It's time to look to the future
That's what we've been taught, that's what they all say

But the future sometimes seems almost a blank
So life should be lived day by day.

One step at a time, it's the best way to proceed
Perhaps a design to accompany our dreams
Progressively forward at a slow-steady pace
Our future isn't as distant as it seems.

With guardians to guide us, our friends to follow

And God to trust us in whatever we do
If we fail at our goal or by chance miss our mark
We will have the courage to begin anew.

Classmates, we've been; some closer than others Everyone sharing experiences to gain by
We step out the doors with a task set before us,
This task to accomplish, no matter how high.

So we'll look for tomorrow, our memories
behind us,

We will seek the future, but at our own pace
No matter how trivial or great the reward
We will be there to join in the race.
