STUDENT WRITING

MY LOVE FOR YOU IS LIKE A ROSE

Love is like a rose
So tender and true.
But nobody knows
Of my love for you.
I'm holding it all inside
Until that one day
When you will see
All the love deep down
Inside of me.

—by Tonya Jones '93

SEASONS OF HAPPINESS

Summer, Fall, Winter, and Spring, never can tell what they may bring.
Winter with snow and happiness.
Opening gifts on Christmas.
Waking up at the crack of dawn.
Making a snowman on your front lawn.
Watching the snow fall while the fire burns.
Everyone's sledding, taking turns.
Then there comes a time as you may see,
the snow stops falling and starts melting from the tree.
Honeybees gathering pollen.
Every now and then the rain starts fallin'.
Thundershowers all day through.
It makes me feel so young and new.
And as the fun filled months bid their byes,
you notice that the temperatures rise.
Happy children out to play,
every minute of every day.
Out playing with their best friends,
they swim the river and the bends.
Then the temperature starts to cool,
As the leaves fall in the pool.
Kids jumping in the leaves.
Fathers painting under eaves.
Fall is quiet and full of peace.
One can hear the honking geese.

People don't stop to notice these things,
of the Summers, Falls, Winters, and Springs.

THE CLASS OF '92

We the class of '92,
Have grown together as one crew.
We stand straight and tall,
All our memories will never fall.
When we all go away,
May we never fall astray.
Though we say we want to leave,
Deep inside we know we'll grieve.
Through the years we've grown together,
In our hearts we'll be friends forever.
We've had some differences through the years,
We've shared some smiles and shed some tears.
In the future we hope we'll stay,
Good friends, as we are today.
With the departure of good friends,
The love for each other never ends.
