"DO YOU REMEMBER THE DAYS OF THE OLD SCHOOLYARDS?"

Do you remember the laughter in the halls? Your best friend? The first day of school? The last day of school? We've made friends but lost a few. The memories will live always. We will never again experience the actual happenings in the halls, in the classrooms, with the teachers; but we will remember the days spent here at the Junior High.

Remember the days?

It snowed and snowed.....

As Junior High students, we remember the old schoolyards: our friends, the games, the laughter, and the scraped knees. We remember our dreams, hopes, and aspirations. And now as we see them come true, we remember. As we leave, our old schoolyard will be MCJHS, and we'll remember! The winter snows that, to the delight of everyone, cancelled school, the dances, the pep sessions, our classmates, the good times and the bad.

*Remember....we laughed a lot.
We had imaginings.....*

Swimming, classes, spirit week and dances are all part of our memories. We laughed when we saw someone jump off the board. We imagined the results of our tests. We smiled at the funny hats and clothes which appeared in the halls during spirit week. Our dances were filled with smiles, good music, and friends. Our past year at MJHS was one of fun and activities. Most of the students participated in spirit week and even more came to the dance. Spirit week consisted of Farmers' Day, Hat Day, Number Shirt Day, Red and White Day, and Inside-out Day. It was fun for students and faculty alike.

Taking the plunge.

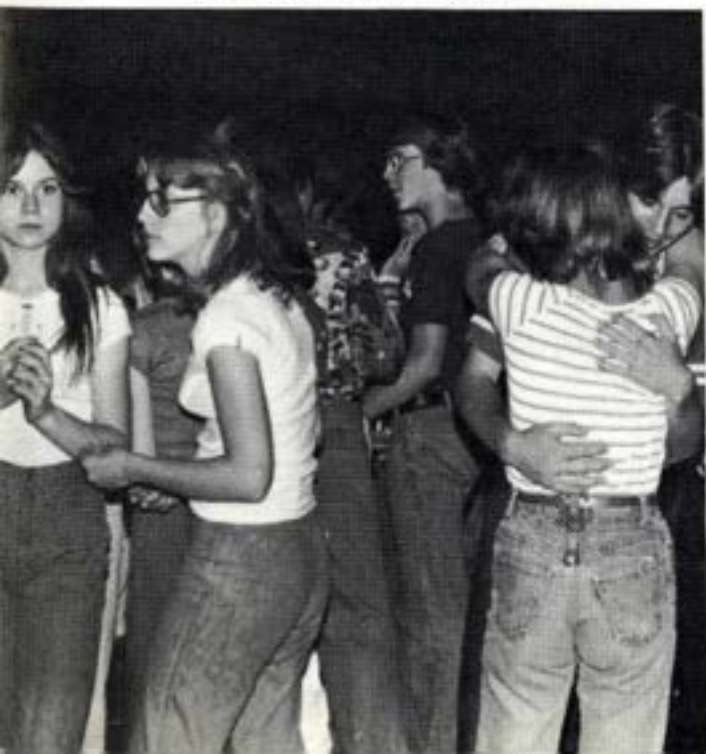

Can you believe they used to dance like that.

This doesn't look like tomato juice either.

They danced and they danced.

Winners in the Optimist Speech Contest are Clara Willick, Kay Gassert and Karen Kolb.

*Remember? "When we had simplicity...
and we laughed and needed love..."*

BELOW: See no evil. Hear no evil. Speak no evil.

Oops!!!

Due to shortage of desks, students are forced to use the floor.

Where are the yard-apes?

TOP LEFT: Students busily type as Rich Flint pauses to pose.

TOP RIGHT: Lisa Kidwell, even with heels, has to stretch to reach top locker.

Photographer surprises pupil services helper, Keith Lueders.

Pam Baird and Linda Wood find Mr. Chism's science class interesting.

We'll remember the variety of activities....

AT RIGHT: Let me out!!! Let me out!!!

AT LEFT: Mrs. Willis' French class works hard, n'est-ce pas? (don't they)

FACULTY and ADMINISTRATION

Administration leads M.J.H.S.

From the desk of Gayle Crozier

This yearbook is a historical document that will help us recall in years to come the 1977-78 school year and the friends we have shared. As I leaf through, it makes me more aware than ever that school is not just a place to learn the three R's, but also a place where young people discover themselves by participation in many, many different activities throughout the year.

The experiences that we have had in 1977-78 will, of course, be very different, but I hope that in years to come we can each recall them with a smile and a little sorrow that some of our good days have already passed.

Jim Bates

From the desk of Gail Crozier

It's been a good year. Of course there have been problems and disappointments for staff as well as for students, but we have carried on and succeeded in spite of another bad winter and the coal crisis. I want to thank the great majority of our students who made this possible—the ones who were on time for their classes, who tried to do well in their subjects, and who realized that rules are supposed to be obeyed for the good of all. The world needs all the people like these it can get. I wish you all the best.

Who would have dreamed it takes three people to figure out a microwave.

I told you people to stop interrupting my classes.

Mrs. Weatherbee uses lunch hour to catch up on grading papers in the lounge.

Mrs. Fourness and Mr. Keach take a moment to relax after school.

We can count on Mrs. Ball to spruce up her room for the Christmas season.

Wouldn't you know we'd get caught the first time we were tardy!

Jane Hoffman, Carol Williams, and Mary Lou Klopp pose before the cafeteria lunch hour invasion.

Mrs. Betty Lock aids the aids in the IMC.

Isn't it hysterical? Our books don't balance again!

There must be an easier way to make a living...but then again...

Where are your friends when you need them, Mrs. Dwyer?

We promise we'll finish our work next time, Mr. Bates.

It takes a cup of coffee to get me started in the morning.

Lu Huling appears either bewildered or inspired with her tasks as PBX operator.

What do you mean I can't give Johnny a C?

ORGANIZATIONS

Bear Necessity Staff members are Debbie Hall, Karen Shoots, Joe Stratton. Row Two: Bobby Courtney, Ann Gassert, Twyla Scudder, Mary Aulick, And Barbara Hall.

Bear Necessity spots the news.....

Mrs. Elston assists Karen Shoots with a layout.

The Bear Necessity and yearbook staffs work hard each year to capture school news, and memories, and to report the achievements of clubs, teams, and students. The Bear Necessity staff, with aid of Mrs. Dunker, puts out a student newspaper every two weeks. It contains polls, want ads, and school events, from ball games to spirit week to academic achievements. The yearbook staff has the aid of Mrs. McKenna and Mrs. Moore. The main job of the staff is to capture the memories, from the lunchroom to the classroom. It records the good and the bad. Together these two organizations provide the students with interesting articles. The yearbook staff members are picked at the beginning of the school year, no-one on the staff has had previous experience on the yearbook. The staff is all ninth graders. The Bear Necessity staff except for the reporters is also totally made up of ninth graders that were picked at the beginning of the year. The reporters sign up for Bear Necessity as their homeroom activity.

Student Council represents students

The Student Council is the representative group of the student body. It sets up activities such as dances, spirit week and Fifties Day. The members meet with Mr. Crozier and discuss topics such as classroom behavior, school rules and student activities. A meeting is held approximately every two or three weeks.

Student Council members take notes on upcoming events at a meeting.

NINTH GRADE BAND

The ninth grade band, directed by John Schreiber, received an over all superior rating in the band contest on April 22. The band also received a superior rating in marching. It marched in the Freedom Festival Parade in Evansville and our Regatta Parade. In the past it received a superior rating in the 1976 contest and an excellent rating in 1977. The band members have done very well in their past solo and ensemble contests.

FFA celebrates golden anniversary

Future Farmers of America, an intracurricular club, meets once a month in the high school cafeteria. There are one hundred and forty one members in Madison, nine of which are girls. There are a total of one hundred and eighty eight members in the Agriculture department. The club sponsors leadership and speaking contest on the local, district, state and national levels. This year they are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary. A display in the display case was one of the activities done by club members for the celebration.

G.A.A.

GAA promotes athletic involvement

Every Thursday after school, if you pass by the gym, you can hear the sounds of active girls involved in sports through the G.A.A. program. The Girls Athletic Association is under the supervision of Cheryl Hooten and Heleh Behymer. The girls play seasonal sports such as basketball and softball. They also play volleyball, badminton, and are active in gymnastics. This hour after school helps build competitiveness and school spirit. G.A.A. is a very important organization in the school and means a lot to the girls who participate in it.

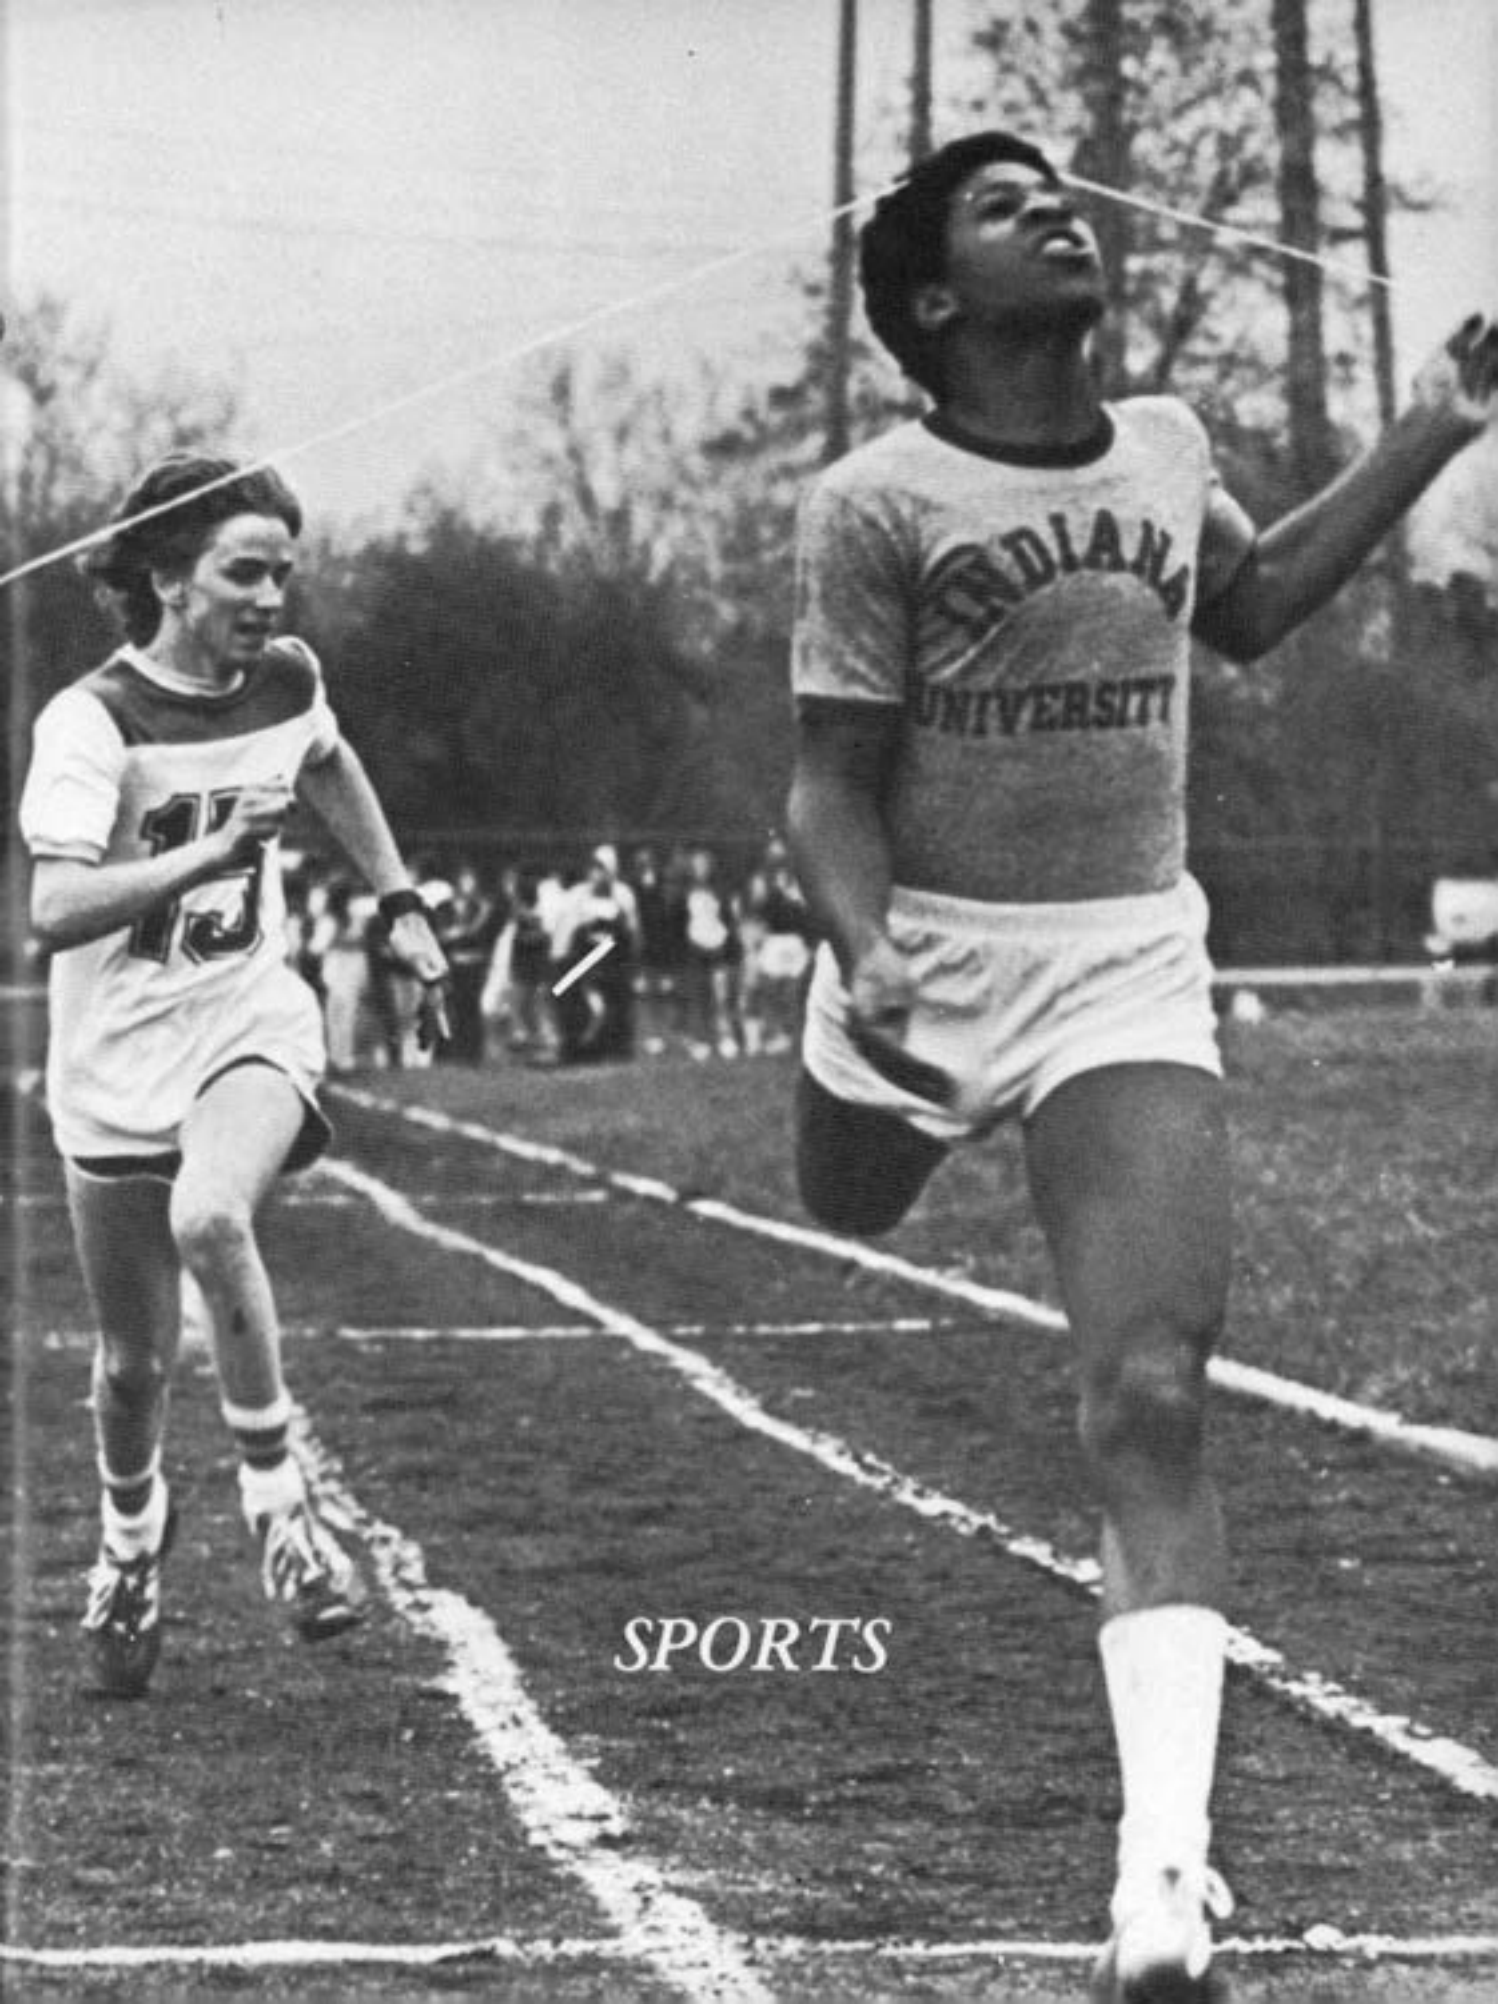

G.A.A. member Kathy Travis prepares to shoot a long shot while Hilary Jenkins watches in doubt.

The jobs of various school organizations run from printing school news, working at dances, attending meetings, to preparing for concerts. Pictured above, ninth grade Swing Choir performs on Honor's Day. BELOW: A Norman student council meeting. ABOVE RIGHT: Seventh grade band during testing. CENTER RIGHT: Lisa Chamberlain protests having her picture taken while working at a dance. BELOW RIGHT: It takes a long time to put together a newspaper and you have to count a lot of papers to make sure you have printed enough.

This year the MJHS Bears were well supported by every cheerleader. Cheerleaders play a very important part in maintaining school spirit, whether it is at ball games, pep sessions, or any other school function. Unfortunately, due to heavy snowfall, many of this year's ball games were either cancelled or postponed. However, with the help of our cheerleaders, school spirit remained high throughout the year.

The ninth grade cheerleaders are Sheily Metheny, Lisa Kidwell, Linda Welch. Row Two: Brenda Bircher, Shari Wilson.

The eighth grade cheerleaders are Tracey Frazier, Mae Davis, Tonya Joslin. Row Two: Cindy Little, Elyse Klopp, Julie Tyler. Absent when photo was taken was Kelly Metheny

IN MEMORIAM

(Remember the Days of The)
OLD SCHOOLYARD

Cat Stevens

Remember the days of the old schoolyard
We used to laugh a lot
Oh don't you remember the days of the old schoolyard
When we had imaginings
And we had all kinds of things
And we laughed and needed love
Yes I do
Oh and I remember you

Remember the days of the old schoolyard
We used to cry a lot
Oh don't you remember the days of the old schoolyard
When we had simplicity
And we had warm toast for tea
And we had laughed and needed love
Yes I do
Oh and I remember you.

Ricky Sipe was an active member of FFA and Boy Scouts. He was a friend to everyone and always helped out. We will remember him always.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear nor evil...
