A black and white photograph of a large, multi-story brick school building. The building has a prominent arched entrance on the right side and several rows of windows. In the foreground, a sign on a post reads "SOUTHWESTERN HIGH SCHOOL" in bold, uppercase letters, followed by "home of the" in a smaller font and "Rebels" in a large, cursive script. The ground in front of the building appears to be a mix of dirt and grass.

Jackie Hereford and Gail Campbell chat briefly while going to their next class.

The Quiet Talks,

Chivalry is far from dead here. . . or so Carol Hylcord thinks.

Moments To Remember . . .

Devoted fans cheer the team on, "You can do it, Rebels, you can do it."

The Noisy Fun,

The spotlight feature of the Sweetheart Dance was music furnished by the IV's.

The third year Spanish Class enacted a "typical" Mexican Christmas scene at the Spanish Christmas party.

Feelings were tense and emotions high as the final seconds ran out.

The Pride We Felt,

Don Gassert realizes that studying isn't confined to the day-time.

The Knowledge Won

Discarded books wait for later use while their owners eat lunch.

"Now let's see the hands of those that did the assignment."

Though summer turns to winter,
And the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo through the years.

When other nights and other days
May find us gone our separate ways
We will have these moments
to remember.

Memories Last Forever

Until that long-awaited time on May 24, when each senior stepped up to receive his diploma, much had happened. There was much to remember.

There have been noticeable changes in the building since the class first trekked over from the junior high. The number of activities has grown to 14 and the curriculum has expanded to 31 courses.

Yes, in four years much can happen. When a class graduates these seniors find it easy to recall many good times shared with classmates.

Coming to mind first is the first impression received when each stood with wondering eyes and a small lump in his throat before that first class in the fall of 1961.

Initiation soon followed and afterwards everything began falling into place.

There were spring class picnics and parties too. The concession stand at basketball games and the tourney was a big project in their junior year.

The Jr.-Sr. Prom was the climax of that year, and brought the class to a first look at its fourth and final year.

This year has meant a lot to every senior. It has been busy, full of good times as well as hard work and added responsibilities.

The class rings, senior cords, senior portraits, and cards are special identification signs.

The advent of spring brought the class nearer its final goal, and saw activities that will be remembered when many things have passed. Who could forget the excitement of the boat ride on the Chaperone or the Prom held in honor of the seniors?

The big moment when each senior stepped proudly up to accept his diploma closed four years of high school life. Though the activities have ceased to be, memories last forever.

Receiving class rings from senior sponsor, Mr. William Finnegan, are Rosemary Kloepper and Dianne Sanders.

Measuring the "talls and shorts" for caps and gowns are seniors, Carol Sue Martin and Chuck Feider.

A common sight around school has been senior cords. . . .

but what a line-up!!!

A class that has always shared many good times—

Seniors Linda Wilson, Donna Varble, and Sandra Schmidlap pause in the halls sharing conversations that will be long remembered.

Seniors versus faculty . . .

SWHS faculty, donning Rebel basketball uniforms, stepped out of their usual roles to clash with a mighty??? senior crew on March 12. After four long quarters, the scoreboard showed the seniors hardly a match for the faculty five.

Seniors Dave Webster, Charles Smith, Keith Manning, and Jerry Massie prove they are versatile!!

The days drew nearer that goal begun four years ago . . .

and 5th year math.

Liz Eisan, Kathi Huenemann, and Elaine Pearson show that it isn't all work and no fun in French III.

When spring fever hits, seniors find it is much more enjoyable to "flock" outside than to stick to the books!

Honored seniors entered into the beauty and enchantment of the night, as the juniors presented "Shangrila".

THE NIGHT OWLS provided the beat for the Prom before an impressive Buddha.

Seniors Celebrate at Prom, Cruise

SENIORS and guests each received flowers upon boarding the Party Boat from class sponsor, Mrs. Finnegan.

After weeks of preparation, on May 8, the magic of "Shangrila" unfolded at the Junior-Senior Prom. Amid streams of crepe paper, hanging lanterns, and blossoming cherry trees, couples danced to the strains of familiar melodies.

Highlighting the evening was the coronation of Prom Queen, Elaine Pearson. Keith Manning was voted to reign as King.

Earlier in the spring the seniors spent an evening cruising on the Johnson Chaperone. After dining on the decks of the Party Boat, the class members and their guests danced as the boat moved up the river.

Senior Honors

Awards on Honors Day this year included the following departmental awards, which went to seniors holding the highest scholastic averages:

- English-Marj Webster, Kathy Huenemann
- Mathematics-Brad Proffet
- Spanish-Nancy Conard
- French-Libby Eisan, Marj Webster, Kathy Huenemann
- Science-Brad Proffet
- Commercial-Linda Cleffman
- Agriculture-Bob Breece

Graduation—1965

Graduation holds special memories for each member of the class of '65. When the traditional caps and gowns were distributed, many began to realize that the culmination of four years of work and study was really here. For others, the most memorable occasions were the march down the aisle as the band played "Pomp and Circumstance", or the feeling of nostalgia which struck as the chorus sang "Halls of Ivy." Finally, the moment that each candidate for graduation had been waiting for--the receiving of the bound diploma and the handclasp for a job well done.

Student Council Works To Broaden

The Student Council worked this year in many fields, trying to widen the school's fields of interest, promote good citizenship within the student body, and make general improvements in Southwestern's physical plant.

Major projects this year included the formation of an Inter-Club Council, which will set up a balanced calendar each year, campaigning for class officers, work on forming a National Honor Society, assemblies, an International Day, and landscaping plans.

Last summer Jerry Massie attended the Student Council workshop at I.U. to gain new insight into the work of Student Councils in the school and bring back plans for projects.

In all, about 30 projects were worked on this year. The last assembly of the school year was the installation of the new Student Council, a formal and impressive ceremony.

FBLA Explores Business World

In its second year of existence at Southwestern, the Future Business Leaders of America has worked to learn more about business careers.

Other than this, the club continued the coat check at home basketball games and the annual talent show, in cooperation with the FFA. The FBLA also attended a conference at Muncie this spring, and toured local businesses.

Debate Club

After one year of debating, the Debate Club has proven itself a valuable asset to Southwestern's extra-curricular program. The national debate topic, "Resolved: That nuclear weapons should be controlled by an international organization," provided the subject for meets against Shawe, Scottsburg, Madison, and Batesville. The SWHS teams finished with a record of one win, one tie, and two losses.

At the Madison Debate Tournament, two Southwestern teams, Donna Meek and Dan Hobbs, and Margaret Craig and Larry White, defeated Madison, Scottsburg, and Batesville, to win first place in the tourney.

A SCENE from the Christmas operetta by the chorus and Drama Club. Kathi Huenemann and Fred Mower held leading roles in the presentation.

For the members of Southwestern's young Drama Club, 1964-1965 was a very busy school year. The club began its season by presenting a student assembly program consisting of two skits, "Trigger Mortis, Frontier Mortician", and "Behind the Scenes of 'Arsenic and Old Lace'".

The Drama Club cooperated with the chorus at Christmas-time to present an operetta entitled, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."

On May 13, the members of the Drama Club once again gave "Trigger Mortis" at the Madison State Hospital. This program wound up a busy and successful year, and the club now looks forward to 1966 with many plans.

Operetta Highlight Drama Club Year

The height of the season for Drama Club members came with the presentation of the delightful story of the Gilbreth family as told in the three-act comedy, "Cheaper by the Dozen". Drama Club members spent many hours working on costumes, make-up, and rehearsals, to make the play a success.

An impressive rose and candle-light installation service started the year off for the Southwestern FHA chapter.

After much planning and work, on February 6, the second annual FHA Sweetheart Dance was held. Highlighting the dance was an appearance by the IV's, Southwestern's dance band.

In the spring, the chapter served at the FFA Parent-Son banquet.

Throughout the year, FHA members attended conventions, and learned more of the work of other future homemakers throughout the state.

For Honor's Day, the club presented the senior members with special emblems for their work and service to the club.

This year the Southwestern F.T.A. chapter sponsored the first annual Spelling Bee. Junior Karen Wilson was winner of the contest, which will now become an annual affair.

Again this year, the F.T.A. formed a cadet teaching program in which senior members had the opportunity to observe teaching methods and gain experience teaching in the lower grades.

A faculty tea was sponsored by the F.T.A. this spring.

In recognition of high scholastic record through high school, the F.T.A. awarded the top ten graduating seniors with Honor Cords which were worn at graduation.

THE 100-PIECE marching band, directed by Mr. Edward Ballenger.

Southwestern's red-white-and-blue clad Marching Rebels participated in numerous marching and concert shows during the '64-'65 season, making a fine overall showing.

The band played concerts for school and local affairs, including music for '65 graduation, the Spring Concert, and the annual Spring Festival at Campbellsburg.

Contests were the order of the day as the Rebels entered the State Band Contest at Seymour, The Regatta Parade in Madison, and small groups and individuals in the District Solo and Ensemble contest.

Band members learned new techniques and routines during a summer week at Camp Crescendo, near Louisville.

'64-65 Queens

With winning combinations of beauty, personality, and talent these Southwestern girls reigned over three outstanding events of the 1964-65 school year.

Judy Smith was the year's official FFA Sweetheart. She was the first place winner in the FFA and FBLA sponsored Talent Show.

The Basketball Queen, Sandra Schmidlap, was crowned in a stately ceremony during the final home basketball game.

"Shangrila" was the theme of the Junior Prom, and it was an enchanted evening for senior Elaine Pearson and her co-ruler, Keith Manning.

Seniors Rosemary Kloepfer and Ginger Arvin, nominated for queen, composed the queen's court. King nominees were Gary Harson and Chuck Feider.

Students Receive Contest Honors

Southwestern students won honors in contests featuring speeches, essays, and community service.

Jim Haverkamp, a junior, won first place in the Sons of the American Revolution Oratorical Contest.

Freshman Kurt Lueders' ten minute speech on the Constitution took top honors in the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

An essay entitled "In Education Rests the Future of America" and a record of community service by John Anderson was the winning entry in the VFW Auxiliary Contest.

Mike Sample, a sophomore, placed first in the American Radio Announcers Contest.

Placing second and third in the Optimist Oratorical Contest were Freshmen Richard Cline and Dan Hobbs.

A county-wide competition for Queen of Youth Appreciation Week brought recognition to senior Sandi Bonsett.

'65 Rebian Staff Expands Annual

Staff member Barbara Stites sells Ronnie Hopper his '65 Rebian.

Linda Wilson, Sandi Bonsett, and Robert Childs evaluate other annuals in order to improve The Rebian.

The 1965 Rebian Staff has worked to enlarge and improve the Southwestern yearbook. Sixteen pages were added to the previous 88 page annual.

In the fall, staff members Sandi Bonsett and Karen Wilson attended the Indiana High School Press Association convention at Franklin College. Eight staffers spent a Saturday at Cathedral High, Indianapolis, at a yearbook institute.

This summer, Bob Childs will spend two weeks at Indiana University studying yearbook layout.

Staff members Paul Wilson, Brad Proffet, Barbara Stites, Marge Webster, Libby Eisan, and Jerry Bayne concentrate on completing their sections.

Karen Wilson, Jim Haverkamp, Andrea Bonsett, and Bob Breece consider their planned layouts.

Choral Groups Travel, Perform

Under the direction of Mrs. Mary Lou Dunbar, the Southwestern chorus began its season of '64-'65 with a Christmas program on WAVE-TV in Louisville. The group then traveled to Madison State Hospital for two performances.

The Spring Music Festival at Campbellsburg was the highlight of their spring season, and the chorus concluded the year by participating in the Commencement exercises.

This year a madrigal choir of 16 voices directed by Mr. Ballenger entered the State Music contest, and received a II rating in class A.

This year a 45-member Pep Club backed the teams both at home and away games.

Led by a group of excellent cheerleaders, the Pep Club did a good job throughout the year, coming out especially loud and strong at the county tourney and sectional.

Sentinel Has Busy Second Year

During its second year the SENTINEL continued to bring the news to Southwestern students. Eighteen bi-weekly editions featured news events, sports, and feature articles.

In an effort to improve the paper, staff members attended the Indiana High School Press Association convention at Franklin College. Editor Margaret Craig spent two weeks at the Indiana University High School Journalism Institute, learning more about the many facets of the newspaper business.

The SENTINEL sponsored a mock election during the fall semester. Students were given instruction in use of the voting machine, and school results foretold the Johnson landslide in November.

The newly-formed News Bureau sent press releases covering school events to local news media.

The highlight of a busy year was the very successful variety show, "Away Off Broadway."

Trophies were awarded for high scores in bowling, archery, and thirteen girls received state plaques for four years of participation in G. A. A.

In the fall of 1964 Becky Adams and Brenda Hudson attended a G.A.A. workshop at Indiana University for a week end of learning and playing with girls from other parts of the state. The G.A.A. also sponsored sock hops after basketball games, and, for the first time, brought a professional women's basketball team to Southwestern for a spirited game with Southwestern's faculty men.

Winner of the senior G.A.A. award was Rosemary Kloepfer.

Achievements Recognized During

Education is a combination of theoretical and practical knowledge preparing the student for the challenges of our society. At Southwestern education is a serious undertaking. Because of this, outstanding work is recognized by the school and community.

Each year an Honors Assembly is staged for this purpose. This year the program saw the presentation of awards in sports, academics, music, clubs, and service to the school and community.

SANDY JACKSON, senior, achieved the highest average in Home-Ec. for which she received a medal. The Betty Crocker Award was also presented her on Honors Day.

LIBBY EISAN, senior, is being congratulated by Mr. King on earning Co-Salutatorian honors.

RIGHT, Martha Long, who missed no days of school in four years of high school, receives recognition from Mr. King.

DONNA VARBLE, senior, is congratulated by Mr. King for receiving the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award.

Coach Harry Knight led his varsity charges to a 54.5 or 55% winning season with a record of 12 wins and 10 losses.

After losing their opening game with Scottsburg, the Rebels chalked up three wins in a row by beating Versailles and Deputy, and by scoring a 42 point victory over Dupont, 95-53. Knight's hardwoodmen lost to Crothersville and Sunman, and then broke the losing streak by romping over New Marion, 70-45. Losing to Vevay, the Rebels bounced back to trounce Henryville, 97-67.

In the Jefferson County Invitational Tourney, the Rebels blasted Dupont out of the tourney, but were then sidelined by Vevay, the eventual champ, 81-73.

After losing four games and winning one, the Rebels began to jell. The 68-63 defeat of New Washington was the beginning of a five-game winning streak.

In the Sectional, Southwestern defeated Deputy, 86-60. Madison, the tourney winner, derailed the Rebels by six points, 63-57.

RANDY WEHNER

DAVE WEBSTER

CHARLES SMITH

Senior Sharpshooters

Three fine varsity basketball players will be missing from the lineup next season. These players are seniors Charlie Smith, Dave Webster, and Randy Wehner.

Charlie Smith has played a full four years of varsity Hoosier Hysteria, and has earned a total of 909 points. He totaled 312 markers in this last campaign. During the '64-'65 game, he scored his highest number of points in one tilt, 29. Rebounding was one of Charlie's specialties. He pulled down 265 during the last season. He received these honors: lettered 4 years varsity ball; All Conference team--Jr. and Sr. years; most valuable player--Sr. year; and most rebounds--Sr. year.

Dave Webster was the playmaker for the Rebels during his four varsity seasons. The school record for total points scored is held by Dave, with 943 points. 318 points were credited to him this year; 29 points was his high game.

Randy Wehner is the third graduating player. He has played a reserve role on the varsity team for two years. He was credited with 42 points in the '64-'65 season. He makes up for his lack of height with extra hustle and stamina.

Junior Varsity Floors Balanced Team

Southwestern's junior varsity Rebels coasted to a 9-9 win-loss record last season. They scored impressive victories over such foes as New Marion, in which the Rebels emerged 51-28, and a 61-45 victory over Moores Hill.

The J V's topped New Washington, 59-38, and rolled up a 21 point margin of 64-43 over Holton in the final game of the season.

The Jr. Rebels floored a well rounded and evenly balanced team; no one player excelled but nearly everyone was good at something. This created teamwork among the players.

Steve Pigman holds the record for the most points scored during the season, 182; he also holds the highest field goal percentage, which is 53%. Along with these two records he was third highest scorer in one game, with 17 points against Moores Hill.

Bill Scroggins captured the free throw percentage, with 67% accuracy and holds the most points scored in one game, 22 against Holton.

The most rebounds pulled, both in one game and during the year, were captured by Dusty Short, with 16 rebounds during Deputy game, in which he played only three quarters. He grabbed 139 rebounds during the entire season. Jerry Bayne scored 142 points and averaged 66% on the free throw line.

Baseball

Southwestern hardballmen, led by Gary Harsin's hurling and Eddie Bare's batting, handled some of the more formidable foes of the conference during the fall season. These teams included eventual ORVC champ Vevay, Shawe, and Versailles. The Rebels win-loss record ended at 5-3, with a .625 winning percentage.

Veteran relief pitchers Allen Storie and Greg Fields also welcomed two newcomers to the team, Steve Burress and Steve Foley.

One of the more memorable games of the season was the Rebel-Shawe clash, when the game was tied 5-5 and went into extra innings. Dave Webster hit a home run to win the game 6-5.

Southwestern also hammered in 17 runs to topple the Versailles Lions 17-9, and cut down Vevay in a previous game by a 11-7 margin.

Senior lettermen on the 1964-65 Rebel baseball team included Eddie Bare, Gary Harsin, Charles Smith, Dave Webster, and Randy Wehner.

Before knocking a double into right field, Steve Foley steps up to the batters box. Kenny played catcher and was a powerful hitter for the team.

Eddie Bare and Gary Harsin were nominated to the All-Conference team. Both have played four years of varsity baseball.

Bare, a star first baseman, had the high batting average for the team.

Harsin could pitch, play shortstop, or cover third base, but his most frequent assignment was as leading pitcher for the Rebel team.

Rebels Proclaimed ORVC Champs;

"Great" didn't seem a strong enough word to describe the 1964-65 varsity track team as the Rebel squad posted a 5-3 win-loss record. Since they were the 63-64 ORVC champs and lost only two team members through graduation, everyone looked for a hot season. And the cindermen really came through.

In all, there were 11 conference and school records broken by Rebel trackmen during the season. Robert Childs broke the school mile run record five times; his best time was 4:39.9.

Charles Smith has the school record for the 100-yard dash, 10.3, and the 220, 22.7. The conference record for the pole vault also belongs to Charlie with a vault of 11'2 1/2".

Fred Mower captured the conference 100-yard dash record in 10.4. Larry White grabbed the 880 school record, and Roi Dryden took the school record for the shot put, with a heave of 47'11 1/2".

Jerry Massie proved to be the highest point getter as he nabbed 96 1/2 points and copped both the school and conference records for the high hurdles. His best time this year was 16.1 at Clarksville.

Southwestern's 880 relay team-Jerry Massie, Dusty Short, Fred Mower, and Charlie Smith-spiced to a new record in that event-1:36.2.

Sectional time, as always, proved to be the Rebels time to shine as they qualified three members for the regional held at Linton, Ind. Among these players was Charles Smith who nabbed 3rd in the 220 yard dash. Fred Mower

Head Coach Harry Knight Resigns

Harry Knight, four-year veteran at Southwestern, resigned as head coach. He coached the cross-country, basketball, and track teams.

Coach Knight led the track team to two straight ORVC triumphs. Charlie Smith became the first Southwestern track man to participate in the State Meet when he qualified for the broad jump and the 220.

Always ready with a fast quip, Mr. Knight was a favorite speaker at pep sessions.

Golf Team

This season's golf team, coached by Norman Griffith, began a building season for the team. Although it was a losing season, all four boys will represent the Southwestern linkster team next year and should benefit from the experience.

Deserving Athletes Receive Awards

Several outstanding Rebel athletes were awarded high honors for their efforts this year.

In the basketball area, Charlie Smith was named to the All-Conference team, received the Rebounding Trophy for a total of 256, and was named Most Valuable Player and Most Valuable Athlete. Bob Finnegan received the Southwestern Free throw award and also the Rotary Club's free throw award.

In the field of baseball, Eddie Bare and Gary Harsin were named to the All-Conference team.

In the Cross Country race, Robert Childs was named to the All-Conference team, and set a new conference record of 9:58.5 for the two miles. Robert also set 9 other records.

In track, Jerry Massie, Robert Childs, Dusty Short, Fred Mower, and Charlie Smith were named to the All-Conference. Jerry was also awarded the Most Points trophy for his outstanding performance earning 96-1/2 points. Charles Smith qualified to participate in the State Finals Track meet.

Charles Smith is showing his record form as he holds the school and conference records in the 220 yd. dash and pole vault. He holds school records only in the 100 yd. dash and broad jump, and a leg on the 880 yd. relay. He broke the broad jump record in the State finals with a leap of 21'3", but did not place.

We build through the faculty. As teachers, advisors, and friends they are a very important part of Southwestern's program. Through them our minds are challenged and awakened to curiosity and knowledge. Through them we build for tomorrow, where the end of every dream waits.

It was the goal of the juniors to make their prom the "best ever." The refreshment and band committees did their part to see that plans were made carefully. Decorators work diligently all week. As guests began to enter the dimly lit gym on prom night, they were caught up in the spell of the mystic orient...in the exotic mood of SHANGRILA.

A few artists find time for a break...and a joke...but other decorators continue the tedious job of hanging streamers.
