Foreword

We have striven to mirror within
The past years achievements and pleasures,
May it reveal our efforts best
And in future years prove a treasure,
With the incentive to those who remain
"Give of your best," success to attain.

The Senior Class History

Moses traveled for forty years in the wilderness and then did not reach the PROMISED LAND. But we have traveled only four years in a misty, winding way, not always seeing far ahead, but hoping to soon reach that PROMISED GRADUATION DAY.

In the fall of 1928 thirty-one eager but backward young people assembled at the North Madison High School as Freshmen, or, as we were called, "Greenies". This name, to be sure, we did not appreciate but had to endure. Our first year we accomplished much and lasting good under our captain, Emma Black, and sponsor, Grace McCurry, and grew from our green age, to be "Silly Sophomores".

Now in the year of 1929, twenty-six of us answered the roll call. We chose as our captain, Raymond Lindsay and Sponsor Mary T. Bateman. Lindsay proved to be a good pilot, always steering us where we wished to go and landing us in the class of "Jolly Juniors".

Here we were twenty-two industrious Juniors, as Lindsay as captain setting sail again. Clouds often overshadowed us, such as hard lessons, etc. But we were always able to enjoy the sunshine when the clouds had rolled away.

Another year finds us Seniors. We are launched on our last voyage in our High School days. Lindsay still as our Pilot and with Mr. Bear our guide, we are sailing through this year with bright colors.

We look back over these years with pleasure, thinking of the friends we have made. But we realize we are at Cross Roads, where each must turn his way, hoping he will gain fame and honor in some way. To do this we realize what the poet has said:

The height by great men reached and kept,
Were not attained by sudden flight,
But while their companions slept
Were toiling upward in the night.

"Always keep trying" is Hilda's rule,

She will always be our own Society Queen.

Arranging, writing, sorting, keeping books in

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In the year of nineteen hundred and twenty nine the student body was greatly increased by a group of fifty, timid, although anxious and ever-ready freshmen. They knew nothing of the trials and hardships that they must endure to reach their goal, "Graduation."

In our freshman year we chose William Hutchinson as President and Evelyn Clashman as Sponsor. During the year several became discouraged and left us with only thirty nine students who were willing and eager to do their part as a class.

Again during our second year we chose William Hutchinson as President and Edna Banta as Sponsor. This year the class did much to show their ability and proved that what could be done by any class could be done by our class if only we had a little encouragement and we had plenty of this from Miss Banta. We competed in the sports, programs and all school activities.

At the end of our Sophomore year we departed for a four month vacation returning the following year with a class of thirty students, which we hope will reach the goal sought by the entire class. As before William Hutchinson was chosen President and Edna Banta as Sponsor, and again we intend to show our ability as a class.

Our only hope is that the remaining group may reach the highest step of the ladder of High School success, "Graduation."

SOPHOMORE CLASS

FRESHMAN CLASS

JUNIOR HIGH

Sophomore Class History

On the twenty-second day of September, 1930, fifty-two freshmen gathered for a four year trip through the North Madison High School, much famed for its dissemination of knowledge.

We were immediately received by the Sophomores as green, unsuspecting Freshmen who knew little of the countless obstacles they were to encounter on their climb to fame.

We chose as our sponsor Miss Cornelia Edmonson; Kenneth Land, President; Evelyn Green, vice-president; Neal Custer, secretary, and Jean McFadden, treasurer.

With the passing of the first year several of our classmates discontinued the journey, owing to the many trials and tribulations along the way.

After a brief vacation we entered the corridors of North Town High School, as Sophomores, to continue our journey to the "Land of Fame".

We again chose as sponsor, Miss Cornelia Edmonson; Kenneth Land, president; Carlyle Jackson as vice-president; Elmer Jackson as secretary, and Thelma Banta as treasurer.

We have been very successful in attaining a high standard of conduct and efficiency in our work. Nevertheless we are still climbing with zeal and patience toward the "City of Graduation".

Freshman Class History

On September 28, 1931 fifty-four freshmen from different parts of Jefferson County gathered at the North Madison High School.

Miss Gladys Risk was chosen sponsor; David Gentrup, president and Sol Conn, vice-president.

We are represented in the Boy Scouts and the Sunshine Society. We are all enjoying these activities in trying to help our community and school and make it a success.

We appreciated the kindness and the encouragement shown us by our teachers and upper classmen.

We have one goal in mind, which is graduation and success. We hope all fifty-four will continue towards it.

Long will we remember the happy days of our freshman school year.

Junior High

On the twenty-eighth day of September, 1931, fifty-eight members of the North Madison Junior High School embarked with high spirits and happy faces, ready to start the new year with a clean slate.

Our class club was re-organized with Miss Murphy again sponsor; Billy Conn, president; Marlin Young, vice-president; Dixie Underwood, secretary, and Jay Scott, treasurer.

We have labored faithfully from day to day so as to gain a high character among other schools, as well as our own.

We only hope that some day we can show our appreciation, to our teachers and officials, for their encouragement given us, through our pleasant Junior High School Days.

EDITH M. RINGWALD.

ELLSWORTH BEAR
Coach

This is Mr. Bear's first year at coaching and from all indications it looks like someone (and that someone we hope will be North Town) is going to have a very good coach for the coming years.

He has taken our team and made them good. Although they didn't win all their games, they sure had the spirit anyway. He had Lindsay and Murett, two first team men from last year, to start with and what he didn't do to a few other of these boys we don't know. Anyway we do know he did make players out of them before the year was over. It looks like we are going to have more to start with next year. We hate to lose Lindsay and Murett, but as the old saying goes we can't keep them forever. And they have put their names on the calendar so that if anyone sees it, they will know that they were fast going men on the basketball floor. Who did all this? We have to hand it to our coach—Red Bear.

SECOND TEAM

Back Row—Rodney Turnpaugh, Otis Dilk, Ellsworth Bear, William Hutchinson, Kenneth Land, Roland Coleman.
Front Row—Harwood Wilson, Elmer Jackson, Leonard Smith, Lawrence Risk, Frazier Hitz, Harold Buchanan, Lawrence Storie.

FIRST TEAM

Back Row—Carlyle Jackson, Ellsworth Bear, coach, Louis Rodgers, Russell Murett.

YELL LEADERS

Nothing inspires a team more than loyal supporters with lots of pep. Carl Burke and Sol Conn were the navigators of our pep this year and handled it very capably. Always present with lots of enthusiasm, giving their all, and getting unbelievable results.

Report of Basket-Ball Games

N. Madison 14—Deputy 13.

On Oct. 16, 1931, the North Town "Tigers" began their first game of the season by a hard won victory over Deputy. Deputy fought valiantly but they were no match for the splendid teamwork displayed by our boys.

N. Madison 11—Hanover 17.

Oct. 30: We journeyed to Hanover, but the "Tigers" couldn't get started. They were in the lead throughout the game, defeating us six points, 11 to 17.

N. Madison 17—Vevay 25.

Nov. 7: We played Vevay here. The game was tied at the half and third quarter. After Lindsay and Rogers left the game on account of fouls, we were forced to take the little end of the score.

N. Madison 16—Dupont 14.

Nov. 13: Mr. Rogers told our "Tigers" that if they didn't beat Dupont he would make hob-tails of them. We won!—although it was Friday the 13th.

N. Madison 16—Central 26.

Nov. 20: We lose another game. This time to Central. Lindsay went out on fouls again. Tough luck, boys.

N. Madison 16—Holton 35.

Dec. 4: The "Tigers" journeyed to Holton to defeat the warhorses. It looked as though they were going to defeat them the first half but they overcame the score in the last half.

N. Madison 16—Austin 9.

Dec. 11: We take Austin by a score of 16-9. Good work, "Tigers". Let's have some more.

N. Madison 9—Madison 21.

Dec. 18: We lose the big rivalry game of the season to Madison with a score of 21 to 9. Although Lindsay again went out on fouls, the boys fought hard right up till the last whistle blew.

N. Madison 16—Speeds 15.

We were encountered on our own floor by Speeds, both first and second teams. It was a very close game. With a few seconds to go, Lindsay got two foul shots, which put us out one point in the lead.

N. Madison 15—Alumni 24.

Jan. 1: Our ex-star players come back and show our boys how B. B. is to be played.

COUNTY TOURNEY.

Jan. 9: North Madison played Hanover first game in the evening. It was one of the best games of the tourney. Lindsay went out on fouls in the last five minutes of play. The Hanover "Bulldogs" were forced to take a defeat, 17-24. Lewis Rogers made 13 points for the "Tigers". Although the "Tigers" were at their best in the afternoon, at night they seemed to be in a confusion and Madison was presented with the silver loving cup which was to be awarded to the winner. The score was 15 to 43 in favor of Madison.

N. Madison 10—Vevay 22.

Jan. 15: A second time this year we are defeated by Vevay. The score was 10 to 22

N. Madison 13—Holton 23.

Jan. 16: We are again left behind. This time by Holton with a score of 13 to 23.

N. Madison 20—Speeds 35

Jan. 22: Although the "Tigers" fought a hard battle, Speeds took in the bacon. Judging by the way the girls from Speeds acted, boys must be scarce in that part of the country. "Red", you really should take better care of our boys. Oh—the score, 35-20.

N. Madison 15—Deputy 21

Jan. 29: Deputy has a come-back for us in our second game with them this year. They win, 21 to 15.

Vice-President .....	WHITSITT SPARKS
Secretary .....	LOUISE BEAR
Treasurer .....	LLOYD BLAKE
General Chairman .....	MILDRED RINGWALD

Sunshine Society

The Sunshine Society was organized in 1927. The organization was small in number but has grown large in the past few years, there now being a membership of about sixty. The society selected Miss Lutz as their sponsor. The one aim of the Sunshine Society is to spread sunshine everywhere.

Though the skies above are drear;
And the world seems dark within,
We seek to bring some word of cheer
To everyone we meet.

The officers for this year were:

Hi-Y Club

The Hi-Y started the year of '31-'32 with a record-breaking enrollment of eighteen new members, making a total of thirty-two new members in the club.

Professor Oliver having resigned, we are guided by our newly elected sponsor, Roy Rogers, who is conducting the club with great ability and has given us a new Hi-Y sign of friendship.

The club has two discussion meetings on school time and one entertainment meeting at night during a month.

North Madison High School Chorus

North Madison High School Chorus was organized October 6, 1931. Great interest in singing was shown in each class of the High School. The full chorus is made up of seventy voices, forty-five girls and twenty-five boys. So much interest and talent was shown Miss Sample, the director, at this early date proposes to give the public a real treat in chorus work by presenting the Opera, "Pauline," which promises great success. Rehearsals have been well attended and the spirit is fine for some work.

North Madison High School Orchestra

North Madison High Orchestra was organized October 5, 1931. At that time three violins, two cornets, two clarinets, and a piano. Since that time interest has been shown and we now have six violins, four cornets, two firsts and two seconds, one first clarinet and two seconds, one saxophone and piano.

As we have a number of younger members getting better instruments we feel the orchestra has come to stay and that we will always have good music. The orchestra will make its first public appearance at Parent-Teachers' meeting Monday evening, December 7, 1931.

N. Madison 11—Waldron 29.

Jan. 30: We were in the lead until after the first quarter. Then Waldron got in the lead and scored successively during the last quarter. They took the game from us, 29 to 11.

N. Madison 17—Dupont 10.

Feb. 12: We are victorious over Dupont for the second time, by a larger score than the first time.

N. Madison 17—Hanover 15.

Feb. 19: We beat Hanover two out of three games this year. Not bad! Russell making a total of 11 points, was high point man. We're getting good.

N. Madison 27—Central 20.

Feb. 26: In our last scheduled game of the season we journeyed to Central. After beating us the first tilt of the season, we were able to defeat them, 27 to 20. They were leading us one point at the half. Murrett, Rogers and Scott left the game in the last few minutes on fouls.

SECTIONAL TOURNEY

N. Madison 46—Paris Crossing 25.

N. Madison 23—Scottsburg 51

Mar. 4-5: After drawing the bye in the tournament, we played Paris Crossing, defeating them, 46 to 25.

Although our boys fought hard till the last for the honor of a victory, Scottsburg proved herself victorious over the "Tigers" by a score of 23 to 51. This concludes the series of games for Lindsay and Murrett, and may we take time out here to congratulate them on their splendid team-work and fine sportsmanship displayed during their B. B. career. We combine in wishing the future "Tigers" the very best of luck in the years to come.

Emma B.: I don't feel so good.
Nellie D.: Where do you feel the worst?
Emma B.: In shorthand class.

Miss Risk: Gordon, please do not laugh out loud in class.
Gordon D.: I'm not, Miss Risk: I was smiling and the smile bursted.

Mr. Rogers: Hilda, don't you like my reading?
Hilda B.: Yes, sir.
Mr. Rogers: Then why did you go to sleep?

Lindsay: The paper says a man invented a buttonless shirt.
Spark: That's nothing. I've been wearing them ever since I've been married. Har! Har!

Louise B.: I wish I had thought twice before marrying you.
Bill Taylor: Huh, I'd been satisfied if I'd thought once.

Page Thirty-five

Nellie: You were going 40 an hour.

George G.: I'm no law-breaker. I'm not ashamed of myself but I'm proud of the Ford.

Marcus (to his nurse, Lloyd): Forgive me for saying it, but I am in love with you. I don't want to get well.

Lloyd (being the nurse): Don't worry, you won't. The doctor is in love with me, too.

Anthä H.: Don't take me that way.

Sol C.: I won't take YOU at all.

Mr. Shoemaker (in grandstand): Those fellows don't seem to get on to that pitcher's curves.

Miss Lutz (new game): Why? I did as soon as I saw him. He is dreadfully bow-legged, isn't he?

Carl B.: Did you wear those flowers I sent you, honey?

Ethel D.: I didn't wear nothing else.

Carl B.: Lawdy, where did you pin them?

—:—

Shorty's father: Young man, are you able to support a family?

Whitsitt: Yes, sir. How many are there in your family?

Miss Sample: What is your idea of harmony?

M. E. McFadden: A freckle-faced freshman with a polka dot dress leading a giraffe.

Bill H.: You must economize. Think of the future. If I were to die, where would you be?

Mary K.: I should be here all right. The question is: Where would you be?
