested in homemaking and domestic fields a better opportunity to broaden their interests and exhibit their work. Through the efforts of this group of girls, many improvements have been made this year, not only in the Home Economics department, but in the school in general.

Bette Cole was the president of the club, and Mrs. Mabel Edwards served as sponsor.

Science Club

The Science Club was organized again this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Carpenter. Its purpose is to create more interest in science and current scientific developments.

The membership consists essentially of members of the physics and chemistry classes.

The first meeting was called on January 4, 1947, with the following officers elected:

President	Charles Orrill
Vice President	George Wolfschlag
Secretary-Treasurer	Tommy Nichols

ROW I—Carolyn Schnaitter, Nancy McKay, Bernice Rusk, Suzanna Peddie, Joann Haak, Barbara Ketterman, Virginia Klopp.

 CENTER—Miss Sherman, director.

School Plays

Contrary to customary procedure, Madison High School presented this year on December 5, three one-act plays instead of the usual one-act production. This idea was received favorably, since it gave more students an opportunity to participate in dramatics and provided a more varied evening of entertainment.

The first play, "The Lucky Accident," dealt with the perplexing problems of a typical American family, dominated by their 'teen-age daughter and her friends. A great deal of humor was provided by their troubles, even to the extent of using a member of the cast in place of an antique coffee-table.

The cast was as follows:

Claudia Kimball	Priscilla Eckert
Grace Kimball	Virginia Klopp
Douglas Kimball	Fred Buchanan
Irma Madison	Frances Foxworthy
Brian Fuller	Paul Goebel
Ed Sterling	Emmett Kelley
Mrs. Beam	Carolyn Schnaitter

As a very fitting and timely presentation, "The Christmas Rose" created an atmosphere and a feeling of good-will among the audience with its simple and truthful meaning. It gave an opportunity to philosophize on the true spirit of Christmas. This spirit of unselfish giving was ably portrayed by:

Roberta Usher	Joanna Sherman
---------------	----------------

Gladys Hamilton	Mary Alice Hill
Grandma Usher	Barbara Ketterman
Nellie	Rachel Jenkins
Harry Livingstone	Bill Haines
Gresham Stone	James Craig
The Spirit of Christmas	Joan Hoffman
Hans Johnson	Raymond Schnabel

With its unique hotel room setting, "Stoney's Brides," the third and final production, was somewhat off the beaten path of the usual type of school play. The laughable antics of the characters and the confused chain of events which formed the plot of this bewildering comedy brought howls of laughter and applause from the audience throughout the performance. Stoney, his brides, and supporting characters were enacted as follows:

Stoney Jones	Frank Armstrong
Charlie Brown	Coburn Jackson
Nancy Smith	Peggy Bunton
Mrs. Smith	Pat McDonald
Nanette	Mary Jane Sauley
Madame de Tour	Bette Cole

Stage managers for the plays were Shirley Faught, Sally Breitenbach, Bill Kiser, Bob Clegg, Jim Landry, and Wilma Eades served as business managers. The prompter was Marilyn Demaree. All three productions were directed by Miss Opal Sherman.

Senior Play

"Shrubbery Hill," a three-act comedy by William Ellis Jones, was the farce selected for presentation by the class of '47 on May 13. The play concerned the Pendleton family, owners of the plantation, Shrubbery Hill. The Pendletons, who still attempted to uphold the aristocratic ideals of the old South, were forced to sell their home because of financial difficulties. A mysterious note entered the play when the secret hiding-place of a valuable emerald necklace was revealed through the effect of a "play within a play" upon the old colored Mammy of the Pendleton household.

Since the scene was laid in an old southern plantation home, the stage setting required many antiques, period costumes, and valuable properties. This made "Shrubbery Hill" somewhat diversified from the usual high school production.

The cast included:

Mrs. Emily Pendleton, owner of Shrubbery Hill—Pat McDonald.

Randy, her son—Bill Kiser.

Cyathia, her daughter—Suzanna Peddie.

Joshua, a servant—John Hoffman.
Mammy, a servant—Bette Cole.
Lilly Belle, a servant—Patricia Bersch.
Larrabee Randolph, a collateral cousin—Jim Landry.

Mr. Henry Smith, a New Yorker who purchased Shrubbery Hill—Jay Guthrie.

Mrs. Smith, his wife—Ruth Irwin.

Joan, their daughter—Priscilla Eckert.

Ed, their son—Charles Orrill.

Charles Wiggin, another New Yorker—Bill Bilz.

Stage managers were Shirley Faight, Coburn Jackson, Robert Cheatham, and Margaret Inglis. Georganna Gray served as costume assistant, and Joann Haak and Bernice Rusk were in charge of publicity. Much credit is due to George Distel, Jr. for his able assistance in the stage setting; appreciation for this co-operation in loaning antiques is also extended to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Eades, Miss Drisilla Craven and Mrs. J. R. Inglis. The new stage scenery, which was purchased jointly by the classes of 1944, 1945, and 1947, was used for the first time in this production.

ROW I—William Bilz, James Landry, Bette Cole, John Hoffman, Patricia Bersch, Pat McDonald, Priscilla Eckert, Bill Kiser, Charles Orrill, Suzanna Peddie, Ruth Irwin, Kenneth Guthrie.

ROW II—Bernice Rusk, Joann Haak, Robert Cheatham, Coburn Jackson, Georganna Gray, Shirley Faight, Margaret Inglis, Miss Sherman, director.

David Long, Georganna Gray, Ronnie Knoebel, Jane Twineham, William Johann.

Yell Leaders

Few of us ever realize how much credit should be given to our yell leaders for the good sportsmanship that is essential at all times, particularly during the basketball season. It is through their efforts that a sportsmanlike attitude has been maintained among the student body, and much school spirit and pep has been promoted at ball games. Whether in victory or defeat, our yell leaders never tired of leading cheers to encourage and spur the Cubs onward.

A vote of special thanks should thus be extended to a very essential organization of M. H. S. So "hats off" to Georganna Gray, Jane Twineham, David Long, Bill Johann, and little Ronnie Knoebel for their splendid work during the 1946-47 basketball season.

Custer Contest

The thirty-sixth annual oratorical contest was held on May 9 at the Brown Gymnasium. The contestants were those five seniors having the highest scholastic standing, who have attended Madison High School for four years. A dramatic selection of his own choosing was given by each.

This year's participants were the five highest ranking students in the senior class, as those eligible had attended Madison High School for the preceding four years, and each chose to take part.

The participants were as follows:

William Bilz—"Blue Star."

Barbara Ketterman—"Antonio Opens His Eyes."

Virginia Klopp—"Angel Wings."

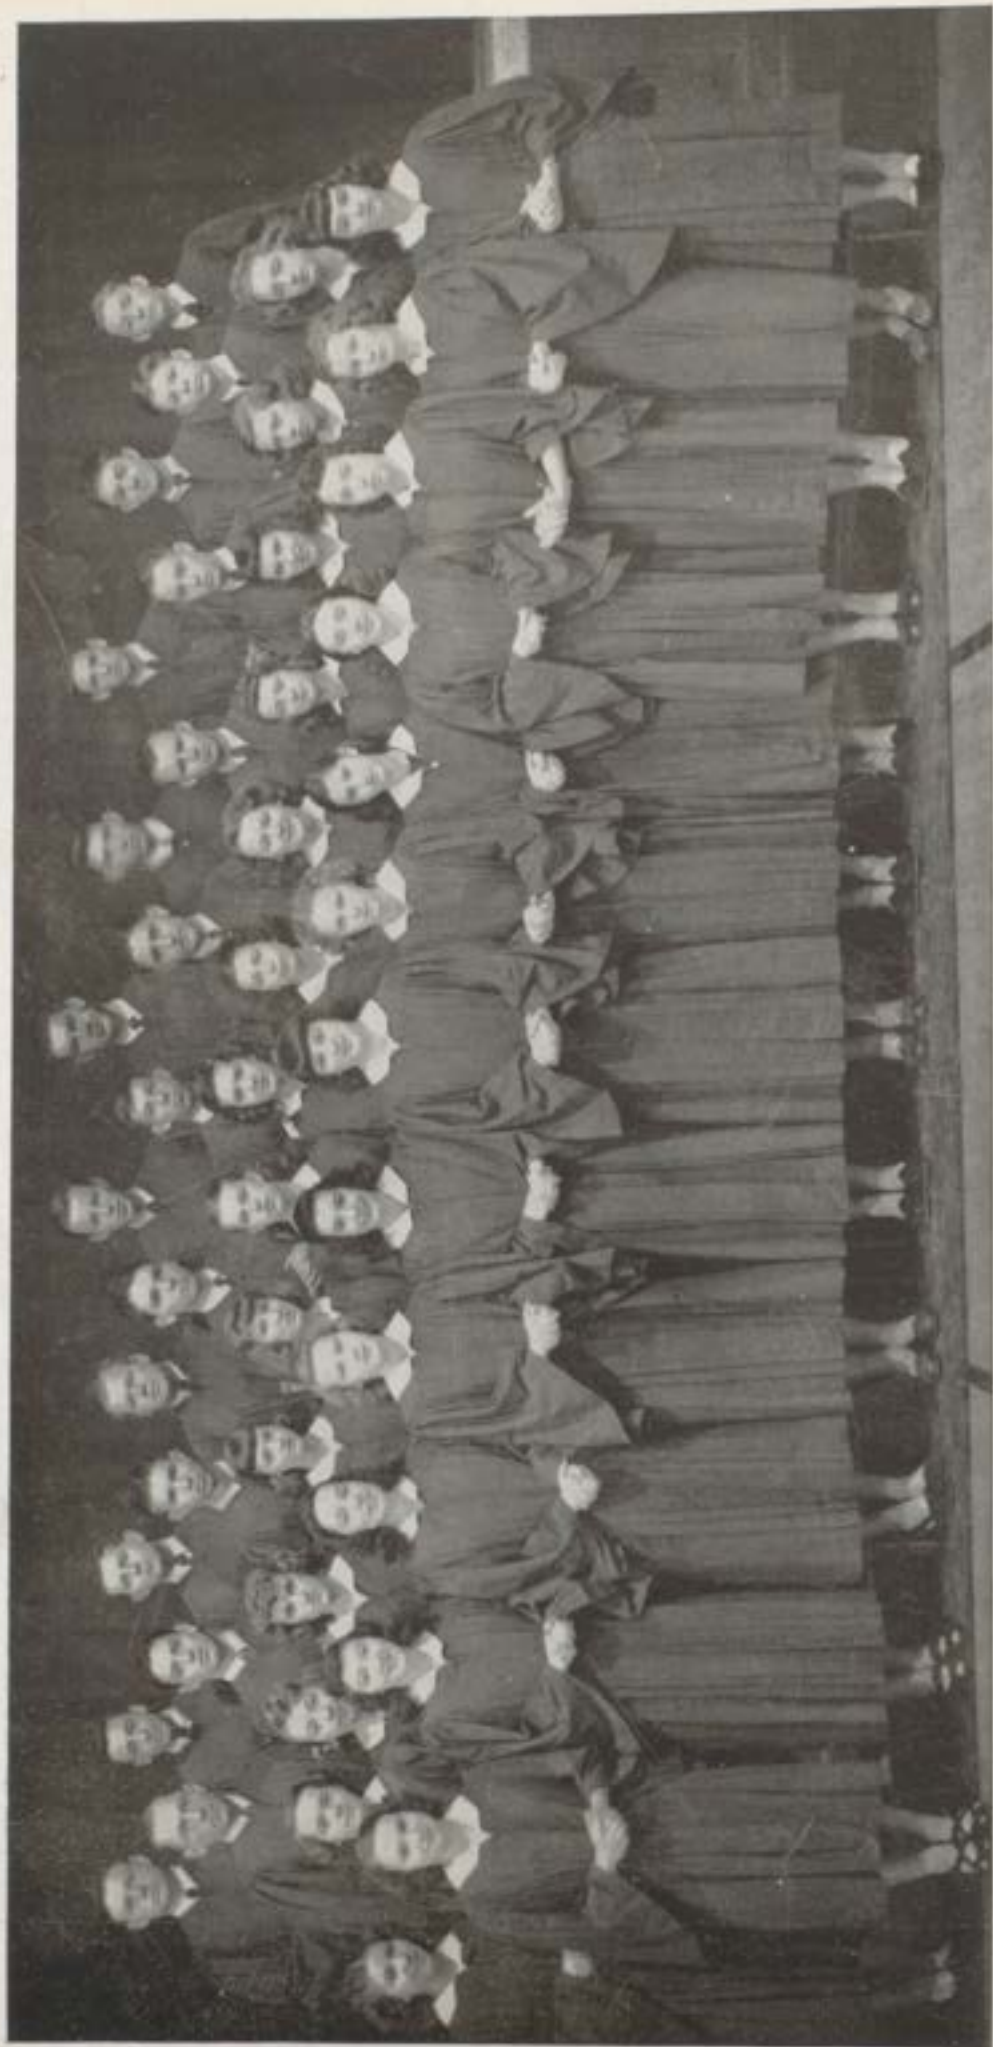

James Landry—"How the Britnell Cup Went from Hilton."

Charles Orrill—"Tragical History of Dr. Faustus."

Virginia Klopp was chosen by Professors Westington, Kutz, and Baker of Hanover College who served as judges as the first place winner for this year. The second place winner was James Landry. Prizes of thirty dollars and fifteen dollars were awarded to the two winners respectively, and each of the other participants received five dollars.

William Bilz, Barbara Ketterman, Charles Orrill, Virginia Klopp, James Landry.

ROW I—Dixie Driskell, Marjorie Wilson, Sarah C. Murphy, Margaret Inglis, Peggy Bunton, Mary Jo Dattilo, Donna Bersch, Joanna Sherman, Mary Alice Hill, Barbara Ketterman, Mary Jane Sauley, Marilyn Demaree, Fredalynne Daubenbis.

ROW II—Jeanette Shipley, Joan Hoffman, Betty Peters, Norma Harding, Mary Helen Crozier, Carolyn Schnaitter, Mary Ann Vincent, Virginia Klopp, Claire Kruse, Mary Cosby, Rachel Jenkins, Mary Ann Ackerman, Jo Ann Short.

ROW III—Mr. Rebert, Charles Orrill, John Cain, William Bear, Spencer Schnaitter, Richard Hill, James Werbe, George Cofield, Bill Johann.

Choral Club

"...One of the best, if not the best, music groups of its kind in the country." This was the compliment paid by Mr. Lee Coulson, WHAS program manager, to the Choral Club on this year's work. Members, accepted only after a rigid examination by an admissions committee from the Club, give not only their voices but also their loyalty and enthusiasm to make this choir rate tops. Most of the music is performed a capella, a distinct achievement for any high school group.

It was only fitting that the organization should attain the climax of its ascension to fame and ability during the fiftieth anniversary year of its founding, in 1896. This anniversary was officially celebrated at the Golden Jubilee Concert in February.

Choral Club officers for this year were:

President	Carolyn Schnaitter
Vice President	Bill Bear
Secretary	Charles Orrill
Treasurer	Mary Helen Crozier

Peggy Buntun, Louis Dalhover, Marilyn Demaree, Pat McDonald, Janet Kestner, Norvella Wallace, Joyce Gronseth, Sue Davison, Betty Jo Ackerman, Alene Zapp, Mary Kay White, Nadine Zapp, Mary Ann Vincent, Ralph Richey, Richard Henderson, George Wesbecker, Maxine Bever, Jack Schnabel, Philip Stanton, Graham Storm, Mary Jane Hawkins, Betty Schiphorst, Donna Gayle Ashley, Bonnie Hugelback, Clark Ketterman, John Hoffman, James Craig, Isabelle Smith, Betsy Haas, Mildred Johnson, Marjorie Wilson, Mary Jane Souley, Mary Jane Beeten, Joanna Sherman, Albert Witt, Larry McClanahan, Rose Marie Baglan, Carmen Lynch, Louann Lynch, Vincent Goebel, Raymond Schnabel, Ralph Storm.

Rear: Emma Jean Bennett, Rita Stolte, Mr. Rothert, Norman Hassfurd.

Band

The high school band this year surpassed all its previous high standards in music. The band was a featured part of every home basketball game, and its "floor shows" of intricate marching formation and dazzling twirling routines on the part of the drum major and majorettes, presented this year as a new accomplishment for the band, made the band more appreciated by the community. Proof of this were several gifts to the band: the sum of $1,000 presented by the Elks' Club for the band instrument fund, and three electric batons given by the B. T. O. Club in memory of Leonard Eades, former band member.

For the first time, the band participated in a Tri-City Band Festival at Seymour. Two joint band concerts with the North Vernon High School band were held last summer, one at North Vernon and one here.

Band officers for 1946-47 were:

President	Pat McDonald
Vice President	Jimmy Craig
Secretary	Maxine Bever
Treasurer	Ralph Storm

ROW I—Bill Johann, Richard Hill, Spencer Schmaier, Tommy Ryker.

Melody Masters

A new music organization in 1946-47 was the Melody Masters, an octette selected from the male sections of the Choral Club. Immediately upon their debut at the school play, the boys skyrocketed to fame and favor in the community. Their mellow singing of favorite melodies will undoubtedly keep them in demand as a permanent branch of the music department.

Melody Maids

The Melody Maids, first "discovered" in 1944 by Superintendent Muncie, enjoyed another successful season which included several out-of-town, as well as a busy round of local engagements. With an increase in repertoire and degree of work, these six Choral Club members established a new high standard for their group. The girls also served as an added attraction on Choral Club programs.

Jo Ann Short, Mary Jane Sauley, Mary Helen Crozier, Carolyn Schnaitter, Norma Overstreet, Mary Alice Hill.

ROW I—Mary Jane Cox, Sally Breitenbach, Sue Davison, Alice McConnell, Vivian Schiphorst, Mary Elizabeth Demaree.

ROW II—Sharon Wakefield, Laura Ann Mills, Mary Jane Hawkins, Mr. Rothert, Marguerite Schwab, Carmen Lynch, Isabelle Smith.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club has grown in both size and popularity this season. Any girl in high school may join the Glee Club; this gives the opportunity for music expression to those who do not want to take the entrance examinations required by the other musical organizations. It also serves as a training class for later Choral Club membership. The girls have maintained a high degree of work throughout the year, with outstanding programs at Christmas and in the spring.

Coach Eddy

Again this year our first team was directed by a man who has been turning out superior teams at M. H. S. since 1939. His sterling character is reflected in the way his players conduct themselves on the playing floor.

During this past season Mr. Eddy has shown the fans that his team, whether they have won or lost, exemplified the true spirit of basketball through his training. This year his expert leadership paid off in the winning of the conference crown. The practice of standing beside his boys in defeat has made him the idol of many underclass boys and girls.

Though his team this year was defeated in the first game of the regional, the team which beat them went on to win the state championship. In this game between the Cubs and the Shelbyville Bears our boys, are thought by many to have given Shelbyville the roughest game of the tourneys.

We, the students of M. H. S., wish to pay tribute to a great man as well as a great coach, Mr. Ray Eddy.

Coach Manaugh

The "superior seconds" were coached again this year by the "little corporal" who might be called this not only because of his short stature but also because of his powerful play strategy.

Mr. Manaugh has been coaching the "seconds" for several years and has turned out some teams that have gained much recognition. His stories of "what basketball was like when I was a boy," relate a much different situation from the clean playing, smooth functioning "quintets" he places on the floor.

Though his teams never win a crown, physically few would be the boys who, in moments of triumph, would not stop for a moment to recall the fundamentals that were instilled in his mind when he was on the second team and was coached by "Poodle."

General Review

Our high-flying Cubs of 1946-47 handed the Southeastern Conference crown to M. H. S. and added it to the two previous ones that Ray Eddy's teams have captured, by upsetting the tough, undefeated Lawrenceburg Tigers in their final game, 44-41. The Bruins handed the Tigers their first loss, after being previously beaten by the up-river lads, 34-25.

The Madison quintet rang up an exceptionally fine record during the regular season of play by winning 15 games and losing only three. Columbus, Lawrenceburg, and Franklin were the only foes to stop the Cubs' attack. All three losses, however, were away from home. The Cubs were impenetrable on their home floor, as was well illustrated by their ability to keep a clear slate on the loss column by defeating such teams as Jeffersonville, Seymour, Greensburg and Lawrenceburg. The Cubs racked up a 41.5 average per game, while holding their opponents to a 33.3 mark.

The Madison boys gained their revenge this year at the cost of the Happy Hunters at Huntingburg by throwing in 52 points—one better than the Hunters gathered.

The Eddymen passed the 60 mark in one game and forged ahead of 50 points in five of their battles. By virtue of these scores the Cubs were appropriately placed in the first place bracket of the Conference offensive ratings and managed to hold down a second place slot in the defensive rating.

In winning 11 conference games while losing but one, the Cubs boasted a season's average of .916. Some double defeats handed out to Conference teams were to such clubs as Salem, Aurora, and Scottsburg. The Bruins had a regular season's total of 747 points, while they held their opponents to 601 to give the Cubs an average of 8.2 points margin in every game.

Since the Cub aggregation loses five boys through graduation, next year's band of scrappers will have a high record, captured by the 1946-47 Cubs, to strive for and keep intact.

Sectional

The first game of the sectional fell into the hands of the Austin Eagles, who edged a strong Dupont team, 35-33. It was a nip and tuck ball game all the way, as was well shown by the 7-8, 18-12, 24-20, and 35-33 quarter scores.

Madison's Cubs met the high-flying county champs, the Saluda Lions, in the second engagement and trounced them thoroughly by a lopsided score of 77-32. The Cubs had a little trouble during the first few minutes of the game, but soon afterwards showed their form and ability by leading the Lions, 20-9, at the first stop. It was all Madison the rest of the way, as the Cubs poured in 20 more points to lead 40-15 halfway through the game. The third quarter was played on even terms; the Saluda five tallied for 7 points and the Cubs for 10. In the final quarter, however, the Madison quintet rocked up 29 markers to 10 for the Lions, to win their first engagement, 77-32.

The Scottsburg Warriors then passed over their first stepping-stone by leading a New Washington team all the way to win by a score of 34-23. Many fans believed that the Warriors and the Cubs would once again have a final game battle, but they were later disappointed when the Scott County boys were defeated.

A never-say-die Paris Crossing team gave the Hanover outfit quite a tussel. Although the Bulldogs led during the first half, they slowed down in the third quarter, scoring only one point while Paris Crossing captured 10. The Dogs won out in the end, however, by a scoreboard reading of 34-24.

It was then Central's turn to take the driver's seat, and they gained a 32-26 decision over the favored North Madison Tigers. The Wildcats gained a tie, 4-4, in the first part of the game, and then fell behind in the second quarter, 10-14. Both teams were rarin' to go in the third quarter, but the Tigers outdid the 'Cats, coming out with a one point lead. North Madison was then held to five points in the final stanza, as the Wildcats tipped in 12 to defeat the Northtown lads, 32-26.

Regional

The Cubs ended their 1946-47 season with a 55-44 loss to the Shelbyville Golden Bears in the Regional Tourney at Greensburg during the afternoon game.

The score was deadlocked 11-11 at the end of the first quarter.

The Bears showed more of a firing punch than the Cubs in the second quarter and after much scrambling and fast breaking, the Shelby team was leading the Cubs by 6 points, 26-20.

During the beginning of the second half, both the Cubs and the Bears matched the others scoring Deputy, an all-around better ball club than was previously seen, shattered an inexperienced, but never quitting, Lexington five, 40-32. The Lexington boys never stopped fighting, as was well exemplified by their comeback from a 28-8 halftime score to a 40-32 final reading.

The Madison Cubs found another victim when they crushed the Austin Eagles, as did Hanover when they won over the strong Scottsburg Warriors, 35-28, leading 16-12, 22-13, 26-21, and 35-28, at every stop.

Central earned the right to play in the final game of the tourney by skipping over a good Deputy team, 42-34.

It was then up to Madison or Hanover to meet the Wildcats, when the Cubs and Bulldogs met. The Eddymen led at every stop—13-6, 17-9, 23-16, and 35-25—in a hard-fought contest to meet the Central 'Cats in the finals.

In the final game the Cubs started off slowly but gained momentum and rolled over their opponents like a steam roller. The game was played on an equal basis during the first quarter, but after that it was all Madison. The quarter scores were 12-9, 27-14, 38-21, and 56-31.

By virtue of this game the Cubs had completed their games at home and had been undefeated in all of them, including their regular season play.

attack. Our Cubs gathered 8 points while the Bears did likewise.

The final quarter showed a repetition of the third by virtue of the Madison boys matching the Shelbyville lads, point for point, by scoring 10 markers. This, however, was not enough, as was shown when the Golden Bears walked off the floor with a 44-38 win over the Cubs.

North Vernon won over Franklin by a score of 55-32 in the other afternoon game and Shelbyville won the finals from North Vernon by a 55-23 score.

The M. H. S. Cubs of 1946-47 lost by only six points to the State Champions!

Second Team

A very enviable record was made this past season by the Madison reserve squad. Seventeen times they took the floor and seventeen times the "Little Cubs," under the able guidance of C. O. "Pood'e" Manaugh, came out on top. John Kasper, the boy with the "eagle-eye," led the seconds in scoring with a total of 221 points. It was the first time in the history of M. H. S. that a reserve team has gone undefeated and it is, indeed, a record of which to be proud.

Interclass Champs

In the finals of the 1946-47 Interclass Tourney, the favored juniors turned back a determined freshman team 26-23. These two teams reached the final game of the tourney with upset victories. In the opening game of the tourney on Thursday afternoon, October 10, the freshmen knocked off the over-rated sophomores 15-12. After trailing for three quarters, the frosh, led by Schnaitter and Server, turned on and by virtue of three quick baskets and some clever ball handling won the right to play in the finals.

Following on the heels of the exciting opener came the senior-junior tussle. The highly regarded 4-year men were set reeling backwards by the hard fighting juniors to the tune of 27-23. It was Green's superior height and the good defensive play of T. Cheatham that showed the way for the victors.

Intramural Champs

"THE MONSTERS"

Through intramural competition, more boys were allowed to participate in the field of basketball, occupy their spare time profitably, and exhibit their sportsmanship qualities, as was well exemplified in the 1946-'47 season with eight teams responding to the opportunity.

During the regular season of play, the Monsters managed to stay in the undefeated list by virtue of the five wins and a clear slate for the lose section. The Monsters were pressed closely however, by the ever determined Sea Hawks, who boast a record of four wins and only one loss.

Track

The M. H. S. cindermen climaxed the track season by taking top honors in the Southeastern track conference meet at Hanover May 10 with 47 points followed by Aurora and Salem with 37 and 36½ respectively.

Bob Clegg was the outstanding athlete this year in track although Bill Moorhead and "Scag" Kahn were also in the top bracket. Clegg was outstanding in the broad jump and could be counted on to show in the high jump and half mile relay. Bill Moorhead, low hurdle star, now holds the record for the low sticks in the conference as he hopped the 200 yards in 24.2. He could be counted on for a fine performance in the half mile relay also. "Scag" Kahn, dash man, really turned in some thrilling performances during the season in both the 100 and 220 as well as finishing strong in the half mile relay.

ROW I—William Bear, Edward Orri'l, Kenneth Lee, Charles Orrill, Phil Kahn, Robert Clegg, James Werbe.

"No you don't. Ah does."

"What you got, bo?"

"Two eights and a razor."

"You sho do. How come you so lucky?"

A tramp knocked on the door of an English inn named "George and the Dragon." The landlady opened the door and the tramp asked, "Can you spare a poor man a bite to eat?"

"No," she said, and slammed the door. After a few minutes, the tramp knocked again. The door opened and the landlady appeared. "Now," said the tramp, "may I have a word with George?"

It was a cold night and the soldier standing on guard tried vainly to keep warm. Suddenly someone approached.

"Halt! Who goes there?" said the sentry.

"Friend with a bottle," was the answer.

"Pass, friend, halt, bottle," promptly commanded the sentry.

"It's the little things that tell," said the girl, as she pulled her young brother from under the sofa.

The thing that keeps men broke is not the wolf at the door but the silver fox in the window.

If you want a thing well done, don't do it yourself unless you know how.

No matter what side of an argument an intelligent man gets on, he always finds some people with him he wishes were on the other side.

A man is as old as he feels; a woman, as old as she feels like admitting.

The difference between a prejudice and a conviction is that you can explain a conviction without getting mad.

A woman flees from temptation, but a man just crawls away from it in the cheerful hope it may overtake him.

To be happy with a man you must understand him a lot and love him a little. To be happy with a woman you must love her a lot and not try to understand her at all.

Women are like newspapers—they both have forms—they always have the last word—they're well worth looking over—have a great deal of influence—you can't believe everything they say—they carry the news wherever they go—but remember, every man should have one of his own and not borrow his neighbors'.

Oh, shall we be Brainy?

Little girls choose dolls for toys
While soldiers are the choice of boys.
But when they're grown up you'll find
That each has had a change of mind—
The girls prefer the soldiers then
And baby dolls attract the men.

If a fellow tries to kiss a woman and gets away with it, he's a man; if he tries and does not get away with it, he's a brute; if he doesn't try, but would get away with it if he tried, he's a coward; but if he doesn't try and wouldn't have gotten away with it if he tried, he's wise.

A little girl, quietly watching a church wedding, suddenly exclaimed, "Mummie, she must have changed her mind. She went in with one man and now she's coming out with another."

I think that I shall never see
A billboard lovely as a tree.
Indeed, unless the billboards fall
I'll never see a tree at all.

This is all we ever say
Ego, mei, mihi, me.

Here, richly, with ridiculous display,
The Politician's corpse was laid away.
While all of his acquaintance sneered and slanged
I wept; for I had longed to see him hanged.

At a dinner party several doting mothers were discussing their children's illnesses with the guest of honor, a noted pediatrician. One mother asked,
"Doctor, what do you find to be the principal ailment of children?"
"Mothers, madam," he answered gravely.

A salesman rapped on the screen door at a house where, just inside and plainly visible, an eight-year-old was painfully practicing his piano lessons.

"Sonny," he inquired pleasantly, "is your mother home?"

The boy gave the salesman a murderous look over his shoulder, then growled, "What do you think, mister!"

Sign on back of war-weary jalopy: "Don't Pass—Push."

One night the announcer for the Pot o' Gold program telephoned a woman to report that she had won the $1900 prize. Since she was not at home, a boarder who answered the phone was asked the first thing the landlady would do with the money.

"Count it," was the prompt reply.

Against her will, the wife of a famous author attended a reception. All went well until the very moment of departure, when she seized the hand of her hostess, and assured her warmly, "It was so nice of us to come!"
