The 1951 Mahisco

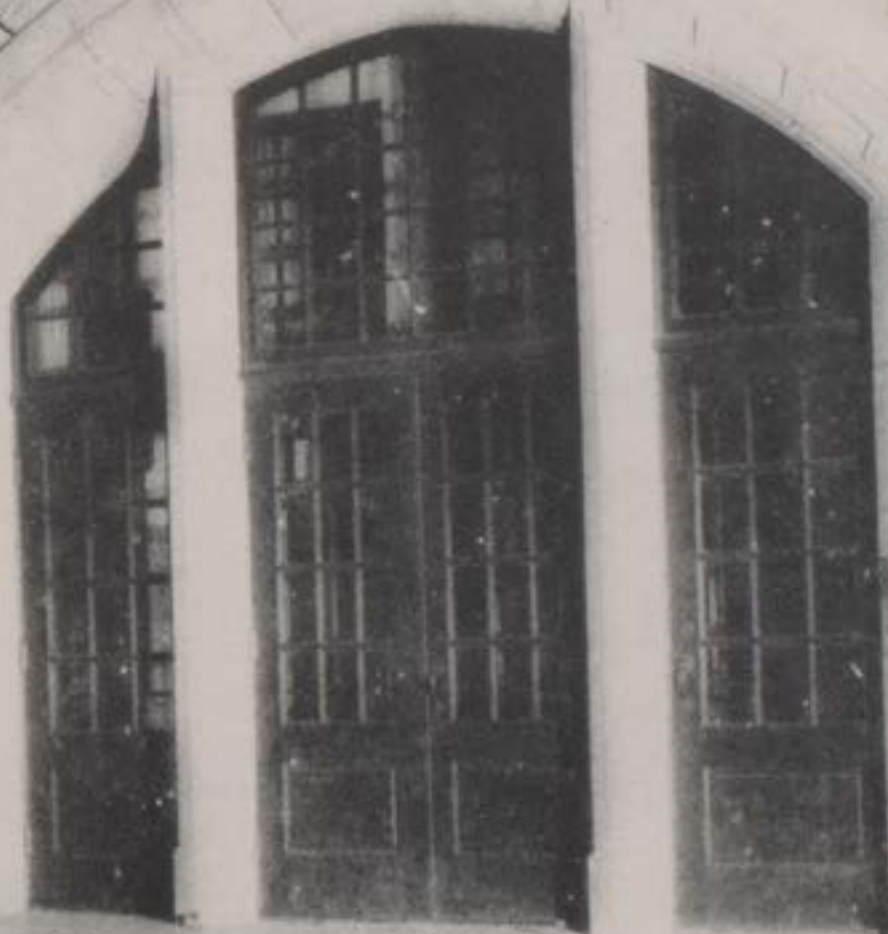

Published by the Senior Class
Madison High School
Madison, Indiana

Madison High School, our world of the past four years, has given us a wisdom which will propel us to greater things in future years, a faith which will enable us to face life more squarely, an opportunity to have contacts with other youth which will better enable us to live harmoniously with our neighbors, and the privilege of forming lasting friendships which will greatly enrich our lives. In addition to all these benefits, we have tremendously enjoyed our four years as we were kept busy with extra-curricular activities — meetings, social functions and sports — which have helped round out the happiest years of our life.

With future students in mind, we vision a greater Madison High School, fashioned from the hopes and dreams of a lifetime of service, aglow with the fire and faith of Youth, and created in the light of Truth and Wisdom.

To the greater School we earnestly dedicate this Mahisco of nineteen hundred fifty-one.

EMERY O. MUNCIE, Superintendent
De Pauw University, A.B., Indiana University, A.M.
Hanover College

Recently a small book came to me from the General Motors Corporation. The title is, "Man to Man On The Job." It is very interesting and has a list of thirty signs of leadership. A few of them are enumerated here. A leader is punctual, orderly, accurate, decent, likes to lead, likes people, has an assurance and is easy to meet and easy to leave. If large corporations require these traits, why not acquire them? They are so fundamental and basic to life wherever we are or whatever we may be. Life affords us many opportunities for leadership. All of us will not be outstanding leaders, but each will have an influence on someone else. A life worthwhile is one well planned on sound and fundamental principles.

E. O. MUNCIE, Superintendent

Life is but a game and all of us are players herein. The game of life, as well as every other game, has certain definite rules by which we must all abide if we care to make our best contribution to the game. This takes effort; it takes thought; it takes time. We cannot succeed in this game unless we abide by the rules. A good formula for us to follow in this game would be: (1) Know the rules; (2) Get the facts; (3) Get these two together; (4) Decide our course of action; (5) Then proceed with our game without too much thought or worry as to what someone else will think or say. Learning and practicing this could mean success and happiness for you in later life.

It is our sincere hope and wish for you that in this game of life each of you will decide now to dedicate yourself to the acceptance of the opportunity of building now the man or woman you would be in a few years from now. It will be too late later.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the 1951 class of Madison High School, state of Indiana, county of Jefferson, city of Madison, possessors of innumerable fine qualities, do hereby establish as our last will and testament:

Article I. INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS:

- I, James Alexander, will my size thirteen shoes to Charlie Hill. Maybe these will help anchor you down on windy days.
- I, Jack Bird, will my basketball ability in intramural basketball to all other future stars. Now there will be some exciting games.
- I, Bill Boyd, will my knowledge of senior algebra back to Mr. Wilson. He probably hasn't ever missed it!
- I, Bud Bunton, will my ability to attract tall girls to "Muscles" Hill; - - - course SHORT girls aren't bad!
- I, Alata Congleton, will my typing speed to my sister, Iles. Now you won't be embarrassed, Sis.
- I, Bob Cope, will my shiny Ford to Bill Finnegan; or did you like the "Model A", Nancy?
- I, Eleanor Crozier, being of sound mind and body, do will my blond hair to any of the junior class girls who want it. Now, "proxies," you won't have to buy any more dye.
- I, Gaylord, "Bull", "Sonny", "Gale", Maigh Crozier being of sound mind and body do hereby will all my jokes to the Presbyterian Church Step Sitter's Union. You guys need them more than I do.
- I, Clarita Dattilo, do hereby will my hope chest to Miss Sherman. After you get it filled, I'll take over.
- I, Pat Davison, will my television set to all M.H.S. boys. Don't stay home on mornings to watch Faye Emerson, though.
- I, Nate Gaines, will my position in the National Guard to Donald Wood. Whew! That's the only way I'd ever get rid of it.
- I, Pat Hamilton, will my naturally curly hair to Pat Ellis. Now you won't need to spend all your money on Toni's!
- I, Eddie Hartgrove, will my colorful locker door to

- Donnie Vaughn. Better get two lockers next year. One won't be enough for both our collections!
- I, Retha Hay, will my flirtatious ways to Ellen Shipley. Show them how it's done, Ellen!
- I, Mary Lou Helmbach, will my ability to pop chewing gum in Mrs. Reul's shorthand class to anyone who can get away with it. I couldn't.
- I, "Toots" Hoffman, will my nickname, "Toots", to Carolee Short. I'm a big girl now and prefer to be called Marcelene.
- I, Pat Howley, will my sweet and gentle ways to Carol Van Wye. My, next years seniors will surely be mild.
- I, Angela Hunger, do hereby will to Ralph Thorpe, the responsibility of keeping the females of M.H.S. away from Maurice "HONEY" Lorenz. Take good care of him, Ock.
- I, June Ann Ireland, leave to my dear sister, Clara Emily, my bookkeeping ability. Remember, Sis, that includes helping basketball players pass, too.
- I, Leo Don Kelly, do hereby will my earmuffs and my red and white basketball cap to Dru Lodge. Now, Dru, you won't have to chase me all over the assembly during play practice to take them away from me!
- I, Betty Kelley, will my blonde hair to Iles Congleton. Wonder how that will look?
- I, Edith Kidwell, will my peace-loving ways to all of those who hang out at Rogers. My, what a changel!
- I, "Donk" Kloss, will my ability to stay out of the army so long to all you scared eighteen year-olds.
- I, Donald Ralph Lee, hereby will my ability to do nothing and get away with it, to "Archibald" Vaughn. Keep up the good work, "Arky"!

I, Louann Lynch, will my slow tongue and soft spoken ways to Nancy Demaree. Come on now, what would she do with them?

I, Martha Metford, will my height to Joann Hooker. Those stretching exercise every morning really do wonders!

I, Dorothy Miller, will my job of telephone operator to Pauline Kasper. My, you really get an earfull!

I, Helen Alene Miller, being of sound body and doubtful mind do hereby will my ability of not studying to anyone who doesn't like to make top class grades.

I, David McCoy, will my nickname, "Bonex", to Bob Carpenter who hasn't any-nickname, that is.

I, Mary Jo Peddie, will my hair to Nancy Smith. Now, Nancy when you peroxide your hair, you will have real red hair instead of blond hair with a reddish tint.

I, Allyne Wayne "Chick" Richey, leave one of my many amusing adages to Bill Harmon. "I thought I'd die" is becoming quite worn, "right or wrong", Bill?

I, Anna Rose Riley, will my daily trips around to collect the announcement sheets to Rosemary Lauer. It's an easy job, ask Clara Ireland.

We, Laura Jean Risk and Rosemary Winkel will our good friendship with Mary Ann Smith and "Toots" Hoffman to any foursome in M.H.S.

I, Paul Laverne "Dunkles", "Dogface" Rowlett do will my very high scholastic and citizenship grades to Ray Cavett: "you is doomed."

I, Bob Rusk, will my golfing ability to all the underclassmen. Let's all get into the swing of things.

I, Roy Rusk, do hereby will my bashful ways to Nida Lockridge. All freshmen are that way. (It says here).

I, David Sample, do hereby bequeath my independent and mysterious manner to Don Vaughn. Keep em guessing is my motto.

I, George Shoots, do leave my serious nature to Sonny Cox. Variety is the spice of life, you know.

I, Jerry Smith, do hereby bequeath my lack of interest in the opposite sex to all males of M.H.S. who have a hard time staying away from the women.

I, Ima Sims, will by quiet ways to all the junior high students. Now maybe we seniors won't get gray so early!

I, Nancy Slider, do hereby will my red hair to Marilyn Chilton. It seems Ronnie likes red heads, Marilyn.

I, Mary Ann Smith, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my "would-be-comedian" antics to Mary Hoffman and Carolee Short. What would M.H.S. do without it.

I, Olive Stanton, being of sound body and no mind, do hereby will my infectious giggle to Bill Hord. Take good care of it, Bill. It comes in handy.

I, Joyce Stevens, do hereby will my characterizations of comedy roles in plays to Miss Sherman to distribute as she sees fit to next years actors and actresses.

I, Don Stewart, do hereby will my ability to get along with Mr. Reul to all those students in American Problems class.

I, Graham Storm, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my curly hair to Davy Turner. Now the girls will really go wild, Davy.

I, Charlotte Winifred Tewell, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to "dish it out" --- ice cream, that is --- to all would-be soda jerkers.

I, Elta Thompson, being of sound mind and small body, do hereby will my size to any would-be musician who plans to become a member of Madison's "Big Red", but fears he might have difficulty in getting a band uniform to fit.

I, Helen Vincent, do hereby will my ability to study with the opposite sex to Marianna Edwards. But remember, all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

I, Joy Dean Walston, will my short hair cuts to Wilma Sheets. It is very easy to take care of. To my faithful friend, Susie Newman, I leave my ability to stay out of love with servicemen. I think it's too late now. Agreed?

I, Janet Watson, will my ability to get along with everyone to my sister, Doris. Keep up the good work, Doris.

I, Stan Weber, do hereby bestow upon David Klopp my official capacity of senior class proxy. Better get all available books on parliamentary procedure. Roberts' Rules of Order will not be sufficient for such a difficult position.

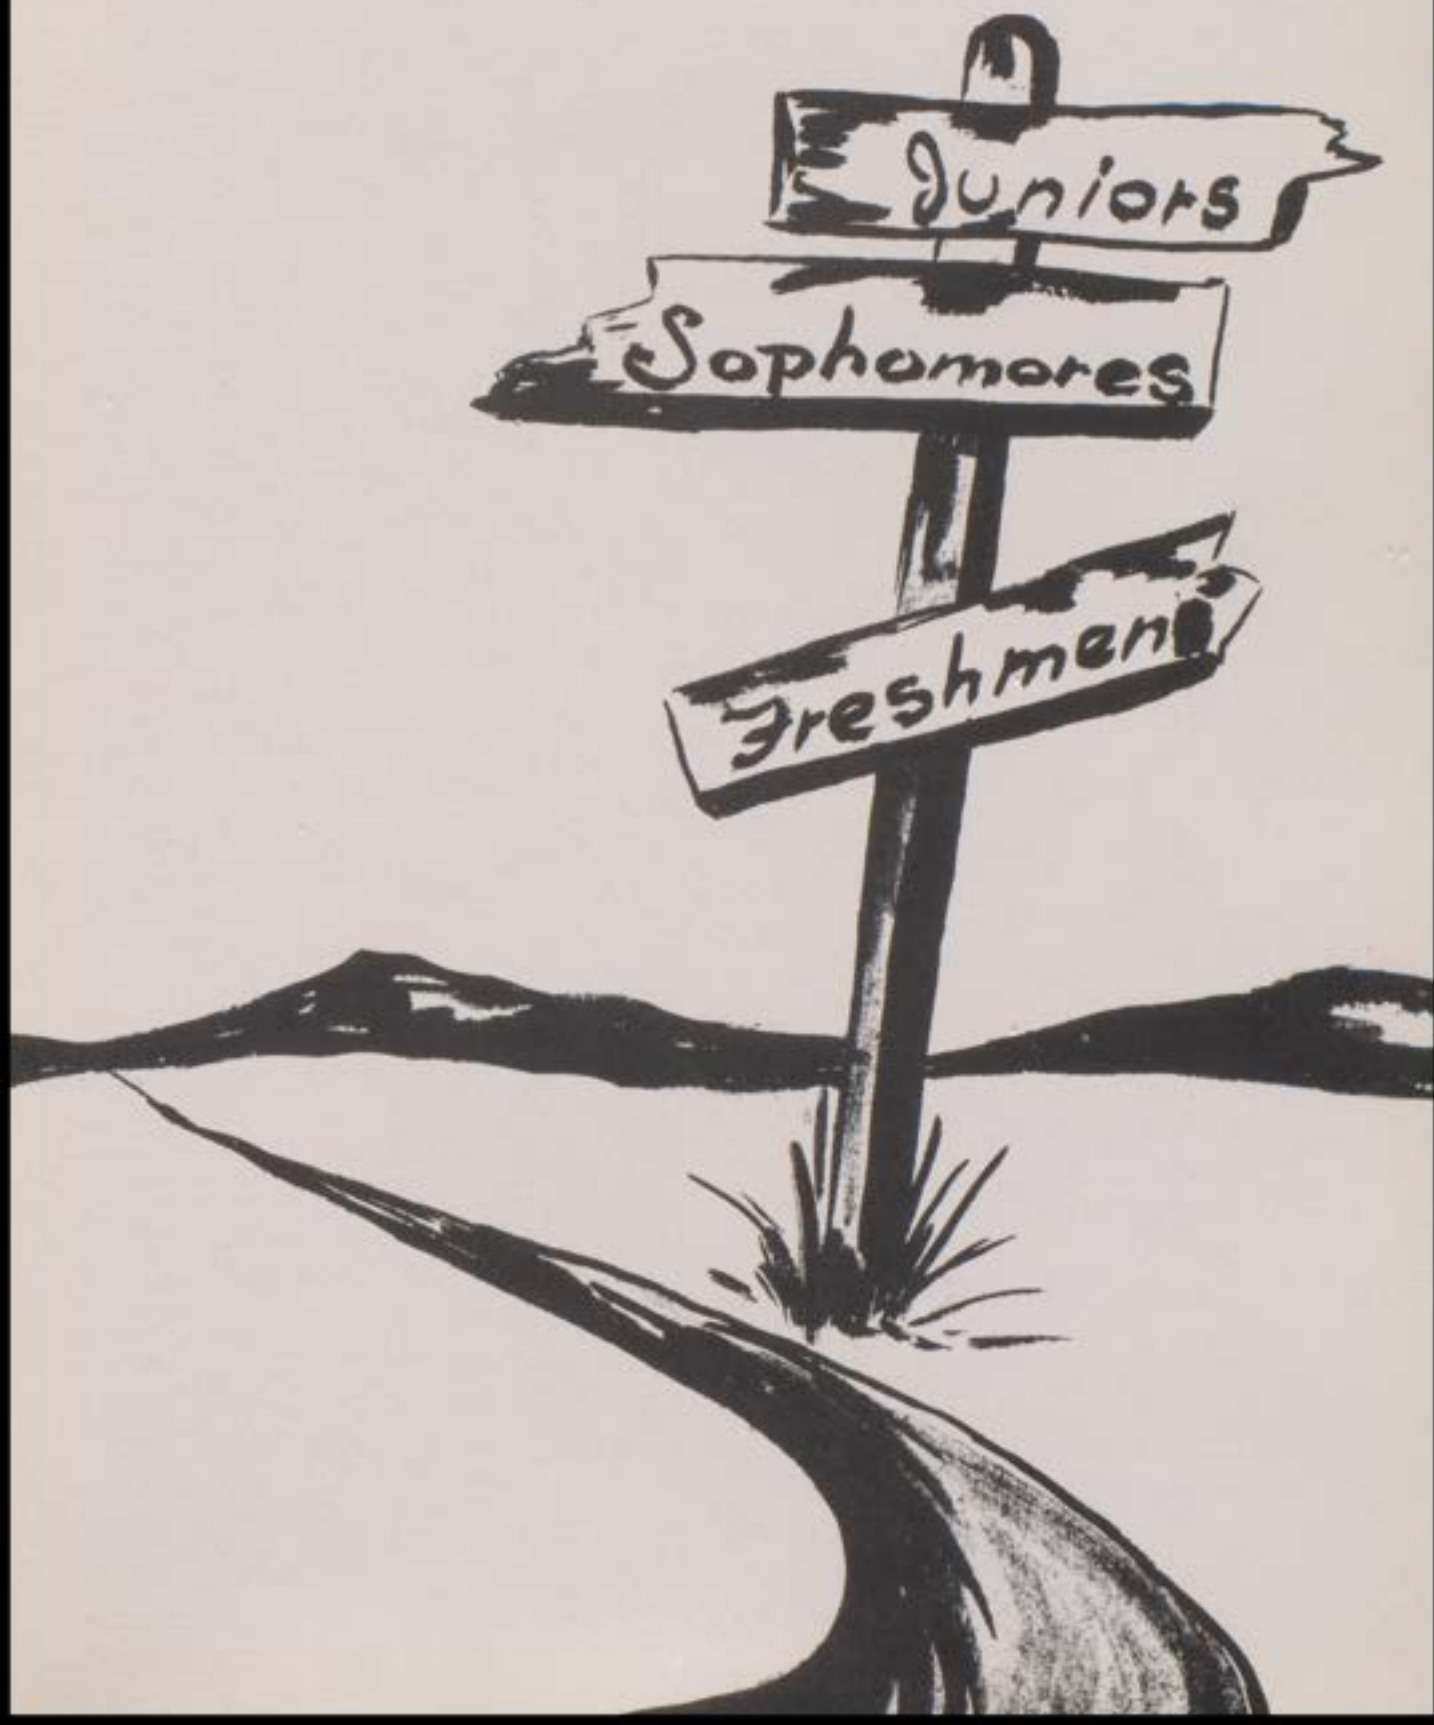

I, Joan Weinberg, will my job as a majorette to Emily Jo Haak. Twirler, Emily.

I, Glenn Wells, do hereby will my moustach to Mr. Carpenter. Now, we can make fun of you, "Carp."

I, John Werbe, will my ability to get along with Mary Lou Martin in fourth period study hall to "Cactus" Ed Baker. "Carp" will collect your pennies in the little brown jug now!

I, Doris Winters, do hereby bequeath my Hollywood dimples to Joann Hooker. With all the admirable traits you now have, this might land you a real movie contract!

Sports

OUR BOYS

BILL SHUCK. Bill, a junior member of the Cub squad, stands 6-3 and weighs 158 pounds. He is known for his one-handers from the corners.

DAVE TURNER. Dave, one of the hefty yet able members of the Cubs, stands 5-10 and weighs 190 pounds. Dave is a junior guard.

HENRY BENNETT. Henry, though he didn't see much service this year, showed much promise, and will be a valuable player next year. He is a junior forward, 6-2, and weighs 140 pounds.

MAURICE LORENZ. "Honey," a junior forward, has made a wonderful scoring record this year. With another year to go, he may break more records. Maurice is 6-1 and weighs 155 pounds.

STAN WEBER. "Stan, the man," alias "Stan, the Eye," is a senior forward. The team depended upon many of his coffin corner shots. He is 6-2 and weighs 160 pounds.

OUR BOYS

RALPH THORPE. Ralph, a sophomore center, stands 6'2" and weighs 170 pounds. "Och" has been a dependable and conscientious player.

WAYNE RICHEY. "Chick," another senior, had a very impressive season. A good guard, "Chick" stands 5'10" and weighs 150 pounds.

TONY DATTILO. Tony, though very small, was a fast sophomore guard. He is 5'8" and weighs 140 pounds.

NOBLE WHITEHEAD. Although Noble didn't see much action this year, he, no doubt, will be a very important player next year. He is a junior who played forward, stands 5'10", and weighs 167 pounds.

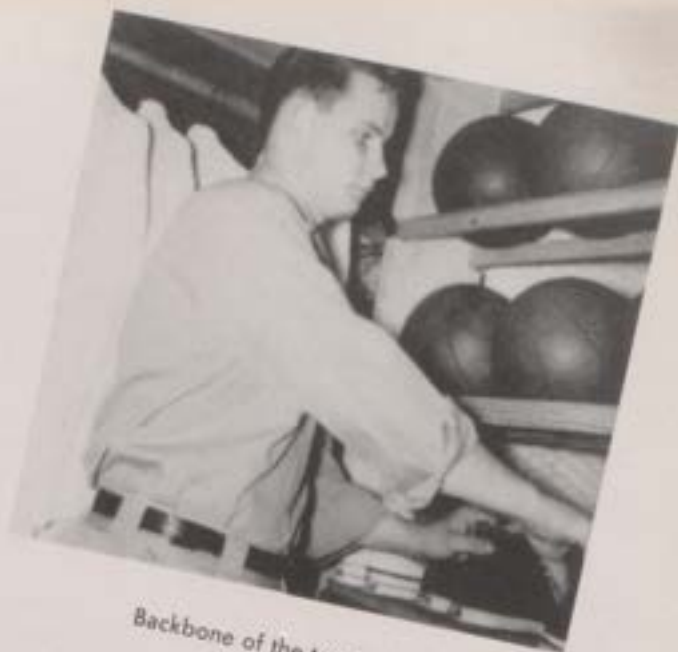

BUD BUNTON. Co-captain of the team was Bud "P.L." Bunton. Bud was a very effective center, and he put his 6'4" and 195 pounds to good use in every game. The C-bs will miss him next year.

Departing seniors — Stan, Bud, Chick.

Backbone of the team — John!

Mr. ANDERSON

The 1950-51 edition of the Madison Cubs has been privileged to participate under a fine leader. We are very fortunate, indeed to have Myrwin "Red" Anderson as the varsity basketball coach at M.H.S. His impressive record during the season has shown the school and the community his abilities as a coach. The Cubs have not only played fine ball this past season, but under the leadership of Mr. Anderson, they have acted as gentlemen on and off the basketball floor.

Mr. Anderson, with his wife Janet, came from Batesville High School. He is a graduate of Purdue University where he played basketball and baseball.

We feel that Madison will have many more fine athletic teams under the efficient leadership of Coach Anderson.

Mr. C. O. MANOUGH — "C.O." or "Poodle" is a well-known personality throughout the school. He is the coach of the second team, and the assistant coach for the varsity squad.

DAVID KLOPP — "Deacon" was a member of the second team throughout the year. He was invaluable to them and, although he is only an underclassman, he was advanced to the varsity team during the tourney as an alternate.

Charles "Muscles" Hill has been the student manager for the second team this year. He has been very dependable and always kept his little club "all set."

INTERCLASS

The seniors and juniors, coached by Wayne Richey and Maurice Lorenz, opened the inter-class tourney on Thursday, October 5. The seniors overpowered the juniors, and won the first game in the 1950 inter-class. The seniors were led by Hartgrove and Bird. The score was 27-24.

The sophomores and freshmen, coached by Buddy Bunton and Stan Weber, played the second game. The sophomores won 35-16.

In the final game the seniors won by the score of 34-26. Kloss, Hartgrove, and Bird led the seniors to victory.

INTRAMURAL

Through the willing assistance of their security members, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Strohm, and Mr. Carpenter, the intramural club was formed again this year. Four teams competed during the regular season.

Near the close of basketball season, the intramural tourney was held, each team had to lose twice before it was eliminated. In the final game, the Termites edged the Hillbillies 29-28, thus gaining the recognition of being the best intramural team in school — the champs.

The four competing teams and their members were as follows:

Termites	Hillbillies	Hot Rods	Little Giants
J. Werbe	B. Finnegan	W. Poynter	B. Peak
C. Hill	G. Neal	D. Miller	P. Hill
D. Vaughn	G. Storm	J. Royce	S. Cole

J. Jackson	P. Bird	A. Tingle	P. Anderson
S. Goldberg	J. Lucht	D. Wood
G. Crozier	L. Youngman	B. Schwab

At the close of intramural competition, an all intramural team was chosen. This team was chosen by the votes of the members of the various teams. The ten who received the highest number of votes was placed on the first squad.

Charlie Hill received the most votes, thus according him as the "most valuable player".

"Junie"

Back of every team there should be school spirit; and at the head of the school spirit should be yell-leaders. M.H.S. was very fortunate to have four who were determined that their school would be outstanding in sportsmanship as well as in basketball itself. In their smart uniforms of red and white, they added a touch of color to the exciting game of basketball.

Next year M.H.S. will miss the talents of "Junie" Alexander, the only senior.
