COMING CUBS ATTRACTION! STILL NO. 1

Coming attraction! Cubs defeat Rebels. Command Performance!

These were the what turned out to be prophetic words on the Madison hoop at the beginning of the Madison-Southwestern game. For the second time of the 83-84 basketball season, the Cubs were again victorious.

The rivalry between the Cubs and the Rebels has been continuing for as long as Seniors can remember. The rivalry has ranged from playing school songs too slow to hiding faces behind newspapers. At times there have been heated arguments over which is the No. 1 school, and many students would have to agree that Madison is the dominate school. This can be proven by looking at past records.

But throughout the arguments and the rivalries, the Madison-Southwestern games remains one of the high points of the basketball season. Everyone looks forward to the annual "Turkey Shoot" that begins the Madison basketball season.

So if sometime you would happen to walk into a gym full of people reading newspapers, chances are the Cubs and Rebels will be at battle.

Cheerleaders and fans gather to form the victory tunnel.

MASH IS A SMASH

This year the Drama Club presented the school with some comedy relief enjoyed by every one. Their play M*A*S*H (taken from the book and movie of the same title) was clearly a fine example of many weeks of hard work.

The story takes place at the 4077th M*A*S*H unit at the time of the Korean conflict. It consisted of several vignettes of the staff's daily lives that were a little crazy.

Hawkeye (John Keeton) and Duke (Todd Lowry) were often behind whatever was going on. Their commander Henry Blake (Kerry Dugan) was upset by this but he found out that there wasn't much he could do about it. "Hot Lips" (Kim Kinman) and Major Frank Burns (Bill Ewing) tried to keep the camp in military order, but the rest of the crew wouldn't cooperate very well. This caused many of the unusual events that took place.

Of course everything was done in good humor. From the Bon wit Sisters' (Cathy Day, Jenni Collins, & Elisa Lowry) dance number to the big ending with the football game with a neighboring M*A*S*H, it was all good clean fun.

Hawkeye and Duke point out the virtues of having a good time.

The Bonwit Sisters put on a show in the mess hall.

Some of the cast gather in the "swamp" to play cards and swap jokes.

The surgeons perform a difficult operation on a fellow member of the staff.

Sweating, short tempers and an occasional falling asleep in class were typical descriptions of students starting their new year at MCHS. Although Madison suffered 100 degree temperatures, students were forced to go full days with very little air-conditioning while surrounding areas had the luxury of attending only half days.

Due to the problem of the extreme heat, a few fashion trends were set at MCHS. Shorts, mini-skirts and other cool articles of clothing were worn by students who were trying to beat the heat. In the past these articles of clothing were labeled as unacceptable. But due to the heat, school officials made no complaints.

As the fall and winter drifted in, the hot days of summer were forgotten, but the students will never forget the hot summer of 84. Although we thought the heat was never going to end, the beginning of this year still was some of the Best Years of our Lives.

Steve Manaugh wears his football jersey to circulate air and keep cool.

Kip Neal, taking a nap in Study Hall, wakes up to the click of the camera.

Senior Eric Prime stops on his way to class to pose and show his sexy legs.

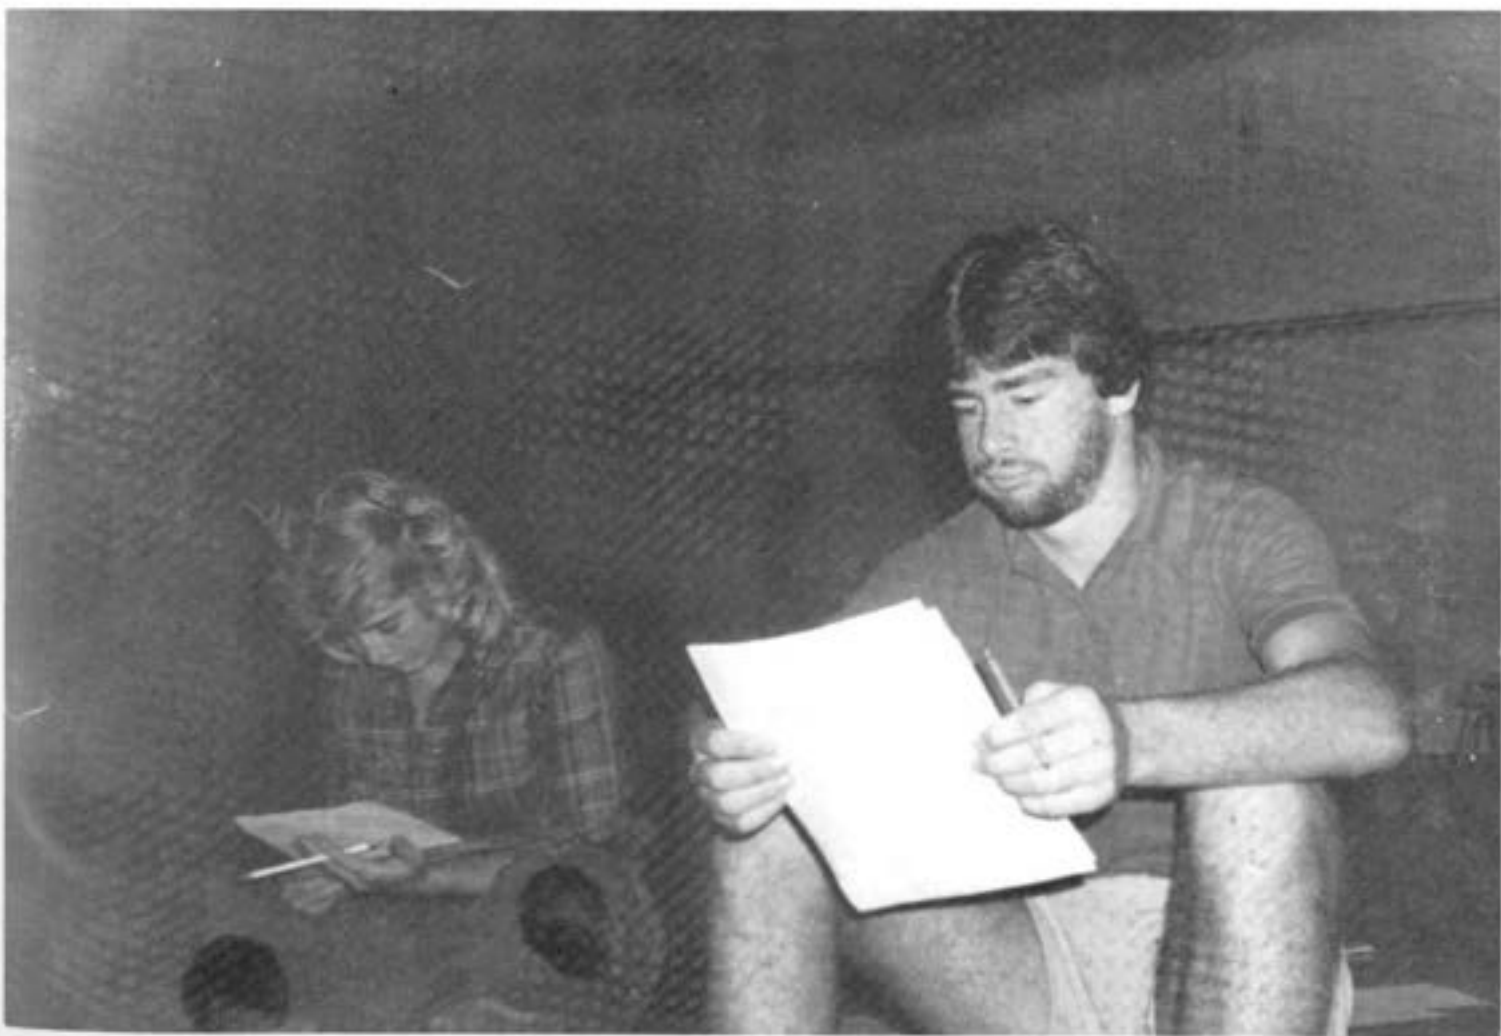

Not satisfied by wearing shorts, Mike Flint has to remove his shirt in order to keep cool.

Student Council President Jeff Searcy wears shorts to combat the heat while Treasurer Darla Kindoll prefers jeans and sandals.

HOMECOMING 84

As the clock ticked down the final seconds of the first half the intensity of the crowd began to rise to a new high. For this was Friday, September 23, 1983, another Madison cubs Homecoming game. As the Corvettes with the candidates and their escorts circled the track, cheers came from every direction for the girl the fans wanted to be crowned queen. As Mr. Jim Caudill began to announce the winner the six candidates, Nancy Buxton, Nancy Hill, Darla Kindoll, Chris Rosiak, Janie Taylor, and Lori Weber each felt their hearts sink to their stomachs. Finally the magic moment came and a silence fell over those assembled; what was called one of the largest Homecoming crowd's in Madison's history, "the winner of the 1983 Homecoming Queen is Nancy Buxton!"

1983 Queen Nancy Buxton accepts her flowers from 1982 Queen Lisa Willet Buchanan while captain Brian Vance watches on with pride.

"Hey, Chris! Get your mind off 'ARKY' and on the game like everyone else!"

LIONS TAMED BY HOMECOMING CROWD

The Cubs victory over Salem only added to the excitement of January 28th, 1984, as this night was the annual Miss Cub Homecoming game. As the crowd cheered their team on with enthusiasm, the candidates who consisted of Bridget Buchanan, Lisa Hanas, Pam Hannah, Beverly Osborne, Karla Peterson, and Sonya Phillips felt the realism of the night descend upon them. As the clock ticked down the final seconds of the Junior Varsity victory over Salem, the candidates began to take their walk across the gym floor. As the camera's flashed and the crowd's level of intensity reached its' peak, Bridget Buchanan was crowned Miss Cub, 1984.

As the years pass and the memories begin to fade Bridget will always cherish and remember the special moment that became one of the best nights of her life.

MCHS ACTION

Extra activities were planned to fit into students and teachers busy schedules. Sports events, drama club activities and dances, pictured here, seemed to dominate the scene. Spirit appeared better this year than in past years, thanks to the extra energy put in by the student council and other members of the school community. The school year was filled with many events and activities jammed into a nine month period. Many students and teachers became involved and spent much time in practicing or in attending these events. Each of us will, in time, remember these moments as they become the best years of our lives.

REMEMBER ?

Ed Loudon signed to attend Vincennes University while principal Bill Rector, basketball coach Gary Merrell and athletic director Jim Lee watch. Loudon received a full scholarship.

Ed Loudon's hustle and outstanding play made him a very popular guy with Madison basketball fans. Loudon played for the Madison Cubs during his sophomore and junior years, but had surpassed the age limit to play at the high school level in Indiana during his senior year. During the past year, Loudon attended school at Maine Central Institute where he was able to play basketball.

Louden achieved some great things during his two years with the Madison Cubs. Statistically, he led the Cubs during the 1982-83 season with a 21.0 scoring average, a 10.9 rebounding average and 54.6 percent of his field goals. He was named Most Valuable Player of the Cubs and was the top player in the Hoosier Hills Conference.

Mr. Lee, High School Athletic Director, made these comments; "He's a fine young man. Its unfortunate that his birthdate fell a little early to keep him from playing here. But I'm happy everything worked out for him."

Louden finished up at MCI on April 13th and graduated with this year's Madison Consolidated High School senior class.

Varsity cheerleaders are Lori Weber, Lisa Nichols, Darla Kindoll, Debbie Geyman, Chris Rosiak, and Cindy Gray.

SPARE TIME

The National Honor Society is a national organization which was sponsored by Mrs. Barbara Hill. This honorary club invited Juniors with a 3.5 or better grade point average and seniors with a 3.3 average. The prospective members then must turn in two recommendations that will comment on their leadership and service qualities. The faculty then grades each student in relationship to their: behavior, integrity and character. Those selected attend an induction ceremony that is generally held at Trinity Methodist church. This year 28 new members were inducted. The student officers for Honor Society were, David Posz — president and Sally Poling — secretary.

The sign language club helped to bridge the gap between those that can hear and those that cannot. The members were taught how to speak with their hands and how to communicate with the deaf. The president was Joyce Kinney and Jeannie Hammon taught the members the art of sign language.

Mrs. Hill, G. Watson, L. Hanas and B. Harner help out with National Honor Society.

Jeannie Hammon demonstrates sign language.

The local history club sponsor for the past several years has been Mr. Keith Alexander. The club is for any student interested in history. The club primarily centered its interest on Madison and its past. The club members were involved in many activities and field trips. They participated in banner night and collected toys for the Salvation Army while also selling candy grams at Christmas time to raise funds for future projects.

In the picture above, local history club members put in the final touches on their club banner.

Mr. Dugan was the sponsor of HiY. This club's purpose was to promote Christian spirit among the student body. This all male club made money by operating a concession stand at the home basketball games. One of the club's highlights is at Christmas time each year when they promote a fast so that others can feast in cooperation with the Salvation Army.

Seniors Kerry Dougan and Steve Manaugh were enthusiastic and active HiY members.

LEADERSHIP

The Girls Athletic Association provided recreation for the sports minded girls. They participated in many different activities to stay in shape, including arobacize. The sponsor of G.A.A. was Miss Eisenhardt and officers were: President - Bridget Buchanan, Vice-President - Nancy Hill, Secretary - Merritt Shimfessel, and Treasurer - Beth Eades.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

The local chapter of the Sunshine Society was sponsored by Mrs. Cook who is also the high school librarian. As in the past the Sunshine Society was very active. Their main source of revenue came from the various concession stands that were open during the football and basketball seasons. The officers for the society were: Kim Key—president, Kim Perry—vice president, Sally Poling—treasurer, Carol Hord—advisor to the president, Sherry Pflaumer—recording secretary and Lisa Irby—corresponding secretary.

The FHA participated in banner night at a home basketball game that was sponsored by WORX and WCJC local radio stations.

Sherry Pflaumer helps Mrs. Cook conduct a meeting of the Sunshine Society.

Above are pictured the officers for FHA. In front is Joyce Kinney—president, Bev Osborne—vice president, standing we have Nancy Buxton—reporter, Denise Fugate—secretary and Gina Sides—treasurer.

One club that prepares students for the business world is BLAST. The sponsor, Mrs. Marjorie Davis and Mrs. Donna Wheeler. The officers include Sheila Raycher—president, Linda Steward—vice president, Theresa Basham—secretary, Sonya Phillips—treasurer. Some of their fund raising projects included selling candles and having several bake sales. They also participated in National Secretaries Week.

The members of the Future Homemakers of America were interested in the practical aspects of running a home. They learned the skills necessary for later life. It's sponsored by Mrs. Whittaker and the officers were: Joyce Kinney—president, Bev Osborne—vice president, Denise Fugate—secretary, Gina Sides—treasurer and Nancy Buxton—reporter.

The Student Council, sponsored by the Director of Student Affairs Mr. Gallatin, was involved in numerous activities. The council was elected by the entire student body and served as the voice of the student body. Jeff Searcy served as president and was assisted by Dean Adams as vice president and Janie Taylor—secretary and Darla Kindoll—treasurer. They sponsored several dances, a campus clean up day and teacher appreciation week. While the dances were considered highly successful the council felt that the collection of canned food for the underprivileged at Christmas was the most rewarding experience and most successful. New this year was the naming of a Teacher of the Month. The teacher had to be nominated and selected by a student council committee and then recognized through the school media and community newspaper. The teacher recognized was then presented a plaque with an inscription signifying his accomplishments.

LET THE DRUMS ROLL

The home basketball games really got fired up whenever the pep band started playing.

The pep band was the most popular group at basketball games. Everyone including the team were helped into the spirit by them.

The Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. Nemeth, provided classy entertainment.

Many hours of hard work, seemingly endless practices and students with a great deal of talent lead to success for the music department. They participated in numerous performances and contests throughout the year bringing many awards back to Madison and gaining recognition for their community and school.

Mr. John Schreiber lead the band students through a full schedule of activities. As a marching band the musicians performed in many parades throughout the area. At each home football game they not only played the national anthem, but put on a half time show as well. The annual Christmas and spring concerts were well received and many individual selections received standing ovations.

One group that really got into the spirit of things was the Pep Band. Always present at those activities that demanded enthusiasm and spirit the Pep Band was a very popular group.

Under the direction of Mr. Alex Nemeth, the Jazz Ensemble provided the student body and community with an alternative to the more formal music that was played by the concert band. Improvisation and a relationship to some of the great Jazz musicians was the strength of this group.

DANCE WITH ME

Dance club was one of the more popular activities having a membership of over ninety students. President Steve Lee and Vice President Bridget Buchanan presided over the club's activities. Mr. Lou Knoble and Mrs. Sarah Smith were the club sponsors. At each meeting Mr. Knoble tried to show the club members a new dance step, while many were reluctant to try and dance most students enjoyed the music and social atmosphere that prevailed.

THE ACTION PEOPLE

The Boys and Girls Pep Clubs got more involved as the basketball season went on. At the beginning of the year red long sleeve t-shirts were purchased by the girls. The boys ordered sleeveless shirts and were worn at the first. But as the middle of the season rolled around red wasn't the majority color seen in the pep section.

The Madison Courier received many letters-to-the-editor about the high school lacking spirit. Mr. Merrell made a plea at one of the pep sessions for the student body to wear more red and white. Near the end of the season red was dominate and the school spirit could be heard loud and clear.

The girls pep club sponsor, Mrs. Zimmerman, contributed much time and effort to the girls. A lot of this time and effort also came from the elected officers who were Nancy Hill — president, Merritt Shimfessel — vice-president, Beth Eades — treasurer, and Jayne Riedel — secretary.

The Boys Pep Club officers were Tommy Bickers — president, Wayne Tingle — vice-president, Greg Monteko — treasurer, and Junior Herndon — secretary. Mr. Fife participated as their sponsor.

Lisa Nickell and Cindy Gray help president Nancy Hill conduct a pep club meeting.

This was the second year for Ski Club. While the club never did go skiing due to an unusual school year that saw the first meeting of the club in 84 not take place until late March. Ski Club raised about $130.00 from candle and nut sales that at this writing is still awaiting dispersal by club members for some ski related activity. This year's officers were President — Pam Hannah, Vice President — Karla Peterson, Secretary — Chip Hale, Treasurer — Kimberly Benson.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The German Club's banner came in 1st place on Banner night.

The french club, sponsored by Mrs. Hill, traveled to the Magic Pan Restaurant in Louisville and the LaTour restaurant in Indianapolis to sample french cuisine. The highlight of the year came when 20 french students journeyed to Europe over spring break and visited the countries of Switzerland, Italy and France. The german club, sponsored by Mr. Seifert, joined its french colleague and also did a lot of traveling. Several members made a trip to Germany and Austria over spring break to tour cities such as Munich, Heidelberg, Innsbruck and Frankfort. Traveling to Germany provided a real asset to their german studies, plus created memories to last their lifetimes. A german picnic, breakfast, bowling, pizza party and winning first place on banner night were all highlights of a very busy year.

The Spanish club saw six students go to Spain visiting the cities of Malaga, Madrid, Granada and Sevilla. A trip to Chi-Chi's in Louisville, a language fair at Austin and the selling of piñatas at the Chataqua were all part of an active year. The club sent three students, Vicki Kinnard, Dottie Dixon, Michelle Austin, to Ball State for a spanish weekend where only spanish would be spoken. Mrs. Kloefer was the club sponsor.

VICA, DECA, PVE, & FFA

Junior Jeffery Jenkins receives an award at the annual banquet.

Master of Ceremonies Roger Meyer.

The vocational education clubs sponsored the annual employer-employee banquet and High School principal Mr. Bill Rector gave the following response to the employers assembled: "we appreciate the good work you do for our kids." and to the teacher sponsors of the vocational clubs he said, "the progress you make with the students is noticeable." and finally to the students themselves he remarked, "we are really proud of you for the job you are doing in representing our school in our community." Mrs. Nancy Cheatham and Mrs. Margie Alexander, pre vocational education sponsors, presented outstanding student awards to Debbie Young, Cindy Shelley, Todd Kirby and Jimmy Hugeback.

Club officers were: Tina Sargent — president, Cindy Shelley and Todd Kirby — secretaries, Rick Jones — treasurer and Debbie Young — parliamentarian.

Mr. Darryl A. Smith, Distributive Education Clubs of America sponsor, presented a special fund-raising award to Linda Cosby and retired the club's gavel to outgoing president Kim Huff. A special service award went to Karen Rawlins and the outstanding student awards were presented to Kim Huff and Lonnie Collier.

The club presented Mr. Smith with a plaque for his dedication to the DECA organization.

DECA officers were: Kim Huff — president, Kimberly Chandler Bowman — vice president, Julie Phillips, secretary, Lisa Singleton and Karen Geisler — secretaries, Lonnie Collier — reporter, Shelly Bell — historian, Bernard Bumper Johnson — parliamentarian and Denise Hazelwood — chaplain.

Mr. James R. Risk, Vocational Industrial Clubs of America sponsor, told the crowd that participation in activities is important and ringing the bells for the Salvation Army at Christmas time and helping needy families was a vital part of the VICA program.

Outstanding student service awards were presented to Shari Seel, Cindy Gordon, Jeff Jenkins and Roger Meyer. Roger Meyer also received a plaque for his outstanding service as club president.

VICA officers were: Roger Meyer — president, Tim Jones — vice president, Cathy Dicks — secretary, Shari Seel and Jeff Jenkins — treasurer, Lee Downey — parliamentarian, Cindy Gordon — reporter and Carl Tyree — sergeant at arms.

It was also noted that once again the Madison VICA club was recognized as one of the outstanding clubs in the state. Many awards were won by its members and several individuals will go on to represent Indiana in the national VICA convention in Louisville later this year.

Nearly 200 members and guests gathered for the annual banquet to honor outstanding members of the Madison High School chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

The FFA advisor is Gene Spicer and the officers of the chapter included: Jeff Spicer, president; David Wilson, vice president; Helen Spicer, secretary; Crystal Gossman, treasurer; Ronald Mikesell, reporter; and Kyle Dailey, sentinel.

Junior officers are: Jill Elston, vice president; Chris Thornton, secretary; John Wehner, treasurer; Brian Konkle, reporter; and O. G. Luelen, sentinel.

Retiring officers honored were: Alan Burnham, president; Donna Clubb, vice president; and Tim Trowbridge, treasurer. Trowbridge was the Star Chapter Farmer, and Burnham the Star Agri businessman.

Hoosier Farmer Degree awards went to Billy Center and Alan Burnham, and the Dekalb award was presented to Byron Parker.

John Wehner was named the Star Greenhand. (outstanding freshman)

FFA advisor Robert Hoskins presented the Leadership and Scholarship Awards. Leadership Awards were: Ag. 1 — Jill Elston; Ag. 2 — David Wilson; Ag. 3 — Jeff Spicer; and Ag. 4 — Tim Trowbridge, senior; Ed Cassidy, junior; and Roger Ward.

Kerry Dugan and Jenny Collins played the lead roles in the all school musical "Kiss Me Kate".

The choir showed how many hours of practice and hard work can really pay off. Their schedule proved to be a busy one. They participated in both the district and state level competitions as solos and as a group winning many superior ratings.

Tiempo, the singing and dancing group, performed at various community and school related events. They entertained their audiences with a variety of routines that proved very popular. Both choir and Tiempo were under the careful direction of Mr. Jim Haney.

The Drama Club helped many students to bring out their acting ability. Members of the club participated in such shows as the school play, "MASH", the musical, "Kiss Me Kate", and childrens theater. They also visited actors theater in Louisville and at the end of the year a formal banquet and initiation of Thespians was held. The club was sponsored by Mr. Bill Linquist.

Tiempo sang and danced its way through many performances. Those pictured are; A. Grubbs, D. Wykoff, K. Chambers, T. J. Weaver, K. Kinman and J. Keeton.

SPORTS

Character Carries CUBS!

4-6 on paper but 10-0 in heart are the words which sum up the high school boys football season. These words were placed upon head coach Jim Kaczmarek's plaque given to him by the team.

"It's our character and not our record that will make the difference for the rest of our lives. They were a team that did not let defeat get them down." Those were a few ways coach Kaczmarek described the Fighting Cubs season.

The feelings of the players are not understood by the average fan. When one looks at football from the stands he really doesn't know exactly what the players on the field are feeling. But if he goes to the sidelines, he can really feel the desire and determination the whole team puts forth.

Though Jeff Searcy and Marvin Shadday were the team's most valuable players, the whole team helped them get this award, if not working with them on the field then possibly giving encouraging words from the sidelines.

Even though the team didn't have a winning season, most definitely each player will carry something from the year to help him in later life.

Jeff Searcy was Madison's key player in scoring the most touchdowns for the 1983 football season. He also broke the record for most touchdowns ever scored in one game.

Senior Marvin Shadday was one of the many players affected by the heat at the beginning of the season.

A Rebuilding Year

"A building year", that's what coach Knobler called this year's cross country season. Having lost six seniors from the previous year the running clubs found the lack of experienced runners to be a difficult hurdle to overcome. Still the clubs with a mixture of veterans and new recruits managed to have a respectful season. Led by captains Paul Will and Tom Weber the Madison Harriers were competitive in every outing. At the awards Banquet Paul and Tom were selected as the most valuable runners, the first time in 15 years two individuals were given this honor. Coach Knobler remarked that there was no way he could separate their contributions to the team. Paul Nemeth, a promising freshman, was voted the outstanding freshman award. Paul ended the season by running 5th on the varsity team. Leadership awards were divided among Mike Hewitt, John Lorton, Paul Will and Tom Weber.

Tom Weber and Paul Will not only were co-captains for coach Knobler, but led the team as the no. one and two runner.

All conference runners: Tara Dattilo, Bridget Buchanan and Pam Hannah. Bridget finished 1st, Tara 3rd and Pam 5th.

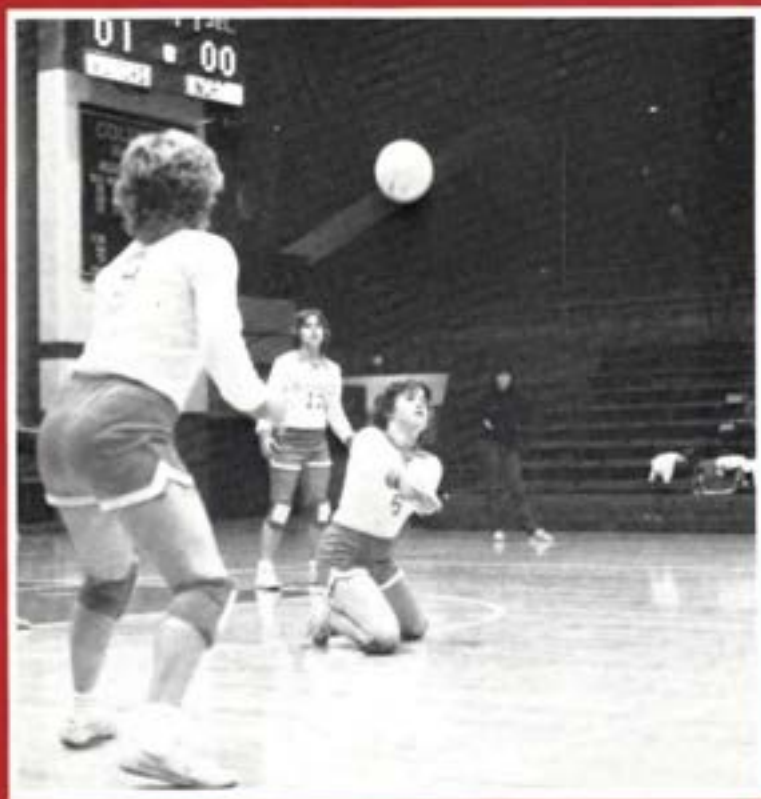

The "Magic Touch", that's what coach Knoble referred to his team captain Bridget Buchanan, as when he summarized the 83 season. The lady harriers were 7 and 0 in dual meets and finished high in the large invitationals. The highlight of the season was winning the conference championship and Bridget, Tara and Pam making the all conference team. The biggest disappointment came in a second place finish in the sectionals. Running in a torrential down pour of rain the lady harriers were unable to run up to form. Advancing to the regionals the team finished a very disheartened 5th, missing the State Finals by one place. However, Bridget Buchanan individually finished 5th and proceeded on to Indianapolis finishing 38th in the State Finals. At the awards banquet the captain awards went to Pam Hannah and Bridget Buchanan. Top runners awards were given to Kathi Nelson, Pam Hannah, Tara Dattilo and Sherry Pflaumer. Leadership and Most Valuable Runner trophies were presented to Bridget Buchanan, who coach Knoble commented would be remembered for a long time for her contribution to the sport of cross country at Madison.

Above is pictured the start of the Bloomington Invitational Jr. Sr. Race. Donna, Pam, Sherry, Karla and Wendy all get a good start. On the far left Pam Hannah contemplates what to eat at Mr. Steak. At the left we see Bridget running in her usual position of first place setting still another Madison record.

Varsity player Beth Eades shows (9) Suzanne Manaugh and (17) Jodi Lucht how to complete a successful bump.

Junior Gina Muensterman attempts to spike the ball at the Columbus North Bulldogs.

The varsity volleyball team consisted of: J. Lucht, J. Buchanan, M. Ward, E. Curl, M. McCarty, S. Manaugh, back row Coach Eisenhardt, B. Eades, J. Seviere, G. Munsterman, L. Stoner, N. Hill and K. Rush.

V. Ball Season Netted

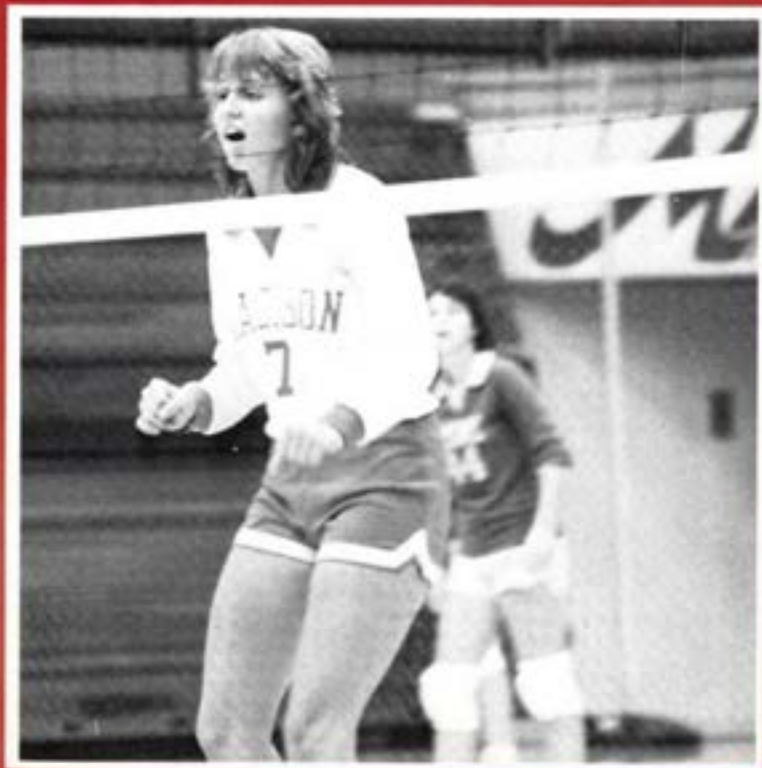

For losing approximately nine seniors from the following year the 1983 varsity volleyball team was a complete success. The only returning varsity player was Gina Muensterman, five other positions had to be filled.

The "Lady Cubs" had such a successful season that the only real noticeable errors by the team were their blocking and a little more aggressiveness on the offensive side. As far as receiving and returning were concerned it couldn't of been much better.

Now for the JV team with a record of 17-2 there's not much you can say except we've got a strong team moving up.

Senior Nancy Hill shows us how she patiently awaits the next ball.

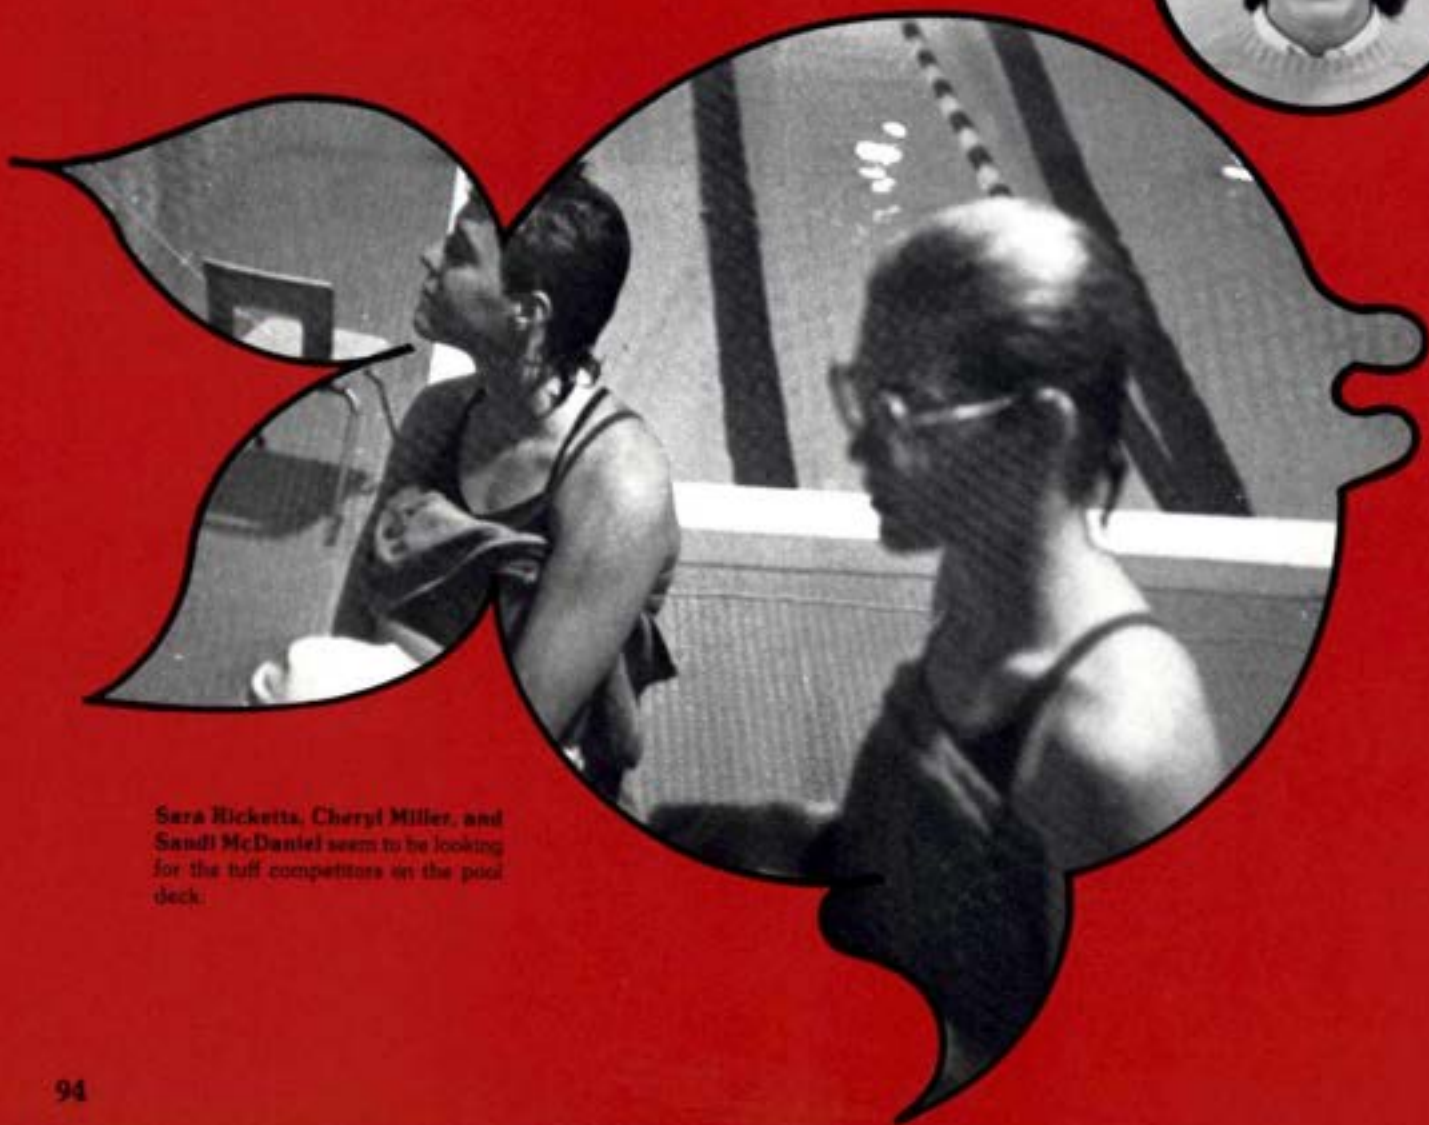

Senior Kim O'Neal runs onto the floor before the start of the game.

Cubs Make Big Splash !

Senior Cheryl Miller, junior Cheryl Hart, sophomore Michelle Gish, and freshman Sara Ricketts made up the medley relay that went to the state meet. Miller also qualified in the 50 free and 100 fly.

Sara Ricketts, Cheryl Miller, and Sandi McDaniel seem to be looking for the tuff competitors in the pool deck.

With a 6-4 dual meet record, 3rd at sectionals, and four girls going to the state meet, head coach Bert Zimmermen had nothing to complain about when it came to his high school girls swim team.

The 1983 season turned out to be one of the best seasons recorded from the past. Girls went to morning practice, evening practice five days a week and once on Saturday. When you're worn out and exhausted it's hard to get excited about a meet, but some how the team did it!

"It was the year of learning" said Coach Z. The girls learned if you want to lose weight you must cut down on eating, if you want to be successful one must be fully dedicated, and in order to win it takes work and enthusiasm. It took time, and things started progressing, everyone worked together and formed a team.

As the saying goes "There's no I in team" and there certainly wasn't, four girls were sent to state, Cheryl Miller, Sarah Ricketts, Michele Gish, and Cheryl Hart in the 200 medley relay. Miller also qualified in the 50 free and 100 fly. The relay placing 22, and Miller placing 16th and 20, were the results to a terrific year.

Michele Gish and Sandi McDaniel show us what hard work and dedication can do to a person.

Freshman Jami Sedam sticks with the slogan "Grim and Bare it!"

Sara Ricketts shows us how excited she was about her last race as Edie Schnaitter explains to her the facts of life.

TENNIS TACTICS

"It was a season of ups and downs" pointed out tennis coach, Mr. Randy Fife. The tennis team compiled a 2-14 record this year led by the Most Valuable Player, Bobby Ferguson. Ferguson advanced to the regionals after winning to sectional singles title at Seymour.

The Most Improved Award was given to Junior David Cook. Fife said "Cook's play improved greatly from the beginning of the season to the end. The coach, Randy Fife, ended the Awards Banquet by saying, "They learned that tennis is a team sport."

Bob Ferguson practices before the Seymour sectional.

Gina Muensterman battles for the ball and also tries to defend the "Lady Cubs" territory.

Suzanne Manaugh cautiously scrambles down the floor as her follower breathes deeply in hopes of stealing the ball.

"These young ladies are all very special and I was very pleased with their performances this year. I look forward to having them all back next year." That's the way varsity girls basketball coach, Luanne McCammon, summed up the girls 1984 campaign.

Sophomore guard, Michele Ward, received most of the honors for this year's team. Ward was named Most Valuable Player and received the Knoebel-Bird Free Throw Award, the Mite Federal Assist Trophy and the Captain Award along with Junior Beth Eades.

Junior Gina Meunsterman received the Mental Attitude Award. Meunsterman was also awarded her letter jacket for receiving letters in five sports. Gina Meunsterman was the leading scorer for the 1984 Lady Cubs.

Mr. Lee concluded the ceremony by praising McCammon for her "interest in the students and what is happening and for her fine 9-9 season."

CUBS HAVE SLAMMING SEASON

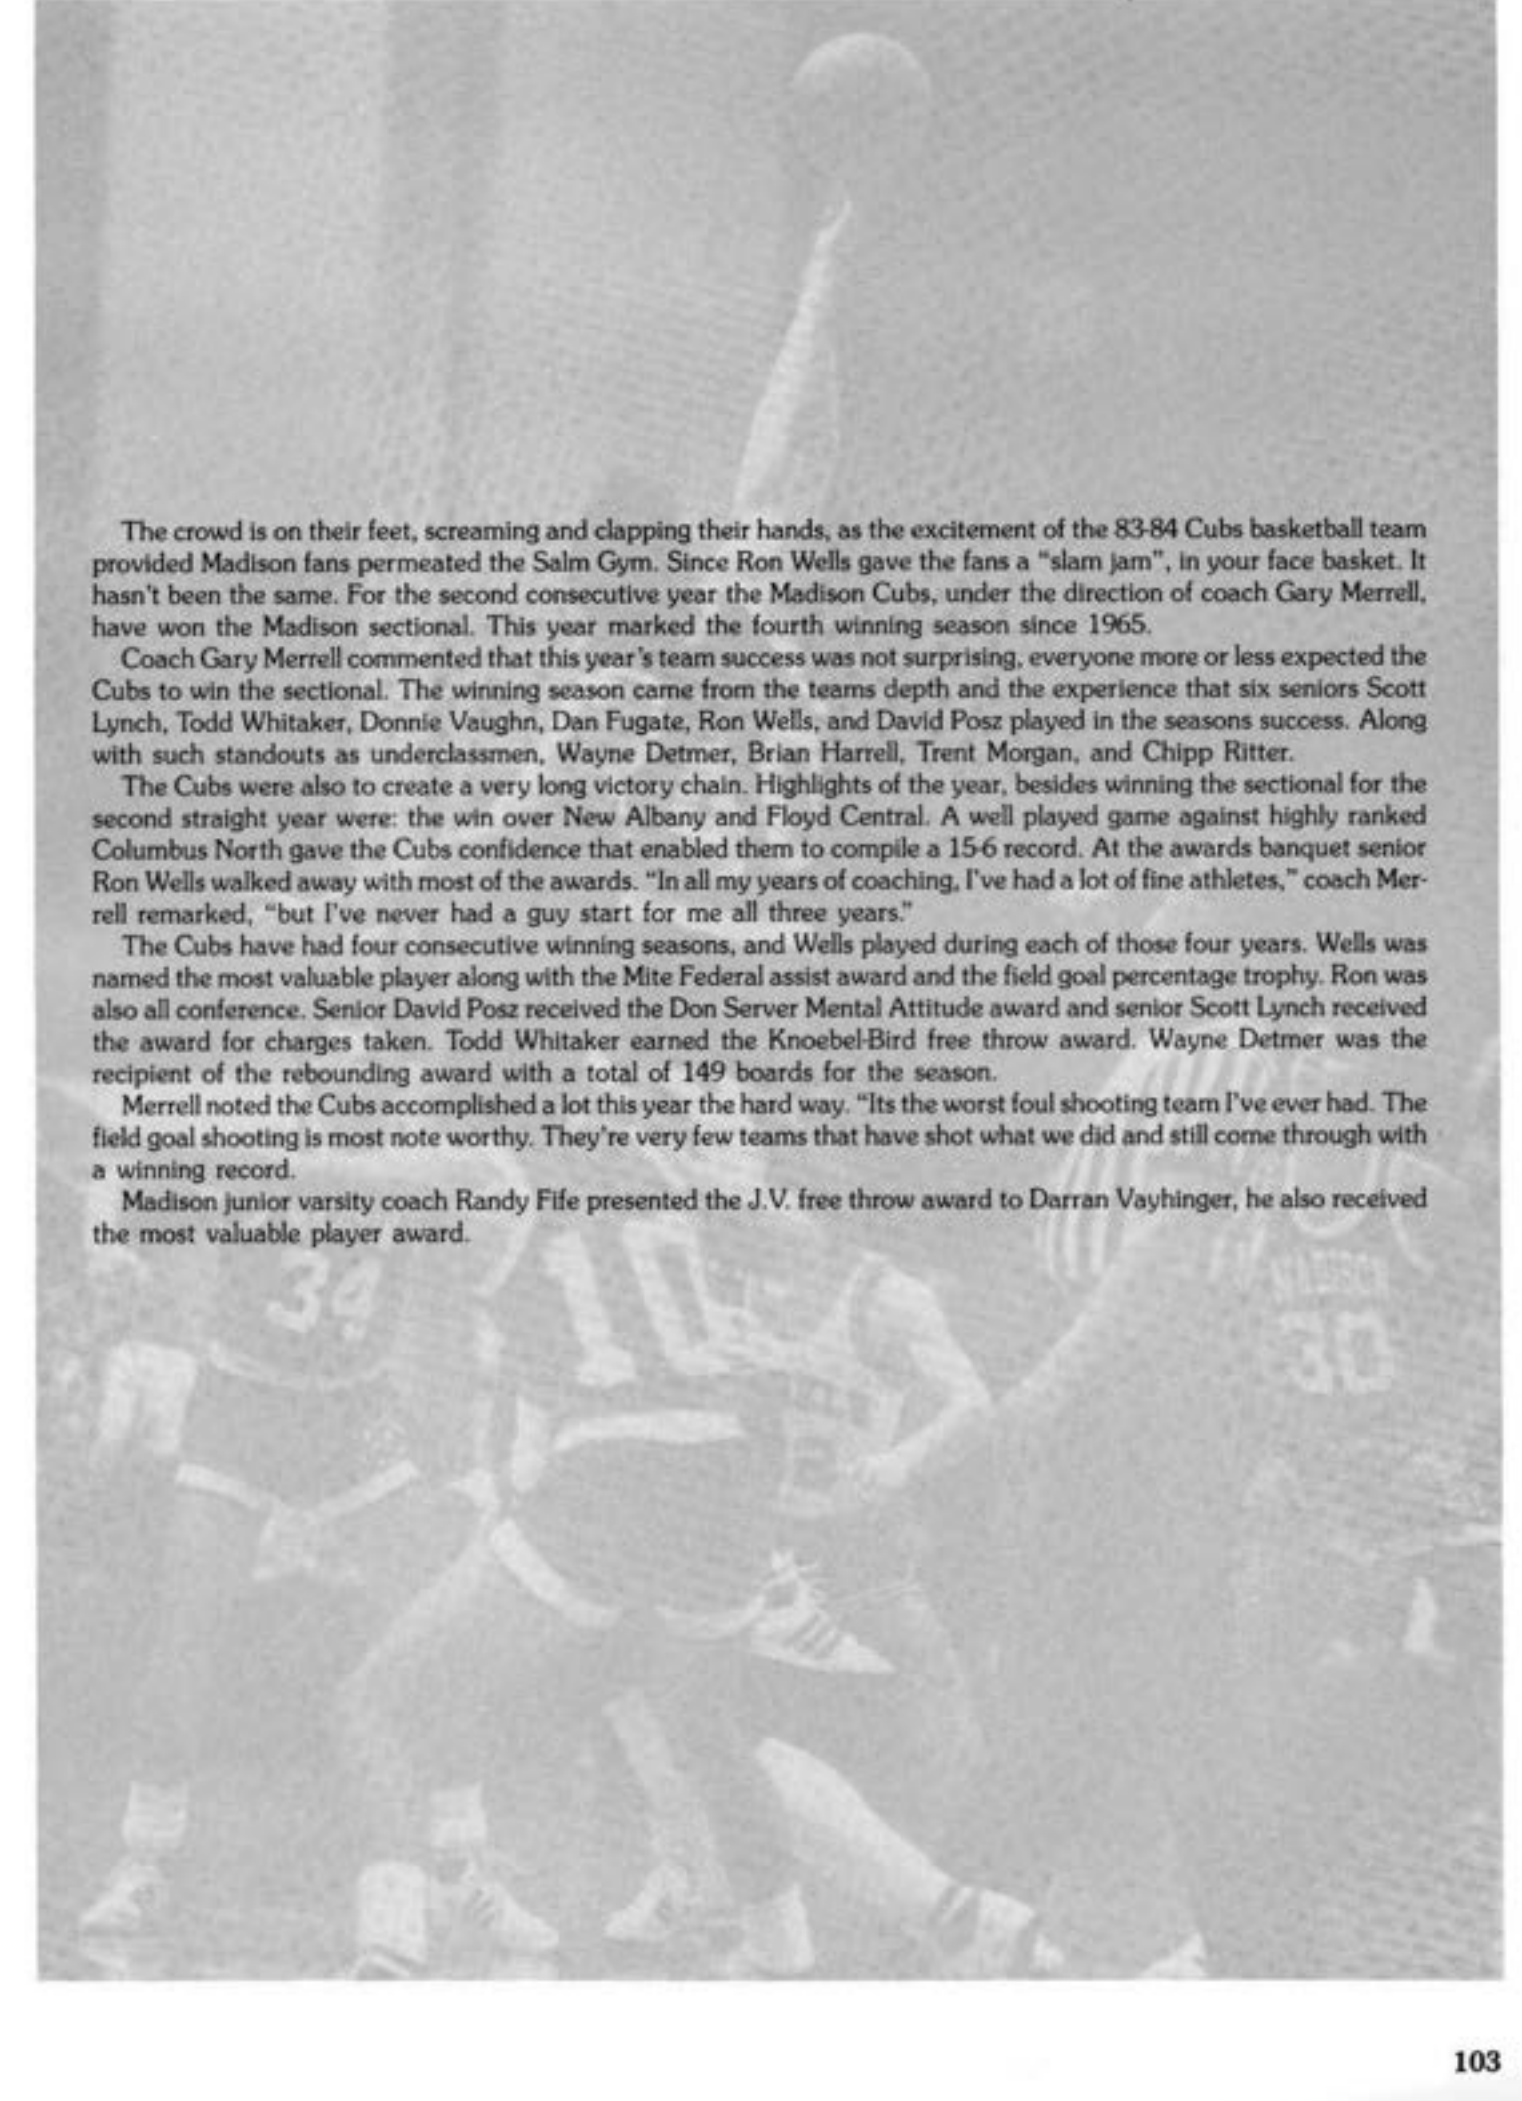

Senior Ron Wells attempts to steal the ball away from the Bedford North Lawrence Stars.

Senior Scott Lynch goes up for a rebound as teammates Dan Fugate and Wayne Detmer with anticipation.

The Madison Cubs after winning the 1984 sectional for the second consecutive year.

The crowd is on their feet, screaming and clapping their hands, as the excitement of the 83-84 Cubs basketball team provided Madison fans permeated the Salm Gym. Since Ron Wells gave the fans a "slam jam", in your face basket. It hasn't been the same. For the second consecutive year the Madison Cubs, under the direction of coach Gary Merrell, have won the Madison sectional. This year marked the fourth winning season since 1965.

Coach Gary Merrell commented that this year's team success was not surprising, everyone more or less expected the Cubs to win the sectional. The winning season came from the teams depth and the experience that six seniors Scott Lynch, Todd Whitaker, Donnie Vaughn, Dan Fugate, Ron Wells, and David Posz played in the seasons success. Along with such standouts as underclassmen, Wayne Detmer, Brian Harrell, Trent Morgan, and Chipp Ritter.

The Cubs were also to create a very long victory chain. Highlights of the year, besides winning the sectional for the second straight year were: the win over New Albany and Floyd Central. A well played game against highly ranked Columbus North gave the Cubs confidence that enabled them to compile a 15-6 record. At the awards banquet senior Ron Wells walked away with most of the awards. "In all my years of coaching, I've had a lot of fine athletes," coach Merrell remarked, "but I've never had a guy start for me all three years."

The Cubs have had four consecutive winning seasons, and Wells played during each of those four years. Wells was named the most valuable player along with the Mite Federal assist award and the field goal percentage trophy. Ron was also all conference. Senior David Posz received the Don Server Mental Attitude award and senior Scott Lynch received the award for charges taken. Todd Whitaker earned the Knoebel-Bird free throw award. Wayne Detmer was the recipient of the rebounding award with a total of 149 boards for the season.

Merrell noted the Cubs accomplished a lot this year the hard way. "Its the worst foul shooting team I've ever had. The field goal shooting is most note worthy. They're very few teams that have shot what we did and still come through with a winning record.

Madison junior varsity coach Randy Fife presented the J.V. free throw award to Darran Vayhinger, he also received the most valuable player award.

Cubs have Pinning Season!

"18TH IN THE STATE"

The 1983-84 edition of the Madison Wrestling Cubs would have to be considered a successful one even though the sectional championship eluded the Cubs again.

This year's wrestling team soared to their best season ever with a 15 win - 1 lost record. This set a school record for most wins in a season.

Leading the way for the Cubs were sectional champions George Stephan, 119 lbs.; Jeff Jenkins, 145 lbs.; Mike Flint, 167 lbs.; David Breitweiser, 177 lbs.; and Marvin Shaddy, Hwt. Other wrestlers also contributing to this fine season were David Schmidt, Troy Scudder, Steve Judkins, Greg Rollman, Brian Poling and Jack Stoner.

Individually, some of these boys did quite well. Mike Flint and George Stephan became regional champions and qualified for the semi-state. Mike finished his career by becoming Madison's second state finalist. Mike also set single season and career records for most pins, while George equalled the record for career wins with a career record of 78-15-1.

The most gratifying thing of the season though, was the recognition of the wrestling program when the Cubs who had been rated in the state finished the season being picked by the wrestling coaches in the state in the final poll as eighteenth in the state. Coupling this with the fact that Mike Flint, George Stephan, David Breitweiser and Jack Stoner were also rated in the individual rankings, a feeling of the program having arrived was well received.

25-11 MADISON HISTORY SET

The 1984 Seymour Sectional winners for the second straight year.

Brian Poling attempts to bunt.

Coach O'Neal gives some batting instructions.

Tracy Franks and Donnie Vaughn prepare to bat, Donnie hit a home run in the Jeffersonville regional.

It was another outstanding year for the Madison baseball team. The Cubs had an 25-11 record, and that win total is the most baseball win in Madison History. It was also a year in which the Cubs won the Seymour sectional and the Madison Courier Invitational Tournament.

"When our season started, I knew we had a young group," Madison Coach Gary O'Neal said. For one thing, Madison didn't have any wins coming back on the pitching staff. "I knew that other teams would have people back and should be strong. I said we were a real darkhorse; maybe even a green darkhorse. But we started out on the right foot, and just kept going. We put it all together when we had to."

Donnie Vaughn was named the most valuable player as well as receiving the offensive award and all conference awards. Chris Elliott also received a lot of honors in baseball. Elliott received the base thief award and the Clifty Plaza mental attitude award. Elliott was also recognized for making the HHC team.

The defensive award went to Madison's outfield of Donnie Schwartz, Don Poling and Chris Elliott. Assistant coach Mike Frazier said "without a doubt, its the best outfield we've ever had." The pitching awards went to three players — Greg Gosman, Bobby Ferguson and Tracy Breeck.

The Mr. Clutch award went to Todd Whitaker. The Charlie Hustle award went to Tracy Franks. The Plaza scholastic award went to Greg Watson.

O'Neal recognized the baseball stat stars for their achievements. The dedication award went to Paula Reed. The services and spirit award was given to Kay Sexton. The most valuable award was given to Kathy Chambers and Lisa Hanas. Also Suzanne Manaugh, Kim O'Neal and Gretchen Poindexter were recognized.

Award winners . . . front—Donnie Schwartz, Tracy Breeck, Tracy Franks, Chris Elliot and Donnie Vaughn. Back—Greg Watson, Todd Whitaker, Don Poling and Bobby Ferguson.

Don Poling hesitates as he waits to see what the batter will do.

SWIMMERS HAVE SPIRIT!

High spirits and a winning desire is what kept the high school boys swimming team enthusiastic. With a dual meet record of 3-5 the team still stuck together. And like a team member said, "there's always next year."

With high hopes going into the sectional and a few swimmers expecting to go on to the state meet, several swimmers became ill and were not able to perform to their best possible ability. Therefore state became out of reach.

The season ended with a lot of good memories and good times for the following season. "They'll get 'em next year."

Bobby Ferguson shows us how well he can stay cool during a fast and competitive swim meet.

Coach Zimmerman offers Chris Hoskins some "constructive criticism" about his race.

Craig Hall, Devin Halm, and George Lugg show us what "mean dudes" they are while taking a breather away from the pool.

"Surprise Tom" I'm going to take your picture!!

Some of the swimmers congregate at the end of the pool to discuss the tough competition that will be swimming.

No George, the object is to keep going, no breaks in between lengths!!

BUCHANAN MVP

Mr. Nelson continues timing as daughter Kathi catches her breath.

Pam Hannah plays it cool while stretching.

Missy Bickers streaks across the finish line in first place at Bedford. Donna Michl contemplates her event while awaiting the call for the 300 low hurdles.

The 1984 Girls Track Team.

Bridget "Magic" Buchanan was named the outstanding senior athlete as well as the MVP of the girls track team.

Bridget Buchanan attended her last awards program and ran her last race at Madison Consolidated High School this spring. She received lots of praise and admiration.

Buchanan has been a big part of the success of Madison's girls track teams. She has excelled and achieved as an individual, and for the team.

Bridget made her fifth trip to the state finals, three times in track and twice in cross country.

Because of all she has achieved, Buchanan was named the most valuable member of the Madison Girls Track Team.

Coach Eisenhardt reviewed the outstanding accomplishments of Bridget in the 800 meter run during her four years on the team.

In 1981 she came to the team in the middle of the year and managed to get three firsts, two seconds, one third and two fifths.

In 1982 Buchanan received nine firsts, four seconds and one third. She advanced to the regional and the state that year.

In 1983, Buchana had 11 firsts and two seconds. Again she advanced to the regional and the state meet.

In 1984, Buchanan has gotten seven firsts, one second and one third. Bridget again advanced to the regional and the state meet.

Coach Eisenhardt concluded her review of Bridget's high school career by saying, "Bridget Buchanan we're going to miss you."

For the team, it was not as good a season as we hoped, the coach commented, we missed out of a number of meets because of rain and there was also the fact that the team was one of the smallest in years. However despite that, Eisenhardt said, "We did our share of winning and it has been a team effort."

There were two school records set this year. Connie James broke the record in the discus and Donna Michl holds the mark in the 300-meter low hurdles.

James a sophomore was the recipient of the most valuable award for field events. Sophomore Tara Dattilo won the award for distance events and sophomore Missy Buckers was the winner of the award for sprinting events. Letter jackets were earned by three athletes — seniors Pam Hannah and Donna Michl, and junior Sherry Pflaumer.

ONE OF THE BEST YEARS

Wayne Detmer . . . MVP—he scored the most points and had the most wins on the team . . . also one of the cruise brothers.

It was Wayne Detmer who carried away most of the awards at the Madison track awards program.

"He's somebody who has set a good example and is a good student. He scored the most points and had the most wins on the team," Madison head coach Dennis Holt said.

Detmer was voted the most valuable runner, was co-winner of the outstanding junior award, earned one of the captain awards and was presented his letter jacket.

Detmer's main events have been the high and low hurdles, the long jump and 1600 relay. "He's a top class athlete," Holt said.

It's turned out to be one of the best years in the recent past for the Cubs. Madison placed third in last week's Jeff sectional, and competed in six events in the Bloomington regional. Wayne Detmer made it all the way to the State Finals, finishing 7th in his preliminary heat with a time of 14.9 seconds before bowing out.

The 1984 Boys Track Team.

A number of school records were set by the Cubs this year — Detmer in the high hurdles, Jeff Jenkins in the 100 and 200 sprints; John Bennett in the 400 meter dash and low hurdles; and the 400 and 1600 meter relay teams.

The most improved award was given to freshman Scott Holcroft, Jenkins was the co-winner of the outstanding junior award, Bennett was the recipient of the outstanding sophomore award, Adams was given the outstanding freshman award and Captain awards were given to Mike Hewitt, Wayne Detmer and Tom Weber.

Madison athletic director Jim Lee praised the team. "I feel very good about what you've achieved. You are holding your own in competition in the Hoosier Hills Conference and the Indiana High School Athletic Association tournament. The reason, I think is that we have an administration that cares about athletics and supports it. We have a coaching staff that cares and works hard. Also, we have athletes who dedicate themselves."

ITS FAST PITCH NOW -

The girls softball team had a good season. The Lady Cubs ended the year with a 12-7 record. "We won nine of our last 11," Madison coach Luanne McCammon said. "We got a good group coming back. I'm really looking forward to it."

Rosann Brawner was selected as the MVP and also received the RBIs award. The stolen base award was given to Michele Ward and Nancy Hill won the golden glove award. Julie Buchanan was the recipient of the batting title award with a .553 average. Roxann Brawner was named the outstanding pitcher. She had a 6-3 record, a 3.83 earned run average and 32 strikeouts. Pam Green was the winner of the mental attitude award. Kim O'Neal and Nancy Hill each earned their letter jackets. Awards were also presented to the Junior Varsity players. They were Beth Eades, stolen bases and Diane Maxwell, fielding percentage. Donna McCauley was named the most valuable player.

The Madison boys' golf team did it again.

The Cubs won the Floyd Central sectional for the second consecutive year.

Madison won the match with a score of 300, which was 12 strokes better than runner up New Albany's 312.

The championship came because of some outstanding play by each player on the team. J.D. Webster (the 1984 MVP) and Steve Smitha each shot 73 scores. Robert Smith had a 75. Roger Gallatin played his best game of the year with a 79. Alan Burkel had his finest meet with an 84.

Madison with an 84-5 record advanced to the regional where lady luck was not with them and they finished sixth, missing a trip to the semistate by one place.

Madison's Cheryl Hart lost to a Martinsville girl in the Bloomington North girls tennis regional. Hart, who had advanced to the regional after winning at number one singles in the sectional.

Award winners for the 1984 season were Cheryl Hart and Erin Humbert. Hart was named the most valuable player of the team, and Humbert received the most improved award. Also, Hart earned her letter jacket.
