Dedication

In the field of human endeavor we are prone, all too often, to draw a distinct line of separation between those who are eminently successful as students and those who are outstanding as athletes. Much too often, we fall into the habit of using overworked phrases such as, "All brawn and no brains," "Strong back; weak mind," and so on. Farthest from the truth would be such a statement about the 1947-48 aggregation of Madison Cubs' basketball team. Here was a group equally capable in the classroom and on the hardwood. This was the "scoringest team" in the history of our school. Even in the final defeat they were glorious. According to the score board they failed by two points in their final game of the year. In grit and determination they never failed; and in real sportsmanship they ever excelled. So we, the Seniors of '48," fondly dedicate this Mabisco to each member of this years team

*To those who arched the basketball,
And often hit the mark;
To those who lost but very few
And never lost the spark;
To those who glittered equally
(And saw no mystery)
In passing or pivoting,
Or even in history!
To those we call "Ray Eddy's boys,"
We humbly dedicate—
This "48" Mabisco.*

LEADERSHIP

The cry of the day is for leadership that is constructive and beneficial to all. All of these years you graduates of the class of 1948 have been trained to take your places as leaders destined to make life more full. Maxwell Anderson, in the introduction to his play, Valley Forge, says this of George Washington, "Some men lift the level of the age they inhabit till all men walk on higher ground in that life time." This is what all great leaders do.

Your task is to lift the moral and spiritual life of your age. You must learn to live with people and by so doing lift them to a higher living. Life is wonderful when well lived.

To the class of 1948 we give our greetings and extend our good wishes.

Mr. Salm

As young folks leaving high school you are starting out in search of success and happiness. May you ask yourselves, on what do we base our estimate of success and happiness? What things are of most value?

Just a few years ago men wise in financial and economic affairs staked their life's earnings on certain stocks. One day they had within their grasp wealth enough to put them on easy street for the rest of their lives. The next day they had nothing of this world's goods—nothing that man would use to measure success.

Other men have laid up great stores of produce in their barns and warehouses, while others have accumulated fortunes in banks, only to find through a rapid decline in market values or the closing of the banks that that which they treasured is of no consequence.

What then shall you seek in your search for success? First, you should seek to know yourself—your capacities, your real desires, your ambitions, as well as your limitations. No one succeeds who has not found himself. Many of us do not succeed in anything because we do not attempt to understand ourselves, but are content to drift with the tide or stream of events and circumstances. You must study yourself in terms of and in comparison with other people. What can you do compared with others?

Then, having found yourself, you must lose the selfish instinct and take care that the discovered talents are used to advance the interests of others as well as yourself.

Just as the only true way in which to make yourself happy is to make others happy; just so the only way in which to make yourself successful in any enterprise is to contribute to the success and welfare of others to the fullest measure of your ability. All history is but a constant reminder that there can be no permanent and lasting success or happiness for any one unless that success or happiness has meant the same for some other people.

In short, the cry for leadership today is the cry for the man or woman, boy or girl, who knows himself and who can and will share himself with and for others.

Class History

AS FRESHMEN

As freshmen in 1944, we were very bewildered and unaccustomed to high school life. However, after a few weeks of familiarizing ourselves with our new environment had elapsed, we selected a very capable group of officers for "our green year."

President Mary Ann Vincent
Vice President Bob Knoebel
Secretary-Treasurer Caroline Lynch

Bob Houze and Mary Frances Hill represented us as members of the Student Council.

Of the 125 students of our class, many were members of the Band, Choral Club, Sunshine Society, and various other high school organizations.

Bill Bear displayed the dramatic ability of the class in the school play, "Happy Landings."

We were very proud of our second team members, Harold Muncie, John Kasper, Raymond Green, Kenneth Lee, and Tom Cheatham.

AS SOPHOMORES

Having advanced to the height of sophomores, we began by electing the following class officers:

President Mildred Johnson
Vice President Bob Knoebel
Secretary-Treasurer Tom Cheatham

Expressing our opinions on the Student Council were Bonnie Hugeback, Bill Bear, Norma Vestal, and George Wesbecker.

Bob Boetem was chosen for a part in the school play, "The Mountain House Mystery."

Our sophomore Sweater Hop proved a huge success.

Upholding our athletic skill were Harold Muncie and Jack Server, now members of the first team.

AS JUNIORS

The busiest and one of the most enjoyable years of our high school days was our junior year.

Our competent officers were Caroline Lynch, president; Jack Server, vice president; Donna Cottrell, secretary; and Bonnie Hugeback, treasurer.

For the Student Council we chose Raymond Green, Wilma Eades, Nancy Joyce, and Harry Hill. The student body elected two members of our class to lead the Student Council. They were Raymond Green and Nancy Joyce.

We were interclass basketball champs this year.

Her Majesty, Jo Ann Short, reigned as Queen of M. H. S., and our King and Queen dance, featuring "Katie Kyser," alias Wilma Eades and her orchestra, was enjoyed by everyone.

With Raymond Green, Jack Server, Harold Muncie, and Tom Cheatham on the varsity, we again went into the sports limelight.

Our magazine and pencil sales to finance the Prom hit a new high average for Madison High School. Music for the great event was provided by Don Phillips and his orchestra. Mary Kay White and Harold Muncie were crowned King and Queen of the Prom.

In a group of one-act plays Jim Craig, Raymond Schnabel, Paul Goebel, Rachel Jenkins, and Emmett Kelly were included in the cast.

Mary Ann Vincent and Bonnie Hugeback served ably as assistant editors of the Madisonian.

AS SENIORS

To us it seemed that our senior year with all its fun and work was over all too soon.

For officers we chose:

President Bob Knoebel
Vice President Bill Bear
Secretary Jo Ann Short
Treasurer Rachel Jenkins

From the class we elected Mary Jo Dattilo, Richard Hill, Sally Breitenbach, and Clark Ketterman as Student Council members. A senior, Jim Craig, served as president of the Student Council.

Helping to lead the Cubs on to victory were Harold Muncie, John Kasper, Tom Cheatham, Ray Green, Jack Server, and Kenneth Lee.

Marjorie Wilson, Raymond Schnabel, Bunky Wolfschlag, Mary Kay White, Mary Helen Crozier, and Bob Knoebel helped to enact the school play, "Take Your Medicine."

In the senior play, "Adam's Evening," we were very proud of the dramatic ability exhibited by Janet Kestner, Jim Craig, Bonnie Hugeback, John Kasper, Wilma Eades, Sally Breitenbach, Ray Green, Kenny Lee, Mimi Crozier, and Hal Muncie.

Editing the Mabisco, preparing for the Custer Contest, selecting announcements, calling cards, and caps and gowns, and planning our Class Day program kept us very busy.

With this, we conclude the history of the class of '48.

We leave with this thought, "Never look back, look forward; never look in, look out."

Class Prophecy

Here we are in the year 1958, in the age of atomic cars, radios, cameras, and even atomic lollypops. Let us gaze into our atomic television set that sees all, knows all, and that tells everything, and get a glimpse of the M. H. S. grads of '48.

As the picture becomes clear enough to distinguish, we see old M. H. S. itself, but it is quite different from the school from which we graduated. Today it extends from Broadway to West Street and is the only high school in Jefferson County. As far as sports laurels go, Madison Consolidated High School has won the state championship in basketball for the past six years and has not lost a regular season game in seven years. The faculty has changed also and several members of the 1948 class sit behind the desks of their own educational institutions. Bonnie Hugeback is teaching the energetic students of her Alma Mater about Caesar's Gaulic Wars while Paul Goebel, at the same time, is trying to drill the theory of Pythagorus through their heads. Those students exposed to the commercial course have most of their classes under June Ricketts, head of that department. Rick Niess, who teaches the art classes, has just completed his oil painting of the President of the United States, Clark Ketterman. This portrait will cost the President $5,000,000 and will be a birthday gift to his private secretary and former classmate, Mary Frances Hill.

Switching the dial to uptown Madison, we encounter Mary Jo Dattilo, owner of the Dattilo Fruit Company, riding around in one of the Hill Brother Buicks. Richard and Harry own a long line of Buick companies all over Indiana.

A little farther up the street, Chief of Police, John Kasper, is presenting John Hoffman with a slow ticket for driving his motor scooter under 380 miles an hour.

Our next station is a court room scene—no, Chuck isn't losing his license again—he is Emmett Lee Kelley's best man in his marriage to Mary Kay White. After the ceremony, Chuck will chauffeur them on a honeymoon trip through Latin America. Witnessing the marriage is Marjorie Wilson, Popularity Queen of America. Margy is still unable to decide whom she loves. To date, she has had eleven proposals, but she remains single. It is rumored that she will marry Jack Harding of North Vernon next spring.

Tuck Cheatham, world renowned sports writer and commentator, is about to present his weekly summary of the news... "Mr. and Mrs. North America and all the ducks at sea—Flash!—Wilma Eades, famous all around woman athletic champion, has just hit home run number 487 of the season to break an all time record in baseball. She is the pitcher for the Brooksburg Reds who won the World Series last year Flash!—The clash of the season will take place tomorrow night in the Purdue Fieldhouse between the two top basketball teams of the nation, Hal Muncie's I. U. five and the Boiler-makers, coached by Jack Server... and now our announcer, George "Sid" Cofield." "Have you tried Wesbecker's delicious, cream vitamin-filled, homogenized milk? If not, ask for it the next time you go to your neighborhood grocery. You'll never want to drink any other kind of milk after you have drunk Wesbecker's Speckled Cow Brand Milk." Tuck Cheatham's column can be read daily and Sundays in the Smvrna Township Times.

Station WHAS brings us the University of Louisville where we find Betsy Haas giving private music lessons to students who come to Louisville from all over the world to be tutored by Miss Haas.

In down-town Louisville is Dr. William Bear, who has just successfully performed a complete plastic surgery on Miss Jean Harding. Miss Harding, known as Norma to her classmates, was injured in a train wreck recently. She is a John Robert Powers model. Surgical nurse Mary Ann Ackerman assisted Dr. Bear during the operation.

Farther south on our dial we learn that Nancy Joyce and Imogene Powell are deans of women at Ward-Belmont, a southern girl's school.

The station at Jacksonville, Florida, broadcasts that Sally Breitenbach will be there next week on her tour of the country. Miss Breitenbach is making this tour to demonstrate her ability to write 200 words a minute in shorthand.

At Miami Beach, Bettie (Haak) Guthrie can be seen dancing with her husband, Jay, to the "Goebel Accents" of Vince Goebel and his accentuated orchestra. Seated at a table nearby are Jimmy Craig and Bob Beetem. They are still riding around on the loose.

ATTENTION! Scientists Mr. and Mrs. Robert James (Mary Helen and Bob to us)

Class Will

Being sound both mentally and physically, we, the Senior Class of 1948, do hereby, on this twenty-fifth day of May, designate the following as our last will and testament.

To the Freshmen, we Seniors leave our polished and sophisticated ways. Now don't let anyone call you "Greenies!"

We bequeath our knowledge of the subjects in the Sophomore year (often called the toughest in High School) to the Sophs. Here's to easy sledding for you!

Our success with our magazine sales and our fun at the Proms, we will to next year's Juniors. Keep up the tradition, Juniors!

To the Seniors of '49, we, the Seniors of '48, leave all the fun and work of our last year in school. It is with sad hearts we bid you adieu!)

We bequeath to the faculty our deepest appreciation for all the inspiration and guidance you have given us. We'll never forget any of you!

I, Mary Ann Ackerman, will my way with a certain underclassman to my buddy, Norma Burkhardt. This should help you win Webster, "Burkie!"

To Jeanette Shipley, I Marjorie Wilson, will my quick temper. I won't need it out at Hand-over!

I, Donna Mae Cottrell, bequeath my job as office girl fifth period to Joanna Sherman. It's quite a job, Jo, but I know you can handle it!

I, Mary Frances Hill, leave to Mary Alice Hill my nickname, "Fats." You'll have to try to live up to this now, Alice!

I, Rita Stolte, will my position as majorette to Nancy Slider. Let's see some action, Nancy!

I, Rachel Jenkins, leave my cheery personality to anyone who is inclined to be unhappy. Now you can keep smilin'!

I, Kenny "Herbie" Lee, bequeath the use of my shiny new Hudson to my brother, Don. But be sure to take good care of it for Margie!

I, Jim Craig, will my blonde hair and blue eyes to Billy Turner. This will change your appearance from tall, dark, and handsome to tall, blonde, and handsome!

I, John Kasper, will my well-known voice to Stanley Goldberg. Now, Stanley, you'll lose your bashfulness!

We, Harold Muncie and Jack Server, leave our girls, Peg and Sarah Catherine, to Mr. Manaugh. Watch 'em carefully, "Poodle."

I, Tom Nichols, will my ability to get out of sixth period assembly to Bill Johann. This is really some feat to accomplish.

I, Norma Harding, will my attraction for John Kasper to Mary Jane Beetem. Hope you have as good luck as I did, Beetem!

I, Caroline Lynch, will my skill in the commercial department to next year's classes. Mrs. Reul, your worries are over!

I, Nancy Hassfurder, do hereby will my dancing ability to Helen Vincent. Now you'll really be able to "cut a rug!"

I, Rick Niese, leave my position at Inglis Drug Store to Jack Schnabel. Now, we'll have two Schnabels behind the fountain.

We, Harry and Richard Hill, will our knack for driving big Buicks to Betty Jo Ackerman. Carry on!

I, Paul Goebel, leave my speaking and arguing ways to Bill Haines. It's a sure cure for bashfulness, Bill.

I, Raymond ("Prunie") Schnabel, leave my harmonica to anyone who can play it better. What am I saving? I know that's impossible!

I, Tom Davis, hereby will my power to hold my women in line to any poor hen-pecked male of M. H. S. You can't lose now, fellas!

I, Ray Green, leave my manly physique to Nate Gaines. In the future you'll REALLY slav your women, Nate!

Being of sound mind and likewise body, I, Bunkv Wolfschlag, do hereby bequeath my ability as a "teller of tall tales" to Eddie Hartgrove. June Ann will believe anything you say now!

I, Bettie Haak, will my sweet angelic expression to anyone who thinks he can use it to fool the teachers. Don't crowd, kids!

To Laura Ann Mills, I, Jo Ann Short, will my happy disposition. Now she can smile all the time, even in Mr. Buckles' classes!

I, Leila O'Neal, will my bright hair ribbons to Jens Thomas—provided he will change his hair style just a little bit.

have just perfected a new kind of bubble gum. This is a reverse form of bubble gum, it blows the blower up. This will be a great aid in something, but so far we have not been able to decide what! Anyone who can think of a use for this product, please notify this station and we will send in return a time bomb to be presented at your door! That is all!

We now switch to Kessler Field, a few miles from New Orleans, where movie actresses Rachel Jenkins and Norma Overstreet are entertaining Uncle Sam's Armed Forces. Norma's husband, Dick Grossman, lives nearby. That is a familiar sounding voice. Why of course, it is Bob Knoebel debating on the subject "Women in Politics." Bob is also a spare time bowling instructor. During a news broadcast, we learn that Bill Pfister, husband of Jo Ann Short, "Shortie" that is, has just been elected to the Appellate Court of Indiana.

Also among the matrimonial indulgers of the '48 grads is Joy Grimes. She was married to Richard Leahigh two days after her high school commencement and lives on a 1,000 acre ranch near Dallas, Texas.

Comin' into view on our television set is a large hospital in Milwaukee owned by the Greens. The head doctor of course is Ray and the superintendent of nurses is Mary Ann (Vincent). Another member of the '48 class in this hospital is Oddie Johnson, chief medical technician over nineteen other technicians. Sunshine the year 'round is what we see next. Sunny (?) California, where Pat Ditzler has just opened her new night club "The 48 Hang-over." It was brilliantly decorated in red and white pearls by the famous interior decorators Mmes. Paire Stolte and La Marsellies Kestner. Man about town, Kenny "Herbie" Lee, the modern Bluebeard has consented to attend the opening. Last year Mr. Lee was voted the best dressed man in the country. Nancy "The Toe" Hansfurd will be the main feature in the floor show. Her 1,000 revolutions a minute on one toe is the highlight of her dance routine.

Next on our radio we find a spacious golf course owned by Tom Nichols. Tom is one of the greatest pros in the game today. He has won the Tom O'Shanter Tourney four times and has set an amazing course record of twelve underpar sixty on an eighteen hole course. His country club is just a few miles away from the Cottrell-Winkel Accounting Textbook Concern. Misses Cottrell and Winkel have written many textbooks to be used in the study of accounting. Their books are used exclusively by seventy-five per cent of the high schools in the country. Also in the west is Bunky Wolf-schlag, the veterinarian of the famous Warren Wright Racing Stables in California. He is the highest paid vet in the United States.

Shirley (Stewart) Housefield and her husband have just completed a set of encyclopedias which they started writing a few months after her graduation. On the royalties from this set, they can retire for the rest of their lives.

This program will be interrupted for an important newscast—Tommy Dorsey has just announced that he has been able to obtain, after much persuasion, Raymond Schnabel and his harmonica band, as a feature attraction for his radio program. In order to secure Ray, he had to change his theme song to "You Are My Sunshine."

Marguerite Schwab, the welfare worker, has just presented a revolutionary speech before the San Diego Chamber of Commerce. Through her efforts, the civic organization has decided to give free milk to all San Diego school children - - and now on with our regular broadcast.

To refuel your jet propelled motor scooter, drive in tomorrow to one of the 3,000 Tri Point Stations owned by oil magnate, Ralph Storm, for Sure-Put gasoline. These stations are located in every nook and crack of the country for your convenience.

Foreign station gives us Caroline Lynch, Metropolitan Opera star, who is in Vienna receiving treatment for strained vocal cords caused by overwork during her recent tour of Europe.

Now we take you to Kansas City for a special religious program featuring the internationally famous church organist, Fredalynne Daubénbis. She has presented several programs for the President of the United States.

As we sign off, here is a last minute news item: Leila O'Neal has defended successfully the Olympic figure skating crown which she won last year by defeating Barbara Ann Scott of Canada by the closest margin ever recorded in the Olympic games. This is station KNOW signing off until tomorrow morning at 5:00 o'clock. And so we also will bid a due farewell to the seniors of '48.

I, William Howard Bear, more familiarly known as Bill, bequeath my deeply masculine voice to Norman Hassfurdur. 'Nuff said.

I, Bobbie Dell Knoebel, leave my well-known byword "perhaps," to Don Hummel. Miss Lotz's literature classes wouldn't seem the same without it!

I, Bob James, do wholeheartedly will my chemistry book to any oncoming scientific genius. By the way, all the answers are written out in full.

I, Ralph Storm, leave my arguments to anybody who has time to settle them. I'm skipping out!

I, Marina Josephine Dattilo, leave to Mr. Eddy a quiet fifth period assembly. Without me it's bound to be just that!

I, Shirley Stewart, will my power to keep the wolves out of the library to Mrs. Cook. It really takes the monotony out of the work.

I, "He-man" (Vincent) Goebel, sadly relinquish my muscles to Jim Werbe. You can really use 'em, Jim. (That's a joke, son!)

I, Nancy Joyce, will my quiet nature to Donna G. Ashley. Wonder if that will work?

I, Mary Kay White, leave Chuck to my friend, Lorillard Blackwell. Just so she can watch him for me, of course.

I, Janet Kestner, leave my crush on Tom McLaughlin to Mary Bea Lorenz. I'm tired from "toting" this torch.

I, Fredalynne Xandra Daubenbis, do will to all M. H. S., my long handle. There's enough there so that everyone can have plenty!

We, June Ricketts and Betty Winkel, the inseparable seniors, will our friendship toward each other to Donna Bersch and Jane Twineham. Now you've a lot to live up to, girls.

We, George Wesbecker and John Hoffman, hereby bequeath our flashy trousers to Jim Green. You'll really stand out now, Jim!

I, Mildred Louise Johnson (Oodie, to you), will my undying love for the Cheatham family to Mary Jane Cox. Of course you can't have it all, Cox!

I, Norma Overstreet, will my beguiling eyes to anyone who thinks she could use them to the advantage I did. Good luck, kids!

To Ronnie Lohrig, I, Bonnie Hugeback, hereby will my golden-toned saxophone. Now you can really blow, Ron!

I, Mary Ann Vincent, leave to Joann Smalley, my height. This is a great advantage in a crowd!

I, Wilma Eades, hereby leave my naturally curly hair to anyone who wants it. From now on, just call me "Baldy."

I, Pat Ditzler, leave my four years of both winter and summer school to anyone who wants them. I'm fed up with working!

I, Marguerite Schwab, will my Kentucky fella to my sister. Indiana men are tops to me!

I, Betsy Lucille Haas, leave my ability to get along with music for four years to Dixie Driskell. Maybe the second clarinets will be quiet next year!

I, Emmett Lee Kelley, will my bright remarks to my brother Don. These will keep you and everyone else entertained.

I, Imogene Powell, leave my ability to stand in well with everybody to those students who are always in trouble with the teachers. Now, we'll have peace and quiet again!

I, Joy Grimes, bequeath my sense of humor to Junie Haak. Keep 'em laughing, Junie!

I, "Mimi" Crozier, leave my ability to stick to one fellow for three years to Martha Jean Manaugh. Maybe she'll settle down now.

I, Tom Cheatham, will my studious attitude (joke!) to "Bardo." Now he's sure to reform!

I, Sally Rosalia Breitenbach, hereby bequeath my talent to evade going steady to Norvella Wallace. You really should try it, Norvie. It's fun!

I, Bob Beetem, leave my popularity with Central women to Ted Server. Now you can make Wilma jealous, Ted!

I, Buddy Cofield, leave my way of patching up my love affairs to any freshman who has difficulty.

I, Clark Ketterman, leave my devotion to my class to Buster Taylor. Keep it up, Buster!

In witness whereof we hereby affix our signatures this twenty-fifth day of May in the year of our Lord 1948.

SENIOR CLASS OF '48.

School Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 4—Summer vacation came to a sudden halt, when all enrolled for classes today.
- 8—Back to the drudgery . . . Well, anyway back to work!

OCTOBER

- 7—Party season opened with a grand and glorious party given by the Juniors.
- 9—The student body selected four peppy cheer leaders, Donna, Kathleen, Dick, and David.
- 13-14—Competition was high. The Juniors emerged as the victor of boys' interclass tourney.
- 16—The first mile of our journey was completed - - six weeks' tests were the order of the day!
- 23-24—Hurray! Hurray! Unanchored for two school days—Teacher's convention.

20-21—The girls showed their athletic ability in the Girls' Interclass Tourney. The Juniors were victorious!

27—The trials and tribulations of Adam Adams' was presented by the Senior Class in "Adam's Evening." It was a big hit and there was a record crowd.

28—Hi-Y members took their best gals on a super picnic. More fun!

30—Peg Bunton and Jack Server reigned as Emperor and Emperess at the Junior-Senior Prom where the Chinese theme was gaily and artistically carried out. Don Phillips and orchestra provided the music.

MAY

5—Musicians staged the annual Band Ball. The gaily colored formals and the band uniforms added a festive air to the "ole" gym.

7—The five dramatic speakers representing "the intelligentsia" of the class of '48 took part in the annual Custer Contest. What able speakers all were!

14—Sunshine Society staged their last social function with a dance in the gym.

20-21—Seniors took final exams! Oh, what fun!

22—Many students of M. H. S. helped present Jenny Lind program.

23—Baccalaureate service for the dignified Seniors. Rev. Templin ably spoke on "The Christian Defense of Freedom."

24—Yipee! Class Day! Grand to see others in their classes while Seniors roam the halls.

25—This was a night the Seniors never forget. All put aside their foolish ways and were serious for a while as they received their diplomas. Dr. Trueblood was the Commencement speaker.

26-27—Underclassman exams.

29—Last day for the year of 1947-48.

 ROW V—Peggy Bunton, Joanna Sherman, Mary Jane Sauley, Miss Lotz, Marilyn Demaree, Mr. Reul, Jens Thomas, Charles Van Wye, Walter Ricketts, Don Bladen, Don Adams, Louis Lowellyn.

Juniors

They called us "green freshmen" as we wandered through the portals of M. H. S. in 1945. As we approach the close of this our third year in Madison High School, we have realized a large number of our ambitions and have outgrown the name first bestowed upon us.

In 1945, Dee Monroe and Ed Orrill were our chosen leaders. We had many athletes in our midst as is shown by the number of our boys who participated in basketball, softball, baseball, and track. In the field of dramatics Marilyn Demaree was our representative with a part in the play, Mountain House Mystery. Our Student Council members were Joanna Sherman and Ronnie Wheeler. In his first year at M. H. S. Dick Demaree was chosen cheer leader.

Along came nineteen hundred forty-six making us "silly sophs." Again we needed someone other than our sponsor to guide us, and we picked Jim Werbe, president; Chuck Gautier, vice-president; Peggy Bunton, secretary; Ed Orrill, treasurer. This year our athletes more fully developed their talents, and Dee Monroe advanced to the varsity while Ed Orrill, Jim Werbe, and John Cain led the second team through a successful year. Our actors and actresses in 1946 were Frances Foxworthy in The Lucky Accident, Peggy Bunton and Mary Jane Sauley in Stoney's Bride, and Joanna Sherman and Bill Haines in Christmas Rose. As Student Council members we elected Marilyn Demaree, John Cain, Mary Jane Sauley, and Dee Monroe. Dick Demaree was again chosen cheer leader as were Jane Twineham and Bill Johann.

This year, 1948, has proved to be our greatest success. The officers whom we chose were as follows:

Bill Haines	President
Jim Werbe	Vice President
Ed Orrill	Secretary
Maxine Bever	Treasurer
Betty Jo Ackerman, Dick Demaree	Student Council

In the beginning of this school year we "started the ball rolling" with a Junior Play Party. Then along came the annual magazine drive and the sale of schedule pencils. These two activities provided the source of funds to finance the Junior-Senior Prom.

The school play, Take Your Medicine, contained such dramatic talent as that of Donna Gayle Ashley and Claire Kruse.

Our "high flying" Cubs boasted of Dee Monroe, Ed Orrill, and Jim Werbe. Bill Johann was a regular starter on the second team. To cheer the teams to victory we elected Dick Demaree and Donna Bersch.

Yes, we have spent three exciting and eventful years in M. H. S. and having added our small contribution to the history of our school, we intend to uphold and advance our ideals in the year yet to come.

Sophomores

Beginning our career at M. H. S. in the year nineteen forty-six, we elected Donald McCauley as president; Minerva Crozier, vice president; Joan Hoffman, secretary; and Kathleen Peddie, treasurer. To represent us on the Student Council, we chose Mary Alice Hill and Jimmie Green.

We also had the honor of having David Long selected for yell leader.

To further our fame, Mary Alice Hill and Joan Hoffman had parts in the school play. We had such famous athletes as Don McCauley, Eddie Cheatham, Don Hummel, Jimmie Green, Charles Browne and Spencer "Scando" Schnaitter who played on the second team. "Scando" raised our honor by making the varsity along with dashing Ted Server.

We have not failed this year to make history for in the beginning we chose the following boys as officers:

Ted Server President
 Tom Ryker Vice President
 Spencer Schnaitter Secretary-Treasurer

Our Student Council members were Joan Smalley, Buddy Short, Minerva Crozier, and Dodd Gormon.

Again our dramatic ability was displayed by Mary Jane Beetem, Nancy Moster, Mary Elizabeth Demaree, Dodd Gormon, and Albert Witt in "Take Your Medicine."

David Long and Kathleen Peddie were chosen as yell leaders from our class.

So with such a famous record behind us, we are eager and willing to tackle our upperclassman days with courage and determination.

ROW IV—Roy Brooks, Dodd Gormon, Billy G. Miller, Charles Browne, Benny Goins, Ted Server, Lee Buchanan, Spencer Schnaitter, Don Hummel, Tommy Ryker, Buddy Short, Bobby Rusk, Don Kelley, Ronnie Lohrig, Lot Turner, Nathan Garlinghouse, Charles Adler.

ROW I—E. Hartgrove, A. Hunger, D. Lee, Mr Eddy.
 ROW II—M. Schwab, B. Dalhover, B. Carpenter, A. McDowell, D. Gordon, A. Drennon, H. Miller, M. Maddox, A. Congleton, R. Donham, O. Stanton, M. Hoffman, M. Smith, L. Risk.
 ROW III—N. Newman, J. Walston, J. Ireland, H. Vincent, C. Dattilo, J. Stevens, L. Lynch, E. Kidwell, F. Pickett, N. Slider, R. Hay, P. Gentrup, J. Gallher, R. Winkel.
 ROW IV—C. Tewell, E. Goins, B. Willey, A. Goins, N. Jenkins, M. Stoner, A. Bennett, M. Metford, E. Crozier, J. Weinberg, R. Reed, N. Garlinghouse, D. Winters, L. Turner.
 ROW V—W. Richey, W. Ferguson, J. Werbe, R. Eaglin, J. Smith, H. Thevenow, J. Bentz, J. McLaughlin, J. Hertz, W. Spry, G. Craig, J. McDaniels, J. Byrd.
 ROW VI—J. Jaynes, C. Morgan, Mr. Manaugh, S. Weber, J. Cain, J. Demaree, G. Crozier, F. Templin, D. McCoy, B. Smith, R. Sanders, G. Holman, D. Stewart, J. Perkinson.
 ROW VII—B. Harrell, B. Peak, B. Banton, T. Clarkson, J. Alexander, R. Thorpe, D. Sample, R. Davis, H. Tandy, Mr. Wilson, R. Ashley, B. Boyd, K. Polton.

Freshmen

In the fall of 1947, our class of 1951 entered the halls of M. H. S. to take our place and help to win fame for our school. Green, yes, but we were willing to do our part for our school.

The officers we elected to lead us were as follows:

Edwin Hartgrove	President
Paul Rowlett	Vice President
Angela Hunger	Secretary
Donald Lee	Treasurer

Our representatives to the Student Council were Joy Dean Walston and John Werbe. We were represented in most all of the school activities. Out of our class of 90 we had members in the Band, Choral Club, Glee Club, Sunshine Society, G. A. A. and Intramural basketball. Angela Hunger and Olive Stanton represented us in the field of dramatics by participating in the school play.

With such players as Wayne Richey and Edwin Hartgrove on the second team, M. H. S. has a bright out look in the field of sports in later years.

We, the freshman class, look forward to three more very happy and busy years in M. H. S.

Madisonian Staff

The Madisonian, published bi-monthly, has been very successful as a school paper during this year of 1947-48. Several new ideas have been used in the different issues, thus providing for greater variety in the style as well as the content of the paper. Some of the changes appearing this last semester included a Flash column on the first page, date lines for all major news stories, sub heads in the longer news items, and occasional use of interviews with well known persons of the community engaged in various vocational pursuits. All these have brought about a better and more interesting publication.

A change in the staff which provided for associate editors from each class in high school and two from Junior High School made it much easier to carry out the Madisonian's motto, "To Print Your Name Will Be Our Aim."

The very capable staff for 1947-48 included:

Co-Editors	Mary Ann Vincent, Bonnie Hugeback
Associate Editors	Joanna Sherman, Marilyn Demaree, Rose Baglan, Mary Jane Beetem, Lou Ann Lynch, Nancy Smith, Ellen Parr May
Feature Editor	Sue Davison
Sports Editors	Graham Taylor, Dick Demaree, Tom Nichols

Student Council

The Student Council is one of the most active organizations in Madison High School. It is composed of representatives from all classes with the exception of the President and Vice President, who are chosen from the entire school as a whole.

To give students experience in school government is the purpose of the Student Council.

The Council consists of three committees: the publicity committee, the entertainment committee, the citizenship committee.

The duties of the publicity committee are to publicize the school's activities and the functions of the Student Council. Richard Niesse served as chairman this year.

Providing the assembly with a program every other Thursday and making arrangements for other speakers and entertainers are the chief functions of the entertainment committee. Sally Breitenbach was chosen chairman of this committee.

To make reports to the Madisonian of the percentages in the "clean-up drive," and to see that lockers are kept clean are two jobs of the citizenship committee. Elected to head this committee for the year was John Kasper.

The other officers of this active group are Jim Craig, President, and Bill Johann, Vice President.

Hi-Y Club

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community a better standard of Christian character.

Our Hi-Y Club has certainly tried to live up to this creed. Led by Harold Muncie, the president, and Mr. C. O. Manaugh, the sponsor, this organization has helped extend health and happiness in our community. Since this is an international organization, they have given freely to the European Relief Fund and other charitable groups. Their work has been recognized around the school with the checking of coats at basketball games and hall monitoring.

If future Hi-Y clubs do useful work as this one has, they too will be complying with their code.

Officers elected this year were:

Harold Muncie	President
Jack Server	Vice President
Emmett Kelley	Secretary
Jim Werbe	Treasurer

ROW I—Bob Knoebel, Harry Hill, Kenny Lee, Tom Chentham, Emmett Kelly, Tom Nichols, Harold Muncie, Bob Beetem, George Coffield, James Craig.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss Ernst, is one of the most active organizations of M. H. S. Girls from all classes participate.

The girls are divided into four squads. Each squad has a leader. They meet each Tuesday night from 6:00 o'clock until 7:30 o'clock.

Basketball, volleyball, and softball are the main sports participated in.

The officers for the year were:

Joanna Sherman	President
Mary Frances Hill	Vice President
Mary Jo Dattilo	Secretary
Peggy Bunton	Treasurer

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is one of the most active organizations of Madison High School in 1948. Any girl who is taking or has taken a minimum of one semester of Home Economics is eligible for membership in this club. To teach girls how to live better so that their lives and their families' lives may be improved for tomorrow is the goal of the F. H. A.

Organized in January of 1946, the Madison chapter had a membership of twenty-one girls. The number has increased rapidly since September, 1947.

The F. H. A. has completed a constitution, made and presented a yearly program to each member, issued club annuals and awards of membership pins, M's, chevrons, and first degree awards of keys which fasten onto the membership pins.

For entertainment, the club held two parties this year—a Christmas party and a Valentine party.

In addition to these, the members attended three state meetings of the organization. One, as hostess, at Clifty Falls State Park; one at Salem, Indiana; and the third at Indianapolis, Indiana.

Through the sale of greeting cards, the organization received large financial returns.

Officers for 1947-48 were:

Jayne Ann McClanahan	President

Sunshine Society

The Sunshine Society is a charitable organization for all the girls of Madison High School. The Society supplied to the needy baskets of food at Thanksgiving, and food and toys at Christmas. They also aided in community projects. One of the outstanding was the selling of Easter lilies for the aid of crippled children.

The sponsor for this year was Mrs. Cook.

Science Club

The purpose for the organization of the Science Club was to further develop the minds of the student members toward scientific ways and attitudes. The formation of the club encouraged sound and basic reasoning in addition to promoting more intelligent thinking on the part of the students.

Elected officers of the Science Club for the year 1947-48 were as follows:

Wilma Eades	President
Bill Bear	Vice President
Jim Werbe	Secretary-Treasurer
Mr. Carpenter	Sponsor

TAKE YOUR MEDICINE

Bunky Wolfschlag as "Hoofendgke," Albert Witt as "Dr. William Jackson," Mary Kay White as "Angela Warren," Dodd Gormon as "Jack Benson," Robert Knoebel as "Henry K. Dodson," Mary Jane Beitem as "Patricia Pryor," Mary Helen Crozier as "Miss Holt," Marjerie Wilson as "Dodie Blake," Donna Gayle Ashley as "Turtle Dove Finkledink," Olive Stanton as a visitor, Angela Hunger as the little girl, Nancy Mosier as "Lottie Nelson," Claire Kruse as "Cordelia Puckett," and Marilyn Demaree as "Dottie Carleton."

Young Bill Jackson got himself into a terrible jam. But one could hardly blame him for not correcting a wrong impression when fifty thousand dollars were at stake. Bill was a Doctor of Philosophy and a college professor, which meant he really could be called "Doctor." His fiancee, Ange'a Warren, had a wealthy, cranky uncle who liked medical doctors but was strongly opposed to college professors.

The entries of the two hospital roommates, Dodson and Puckett, kept the hospital in a continuous uproar.

Miss Holt, the head nurse of the hospital was a strict disciplinarian over her staff which included Patricia Pryor, Dorothy Carleton, Charlotte Nelson, Dodie Blake, and Jack Benson. The combined efforts of this staff kept the hospital functioning while the head doctor was out of town.

Miss Dovie Finkledink, a funny old maid, embarrassed Henry Dodson by her attentions to him. Cordelia Puckett, Jonathan's disagreeable sister, at times even bossed the nurses with her overbearing disposition.

Another trait of comedy was added by the visitors, a mother and her curious little daughter.

Bill Jackson and Angela Warren received the fifty thousand dollars of Henry Dodson after Bill saves Mr. Dodson's life when Hoofendyke, an insane patient, tried to stab him.

This extremely humorous farce kept the large audience in laughter almost continuously.

The play was ably directed by Miss Opal E. Sherman, to whom much credit is due. The production staff rendered great assistance, and their cooperation helped to make "Take Your Medicine," a real success.

ROW I—Marilyn Demaree, business manager; Miss Opal Sherman, director; Jayne Ann McClanahan, ticket manager; Joanna Sherman, prompter.

For the Senior Class play of 1948, "Adam's Evening," a hilarious farce in three acts was selected. This dramatic triumph was presented to a record crowd on Tuesday evening, April 27, in the Brown gym.

The whole play centered around one incident—the fact that Adam Adams had stayed out till four o'clock in the morning while his wife was away. The complications—including a suspicious wife, a distrustful mother-in-law, two bewildered servants, his distraught companion of the affair, an enraged corpse, a frantic doctor, a suicidal maniac, and the corpse's demanding wife—beset Adam on every side. How Adam finally found a way out of the predicament proved very amusing and enjoyable to the audience.

The members of the cast were carefully and wisely selected; each fitted his part excellently, and under the efficient direction of Miss Opal Sherman, they performed with unusual ease and displayed marked stage presence.

The stage managers working behind scenes, the business managers directing sales of tickets, and the make-up assistant helping with character impersonations, all helped to make the senior class play, "Adam's Evening," a real success in every way.

Special entertainment between acts was provided by a girl's chorus and a boy's chorus, which added greatly to the evening's program.

Debate Club

The Debate Club is a newly-organized club of the school this year, and is sponsored by Miss Opal E. Sherman. Its purpose is to give students the chance to express their opinions on certain topics in formal debates. Several interesting debates were held during the year on topics of current interest. Through the ability and enthusiasm of these young debaters, it is hoped that there will arise many future speakers of America.

The first meeting was called in October, 1947, with the following officers elected:

Marilyn Demaree President
 Claire Kruse Vice President
 Raymond Schnabel Secretary-Treasurer

Custer Contest

The annual Custer Contest, which originated in 1912 and has since been an outstanding senior activity, was held this year on May 7, in the Brown Memorial Gymnasium.

The interest from an endowment fund of one thousand dollars made by the late Mr. A. S. Custer, is used to provide the prizes of thirty dollars, fifteen dollars, and five dollars each for the other three contestants.

Participants in this event are the five members of the senior class who have the highest scholastic standing during their entire four years which, according to one specification made by the donor, shall have been spent in Madison High School.

Contestants from the Class of 1948 and the dramatic readings presented by them is as follows:

Donna Mae Cottrell—"The Greater Race."

Caroline Lynch—"I Give Thee Back."

Shirley Stewart—"Death Is Kinder."

Mary Helen Crozier—"The Miracle Song."

Jack Server—"The Last Run."

The contestants are judged on voice, feeling, action, and enunciation, with all points given equal consideration. For the past several years, members from Hanover College faculty have served as judges.

Caroline Lynch, Donna Mae Cottrell, Jack Server, Mary Helen Crozier, Shirley Stewart.

Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club is an organization to which any girl in M. H. S. is eligible for membership.

Each year the Glee Club sings for auxiliary benefits, for assembly programs and for the annual Spring Concert. A picnic held each spring at Clifty Falls state park adds to the social aspect of the organization. This musical unit of Madison High School provides a good stepping-stone to Choral Club membership.

Officers for the current year were:

President Frances Lauderbaugh

Vice President Velma Jo Walker

Joy Walston Secretary

Helen Monroe Treasurer

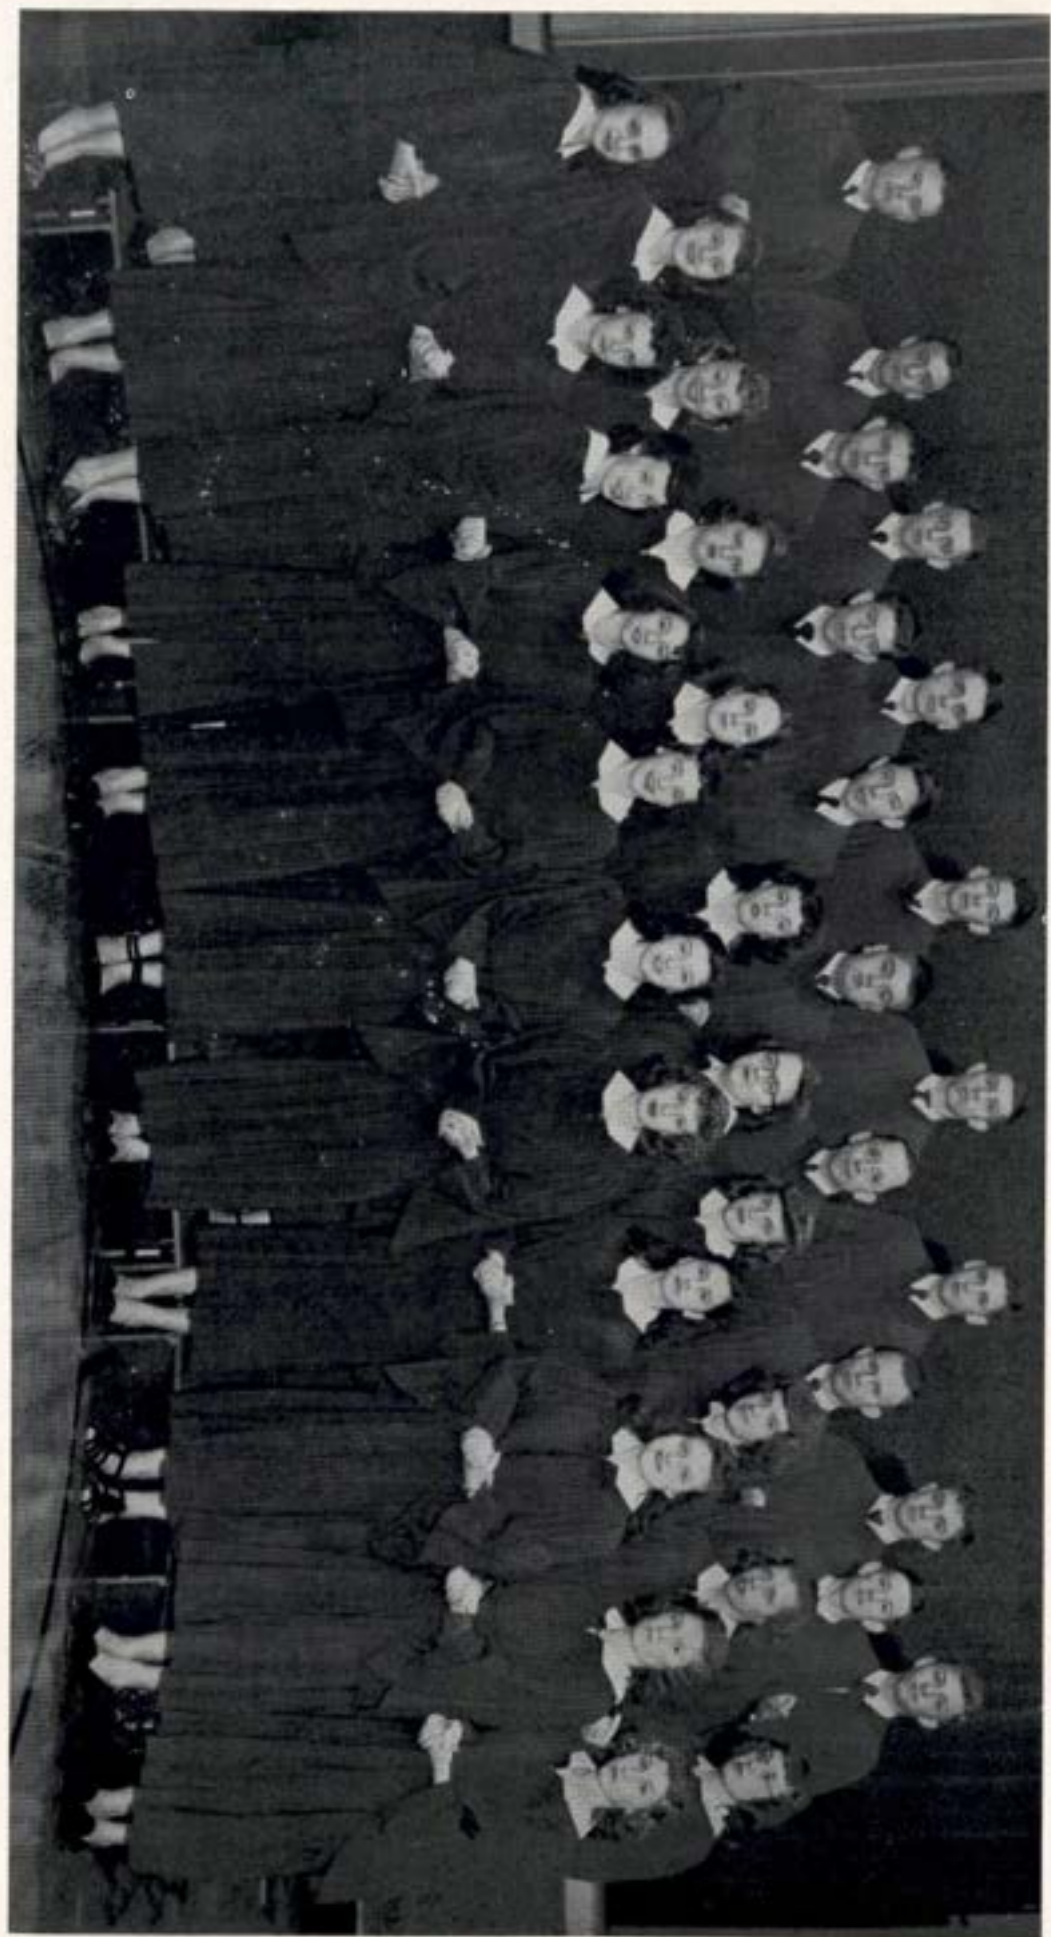

FRONT ROW—Helen Miller, Peggy Gentrup, Velma Jo Walker.

MIDDLE ROW—Betty Carpenter, Frances Lauderbaugh, June Galliber, Vivian Schiphorst, Elizabeth King, Rosa Lee Donham, Betty Bladen.

Choral Club

Membership in the Choral Club is limited to a maximum of forty-eight, and students are admitted solely by rigid examination. Resulting from this procedure is the high standard of work for which the organization is noted.

Activities of the Choral Club included performances before the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, and Elk's Club; Hanover High School, Madison Junior High School and Senior High School assemblies. Highlights of the year's work embraced the Club's appearance at Christmas over WHAS, Louisville, and participation in the Hanover College Choral Festival and the Valley Choral Festival. The unit's social event was the Choral Club Cotillion, held February 17 in the Brown Gymnasium.

Section leaders of the Club, who have performed vital service for their divisions during 1947-48, were: soprano, Marjorie Wilson; alto, Claire Kruse; tenor, Spencer Schnaitter; and bass, Bill Bear.

Officers for the year were:

Bill Bear	President
Bob Knoebel	Vice President
Mary Jane Sauley	Secretary
Fredalynne Daubenbis	Treasurer

Band

The "Big Red," as the Band is fondly called by the students, grew steadily this year in both size and efficient organization. It consisted of fifty-two members.

Among the various functions of the Band this year were playing for the home basketball games; participating in the Tri-City Band Festival, held in North Vernon with the North Vernon and Seymour Bands also present; playing for Baccalaureate and Commencement; journeying to Greensburg to play with the Marine Corps Band; and playing at Greensburg for the Madison-Greensburg game. The social aspect of the Band's calendar was the annual Band Ball. In addition, the Band fascinatingly entertained the fans twice this season with floor shows, at Christmas and Valentine's Day. These performances were received with enthusiasm.

The Band has received much financial and moral support from the Music Parents Association this year.

Officers elected for 1947-1948 were:

Ralph Storm	President
Betty Jo Ackerman	Vice President
Mildred Johnson	Secretary
John Hoffman	Treasurer

Dick Henderson and Jim Demaree served efficiently as librarians, and Philip Stanton, as chairman of the Property Crew, did a capable job.

Coach Eddy

The one man responsible for the offensive-minded edition of the 1947-1948 CUBS was Coach Ray Eddy, who served his ninth year as master mentor of M. H. S. basketball.

Never before has a coach and a team work so faithfully and diligently together as did Coach Eddy and his CUBS. Mr. Eddy himself declared that the cooperation secured the past season was the finest that he had ever received from any group of boys.

Evidence of this teamwork can be found in the enviable record which the CUBS established in 1947-1948.

Even more of a tribute to the many acclamations to Mr. Eddy is the fine spirit of sportsmanship and conduct which his boys displayed both on and off the playing floor.

Never before has a man deserved so much praise and credit as does Mr. Eddy. We students of M. H. S. say congratulations, Mr. Eddy.

Coach Manaugh

Once again the mighty second team was coached by a man of ability, leadership, and high standards of sportsmanship. This man took a team of raw recruits and whipped them into a smooth running squad that copped sixteen games in seventeen outings. This ability (to make a team click) is one of Coach Manaugh's outstanding characteristics and he is well known for this fact.

The man "with many ties" has been guiding the seconds for several years, and his emphasis on fundamentals is beginning to show in some of the fine ballplayers that are now performing on the varsity.

"Poodle's" teams are known for their "never say die" spirit and are always known to fight to the last second of the game. These facts have shown up in the fine records that have been made by the team functioning under the able guidance of Coach Manaugh.

M. H. S. students are proud to have an assistant coach of such high caliber as C. O. Manaugh.

ROW I—John Kasper, Jack Server, Harold Muncie, Raymond Green, Spencer Schnaitter, Eddie Orrill, Tuck Cheatham.

Season Sidelights

The high-scoring Cubs of 1947-48 far surpassed any previous M. H. S. teams in so far as offense was concerned. The Cubs amassed a total of 1402 points in twenty-six games, for a 53.9 average per game (tourney included). Seven times the Eddymen passed the sixty mark, while their highest individual game tally was 81, made during the Sectional.

Of equal recognition was the fine record made by the Madison team during the past season. Regular season play saw the Cubs cop 15 games while losing but three. Madison also took the Jasper Holiday Invitational Tourney at Jasper, by defeating such reputed teams as New Albany and Jasper.

The Cubs began their season by dropping Vevay, Columbus, and North Vernon with decisive scores before they fell to the Tigers of Lawrenceburg by a 49-46 count. The Bruins then captured five straight from Salem, Mitchell, Southport, and New Albany and Jasper, at the Jasper Invitational.

The Shelbyville Golden Bears surprised the mighty Cubs at the beginning of the year by edging the Eddymen by a score of 44-43. Madison bounced back again, though, by trouncing Aurora, Jeffersonville, Salem, and Seymour. They were then defeated by a strong Franklin team by a three-point margin, 42-39.

Brownstown, Huntingburg, Batesville, Greensburg, and Lawrenceburg then fell victim to the Cubs to complete the regular season. By dropping Lawrenceburg to the tune of 36-33 in the last game, the Eddymen blackened a hitherto unblemished Tiger record. It was a repetition of history, since the record books show that the Cubs of 1946-47 did the same to Lawrenceburg.

The Cubs finished second in the final Southeastern Conference standings behind Lawrenceburg. Both teams had lost only one game, but Lawrenceburg clinched the title by playing more conference tilts than the Cubs did.

Another laurel added to the Cubs' achievements was the selection of Dee Monroe, Cub forward and leading scorer, to the Courier Journal All-State basketball team.

Graduation will take six boys from the varsity squad of 1947-48, but fans can look forward to another successful season next year. Future aggregations, however, will certainly have a record at which to shoot.

Sectional

Central and New Washington opened hostilities at the Madison Sectional with Central emerging victorious by a count of 40-25.

The Wildcats of Central were slated to meet Dupont in a later game as the Red Devils from Dupont drubbed Deputy 50-38.

The Scottsburg Warriors then surprised the Austin Eagles by coming from behind in the last quarter to defeat Austin 43-39. Scottsburg had trailed throughout the game until the closing minutes.

In the fourth game of the Sectional, North Madison proved to be no match for Saluda as the Lions dropped the Tigers from Northtown by a score of 55-35.

Next saw the Lexington Minute-Men take a close decision from Paris Crossing 50-46. Lexington's largest margin was a 25-17 halftime lead.

The Cubs made their debut against the Hanover Bulldogs and downed their opponents with comparative ease. Hanover led only once during the entire game and that was 2-0 lead gained after the tip-off. From then on the Cubs took things into their own hands and led at each rest by scores of 14-4, 23-12, 51-24, and 74-37.

In the next encounter, Central won its second victory of the Sectional at the expense of Dupont, 42-34. Although the score was tied at different occasions, the Wildcats were never headed.

Probably the most thrilling game took place when Scottsburg again pulled one from the fire in eliminating Saluda, 33-32 in an overtime. Saluda had led at the first three stops, 8-6, 11-10, and 21-18. A 27-27 deadlock at the end of regulation play sent the game into an overtime, from which Scottsburg emerged triumphant.

The Cubs then made short work of Lexington by posting their highest score of the year in defeating the Minute-Men by the 60-point margin of 81-21. Madison's first string ran the count to 22-1 before retiring in favor of the substitutes. The Eddymen continued to raise the score, however, and leads of 30-4, 53-7, and 63-11 were made at the quarter rests.

Scottsburg continued their winning ways by beating a scrappy, but out-classed Central quintet by a score of 48-38. Central led at the first stop, but then Scottsburg pulled away until they had built up a 39-20 lead at the end of the third quarter. Central was never able to overcome this margin and finally fell to the Warriors 48-38.

In the last game of the Sectional the Cubs met their strongest foe in the Scottsburg Warriors and were pressed for three quarters before they subdued the Warriors and presented the Sectional crown to M. H. S. The first half was a see-saw battle back and forth with the Cubs leading 13-12 at the first quarter stop, and holding a 28-25 margin at halftime. The third period saw the Cubs begin to roll and they maintained a 42-32 lead going into the final eight minutes. During the last canto, the Eddymen began to find the basket, and they rang the bell for 25 tallies to down Scottsburg by a final score of 67-44.

By virtue of this win, the Cubs won their fourth straight Sectional title and their seventh in the last eight years. This is certainly a fine tribute to Coach Eddy and the Madison Cubs.

Regional

The Cubs won their first Regional in five years and their fourth in eight years as they emerged victorious at the Shelbyville Regional by eliminating both Greensburg and Columbus from tourney play.

Madison drubbed Greensburg 65-38 in their afternoon encounter and came back strong that night to down a much-improved Columbus quintet, 55-40.

Columbus pulled a mild upset in the opening game of the tourney by stopping the Franklin Grizzlies, 43-39. Height seemed to be the determining factor in the outcome of this game as Columbus used to advantage its three boys who each passed the 6'3" mark.

The Madison-Greensburg game never seemed to be in doubt as the Cubs ran up a ten-point halftime margin and managed to keep a comfortable lead throughout the remainder of the game. The Cubs led at each stop. The quarter scores were 16-10, 28-18, 41-27, and 65-38.

It remained for Madison and Columbus to decide the issue in the final game. The Cubs proved that they would not be denied the chance which they had for so long aspired. The Eddymen belted the Bulldogs from Columbus by a 55-40 score. The game was not decided until the fourth quarter, as the Bulldogs were kept in the game by their three "giants." Speed, deception and control of rebounds, however, finally won out for the Cubs. Scores at the quarter stops were 12-10, 21-18, 31-26, and 55-40.

Semi-Finals

The Cubs advanced to the Semi-Finals at Butler Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, but as it turned out, they made but one appearance before the fifteen thousand fans jammed into the fieldhouse.

In the first game of the afternoon session the Eddymen lost a heart-breaker to the Anderson Indians by the narrow margin of 39-38. Had the Cubs' first half of play been as spirited as the last half, things might have turned out differently.

Madison trailed the Indians by ten points at halftime, 22-12, but were steadily closing the gap during the second period when time ran out as the score read Anderson 39, Madison 38.

Lawrenceburg won the right to meet Anderson by defeating Crawfordsville in the second afternoon game, 47-43 in a closely contested game.

Anderson edged Lawrenceburg in the night encounter of the Semi-Finals, however, by the one-point margin of 45-44. Anderson later lost to Lafayette, the eventual state champions.

Second Team

Near perfection was again attained by the reserves of Coach C. O. Manaugh as they "brought home the bacon" sixteen out of seventeen times. The seconds were handed their only defeat on foreign ground, succumbing to the Mitchell reserves at Mitchell. The game was nip and tuck all the way with Mitchell emerging victorious, 29-25.

The "sparkling seconds" were led by two varsity reserves, Eddie Orrill and Jim Werbe who were sent down to receive more experience, that they might perform on the varsity next season. Also aiding in the cause for victory were regulars Eddie Cheatham, Bill Johann, and Charles "Monk" Browne.

The 1947-48 production of the reserves were out to tie last year's record of seventeen wins, no losses. The Cubettes came within one game of completing that task. They can be equally as proud of this feat as was the team of a year ago. The second team and their efficient coach are to be congratulated on such a fine season.

Interclass

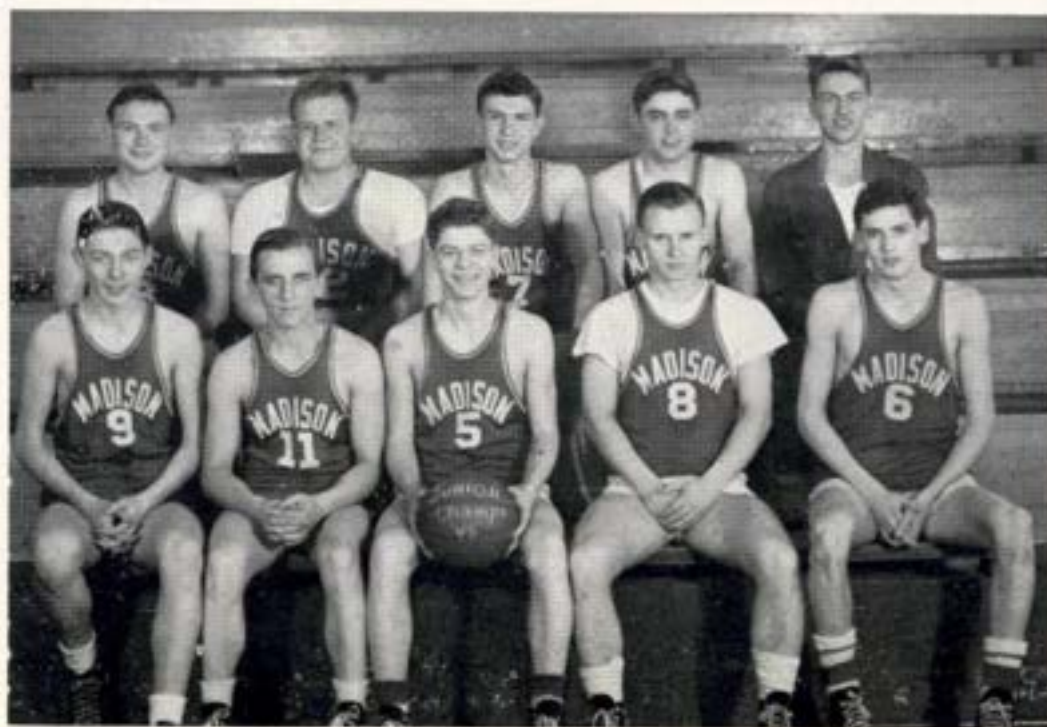

The seniors and sophomores coached by Hal Muncie and Spence Schnaitter, respectively, opened Interclass hostilities on Thursday afternoon, October 9. The seniors outran and outfought a scrappy sophomore quintet to advance to the finals of the tourney. The seniors were led by Kenny Lee and John Kasper, two of the starting five of the unbeaten 1946-47 Little Cubs. The final score of the opener read, Seniors 27, Sops 20.

The power-laden juniors over ran the frightened freshmen in the second tussle of the tourney by the score of 22-16. Looking best for the juniors were Bill Johann and Ed Orrill. The freshmen were tutored by Ray Green.

The final battle of the upperclassmen was staged at 8:00 Friday night. The game was close throughout. Neither team led by more than three points and the score was tied on numerous occasions. Jim Werbe, who collected eleven points for his night's work, then fired two quick buckets that iced the game for the 1947-48 Interclass champs 20-16. The junior champs were coached by Dee Monroe.

Intramural

The intramural club was again formed this year through the willing assistance of two faculty members, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Carpenter. Six teams competed during the regular season with the undefeated Termites walking off with the crown. They were closely pressed by the Monsters and Red Devils.

This year the teams were more evenly matched and this made competition more keen. Much credit for the development of the intramural league must go to the sponsors Mr. Wilson and Mr. Carpenter. Without their efforts, their interest in sports competition among boys, the league would not have succeeded.

The following boys were elected to serve as officers of the club for the 1947-1948 year:

Tom Nichols	President
Emmett Kelley	Vice President
Don Hummel	Treasurer

The six competing teams, their members and coaches are:

TERMITES	MONSTERS	DEMONS
Spencer Schnaitter, coach	Kenny Lee, coach	Vincent Goebel, coach
Don Hummel	Jim Craig	Ralph Storms
Lee Buchanan	Bob Knoebel	Phil Stanton
John Hertz	Tom Nichols	Louis Dalhover
Tom Ryker	Clark Ketterman	John Hoffman

The Intramural championship tourney was held the last three weeks in March. The Termites advanced easily to the finals of the tourney. The Monsters had a tougher time of it. They were beaten once and were extended into an overtime to reach the final round.

In their first engagement of the finals, the Monsters upset the dope basket and turned back the Termites 21-21. The Termites came roaring back to take the crown 30-19.

The All-Star Intramural team as selected by the sponsors and referees are as follows:

- F. Don Hummel, Termites
- F. Tom Nichols, Monsters
- F. Clark Ketterman, Monsters
- F. Jack Winters, Monsters
- F. Jim Craig, Monsters
- C. Marion Ross, Red Devils

Baseball

The 1947-48 edition of the M. H. S. baseball team won their second straight baseball crown by copping nine straight wins without a loss. This is the first time in many years that this feat has been accomplished. It is what you might call a going away gift for Coach Robert Hodgers.

Three pitchers were responsible for all nine wins. Dee Monroe, Bill Haines, and Tom Nichols each twirled three victorious games for M. H. S. Nichols was undefeated in high school competition.

Also aiding the cause were two other seniors, Captain Jack Server and Tuck Cheatham who cavorted at third base and shortstop respectively. The loss of their hitting and fielding ability will be felt by next year's team.

Returning will be Ed Orrill, who hit safely in every game this year; Bill Johann, who took up the catching chores and did a notable job behind the bat. Spence Schnaitter will be back at first and Ted Server at second. The big hole on the left side of the diamond may be filled in by Bill Haines at third and Ed Cheatham at short. Monk Browne and Don McCauley will be in the outfield with Orrill while Don Hummel is expected to help the pitching corps.

The nine consecutive wins of the M. H. S. team were all conference tilts. They gained single victories over North Vernon, Lawrenceburg, and Aurora while achieving double wins over Batesville, Vevay, and Austin.

ROW I—Kenny Lee, Bob James, Jim Werbe, Ray Green, Jimmy Green, Bill Bear, Bob Lorenz, Buddy Short, Coach Ray Eddy.
 ROW II—Vincent Goebel, Donald Lee, Larry McClanahan, Bob Beetem, Stan Weber, Marion Ross, Dave McCoy, Bob Smith, Russell Eaglin, Frazier Garrett.
 ROW III—Charles Melton, Joe Cain, James Alexan^{son}, Paul Rowlett, Gale Crozler, Bob Karst, Johnny Werbe, Wayne Ritchey, Charles Smith, Tommy Ryker.

Track

In track, M. H. S. did not fair so well as she did in other sports. The Madison thinlies competed in only three meets and failed to bring home a victory. During the regular season Salem and Jeff dumped the Cubs by margins of twenty points or less.

Madison then went to the conference meet in which we were the host team and defending champions. Salem then proceeded to "run away" with the title and the Cubs could do no better than second place. Ray Green, Jim Werbe, and Kenny Lee were Madison's chief point getters.

In the state sectional track meet only Ray Green faired well enough to go to the state meet. Ray tossed the 12-pound shot 47 ft. 2 in. to walk away with first place in the shot put event.

Ray Green was the only representative of M. H. S. in the state meet. Bad luck plagued Ray and he was forced out in the trials.

Bill Bear, Ray Green, Kenny Lee, and Bob James will be lost by graduation. These four boys helped form the backbone of the 1947-48 track team and will be badly missed next season. Returning to the cinders next year will be Jim Werbe, Wayne Ritchey, Bud Short, Marion Ross, Bob Karst, and Charles Smith. Around these able athletes will grow next year's track team.

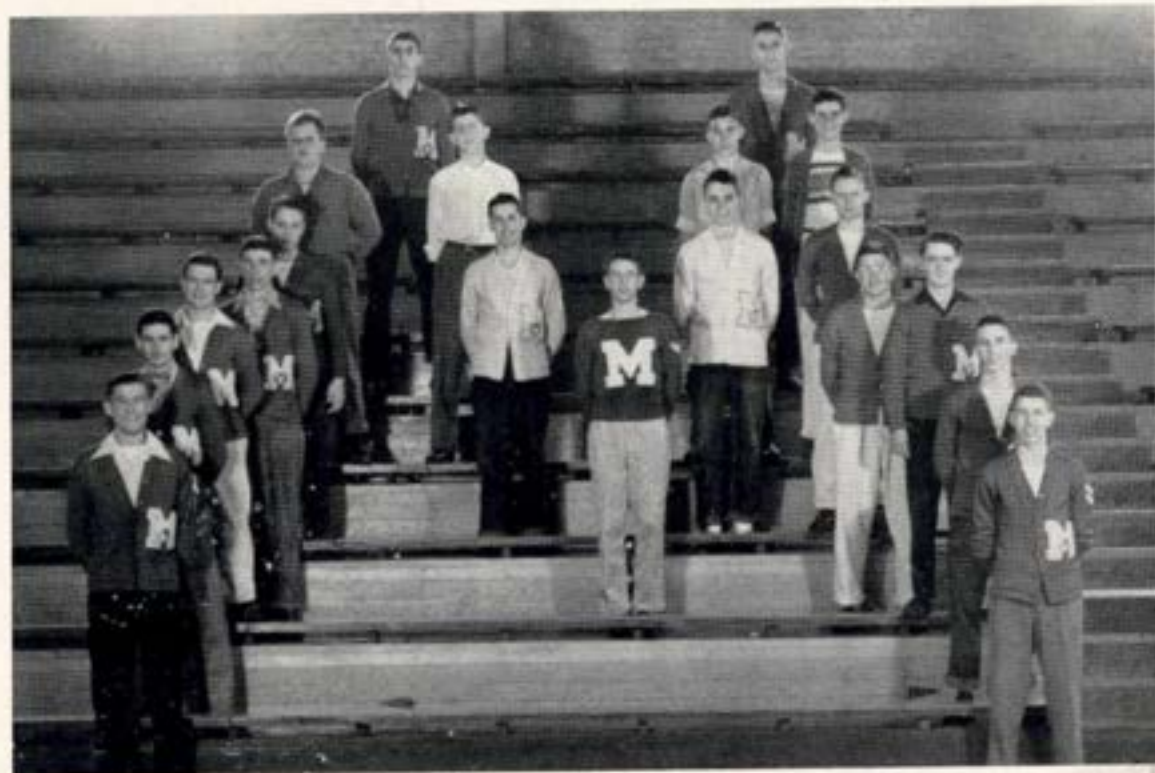

Dick Demaree, Kathleen Peddle, Ronnie Knoebel, Donna Bersch, David Long.

Yell Leaders

At every basketball game during the past season could be seen the most ardent rooters and followers of the Madison Cubs. These were the yell leaders who played as hard a game as the players themselves did.

No matter whether the Cubs were leading in a game, or whether they were trailing, these yell leaders were constantly keeping the cheering section of M. H. S. alive and enthusiastic. It was through their tireless efforts that the M. H. S. rooting section rated second to none. We say "hats off" to Ronnie Knoebel, Donna Bersch, Kathleen Peddle, Dick Demaree, and David Long.

Willie Johnson, a sawed-off beaten-down, little colored fellow, was arraigned in a Texas district court on a felony charge.

The clerk intoned: "The State of Texas versus Willie Johnson!"

Before he could read further Willie almost broke up the meeting by solemnly declaring, "Lawdy! What a majority!"

Once upon a time a poor country boy, with little education, went to New York. He left home with the advice "Beware of them city slickers" still ringing in his good ear. Sure enough, he had only been there three days when he bought the Empire State Building for $500.

Then the next day he sold it to a native New Yorker for a nice profit.

Once upon a time there was a professor. This man had always been studious, and he liked to study and learn. But one day he discovered that in all his knowledge he knew very little about foreign languages.

So he started studying languages and perfecting his own native English. For years he studied hard and finally learned to speak eight different languages perfectly.

Then he got married and seldom got in a word edgewise.

Moral: Men are born free, but often marry.

Mrs. Bland moved into a new hotel and before going out to buy herself a radio, she called up the desk clerk. "Have you A. C. or D. C. current here?" she asked.

At a West Coast port not long ago a navy doctor intercepted a sailor who was carrying aboard a rather unusual pet, a baby skunk.

"You can't take that below decks," the doctor ruled. "Just think of the odor down there."

"Oh, that's all right," the sailor assured him. "He'll get used to it the same as I did."

"I had a tough battle to get into society."

"Had to keep your chin up, eh?"

"No, just my nose."

Irate Shopper—"I demand to know, what is this 'tom cat 20 cents' on my bill?"

Grocer—"Now, Mrs. Quonset, don't get excited; I was in a hurry, and that's your bottle of tomato catsup."

The postal clerk weighed Susie's letter and said, "It's too heavy; you'll have to put another stamp on it."

"Why do you always flirt with waitresses?"
"I'm playing for big steaks."

"A man without a country!" cried the speaker of the day.

"What plight could be more sad than that? It would be hard to say!"

"I think he's got it backwards," whispered Sue to Mary Ann.

"The really awful thing would be a country without a man!"

These are the facts and I face them;
Foods that are highly nutritious
Too often are blessed with the nature
Of tasting undelicious.

When a sailor at a navy swimming class refused to dive from a 15-ft. platform, the instructor asked: "What would you do if you were that high on a sinking ship?"

"Sir," said the student, "I'd wait for it to sink about 10 ft. more."

"My husband has no bad habits whatsoever. He never drinks and he spends all his evenings at home."

"Does he smoke?"

"Only in moderation. He likes a good cigar after he has a good dinner. But I don't suppose he smokes two cigars a month."

"See that boy over there annoying Mabel?"

"Why, he isn't even looking at her."

"That's what's annoying her."

"Dad, what do you call a man who drives a car?"

Indians have wonderful memories. While driving from Durango, Colo., to Gallup, N. M., a man asked a copper-colored chief on the highway if he liked eggs. He grunted, "Yes."

Two weeks later, returning through the reservation, the man spied the same Indian. He stuck his hand out of the car window and shouted, by way of greeting, "How?"

The chief answered, "Scrambled!"
