Kim,
Well I think we've gotten ourselves into almost enough trouble this year, but we'll have to keep it up anyway just to spite our parents and to have fun. Are you on Marti's wavelength? The Group is splitting, do you think we can get anyone else to be cool? Not in the algebra class mate,
Madison!

STUDENT LIFE

MORNING . . .

A TIME TO BEGIN!

Experiments, computers, speakers, field trips — all these are part of the classroom experience at M.J.H.S. Most class sessions, however, follow a regular routine of lectures, discussions, and tests. Exciting? Sometimes; just look at Cary's face as he absorbs every word of Mr. Schaum's lecture. Boring? Never — well, almost never — occasionally, a seventh grader might "rest his eyes" while he waits for the tone.

Solemn faces were few and far between during spirit week and Pep sessions roared with enthusiasm while
In the halls students in strange get-ups strolled along waiting for the October dance that Inspired a lot of lovers so that Togetherness was everything for one week.

ORGANIZATIONS

M.J.H.S. STUDENT COUNCIL

The members of the student council are J. Phillips, J. Hammond, P. Davis, T. Hart, K. Jones, S. Dunlap, K. Kelly, A. Moore, R. Moreland, K. Jerrell and L. Gruemmer.

The student council is the representative group of the student body. The group meets at least once a week. They discuss topics such as school rules and classroom behavior. With the aid of Mr. Bradley, they plan many school activities. Each year the group sponsors a canned food drive for the Salvation Army, a carnation sale for Valentines Day, spirit week and several dances. The student council has created a spirit committee and a social committee to aid them in their work. These committees are made up of student council members and student body participants.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

F.F.A. is one of the most active organizations at M.J.H.S. There are fifty ninth graders that participate in this organization. The club sponsors leadership and speaking contests on the local, district, state and national levels. The raising of tobacco and the Christmas fruit sale are the major projects for the group. The F.F.A. members participate in several field trips each year. The National Farm Machinery Show and The North American Livestock Exposition are two major outings for the group. Mr. Hoskins is the advisor of the organization.

BEAR NECESSITY

The newspaper staff is led by editor D. Effinger. Other staff members are: assistant editor, B. Dics; feature editors, K. Connelly and C. Wasson; copy editor, L. Gorrell; sports editors, T. Bohart and T. Lentz; reporters, E. Huntington, C. McDaniel, P. Thacker and S. Thomas. They are guided in their work by Mrs. Weatherbee and Mr. Martin.

The regular features of the newspaper are: editorial, sports, opinion poll, Ask Egor (an advice column) and the mystery student.

The newspaper frequently adds special features to cover a "hot" news item. The major goal of the newspaper each year is to report school news such as the achievements of clubs, teams, and individual students. The staff produces a newspaper each month. The Bear Necessity staff is selected at the beginning of the school year.

The newspaper staff enjoyed a stop at McDonalds after attending junior high journalism day at Ball State University. The conference sponsored activities to aid in the planning and producing of a newspaper.

M. J. H. S. YEARBOOK

The sponsors of the yearbook are Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Moore and Mr. Fourman.

The members of the yearbook staff are T. Shephard, G. Andis, J. Kessler, J. Vonderheide, S. Caudill, B. Dagher, J. Sammons, A. Speer, M. LaFountain, D. Maxwell, J. Elliot, A. Sachleben and S. Sedam.

It is the goal of the yearbook staff to capture the memories of the school year. It records the good and the bad. The staff tries to cover events from the lunchroom to the classroom, as well as extracurricular events. The group is selected in the spring for the following school year. It is composed entirely of ninth graders.

M.J.H.S. CHOIR

The M.J.H.S. chorus, consisting of forty-eight seventh, eighth and ninth graders, had a busy and successful year. In the first semester they provided music for Sunday service at Trinity United Methodist Church and performed in joint concert with the junior high bands at the annual Christmas concert. In February two ensembles selected from the choir received high ratings at the ISSMA auditions in Clarksville. Several members also elected to perform solos at these auditions. In the spring the chorus was awarded a high rating in the ISSMA state choral auditions held in Madison. A highlight of the year was the production of the short musical comedy, Three Ships, which was performed at Eggleston and Lydia Middleton elementary schools. The year of choral activity closed with a joint concert with the high school chorus in the M.C.H.S. auditorium.

NINTH GRADE BAND

The ninth grade band is usually the top performing group at the junior high, and this years band is no exception! The school year started out with the Canan Fall Festival parade and an excellent marching performance at one of the junior high football games. Outstanding performances were also given at the Christmas concert, state contest, ninth grade honors day and spring concert. This group had demonstrated fine character, leadership and musicianship throughout the year. They will be remembered as one of the finest bands to graduate from M.J.H.S.

EIGHTH GRADE BAND

This year we have 64 students taking part in eighth grade band. During this year we plan to play several concerts and take part in solo and ensemble contests and the spring band contest.

SEVENTH GRADE BAND

The seventh grade band comes to the junior high school as (90) individuals from nine different elementary bands. Throughout the year this group performs for parents, the community, Christmas and spring concerts and state contests.

This 1983-84 band has been the largest and one of the most talented bands at Madison Junior High. We look forward to many leaders and many outstanding musicians to come from this seventh grade band.
