THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1954
MADISON HIGH SCHOOL
Madison, Indiana

Locomotive built by the Jeffersonville, Madison, and Indianapolis Railroad Company to work on the inclined plane at Madison, Indiana.

Dedication

We of the class of 1954, ending our journey through our high school years, have presented ourselves as passengers on a train. Our train began its run in 1950 and now has sounded its whistle, signifying its final stop at "the end of the line." We wave farewell to the crew, to all those who have added to our comfort and knowledge. Overhead the large sign tells us of our destination--GRADUATION; As we purchase another ticket, we hear a new voice from another track: "All aboard for the future."

We also find it fitting to use the railroad as the theme of our yearbook in connection with the railroad and our community. The old Madison-Indianapolis run was the first in the Hoosier state and after several years with no operation, it is in use once again. At one time the local freight line was a vitally important line connecting the northern part of the state to the Ohio River.

To all the people who have contributed in any way to the establishment of the railroad, which is a definite step of progress, we of the 1954 graduating class of Madison High School do hereby dedicate this Mahisco.

The Conductor

EMERY O. MUNCIE, Superintendent; DePauw University, A.B.; Indiana University, A.M.; Hanover College.

"Education refines human wants and provides the skills necessary to satisfy them." (H. C. Hunt)

We are living in a better world today because man has sought to improve himself. Progress has been achieved because our wants have necessitated better materials, better homes, better working conditions, and better understanding of the world, its people and problems. In order to get these we have had to think, and this means education. If by becoming educated, we have not learned to want better things, better understanding, and better environment, through skills learned then education has failed.

Your four years in high school should have given you a desire for the best there is and also a desire to learn how to get it. You have learned much, but if your wants are not for the better things in life, your schooling has brought little profit to you.

E. O. Muncie, Superintendent

What is your philosophy of life as you leave the halls of M. H. S. ? Will your life be purposeful or will you just drift with the crowd?

Our combined and concerted efforts have been directed toward having you realize for yourselves, each and every one, that your philosophy of life must include the conviction that you and every one must work and work hard for his own sake and for the accomplishment of the best things for humanity. The sweetest joy that any one can know will follow work well done and friends well served. Work and friends are the two greatest sources of our happiness.

You will find three prime conditions of happiness in your work: (1) Be prepared for the work you are undertaking; (2) Do your work so well that you yourself can approve it; (3) Do not do too much of it.

In your work be broad enough to consider the welfare of others. Realize early in life that no life is complete which does not contribute to the happiness of others. We feel that you will find these things to be the surest and most sound guarantees for success and happiness in your future.

Senior Officers

President Connie Needler
Vice-President Bill Matthews
Secretary Nancy Jessup
Treasurer Anna Spillman

Despite activities such as the school and senior plays, the annual, the school paper, and the Custer Contest-not to speak to her full teaching schedule-Miss Sherman always finds time for "her seniors". Her instruction and counsel is every senior's asset.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1954 of the Madison High School, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, in form and manners as follows.

- I, Billy Joe Alexander, leave my basketball ability to "Busch Stoner." Now the coach can look forward to a star player next year.
- I, Jack Baker, will my baseball ability to Ray Eades. It's a good way to develop your muscles anyway, Ray.
- I, Tommy Beetem, will my ability to handle women to Rudy Jackson. These eternal triangles are dangerous business, don't you think, Rudy?
- I, Peter Bersch, will my masterful driving ability to any would-be homicidal maniac.
- I, Florence Broadus, leave my place in 6th period study hall to anyone who likes to aggravate Mr. Buckles.
- I, Ernest Clashman, leave my convertible to Kenny Orr. Next winter you can drive around with your top down and catch everyone's eye, Kenny.
- I, John Cole, leave-----M. H. S. forever, I hope!
- I, Cheri Cummins, will the use of my two lockers to anyone who can not get all their junk in one.
- I, Frank Dattilo, leave my quiet ways to Freddie Dattilo. Not that he needs them.
- I, Bob Driggs, leave half of my height to Sonny Douglas. Now you can come up in the world.
- I, Don Ellis, leave my ability to be heard to all the quiet students in M. H. S.
- We, Herschel Eppley and Nida Lockridge, will our love for each other to all those one-sided love affairs, because we feel it's much more interesting when the feeling is mutual.
- I, Wanda Fewell, leave my diamond to anyone who thinks they can take it away from me.
- I, Shirley Firth, leave my red hair to Carolyn Riley. Now you have an excuse for that temper.
- I, Mary Goins, leave my cheerfulness to any pessimist who needs a brighter out-look on life.
- I, Clarence Grebe, will my rapidly changing loves to Jerry Carvin. I always did think you should give the other girls a break, Jerry.
- I, David Green, will my scientific ability to Kenneth Bush, so that the world may derive benefit from many new scientific discoveries.
- I, Cleon Griffin, leave my outside contacts to any girl who likes a man in every port.
- I, Robert Haak, leave my car with the best pick-up in town to all M. H. S. men. It may not run like a new one, but it parks just as easily.
- I, Margaret Ann Haas, leave my size 6 1/2 mouth to anyone else who likes to persist in sticking his foot in his mouth.
- I, Joan Hall, leave my car to Collette. Now you can haul the girls around, Collette.
- I, Jerry Harmon, will my way with out-of-town males to all girls who can't seem to make any headway with their home-town heart-throbs.
- I, John Hartgrove, leave my part in the Senior Play to anyone who likes the South.
- I, Roberta Haasfunder, leave my long-lost ambition to be a nurse to anyone who wants a career instead of marriage.
- I, Sara Hendrickson, will my Northern drawl to Mrs. George V. Reul. Now Mrs. Reul, maybe you won't get mixed up when you try to talk so fast!
- I, Doris Huette, will my dark complexion and hair to Connie Bivens.
- I, Ethel Mae Jenkins, leave-----M. H. S. sooner than I thought.
- I, Nancy Jessup, will my "happy-go-lucky" manner to Diane Kennedy, so she won't have to worry so much about--well, you know whom.
- I, Charlie Bob Jessup, bequeath my powers of bluffing to anyone who wants to graduate without studying.
- I, Jean Johann, will my love of Colorado to all those who like the wide open spaces. "Go west, young man, go west!"
- I, Dorotheann Jones, leave my long hair to Joyce Dalham. It would be a startling change, wouldn't it?
- I, Lois Ann Joyce, leave my vim, vigor, and vitality to everyone in study hall. Now there won't be so much sleeping in the assembly.
- I, Paul Hill, bequeath my invincible good humor to assembly teachers so that they may appreciate those practical jokes.
- We, Thelma Kemp and Cecil Lauderbaugh, will our record as the only couple to go steady all through high school to all those couples who have trouble making up their minds. Although we do agree that variety is the spice of life.
- I, Zelpha Kirby, will my small appetite to Delores Klein, P. S. --I don't really have a small appetite, but it's a good idea anyway.
- I, Kathleen Klopp, bequeath my style and neatness of dress to all future "oomph" girls of M. H. S.
- I, Alberta Lawrence, leave my loud echo of "Wanda!" in the hall of M. H. S.
- I, Anita Lamb, leave my position as president of Allied Youth to any underclassman who likes to keep busy.
- I, James Lewis, will my friendly nature to all future students, so that the teachers may not have to fear for their lives.
- I, Dru Lodge, leave my voice to all future warblers of M. H. S.
- I, John David Lucht, leave my "never-say-die" attitude and sportsmanship to anyone worthy of such good traits.
- I, Stewart Mathews, will my abrupt answers in civics class to all of Mr. Reul's future pupils.
- I, Bill Matthews, leave my dignified manners to Lyman Armstrong. Need I say more?
- I, Patty Minor, leave my love of Kentucky to the students of M. H. S. Now you kids from Kentucky can feel safe over here.
- I, Dorothy Mires, leave my knowledge of science to next year's chemistry class so there won't be so many explosions.
- I, Kim Moore, will my parking space to anyone who can get there first. I always did!
- I, Charlotte Monroe, will my quiet manners and winning smile to Joyce Ford.

More Wills

I, Gil Neal, will my piano-playing ability to all future students of Mr. Rothert. Now he'll always have someone to play during intermission at dances.

I, Connie Needler, leave my commercial ability to Helen Gray. Someday maybe Helen will get to work for some nice looking young man.

I, Pete Peddie, will my habit of being late to anyone who needs an extra study period (tardy room).

I, Jean Pommersohn, will my excuses to go up town to anyone who wishes to get out of study hall.

I, Barbara Reed, leave my devotion to the Cubs to all future M. H. S. fans.

I, George Ricketts, will my place on the staff of the Madisonian to any underclassman who has a journalistic mind and is willing to work.

I, Lois Rowlett, leave my cheer-leading ability to all future M. H. S. cheerleaders. Come on kids, cheer the Cubs on to victory.

I, Joann Royce, leave my job of writing wills to any one who wants it. It's a harder job than you think.

I, Don Sarver, will my cane to all M. H. S. students who get old before their time.

I, Jeanette Scarff, leave my charming personality to those students who go around with a pessimistic view of life. Come on, life isn't really that bad.

I, Bob Schmidt, leave my position as President of the Big Red Band to Floyd Lichtlyter. Do you think you can fill my uniform, Floyd?

I, Roy Shelton, leave my "ChartreuseFord" to all color blind boys.

I, Phil Sherman, leave my speech making ability to Miss Sherman's future speech classes. Never a dull moment!

I, Ellen Shipley, leave my engagement ring to any girl who is not already going steady, engaged, or married. Keep trying, girls.

I, Mike Smith, leave my autograph to the school, in order that future students may not have to bother about writing for it when I become a lawyer.

I, Nancy Smith, leave my ability as a soda jerk -- or I mean student -- who would like to set up a soda fountain in the library.

I, Ann Spillman, leave my naturally curly hair to Margie Mills. Now you won't have to pin it up every night, Margie.

I, Elbert Spivey, leave my ability to argue to anyone taking commercial law. You may not accomplish very much, but it does take up class time.

I, Carol Stanton, will my chimes to anyone who is willing to play them; so the band will not suffer from my graduation.

I, Charles Stanton, leave my extra weight to Bill Demaree. Now you won't have to stand in the same place twice to be seen.

I, Mary Jane Turner, leave my place at M. H. S. to my sister, Caroline. I hope you enjoy it as much as I did, Caroline.

I, Alice Watson, will my ability to keep Mr. Buckles angry at me in study hall to anyone who likes to be a pest.

I, Pauline Wehner, leave my gentle voice to Joe Knoebel for the safety of ear drums in Joe's vicinity.

I, Eddie Whitehead, leave my ability to capture a few points for the M. H. S. basketball team to the coach. Distribute these as you see fit, Coach.

I, Carolyn Winkel, will my ability to read books at any time to Miss Lotz's future students. Now they won't mind making all those book reports.

I, Phyllis Wood, will my inquisitiveness to Mary Lou Jesse, so that she will be able to keep posted on the latest happenings.

I, Pat Wright, leave my quiet ways to all malicious students of M. H. S.

I, Pat Yeager, will my ability of sleeping in sixth period class to those students who always have their lessons.

I, Eddie Youngblood, leave my wavy hair to the large number of underclassmen with crew haircuts. It would be a change.

To the Junior Class we leave the hope that you may enjoy your Senior year as much as we did.

To the Sophomore Class we leave our place in Senior Hall.

To the Freshman Class we leave our high scholastic record.

To the faculty we leave the memories of our smiling faces, friendly attitudes, and mischievous ways.

To all future students we leave the happy times, the sad times, the hope of a better tomorrow, the memories of a happy past, the things that make the years spent at M. H. S. the happiest of our lives.

In witness whereof we do hereby affix our seal this twenty-fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred fifty-four.

Choral Club

The Madison High School Choral Club, under the able direction of Harold Rothert, completed a very successful year of providing entertainment for this and other communities. The group appeared before the student body of the high school at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. They made numerous appearances before local organizations including Rotary, Elks, and the Chamber of Commerce. They sang over WORX (Madison), and WHAS radio-TV (Louisville, Ky.). In the spring they participated in concerts in Madison and several surrounding communities. On February 16, the choral club held their own dance at the Brown Gymnasium: the Choral Cotillion.

FRONT ROW: Bill Law, Don Elles, Lyman Armstrong, Frank Thomas, Wilbur Wilson, Charlie Haak, Charlie Miller, Mgr. Garry Marcus. SECOND ROW: Jim Wade, Kurt Kramer, Ed Stoner, Herschel Eppley, Bill Mullikin, Shelby Shadrick. THIRD ROW: Mrg. Bob Driggs, Don Campbell, Gayle Thieman, John Sargent, Ron Sudlow, John Jenkins. BACK ROW: Don Riley, Bob Smith, Dick Waters.

The Madison high school track team enjoyed the best season it has had in many years this season under the able coaching of Daily F. Hill, new to MHS this year. Daily previously coached at Newcastle before coming to MHS. This year, however, was his first attempt at coaching track.

The Cubs were beaten by only one team this year; conference champion Salem. The Cubs whipped Hanover, Central, Austin, Aurora, Lawrenceburg, Brownstown, Batesville, Scottsburg, and finished second behind Salem in the Southeastern conference.

Three of the Cubs qualified to take part in the regional meet of the state tournament. Gayle Thieman in the high jump, Pete Peddie in the pole vault, and Tom Beetem in the broad jump went to the regional meet at New Albany. Pete Peddie, with a leap of 11'3", and Tom Beetem, with a jump of 22'1 1/2", a new record, qualified to take part in the state tourney at Indianapolis.

Coach Hill has worked for the future and should have an even better team next year. The Cubs lost Tom Beetem, Herschel Eppley, and Pete Peddie this year, and their shoes will be big ones to fill.

Coach Daily Hill,
Capt. Tom Beetem.

Golf Team

FRONT ROW: Gil Neal, Robert Miller, Joe Landry. BACK ROW: Pete Bersch, Bob Shipley, Coach Arthur Buckles.

The Madison Cubs linksmen completed their season with a record of 2 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. Seniors on the team were Gil Neal and Pete Bersch.

Baseball Team

The Madison Cubs baseball team ended their 1954 season with a successful 8-4 record. "Dapper Dan" Garlinghouse won 7, lost 3, and appeared in eleven of the twelve contests. Bill Alexander won 1 and lost 1. The Cubs of '55 will be without Eddie Whitehead, Phil Sherman, Bill Alexander, Jim Lewis, and Dan Garlinghouse.

Interclass Champs

Intramural Champs

This year, as in the past, the Madison High School Intramural basketball program made it possible for each and every boy, who so desired, to play supervised basketball. This fine program offered to M. H. S. boys the chance to play on the Brown Gym floor, one of the finest in Southern Indiana, with regulation basketballs, referees, and scoreboards. This wonderful opportunity was made possible through the sincere efforts of the Intramural sponsors Mr. Nathan Wilson, Mr. Marvin Reed, and Mr. William Kearby, to provide a worth-while form of recreation for the boys. The sponsors were aided in their successful attempt to acquire this fine program by Mr. Daily Hill and his practice teachers, Dick Abel, "Hippo" Haines, "Bozo" Thompson, J. C. Lyttle and "Mick" Hennegin. The nearly seventy boys who took part in Intramural basketball during the 1953-54 season are certainly grateful to everyone who helped stage this program. May it be continued for many years to come.

The Queen in all her glory.
