Foreword

We of the Rebian Staff who are about to depart as graduates of 1961 sincerely hope that in future years this issue of the "Rebian" will be held among your most cherished memories.

In the first year of our new school "Southwestern" new traditions and ideals will be made by the students of today and cherished by those who follow. As Carl Schurz once said, "Ideals are like stars; you will not succeed in touching them with your hands. But like the seafaring man on the desert of waters, you choose them as your guides and following them reach your destiny."

We hope you enjoy the "Rebian". It was ours for almost a year. Now it and the ideals we cherish belong to you.

Dedication

To those who follow the ideals that we have cherished. To every student who has walked the campus, studied in the library, played the game in the field, in the gym, or in the stands; to those who have given of their talents; or attended Southwestern High School, we dedicate the 1961 REBIAN.

"Isn't it strange that princes and kings
And clowns that caper in sawdust rings,
And common folks like you and me
Are builders for eternity?
And to each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass and a book of rules,
And each must make ere life is flown,
"A stumbling block or a stepping stone."

First Chapter

And now, we've turned twenty well-worn leaves,
Each filled with joys, and frowns, and tears:
And Fate, the everlasting, sees
What waits for us beyond these years.

We come across a memory page,
And here's one quite without a line:
Our friends, portrayed, will last an age--
Some space has been erased by Time.

As each page ends, some lines are left,
For footnotes sever right and wrong;
But most of us too often guessed--
To reason would have been too long.

The book is not completed yet:
We enclose this chapter, swiftly done,
The ink is new, the pen is wet--
We haven't finished-- just begun.

Fond Farewell - - -

Without the splendid cooperation of the business establishments of our community, the 1961 SHS Rebian would have been impossible. We would like to thank all the students who worked on the 1961 Rebian and the excellent guidance of Mrs. Doris Patton. Through the help of these wonderful people we have been able to produce a most successful annual. Special thanks goes to those parents and professional patrons who contributed so generously.
