"Take band so you can suffer with the rest of us, like one big unhappy family" - Rachel Riley, Freshman

"Call him Borkshop" - Alida Flores, Sophomore

"Breathe. Just breathe. You can't function without air. You can't play without air. Anytime you are asked how to make what you played better, the answer 'air' will never be wrong. And when things get heated, just step back and breathe." - Miranda Anderson, Senior.

Patiently Waiting...

HOW DO YOU SURVIVE BAND?

"It has been a real struggle surviving band. I have yet to find a method for doing well in band, but if you're looking to survive, just play your instrument and keep your head down." - Sam Hall, Sophomore

"I survive band because I always loved band, I have been doing it for 7 years and it's been like a family to me and I would never give up on my family. There may be some bad times and good times but it's not a family got together without having a meltdown. I like to say it's apart of growing as a band." - Brandy Clark, Senior.

Support your local percussion section.

Isaac Boone and Mr. Bortka working together for a perfect duet!

WHAT THINGS WOULD YOU CALL THE BAND WORKING IN 'EASPORT'?

"Like, once a day. Maybe two times on a good day." - Brady Royalty, Freshman

"When I walk into the room." - Julien Wilson, Junior

"During an amazing run in marching band or in pep band, when we were all jamming out or when we know a song like the back of our hand." - Sam Boles, Sophomore

"You don't" - Vig Huzak, Freshman
"With a good sense of humor." - Sophia Hall, Senior.

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO A FRESHMAN?

"Never give up, always keep pushing no matter how tired you get or whenever you feel like throwing in the towel and walking away. Don't, it is well worth it in the long run." - Brandy Clark, Senior.

"If you want to get better, you have to get used to being uncomfortable. There's no way around hard work." - Mason Hartless, Senior.

"Stay respectful and be willing to dedicate your entire band period to getting better. If you don't do this, there will invariably be upperclassmen who want to punch you in the face." - Isaac Boone, Sophomore.

HOW DO YOU SURVIVE CONCERTS?

"Breathing before every concert and clearing my head." - Donna Swickard, Sophomore.

"I space out a lot until it's my group's turn to perform." - Sebastian Brallas, Freshman.

Be sure to support our band program or hear wonderful music!

Isaac Boone

WHAT DO YOU DO WHEN YOU FEEL DISCOURAGED/ UNCOMFORTABLE IN YOUR PLAYING SKILLS?

We made school history after a long successful season. We put everything we had into it and for once it paid off. Despite our challenges we faced, we pull together to..."

"My favorite band memory would have to be my first banquet I went to. Someone made a pillow with our old band director Ryan Day's face on the pillow and they fought over it and it was the best time ever." - Brandy Clark, Senior.

Tatum Lynch

THE WORST THINGS ABOUT BAND?

"The fact that we've had four band directors and none of them really stuck with the band." - Rachel Riley, Freshman.

"The extreme range of temperatures and octaves endured. P.S., joining band with sensitive ears is awful." - Grace Massie, Senior.

Isaac, Luka and Sam.

"The drama and yelling." - Brady Royalty, Freshman.

WHAT DO YOU HOPE FOR FUTURE BAND KIDS?

"That they work their butt off to become better musicians and people and have a lot of fun." - Sam Boles, Junior.

"Don't give up on what you're doing. If someone says you can't do it, slap them and say yes I can do it!" - Joshua Colyer, Senior.

"Not to deal with bad band teachers." - Adam E. Combs, Sophomore.

"I hope they come back to learning things for themselves. A lot of the new kids want you to show them how to do everything when they'll really get the most help from figuring it out for themselves. I suppose once the seniors are gone they'll have no choice but to figure it out for themselves, anyways." - Mason Hartless, Senior.
