Dedication

"We didn't do it in forty-one,
But we tried again in forty-nine.
Our crowning year was nineteen-fifty
When the Cubs came through to really shine."

Yes, nineteen-fifty did the trick, for "our Cubs" won the State Championship in Basketball. It is to this great team and their unequalled coach, Ray Eddy, that we, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty, do hereby dedicate this book.

HAPPINESS

Just the other day I was talking to the father of one of the pupils in the elementary grades. We chatted for quite a while discussing one thing, then another. Finally he told me what he was doing. He seemed to be happy in his work. What do you think this man's job is? You will never guess. He works on the city garbage truck. Is that anything to be happy about? If you look at it in the same way that this man does you will think so. He was happy because he was doing a job necessary for the health of the community. He felt that he was playing a very important part in the great drama of human welfare.

All of you will soon be engaged in some activity. You may be doctors, lawyers, ministers, teachers, housewives, etc. What-ever your occupation the fullest life will come when you realize that you, through your vocation, are giving your community a real service and making it better by your living in it. Success is not to be measured in dollars alone. Many of the happiest and most successful people never accumulated wealth. So whatever you do, think of your employment as a contribution of service, and be content.

Charles F. Kettering once said, "My interest is in the future because I am going to live the rest of my life there." What a wonderful motto for the rest of us to use for shaping our lives.

All too many of us are too short-sighted. We live only in the present; we think only of the present; we are satisfied with the present if it merely permits us to get by, so to speak. Complacency is the thief of our happiness and success, because none of us can live in the present. What our future will hold for us in the way of success, happiness, usefulness to ourself and society, in contentment, and satisfaction, will depend upon our realization now, in the present, that we are going to live with ourself in the future.

Are we making such use of our present that we will be satisfied with our future? My hope and my wish for each member of this class of 1950 is that he will resolve now that his interest is in his future because he realizes that he is going to spend the rest of his life there.

C. K. Salm, Principal.

Class History

We pushed open the door to our high school career in September, 1946. Wide-eyed, frightened, puzzled, but really happy, we soon accustomed ourselves to the hurricane. Getting down to business we chose as our freshmen officers: Donald McCauley, president; Minerva Crozier, vice-president; Joan Hoffman, secretary; and Kathleen Peddie, treasurer. Mary Alice Hill and Jim Green represented us on the Student Council, and David Long was chosen as yell leader.

Our dramatic ability was displayed by Mary Alice Hill and Joan Hoffman, who had parts in the school play.

Don McCauley, Eddie Cheatham, Don Hummel, Jimmie Green, Charles Browne, and "Scando" Schnaitter brought us fame on the second team. Then "Scando" made the varsity along with Ted Server.

Our second year officers were all boys: president, Ted Server; vice-president, Tom Ryker; secretary-treasurer, Spencer Schnaitter. Joan Smalley, Buddy Short, Minerva Crozier, and Dodd Gormon represented us on the Student Council.

"Take Your Medicine," the school play, starred Mary Jane Beetem, Nancy Moster, Mary Elizabeth Demaree, Dodd Gormon, and Albert Witt, all from our class.

David Long was again chosen as yell leader, along with Kathleen Peddie.

We had lost quite a few of our members by the time we were juniors. We chose as our leaders: Spencer Schnaitter, president; Mary Jane Beetem, vice-president; Isabelle Smith, secretary; and Sarah C. Murphy, treasurer.

Don McCauley, Carmen Lynch, and Charles Browne represented us on the Student Council, and David Long and Kathleen Peddie served again as yell leaders.

Tom Ryker was the student manager for the Cubs, and Don McCauley, Spencer Schnaitter, Ted Server, Eddie Cheatham, Charles Browne, and Jim Green played on the teams.

Isabelle Smith, Sarah C. Murphy, Billy G. Miller, David Long, and Carmen Lynch played in the school play, "Grandad Meets a Pal."

The schedule pencil sale, the annual magazine

sale, and the sale of "Cub" pictures helped to finance our Junior-Senior Prom, which was a huge success. Thus we concluded our third busy year at M. H. S.

As we entered our final year, we chose as our officers, the same four we had as juniors; Spencer Schnaitter, president; Mary Jane Beetem, vice-president; Isabelle Smith, secretary; and Sarah C. Murphy, treasurer.

Tom Ryker was elected president of the Student Council, and Mary Alice Hill, Laura Mills, Minerva Crozier, Don McCauley, and David Long served as members.

This proved to be the greatest year of all for the Madison Cubs, for this year, the Cubs did it! They won the State Championship in Basketball by defeating Jefferson of Lafayette in the final game 67-44. We'll never forget those five senior boys who made up half the team: Spencer Schnaitter, Ted Server, Charles Browne, Eddie Cheatham, and Don McCauley.

Dave Long, Mary Alice Hill, and Isabelle Smith were stage managers for the school play, "The Lucky Accident"; Mary Anne Lauer was costume manager. The cast included five seniors: Jeanette Shipley, Jack Schnabel, Don Hummel, Joan Hoffman, and Ronnie Irwin. Margaret Robinson aided in designing advertising posters.

The senior play, "Rise and Shine," was a comedy in three acts. The cast included David Long, Carmen Lynch, Martha J. Manaugh, Jeanette Shipley, Isabelle Smith, Jack Schnabel, Don McCauley, Billy G. Miller, Charles Browne, Joan Hoffman, Bardo Cheatham, and Nancy Moster. The production staff, Mary Anne Lauer, Betty Schiphorst, Wilma Hatebel, Larry McClanahan, and Joyce Gronseth, proved to be very helpful. Dave Long and Kathleen Peddie again were chosen yell leaders for the fourth and third year, respectively.

The end of the year was rushed with the senior play, Custer Contest, Class Day Exercises, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

At last we have made it, after twelve long years, and as we go on to push the doors of our success, we shall carry with us what we have learned, done and enjoyed. Our goal is ahead, and we optimistically look forward with high hopes and with pride, for we are graduates of Madison High School in this year, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Class Will

We, the members of the 1950 class of Madison High School, state of Indiana, county of Jefferson, city of Madison, possessive of superior intellect and wisdom, do hereby establish this as our last will and testament:

Article I.

INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS:

I, Jack Alexander, will my Rudolph Valentino brand of charm to Joe Matthews. Remember, Joe, 'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have loved.

I, George Anderson, bequeath my thorough knowledge of psychology to next year's class. It never works when I try to use it anyhow!

I, Mary Jane Beetem, will my flaming red hair (complete with temper) to Nancy Smith. Now, Nancy, you'll have an excuse for those tantrums.

I, Betty Bladen, will my quiet ways to Carolee Short. 'Nuff said!

I, Roy Brooks, having built up my 97 pound frame to its present status, will my Charles Atlas' Correspondence Course to Louie Yungman.

I, Charles Browne, do leave my patented "hook shot" to Stanley Weber. Use it as often as you can, Stan.

I, Eddie Cheatham, will my Bluebeard ways to Eddie Hatchell. Now you'll really slay 'em, Eddie.

I, Marian Cofield, will my nickname, "Meatball," to Helen Vincent. This bequest will require at least four hot fudge sundaes and two double malts a week.

I, Mary Jane Cox, will my flirtatious ways to "Toots" Hoffman. Take care of them, Toots!

I, Minerva Crozier, will my long, blond locks to all the dark-haired lasses of MHS. Thank goodness! I guess I can throw out that bottle of peroxide at last!

I, Mary E. Demaree, will my ability to walk in high heels to all you struggling future ladies of MHS.

I, Ann Ditzler, will my long eyelashes to Dorothy Miller. Now you won't have to use the other kind, Dot.

I, Dodd Gorman, will my place in the Melody Masters to David McCoy. Carry on the tradition, Dave.

I, Jim Green, will my four years' experience in the tardy room to Ralph Thorpe. You've a fine start, Ralph; just keep it up.

I, Joyce Gronseth, will my love of arguments to next year's Debate Club.

I, June Haak, will my uncanny typing ability to anyone who has money enough to buy seventeen typing erasers in one semester.

I, Norman Hassfurd, will my super-duper style of jitter-bugging to Sonny Cox.

I, Wilma Hatchell, will my naturally curly hair to Mr. Salm. No more Tonis now, C. K.

I, John Hertz, will my height to Charlie Hill. Of course, this will mean no more ducking under player's legs during ball games, "Ears."

I, Mary Alice Hill, will my job as alto section leader in the Choral Club to Jo Ann Hooker. Tens those muscles, Jo!

I, Joan Marie Hoffman, will my pint-sized feet and hands to any six year old who needs them. They're too big for me, anyway.

I, Don Horton, will my blond, wavy hair to Sammy Cole. Won't the girls be thrilled?

I, Don Hummel, will my slightly used PURDUE sweatshirt to next year's MPA rummage sale. They say they'll sell anything.

I, Ronald Irwin, will my way with women to all the boys of MHS. "Say, fellows, if there's anything about girls that I don't know, it hasn't been learned by anybody yet," according to Walton Knox in the "Lucky Accident."

I, Clyde James, will my ability to skip school to any student who is willing to spend half of his time in tardy room. "Crime does not pay."

I, Russel James, alias "Albert Einstein," leave to all future students my ability to answer all questions—concerning chemistry, that is!

I, Patricia Ann Kelley, bequeath my nickname "Killer" to Pat Davison. With those fingernails, Pat, you should have no trouble.

I, Cedric Klein, will my clarinet to "Stan the Man" Goldberg. Play it pretty, Leon.

I, Mary Klopp, will my Kentucky fellows to my sister Nell Gay. I won't be needing them now that I'm engaged.

I, Jane Ann Knoebel, will my ability to go steady for three years to Marie Stoner. Good Luck!

I, Frances Lauderbaugh, will my long walk home to the members of the track team. Now, you can really keep in condition, boys.

I, Mary Anne Lauer, will my ability to make hydrochloric gas to next year's chemistry class. Watch your skirts, girls!

I, Neal Lewis, will my spontaneous laughter to next year's seniors. Remember, "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Class Will continued

I, David Long, will my ability as a cheerleader to all the future yell leaders of MHS.

I, Carmen Lynch, will my ability to get "excused" from band to Janet White. That study hall comes in handy sometimes.

I, Martha Jean Mansaugh, will my liking for the underclass males to the seniors of '51. 'Nuff said.

I, Billy G. Miller, being of sound mind (?) and body, leave Madison, Indiana, for Corpus Christie, Texas, soon after I graduate.

I, Laura Mills, will my "influence" with the men teachers of MHS to my little sister, Margie. Now you'll get good grades, Marge.

I, Helen Marie Monroe, will my ability to feud and fuss and fight with my boy friend, and still keep him, to Roberta Potter. Now, maybe you'll have better luck with your boy friends, Roberta.

I, Nancy Moster, do hereby bequeath my keen, analytical mind to Clarita Dattilo. You'll need it when you take algebra.

I, Sarah Catherine Murphy, will my nickname of "Mitzie" to Angela Hunger. Maybe you'll get away from "Buttercup."

I, Larry McClanahan, will my enviable (?) seat in Mr. Reul's class to anyone who is nearsighted. Believe me, you won't have to strain your eyes in the front seat!

I, Don McCauley, will my position as guard on the first five to Dave Turner. Don't let us down, Dave.

I, Norman O'Banion, will my Mercurian swiftness to Noble Whitehead. It really helps in playing basketball.

I, Kathleen Peddie, do hereby will my pleasing personality to my little brother, Pete. Now you'll be swamped by girls, Pete.

I, Margaret Robinson, will my flightiness and giggling laugh to Mr. Buckles. With these you should make a big hit with your sisters.

I, Marion Ross, leave my nickname of "Gootch" to Gale Crozier. Mine sounds so much more refined than "Bull."

I, Jack Schnabel, will my ability to escape the clutches of the green-eyed man-eaters to Jack Bird. You have a good start, Jack.

I, Tommy Ryker, leave Rita June in the care of Mr. Rothert. What am I saying?

I, Spencer Schnaitter, do bequeath my middle name of Jason to Mr. Reul. Now the girls won't tease you about your middle name.

I, Ted Server, leave my way with women to Billy Hord. Confidentially, I hope you have more luck with it than I did.

I, Betty Schiphorst, leave my baritone sax to Olive Jo Stanton. You tote it around for a while, J-Jo. I'm tired.

I, Jeanette Shipley, will my vim, vigor, and vitality to my sister, Ellen. Vitamins help in some cases.

I, Charles Ralph Short, will my nick name of "Bud" to Irwin Bunton. Now you have a monopoly, Bud.

I, Kathryn Isabelle Smith, will my poetic ability to Patty Powell. We'll expect masterpieces, Patty.

I, Roberta Smith, will my knowledge of English to all of Miss Lotz's students. Your worries are over, Miss Lotz.

I, Glenna Thenes, will my ability to take two years of typing without buying a single pack of paper to Norma Sue Newman.

I, Bill Turner, do hereby bequeath my nickname "Earl" to "Little George" Humphrey. It's shorter, anyway.

I, Velma Walker, will my love of the Navy to any MHS girl who can endure being lonesome between leaves.

I, Norma Watson, do hereby leave my "Huckle-buck" technique to my sister, Janet. It's all in the family, you know.

I, Margaret Maloney, will my knowledge of French to Bob Smith and Edie Stoner. It may make your notes a little more secret.

Article II.

GROUP BEQUESTS

We, the seniors of 1950, do hereby leave our senior good times, our diplomas and gowns, our cards and announcements to the juniors. You have a wonderful year ahead of you.

To the sophomores we leave our first prom and our magazine and pencil sales.

To the freshmen we leave our way around the school, our ability to see things through, and all the happy times ahead.

To the above, we, the class of 1950, do hereby affix our seal and declare this to be our last will and testament on this twenty-third day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty.

Class of 1950

President—Spencer Schnaitter.

Secretary—Kathryn I. Smith.

THE GABFEST GAZETTE

ALL-STAR REVUE TO OPEN

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 23, 1960 (AP)—The Paris Follies of 1960 is due to open tomorrow with a great all-star cast composed of many famous men and women of the theatre world. The show will be for at least six months, according to the manager, Wilma Hatchel, and possibly longer. Seats for the show are to be reserved and none are available for at least four months, as they have been sold out.

Billy G. Miller, better known as Listo, the Magician, will be singing M. C., and promises to be very funny as well as mysterious. Other members of the cast are as follows:

Joan Hoffman and Donald Hummel, stars of the show, sing several duets as well as many entertaining solos. This couple has just come from a five months stand at the Imperial Theatre in Chicago.

Glenna Thenes and Norman Hassfurder, jitterbug champions of 1951, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 60, will present their own version of several outstanding jive hits of the day.

Betty Bladen, the Betty Grable of the accordion, direct from a two year tour of the world and Mars, will be in the show for the first three weeks and then will accept a five year contract at the famous Rocket Drive-In on Jupiter.

Norma Jean Watson is the star vocalist of The Paris Follies of 1960, and it is rumored that her starting salary for this engagement runs into four figures a day.

Isabelle Smith and Frances Lauderbough are the directors of the hundred girl chorus line and promise one of the most precision-trained groups of girls the country has ever seen.

After its engagement here, the "Follies" show will journey to the planet, Mars, for a one year extended stand at the Universal Theatre.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 2—Registration was held for the last leg of our journey.
- 6—Back to school. The big doors were thrown open for the final chapter of our school career.
- 16—The Juniors selected their class rings and the Seniors chose their commencement announcements. This brought graduation even closer.
- 27—The Cubs' softball team started on their road to fame with a 5-2 win over Vevay. You can expect to see them in the World Series next year.
- 30—More softball, this time a tourney held at Madison. Vevay emerged with the S. E. I. C. Crown. Tough luck, Cubs.

OCTOBER

- 6—The Freshmen entertained the assembly with a very realistic Riley program.
- 3—Dave Long, Sonny Cox, Kass Peddie, and Clara Ireland were chosen as 1950's cheer leaders.
- 10—After a terrific campaign, Tom Ryker was chosen as Student Council president.
- 12—McCauley's Sophomores won the Boys' Inter-class Basketball Tourney. Can't imagine "wot happened" to the Seniors.
- 13, 14—Tests. The Seniors got by easily, but we heard the underclassmen really struggled. We all learned how much we didn't know. The Student Council held their first meeting, proving that they will be very active this year.
- 18—Our Cubs looked professional in the Chuck Taylor basketball demonstration. The Cubs rarely missed a pass or play.
- 20—Adolphe Weiser, I. U. pianist, gave an excellent concert of Chopin's works. It proved to be one of the best programs of the year.
- 23—Flash! Issue Number 1 of "The Madsonian" hot off the press.
- 27, 28—Teachers attended Teacher's Institute to gain more knowledge so they wouldn't be surpassed by the students.

NOVEMBER

- 1—"Wanta buy a pencil or a magazine subscription?" A new month was opened with a new cry from the Juniors. The Prom is on its way again.
- 3—The Big Red Band journeyed to Seymour for the Tri-City Band Festival. North Vernon also participated. Newell Long, director of music at Indiana University, was the guest conductor. Those lucky bandsmen!
- 4—Our mighty Madison Cubs defeated Vevay to open the 1949-50 basketball season by a lopsided score of 64-27.
- 10—An assembly program was presented by the Indiana University Choir. Their arrangement of "Where or When" really sent some of us students.
- 11—Basketball! Madison downed Salem 43-29.
- 12—Kass, Clara, Sonny, and Dave attended the third annual high school cheerleaders' conference at Indiana University. (Not that our cheerleaders need "betterin'.")
- 16—E. A. (Big Rich) Richardson honored the student body with a program. Besides his poems, sayings, and jokes, he vocalized a song which he wrote. Later he provided the band with copies of the song.

- 17—Mr. Wyer of Columbus, Ohio, spoke on "Youth's Opportunity For Greatness." He stated that the adults were past saving; therefore the youths should be concentrated upon. Maybe that man really has something there.
- 17, 18—We had a second etst of our knowledge. The intellectual geniuses came through with flying colors.
- 18—Madison's Cubs displayed their excellent training as they smothered North Vernon 78-28 to win their third straight game.
- 21—The "women" of the institute of higher learning (Sunshine Girls, to you) sponsored a mixer after school. We really appreciate a breather between hectic days.
- 22—Mr. Russell Anderson from New Albany explained the social security program to the seniors. This proved to be a timely subject of interest to everyone.
- 23—A high-rated Batesville team fell before the Cubs. Score: 59-39.
- 24, 25—Thanksgiving holiday vacation. We love turkey although it does lose it flavor about the third day.
- 27—The noted M. H. S. Choral Club traveled to Silver Creek and presented one of their longest and most important oncerts in their colorful history.
- 28—F. H. A. County Rally was attended by thirty of our F. H. A. girls.

DECEMBER

- 1—Only twenty-four days until December 25, Christmas, and Santa Claus. We'll be good, honest.

A member of the United Nations from the Netherlands, Jan Hollander, spoke before the student body. He enlightened us on the situation in Europe.
- 2—We beat Lawrenceburg! We beat Lawrenceburg! Whoopee! Score: 58-40.
- 5—Mr. Salm and Mr. Muncie attended a conference at Purdue. While the cats are away, the mice will play!
- 6—Lights! Curtain! Action! The stars of M. H. S. presented "The Lucky Accident." Very well given! Look out Hollywood! Here they come.
- 9—The Cubs thumped the Southport Cards 58-42. Did you get a look at their yell-leaders? Uh-huh! Who didn't?
- 12—Suddenly all the students at M. H. S. are taking on any fighters. The reason? Mr. Bertrand L. Shurtleff, a former wrestler and football player, gave an educational exhibition on his accomplishments. Beware! M. H. S. students are developing their muscles.
- 13—The Mitchell Bluejackets proved to be a little too "hot" as they handed our Cubs their first defeat of the season. Score: 40-31.
- 14, 15—Our Choral Club gave programs at North Madison and Central Schools.

Calendar continued

16—The Cubs are back in the driver's seat after being thrown by Mitchell. The Cubs tripped Columbus 53-41. After the game a mixer was held in the dining room of the gym by the Sunshine Society. With the help of a plant called mistletoe, everyone had a good time.

18—The Choral Club presented a program of Christmas music for the patients at Cragmont.

19—The Senior Chapter of F. H. A. held a Christmas party for thirty needy children in Madison. That's the real Christmas spirit!

20—Our basketball team topped the Shelbyville team by a score of 41-29.

22—Our famed Choral Club motored to Louisville where they made a recording at W. H. A. S. They had an exciting time visiting the city.

22-January 2—Christmas vacation. Ha! Some had to work anyway, but New Year's Eve was certainly fun.

24—Radios in Madison were tuned to station W. H. A. S. to hear the Choral Club recording, which turned out to be very entertaining.

JANUARY

2—Back to school, or at least for some of us. The absence list was so-o-o-o long.

5—Mr. F. Elmer Marshall entertained the student body with many works of Riley.

6—The Cubs shamed Aurora 63-43. They really started the New Year right. Keep it up, boys!

26—The second semester started with an interesting program in the gym, presented by Swift Eagle who told of many Indian interests.

27—The New Albany-Madison game was played, and Madison won.

FEBRUARY

2—Murray Holt, a magician, gave an interesting program in the gym.

3—Madison topped Brownstown in the basketball game, 62-32.

6—This was a big night for the Choral Club members and guests who attended the Choral Cotillion in the dining room of the gym.

10—Madison won a decisive victory over Greensburg with a score of 58-43.

17—Lawrenceburg came here to get defeated by Madison, 66-50.

23, 24, 25—The Sectional Tourney was held in the Brown Gym with Madison coming out on top to meet Greensburg at the Regionals.

MARCH

4—Madison breezed through the regionals to qualify for the semi-finals at Indianapolis.

11—Meet the foe, beat the foe, to the finals we will go.

18—Jefferson of Lafayette bowed down to the great Madison Cubs, State Champions of 1950. Score 67-44.

24—A Victory Dance was held on the gym floor in honor of the Cubs.

29—The Choral Club gave a performance at Westport.

31—A dance, sponsored by the Sunshine Society, was held on the gym floor.

APRIL

3—The Central Choral Club presented an interesting and varied program for assembly.

5—The track and baseball season opened.

7, 10—The teachers enjoyed a well-earned rest over the Easter vacation.

11—The Hi-Y Club held a District Conference Meet here.

12—The Choral Club traveled to Carrollton, Kentucky, where they presented a program for the high school assembly.

13, 14—Electric bills went up overnight as students crammed for exams.

14—The Madison High School Choral Club was given the spotlight at the Orange County Festival.

18—The Cole Marionettes presented the story of Ichabod Crane with "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow."

20—Vevay was the host of the Choral Club at the Choral Festival.

21—The Band journeyed to Seymour to hear the U. S. Navy Band.

25—M. P. A. Pic Social was held with square dancing later.

26—The F. H. A. sponsored a pitch-in supper for the members and guests.

28—Tuxedos, long skirts, and corsages marked this as the Junior-Senior Prom.

MAY

2—Lights, Curtain, Action! The seniors presented their class play, "Rise and Shine," which turned out to be a huge success.

3—Choral Club gave a concert at New Washington.

5—Isabelle Smith took first place in the annual Custer Oratorical Contest. Sarah C. Murphy came in second.

11—The Frosh May Hop (and you may too) was held.

12—The Eighth Grade Party was held for the graduates going into the freshman year.

14—The musical talent of the school was displayed at the Spring Concert, portions of which were broadcast.

15—The Hi-Y Picnic was held for the boys and their guests.

18, 19—Mental ability of the seniors was tested during Senior Exams.

21—Baccalaureate services were held for the seniors.

22—The Seniors cavorted on Class Day, and several received awards and medals for achievements during the year.

22, 23—The rest of the students took final examinations.

23—The Seniors marched down the aisle for the last time after receiving their diplomas at the Commencement Exercises.

25—Report cards were given out, school was closed, and the seniors celebrated with the Senior Picnic.

Custer Contestants

Song

Tune: Look For The Silver Lining.

Words: Kathryn Isabelle Smith

The door to our future's open
 And as the ivy climbs so shall we
 Climb ever onward and always upward
 To make our place in history
 We are the class of fifty
 To those who've loved and helped us
 And taught us we owe all our success
 We know that we will always remember
 The happy times at M. H. S.

Juniors

In the fall of 1947, we, the future class of 1951, entered M. H. S. as "green freshmen." We elected the following officers to lead us: president, Eddie Hartgrove; vice-president, Paul Rowlett; secretary, Angela Hunger; treasurer, Donald Lee.

That year Joy Dean Walston and John Werbe represented us in the Student Council. Angela Hunger and Olive Stanton participated in the school play. We freshmen were quite proud to have Eddie Hartgrove and Wayne Richey on the second team.

For our second year we chose another group of fine officers. They were as follows: president, Doris Winters; vice-president, Stan Weber; secretary, Dot Miller; treasurer, Retha Hay.

Our Student Council members were Stan Weber, Louann Lynch, Angela Hunger, and Buddy Bunton. In our sophomore year the class contributed one member, Stan Weber, to the varsity team, and five, Wayne Richey, Eddie Hartgrove, Wiley Ferguson, Bud Bunton, and Don Lee, to the second team. Another of our group, Clarita Dattilo, represented in the field of dramatics by acting in the school play, "Grandad Meets A Pal."

In this, our junior year, we elected the following officers to lead us in our numerous activities: Frank Templin, president; Marcelene Hoffman, vice-president; Jerry Smith, secretary; Doris Winters, treasurer.

Student Council members for our class were Helen Vincent, Buddy Bunton, Stanley Weber, and Dorothy Miller. We also did quite well in the field of athletics with Bud Bunton, Wayne Richey, and Stan Weber on the varsity basketball team and Don Lee on the second team. John Werbe was student manager for the Cubs. Helen Vincent displayed our dramatical ability in her performance in the school play "The Lucky Accident."

A few of our activities this year were the schedule pencil sale, the magazine sale, and the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The Prom proved to be a great success, and we juniors were quite proud of our work.

Having spent three happy and exciting years at M. H. S., we look forward to our final year with the determination to make it our best, and we hope to build a better and firmer foundation for all future classes.

Sophomores

In our "green" year the Class of '52 had the following officers to lead us: president, Morris Lorenz; vice-president, Joe Matthews; secretary, Mary Hoffman; treasurer, Janet White. Margy Lee and Dick Goebel represented us on the Student Council.

Gretchen Guinn, Emily Jo Haak, and Nancy Holwager gave a good account of our dramatic ability by their performances in "Grandad Meets A Pal."

Our athletes were John Buck, Bill Shuck, Morris Lorenz, Bill Harmon, Dave Turner, Stanley Goldberg, Charlie Hill and Bob Overstreet.

For our prosperous sophomore year our officers were: president, Morris Lorenz; vice-president, Janet White; secretary, JoAnn Hooker; and treasurer, Carolee Short. Nancy Demaroe, Margy Lee, Bill Finnegan, and Morris Lorenz were our Student Council members.

Ann Porter took dramatic honors in "The Lucky Accident."

Our class had two members, Morris Lorenz and Dave Turner, who were on the State Champion varsity team. Other members of the class who participated in the field of athletics were: John Buck, Bill Shuck, Charlie Hill, Henry Bennett, Don Vaughn, Noble Whitehead, Stanley Goldberg, Glenn Ringwalt, Deward Johnson, and Bill Harmon. Clara Ireland and Sonny Cox were elected yell leaders for the first time.

The sophomore class, proud of its past, looks forward to being upperclassmen—at last!

9 B's

ROW 1—John Cole, Janet Pearson, Mary Goins, Shirley Firth, Cleon Griffin, Betty Bryan, Jessie Ogden, Paul Richey.

ROW 2—Herschel Epply, Donald Davidson, Dalphine Shadrick, Barbara Pierce, Roy Hutcheson, Tommy Nully, James Peddie.

Freshmen

In the fall of 1949, we, the green freshmen, entered the portals of M. H. S. determined to be an outstanding class in the year. After familiarizing ourselves with the environment we elected our class officers as follows: president, Gay Demaree; vice-president, Tony Dattilo; secretary, Ronnie Kellems; and treasurer, Sammy Cole. Pauline Kasper and Dale Miller were the Student Council members.

Many freshmen were members of the "Big Red Band," Choral Club, Glee Club, Sunshine Society, G. A. A., Hi-Y, and various other clubs.

Our athletic ability was displayed by Tony Dattilo, Vic Thevenow, and Bob Ralston who were on the second team. Vic and Tony were also on the softball team. The participation of Marianna Edwards and Virginia Metford in the school play helped spread the fame of the Frosh far and wide. We kept the ball rolling by sponsoring a "really hush" dance called the Frosh May Hop.

We look forward with eagerness and anxiety to the coming three years. We only hope they will be as pleasant as this one has been, and somehow we feel they will be more so.

9 A's

Senior Play

Then seniors presented their senior play May 2, 1950, in the Brown Gym. The play, "Rise and Shine," proved to be the best one given by seniors for several years. Many persons commented on the fact that it didn't "drag." The record crowd was constantly laughing, and the cast enjoyed the play as much as the audience.

Mr. Milton was portrayed by David Long. Mr. Milton had come to the country for his health and insisted on dragging his family with him.

Cora, the maid, was also forced to live in the country, and she protested loudly at having to cook on "that hot blast furnace," the cook stove. Isabelle Smith played the part of the maid, and she kept the audience laughing at her every appearance.

Mrs. Milton, Carmen Lynch, couldn't see why they had to move out into such a "wilderness."

The older daughter, Susan, played by Martha Jean Manaugh, shared her mother's opinions about the farm, but the younger daughter, Nancy, played by Jeanette Shipley, was crazy about the farm and Ted Ruggles.

Ted Ruggles was presented by Billy G. Miller. He made no attempt to hide his feelings for Nancy.

Bill Ruggles, Ted's older brother, was played by Don McCauley. Bill's affection for Susan finally won out, but not without a fight first with Paul Lawson.

Paul Lawson, portrayed by Eddie Cheatham, was a city boy and got the worst end of the fight.

Steve, the hired man, played by Charles Browne, liked hill-billy music and wanted Cora to go to a square dance with him. Cora didn't reciprocate.

Dr. McNight, a veterinarian unknown to the family, is called in to doctor Mr. Milton, and the poor man goes practically insane. Jack Schnabel ably portrayed the doctor.

Joan Hoffman as Mrs. Lawson talked a "blue streak" and ended up by dashing cold water on Mr. Milton lying on the floor playing "possum."

Diana Lawson, given by Nancy Moser, seemed to think Ted was "simply divine," much to Nancy's chagrin and disgust.

The stage managers were Larry McClanahan, Mary Anne Lauer, and Joyce Gronseth. Wilma Hatchell and Betty Schiphorst were business managers and were responsible for the sale of tickets. Posters were prepared by Helen Marie Monroe, Billy Smith, Margaret Robinson, Roberta Smith, and Alice Bennett. Ann Ditzler, Mary Klopp, and Mary E. Demaree served as ushers.

The Melody Masters provided the music between acts. These boys, all seniors, were Tom Ryker, Spencer Schnaitter, Don Hummel, and Dodd Gorman.

Miss Sherman was the capable director and much credit goes to her for her splendid work.

The furniture was provided through the courtesy of Wilson's Furniture and Appliance Store.

School Play

The school play, "The Lucky Accident," was presented December 6, 1949. The play was a most amusing enactment of activities and embarrassments of a modern family.

The cast included the following:

Mrs. Humbird Hunter, portrayed by Joan Hoffman, an innocent souvenir collector who had social aspirations for her family, but whose serious-to-her-foolish-to-others remarks kept the audience laughing much of the time.

Mr. Humbird Hunter, played by Tom Ryker, was a lawyer by trade but his office had been closed for two weeks because he couldn't pay the rent. He was the meek husband who only occasionally dared to assert himself, and his one concern was trying to keep his wife out of trouble because of her souvenir collecting.

Jeanette Shipley took the role of Honey Hunter, the "I got a secret" girl.

Leslie Noyes was so dumb that he thought a sun stroke was a swimming stroke. He changed to an enterprising young man after a ladder, which fell on his head, knocked some sense into his head. Don Hummel ably portrayed Leslie.

Ann Porter, as Fern Hunter, showed her preference for Leslie instead of Walton Knox, played by Rennie Irwin, who appeared as a very conceited young man from New York whose first thought was of himself and second thought was of the ladies.

Virginia Metford played the role of Mrs. Lotta Noyes, a very aristocratic lady of the upper set.

Nella Lawson, an arduous magazine reader who collected coupons to beautify herself and get rid of her freckles, was well done by Marianna Edwards.

Helen Vincent handled the role of Grace Pike, a policewoman who had trouble making people realize her name was Pike—P-I-K-E, with great ease.

Helen Thevenow presented the role of the lazy maid, Amelda Ames, and Jack Schnabel was quite good as the business man determined to secure a lawyer to prohibit souvenir collecting. Homer Meginniss.

Miss Sherman deserves much credit for her wise casting, excellent directing, and her marked ability to bring out the character portrayals. Credit should also be given to the stage managers, Isabelle Smith, Dave Long, and Mary Alice Hill; costume manager, Mary Anne Lauer; poster committee, Margaret Robinson and Billy Smith; and business managers, Nancy Holwager and Gretchen Guinn.

Thanks goes to Mr. Rothert who furnished music before the play and between acts and to Wilson's Furniture and Appliance Store for the furniture used in the play.

Mahisco Staff

The 1950 Mahisco Staff made good use of the Senior Class motto: "The door to success is labeled Push." The '50 Mahisco got off to a late start and the staff was pressed for time, but with the "push" that the staff brought forth, the door was opened and the Mahisco goes to press.

The staff members and the jobs are as follows:

Editor—Isabelle Smith.

Associate Editor—Jack Schnabel.

Feature Editor—Billy G. Miller.

Senior Editors—Minerva Crozier, Ann Ditzler, Jeanette Shipley, Jane Knoebel.

Prophecy Editors—Martha Jean Manaugh, Sarah Catherine Murphy, Laura Ann Mills.

Wills Editors—Tom Ryker, Cedric Klein, and Joan Hoffman.

Calendar Editors—Marian Cofield, Norman Hassfurder, and Carmen Lynch.

Snapshots—Jack Alexander, Frederick A. Server, and Donald McCauley.

Art Editors—Helen Marie Monroe, Roberts Smith, and Margaret Robinson.

Business Manager—Mary Jane Beetem.

Advertising Managers—Mary Alice Hill, Mary E. Demaree, Betty Schiphorst, and Wilma Hatchell.

Circulation Managers—Roy Brooks, Nancy Moster, Mary Jane Cox, Mary Anne Lauer, and Larry McClanahan.

Sports Editors—Bud Short and Don Hummel.

Typists—Betty Bladen, Frances Lauderbaugh, and Marion Ross.

Many thanks go to Miss Sherman for her fine help and guidance in getting the book under way, to Basil L. Smith Co., Engravers, for their fast and courteous service in getting the pictures engraved, to the Democrat Printing Co. for their excellent job of printing, and to Mr. Leslie White for taking such clear, good pictures. Without the help and cooperation of all these people this book could not have been possible. Thanks also goes to the many business men and friends who advertised in our book. To all who helped in any way, no matter how small, we say a great big "Thanks!"

Student Council

The members of the Student Council and the rooms which they represent are as follows:

Seniors—Miss Sherman: Alice Hill, Laura Mills, Minerva Crozier, Tom Ryker, and Don McCauley.

Mr. Reul: Stanley Weber, Dorothy Miller.

Miss Lotz: Helen Vincent, Bud Bunton.

Mr. Carpenter: Carl Morgan, Eleanor Crozier.

Mr. Buckles: Margie Lee, Morris Lorenz.

Miss Green: Nancy Demaree, Bill Finnegan.

Mr. Wilson: Roberta Potter, David Klopp.

Mr. Eddy: Pauline Kasper, Dale Miller.

The officers were: president, Tom Ryker; vice-president, John Werbe; secretary, Alice Hill.

This year's student council, under the leadership of Tom Ryker, has been very active. The first meeting of the year was held Thursday, October 13, during which hall monitors were chosen for the remainder of the semester. Also chosen were committees for assembly programs, under the direction of Mr. Salm; a civics committee, headed by Mr. Buckles; and a committee for publicity under Miss Sherman.

During the November twenty-first meeting, a serious discussion was held concerning "destructive students." A remedy was procured and immediately put into effect.

At various other meetings, hall monitors were chosen for the second semester; letters from Leo Marchant, President of Student Councils of Indiana from Bloomington, were read and discussed; and plans were made for a home room program to be presented by members of the Student Council in their own respective rooms.

The projects of this organization have been many and varied. Among them were quieter assemblies, respect for assembly speakers, cleaner rooms, and hall monitors.

Madisonian Staff

The editorial division of the 1949-50 Madisonian is taken care of by Dorothy Miller and Joyce Stevens. Their job is to check and arrange the articles and write the headlines. The associate editor is Gretchen Guinn. She is a big help to the editors and spends much time helping with headline writing.

In the Sports Department is editor Bud Short. Bud handles much of the sports material along with sports columnist Jim Green, whose column is "Gems from Jim."

In order that other schools may get a chance to read what we are doing, our exchange editor, Marian Cofield, prepares our papers for mailing.

Of course, no paper can get along without its advertising managers, and we have three good ones—James Eades, Ann Ditzler, and Nate Gaines.

Our feature editor is Billy G. Miller and his column, "Sense and Nonsense," is one of the best in the paper. Writers from other papers have commented on the humor that is placed in his column, and just ask him about his fan mail!

Our news from Junior High School is ably taken care of by Phil Sherman.

Those who spend much of the spare time typing for The Madisonian are Jeanette Shipley, Jane Knoebel, and Alice Hill.

To distribute the papers to the subscribers is the job of the circulation managers. The following students head the circulation department: Mary Jane Cox, Jack Alexander, Mary E. Demaree, Charles Kloss, David Long, and Ronnie Irwin.

The reporters are the members of the journalism class, and all the staff is under the supervision of the faculty advisors, Miss Opal Sherman and Mr. George Reul.

Sunshine Society

The officers for the year 1949-50 were as follows:

President—Mary Elizabeth Demaree.
Vice-president—Sarah Catherine Murphy.
Recording Secretary—Mary Jane Beetem.
Corresponding Secretary—JoAnn Hooker.
Treasurer—Clarita Dattilo.

The society was active in charitable as well as school activities. Swan soap wrappers were collected to be used in sending soap overseas. Used clothes and household linens were sent to three needy Kentucky families at Christmas-time. Boxes of toys were collected and distributed in the Madison community, and a Thanksgiving basket was prepared and sent to a needy Madison family.

In the social line, mixers were held on November 21 and December 16. The concession stands were operated by the society during the basketball season. The annual informal dance was held Friday, March 31.

The members of the Sunshine Society were as follows: Mary Jane Beetem, Betty Bladen, Marian Cofield, Jeanette Cole, Aleta Congleton, Carole Cosby, Mary Jane Cox, Eleanor Crozier, Minerva Crozier, Clarita Dattilo, Pat Davison, Gay Demaree, Mary E. Demaree, Nancy Demaree, Ann Ditzler, Marianna Edwards, Pat Ellis, Barbara Sue Feebach, Rita Feider, Geraldine Gibson, Joyce Gronseth, Barbara Gross, Gretchen Guinn, Emily Jo Haak, Wilma Hatchell, Retha Hay, Dorothy Hertz, Mary Alice Hill, Joan Hoffman, Marcelene Hoffman, Mary Hoffman, JoAnn Hooker, Clara Ireland, June Ann Ireland, Pauline Kasper, Pat Kelley, Jane Knoebel, Frances Lauderbaugh, Mary Ann Lauer, Rosemary Lauer, Margie Lee, Carmen Lynch, Louann Lynch, Martha J. Manaugh, Ellen Parr May, Martha Metford, Virginia Metford, and Helen Monroe.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the guidance of Miss Virginia Ernst, enjoyed several sports activities this year. The girls met on Wednesday evenings in the gym to play volleyball and basketball.

In December the Girls' Interclass Volleyball Tourney was held. The Sophs emerged victorious. In April the Girls' Interclass Basketball Tourney was won by the invincible Sophs.

Points are given to members for participation in athletic activities in school such as basketball, softball, and volleyball. The members also receive points for outside activities such as hiking, bowling, swimming, tennis, and horseback riding. This year, for the first time in the history of G. A. A., a member who had 250 points received a white "M" with "G. A. A." printed on it in red letters. This year Martha Jean Manaugh and Jane Knoebel received letters.

At the end of the year the G. A. A. held their annual picnic at Clifty Falls State Park.

The officers for the year were: president, Joyce Stevens; vice-president, Helen Vincent; secretary, Jane Knoebel; and treasurer, Barbara Sue Feebach.

Members were as follows: Mary Jane Cox, Marilyn Chilton, Carole Cosby, Clarita Daitilo, Pat Davison, Gay Demaree, Nancy Demaree, Marianna Edwards, Barbara Sue Feebach, Shirley Firth, Cleon Griffin, Mary Goins, Emily Jo Haak, Dorothy Hertz, Alice Hill, Mary Helen Hoffman, Marcelene Hoffman, Joan Hoffman, Nancy Holwager, Wilma Hatchell, Pat Hamilton, Angela Hunger, Clara Ireland, Pauline Kasper, Edith Kidwell, Jane Knoebel, Margy Lee, Martha Manaugh, and Ellen Parr May.

Future Homemakers of America

The purposes of the F. H. A. are as follows:

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.
6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.
7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.
8. To further interest in home economics.

The distinguishing colors of the F. H. A. are red and white, symbolic of youth and purity. The flower, the red rose, is symbolic of vibrant, glowing health. "Toward New Horizons," the motto of F. H. A., expresses the purpose of the organization—learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow. The emblem of F. H. A. symbolizes that the future homes of America are in the hands of its youth.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools of the United States and Territories. As an integral part of the program of home economics in the schools of America, it offers opportunity to further the development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

The F. H. A. brings together state groups interested in and working toward better homes and family living, provides opportunities to share in solving problems important to home life, and sponsors group projects.

The F. H. A. is an incorporated, non-profit youth organization. There are 6108 chapters and 237,133 members in 47 states and territories. Pupils enrolled in homemaking and who have been active, are eligible for membership. One also has to be a member in good standing to stay in F. H. A. The membership is entirely voluntary. Homemaking teachers serve as chapter advisors.

The members of F. H. A. have done much for their community as well as their own pleasure. They had a party at Christmas for the needy children of the community in which many presents and refreshments were given to the children by the girls.

The officers for the past year have been as follows: president, Aleta Congleton; first vice-president, Retha Hay; second vice-president, Charlotte Tewell; secretary, Helen Thevenow; treasurer, Velma Jo Walker; historians, Rosa Lee Donham, Anna Rose Riley; parliamentarian, Helen Monroe; song leader, Janet Watson.

The members were as follows:

Alice Bennett, Dorothy Cole, Aleta Congleton, Ilea Congleton, Betty Jean Denning, Rosa Lee Donham, Ramona Gelvin, Ruth Griffin, Retha Hay, Pauline Kasper, Frances Lauderbaugh, Joann Mitchell, Helen Monroe, Roberta Potter, Anna Rose Riley, Margaret Robinson, Wilma Sheets, Phyllis Shipley, Gladys Smith, Marie Stoner, Charlotte Tewell, Glenna Thenes, Helen Thevenow, Velma Jo Walker, Doris Watson, Janet Watson, Norma Watson, and Margery Zapp.

Hi-Y

"Clean living, clean speech, clean scholarship, and clean sportsmanship." This, the motto of the Hi-Y, typifies the character of the members. Members are chosen only if they meet those requirements. After becoming a member, these young men are expected to "create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian living." This expressed purpose of the Hi-Y plays an important part in the make-up of Hi-Y yearly programs.

Under the leadership of Mr. Charles O. Manaugh, the Madison Hi-Y was host to the district meeting of Hi-Y Clubs held in the Brown Gymnasium on April 11, 1950. A picnic of greater proportion than in any other year was planned and carried out. The members agreed to appropriate enough money to buy and donate six card tables to the school as their yearly contribution.

The officers for 1949-50 were as follows: president, Spencer Schnaitter; vice-president, Ted Server; secretary, Don McCauley; treasurer, Stanley Weber; chaplain, Tom Ryker; and Sergeant-at-arms, John Werbe.

The faculty advisor was Mr. Manaugh and the members were: David Long, Don McCauley, Jack Schnabel, Charles Short, Stanley Weber, John Werbe, Norman Hassfurder, Gale Crozier, Tom Ryker, Spencer Schnaitter, Ted Server, Charles Browne, Bud Bunton, Ed Cheatham, Dave Turner, Bill Turner, Roy Brooks, Dodd Gorman, Wayne Richey, Morris Lorenz, Bill Shuck, Charles Hill, John Jaynes, Bill Finnegan, Don Hummel, Jim Green, Bill Harmon, Robert Cope, and Dick Goebel.

Industrial Arts Club

The Industrial Arts Club was newly organized this year. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Carl Strohm, this new club made a place for itself in the halls of M. H. S. The purpose of the club is to promote skill in industrial arts and to develop a more general interest in related topics.

The officers of the club for 1949-50 were: president, James Demaree; vice-president, Jack Alexander; secretary-treasurer, George Anderson.

Other members were: Sammy Cole, David Klopp, Donald Horton, Wayne Richey, Ronnie Kellems, Dale Miller, Ronnie Nichols, Dennis Stewart, Donald Kelley, Bill Smith, Neal Lewis, Norman O'Banion, and Kenneth Fuller.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club became very active this year. A trip to Vevay was arranged, and again, as in former years, the club participated in the annual Spring Concert. Such popular arrangements as "Dark Eyes" and "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" were included in the girls' repertoire.

Officers for the year were as follows: president, Betty Carpenter Kelley; vice-president, Helen Miller; secretary, Bernice Dalhover; treasurer, Betty Jean Denning; and librarian, Matilda Potter. Section leaders were: soprano, Joanna Walters; assistant soprano, Virginia Metford; alto Phyllis Thornton; assistant alto, Audrey Drennen.

M.H.S. Band

For the "Big Red Band," 1949-50 was a busy season. They enjoyed a hayride to start the year, and then went to Bedford, Kentucky, to give a concert. The band participated in the Tri-City Band Festival with North Vernon and Seymour, and was host for a joint concert with North Vernon. They also gave two floor shows, one at Christmas and one for Valentine's Day; they played at all home basketball games and for the out-of-town Greensburg game; they gave a concert at Westport; participated in the Spring Concert broadcast, and played for Commencement. In April, they traveled to Seymour to hear the U. S. Navy Band. The height of the season was the annual Band Ball, May 9, held on the gym floor.

The "Big Red" leaders for the past year were: James Eades, president; Isabelle Smith, vice-president; Nancy Holwager, secretary; and Carmen Lynch, treasurer. Other members who greatly assisted the band are: Dick Goebel and Jack Schnabel, librarians; the section leaders, Joan Weinberg, Don Henderson, Betty Schiphorst, Nancy Moster, Pat Ellis; and the property crew under Graham Storm. The band was directed by Mr. Harold Rothert.

M.H.S. Choral Club

"Its fame has gone far beyond the limits of its home town." This statement was made by Mr. Carl Lewis, a noted newspaperman, in his feature article about the Choral Club which appeared in the magazine section of the Indianapolis Star. Similar opinions have been voiced by the Louisville Courier-Journal and Madison Courier. The Choral Club, under the direction of Mr. Harold Rotherth, has been noted for its outstanding work this year.

The Choralists represented Indiana secondary schools in the historical pageant, "Pioneer Glory," at Purdue University. The club presented an outstanding half hour program of Christmas music over radio station WHAS at Christmas time, as well as a quarter hour telecast over WAVE in April. Also in April, they were one of the principal attractions at the Orange County Music Festival at Paoli.

Other activities of the Choral Club have been performances before the Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Elk's Club, Seymour Lion's Club, Brownstown High School, Central High School, Bedford, Kentucky High School, Madison Senior and Junior High Schools, Spring Concert broadcast, Hanover Music Festival, and the Valley Choral Festival.

Choral Club members, accepted only after a rigid examination by an admissions committee from the Club, give not only their voices but also their loyalty and enthusiasm to make this choir rate "tops." The Club held one of the outstanding social functions of the school year, the Choral Club Cotillion, February 6, in the Brown Gym.

The section leaders for this year were as follows: soprano, Dorothy Miller; alto, Mary Alice Hill; tenor, Bill Miller; and bass, John Hertz.

Officers for the year were: president, Spencer Schnaitter; vice-president, Donald Hummel; secretary, Joan Hoffman; treasurer, Jeanette Shipley.

Members were: Sammy Cole, Nathan Gaines, Richard Goins, Clyde James, Billy Miller, John Werbe, Gale Crozier, Leland Kessler, Charles Kloss, Tom Ryker, Spencer Schnaitter, Don Hummel, David McCoy, Andrew Tingle, Stanley Weber, Glenn Ringwalt, Jim Royce, Bill Shuck, Jack McDaniels, Dodd Gormon, Roy Brooks, Don Vaughn, Bud Bunton, John Hertz, Pat Davison, Wilma Hatchel, Carol VanWye, Marilyn Chilton, Ellen Parr May, Nancy Demaree, Retha Hay, Ilea Congleton, JoAnn Hooker, Alice Hill, Nell Klopp, Rita Feider, Joan Hoffman, Jeanette Shipley, Nancy Slider, Dorothy Miller, June Ireland, Mary Klopp, Mary E. Demaree, Aleta Congleton, Rosemary Lauer, Laura Mills, Sarah C. Murphy, Nancy Smith, Mary Lou Heimbach, and Barbara Royce.

Coach Eddy

After eleven years of faithful and hard work, Ray Eddy obtained his goal in high school coaching—the I. H. S. A. A. Championship. After two previous tries in the final game, his dream came true.

Mr. Eddy came to Madison in 1939, in which time his teams have lost only one sectional, won six regionals, three semi-finals, and finally the big tourney. Mr. Eddy's teams have never had a losing season.

He is not only a fine basketball coach but also a builder of men, physically and in character. He teaches his men the importance of sportsmanship, on and off the basketball floor.

Mr. Harold Benedict of the S. E. I. C. gave us an idea of Mr. Eddy's popularity throughout the state when he said, "More coaches and officials were pulling for Ray's team in that final game than for any other coach in the history of the tourney."

Next year Mr. Eddy will be gone from M. H. S. to coach at Purdue University, his Alma Mater. The students and fans will miss his fine coaching, his antics around the bench, and his voice screaming his team to victory. We are all glad to see him get his big chance.

Mr. Eddy, the students of M. H. S. say, "Thanks a million for all you've done for us, good luck at Purdue or any other place you go, and please don't lose that maroon shirt."

Coach Manaugh

When a team goes from an almost perfect season to two losing ones in succession, the fans usually jump on the coach and want to get rid of him. That's not the case of the popular coach of M. H. S.'s second team, "Poodle" Manaugh.

For the past eight years, the popular little guy has been directing the younger boys who later became the stars. You did a fine job, Mr. Manaugh. Better luck next year.

Road To The Title

SECTIONAL

No team in the tourney was a match for the Cubs second five, and they passed and scored at will. The Madison boys played probably their best ball in the sectional. In the opener they ran over little Deputy. Then came Scottsburg, next Lexington, by the tremendous score 103-38. In the final game, Central, the surprise package of the tourney, fell 95-28, and Ray Eddy had racked up sectional title number 10.

REGIONAL

After receiving a scare in the first half of both games the Red and White showed their colors and rode away from Greensburg and little Fairland to cop their third straight Regional crown. The Pirates fell 53-42 after a "wild and wooly" game. Fairland was downed 65-48.

Ed Cheatham stood out with his fine floor play and drew a lot of notice from the fans.

* * * *

SEMI-FINALS

The Semi-Finals proved to be a real test for our Cubs, and at times the future looked black. The Greenclads from Tech, biggest school in the state, were a tall, fighting lot.

Finally they were ousted 55-46.

Led by center Gene Reed, the Rushville boys showed their willingness to win. The final score read 64-49, but there were some close moments.

Madison would not give in and they captured Semi No. 3 in the last ten years.

FINALS

The third time was a charm for Coach Ray Eddy and his Madison Cubs. Twice before the fiery coach had taken a Cub team to the final game only to lose out by close scores. But the Cubs were "nifty in fifty" and brought back the I. H. S. A. A. Championship trophy to M. H. S.

Cub fans got a real scare in the close afternoon game when Pat Klein, Mr. Basketball of 1950, hit the bucket from all angles as his Marion team battled the Cubs to a 50-49 score. In the last seconds of play, the score-keeper became a bit erratic and when the game ended, the score read 51-50 in Marion's favor.

The Marion fans were on their feet cheering, certain they had won. The Madison fans were spellbound and didn't know what to think, except that maybe this was another Jasper. Officials soon straightened out the muddle and the Cubs were on the road to an overwhelming victory in the final game.

Nobody cares that the Cubs defeated Jeff or Lafayette for the crown, just so the Cubs are champs. But the final game opponent was Jeff's Broncoes. The game was a close one throughout the first half, and the score was tied 26-26 as the half ended.

It's a secret what was said at halftime among coach and players, but it's no secret what those Cubs did when the second half began. Jeff was never in the play, and the Red and White rolled to a top heavy score of 67-44.

Heroes were a dime a dozen in the final game. Bud Bunton turned in the most sparkling game of his career, hitting jump shots from everywhere and taking dozens of rebounds. Spence Schnaitter earned himself No. 2 rating among the State's All-Stars with his all around fine play. Ted Server was the master ball handler and clutch scorer that every great team must have. Ed Cheatham, the "holler guy" and ball hawk, had opposing fans on his neck with his spirited, driving playing. Young Maurice Lorenz showed the poise of a veteran and drew some fine press notices for his play after relieving Don McCauley, who also turned in a sparkling performance.

When the final horn sounded, hysteria broke loose among Madison fans. The players grabbed knives and cut down one net, the other was saved for Coach Eddy. Then came the numerous pictures, the presentation of rings to the members of both the runners-up and champs, the presentation of the Trester Medal to Marion's Pat Klein. Then came the one that each and every team, player and coach dreams about—the awarding of the big trophy to the team captain, in this case, co-captains, Spence Schnaitter and Ted Server. Then came more pictures and radio appearances.

The Cubs were a beautiful team to watch when they were operating in their best style. Most of the final game, especially the last half, they did operate in this style. There was no one-man show as many tourneys have been, but a show of teamwork and sportsmanship.

Seasonal Play

The fighting Cubs of 1950 started their preparation for the State Championship with a very successful regular season.

Ray Eddy's boys smashed Vevay in the opener 64-27, and went on to win nine consecutive S. E. I. C. games. This record of nine wins and no defeats gave them their second straight conference crown.

The regular season record for the Cubs was 16 wins, 2 losses. In rolling over their opponents with ease the Cubs amassed 1704 points to 1097 for the opponents for a winning margin of 22.7 points a game, including tournaments.

In Conference play, the Cubs tripped Vevay, Salem (2), North Vernon, Batesville, Lawrenceburg (2), Aurora, Brownstown with little or no trouble. They were easily the class of the Conference.

In other games the Cubs defeated Southport, Columbus, Shelbyville, Seymour, Franklin, New Albany, and Greensburg.

They suffered defeats at the hands of Mitchell's Blue Jackets 40-31, and Vincennes 52-51.

Spence Schnaitter, Ted Server, Ed Cheatham, all seniors, led the Cubs' scoring brigade. Server received the free throw trophy, and both Schnaitter and Server were named to the all-Indiana team.

Second Team

The Little Cubs of Poodle Manaugh had one of their poorest seasons in recent years this time as they lost ten games while winning seven. Some of the games were lost by one or two point margins, but the team improved with every game.

The "Seconds" started out like a house afire with four straight wins over Vevay, Salem, North Vernon, and Batesville. Then they suffered defeats at the hands of Southport and Lawrenceburg before winning from the Mitchell club. At this point the team hit a slump and dropped five straight. Columbus, Shelbyville, Aurora, Salem, and Seymour were the victors. The Little Cubs racked up two more victories, Franklin and Brownstown, and then lost to New Albany, Greensburg, and Lawrenceburg.

Bill Harmon was the outstanding player for the "Seconds." Tony Dattilo, Charlie Hill, Bill Shuck, Glenn Ringwalt, Don Vaughn, Don Lee, and Dave Turner also played a lot of fine ball.

Baseball

The Madison High School baseball team, under the guidance of coaches C. O. Manaugh and Ray Eddy, walked off with the Southeastern Indiana Conference trophy for the third straight year. This year it was the hurling of big Spence Schnaitter and the hitting of freshman Tony Dattilo backed by the fine fielding support of Ted Server, Ed Cheatham, Morris Lorenz, Noble Whitehead, "Chick" Richey, "Monk" Browne, Bud Bunton, and reserves Dave Turner, Glenn Ringwalt, Charles Hill, and George Humphrey that took the team to the top.

Big Spence Schnaitter was unequalled on the mound, garnering seven straight wins without suffering a loss. Ed Cheatham, regular catcher and relief pitcher, earned the other win in his only hurling assignment of his high school career. Schnaitter had a strike average of 2.04 batters per inning and 14 batsmen per game. He whiffed 96 men in seven games, one of the games being a four inning relief stint. During his final year of baseball at M. H. S. Spence pitched three no-hit, no-run games. These three were Austin, Batesville, and Vevay.

Others besides Spence who graduated this spring were Ted Server, Ed Cheatham, and Charles Browne, all four-year regulars on the team.

Track

After a slow losing start, the tracksters of Coaches Carl Strohm and Warren Carpenter finally got things rolling and won three straight meets, placed second in the Southeastern Indiana Conference, and placed two in the track regionals at Bloomington. These two were high and low hurdlers, Bud Short and Norman "Witt" O'Banion, both seniors. In the conference held at Hanover College, Bud Short took two first places in the high and low hurdles winning the high in 16.9 and the low in 25.1. Both of these times were just off the conference record. Madison's other first place was taken by Charles "Donk" Kloss in the broad jump.

Other consistent point getters were high jumper, Jim Green; shot putter, Don Hummel; miler and half-miler John Jaynes and Deward Johnson; dash man and broad jumper "Witt" O'Banion; hurdlers Don Lee and John Werbe; and the fellow who became famous for his ties for first place in the pole vaults, Russell James.

Considering a late start due to weather conditions, Coaches Strohm and Carpenter deserve much credit for producing this fine track team.
