

Never Before, Never Again.

Lake Hamilton and Josh Lichlyter show their pride of their banner on hick day.

Sophomore Carol Risk rolls around in the trash and shows her goofy self on red, white, and blue day.

The crazy week of Spirit Week included lots of memories and laughs that will never be forgotten. Dressing on mis-match day of spirit week is Angie Garvey, Jennifer Matthews, Trevor Crafton, Janelle Stoner, Amy Box, Charity Marshall, and Jayr McClain.

Never before has a year been the same and never again will another be like this.

Never before, Never again

The years 1995-1996 hold many memories. Every class that passes through the hallways never returns the same from year to year. The memories will never be forgotten and the friendships will always be long lasting. Laughs, cries, and good times are special times between people and friends that only happen one time. The year has been filled with spirit and laughter that will always remain.

Remembering a special time when Tivia Effinger came to our school and then left so quickly, many special friendships were made in this time. Saying goodbye for one last time together from left to right are: Emily Beitzel, Amber Fresh, Mrs. Kaye Abplanalp, Tina Moore, Megan Palmer, Tonya Smith, Dawn Beatty, Sam Kleopler, Patty Umilia, Keith Chilton, Tessa Wynn, Amy Scroggum, Tivia Effinger, Carol Risk, Molly Eggenpiller, Elisha Mills, and Kendra Brother. 8th grader Elizabeth Youngblood reads her Halloween poetry in English class and adds some special effects.

SENIORS

Clockwise from top left: Testing his electronic skills, Mr. Tom Potter tries to fix a computer while Kim Traylor does the hand task of shining the flashlight and Sara Kindelsperger holds the screwdriver. Taking a break from photographing the sectionals Aaron Vaught shows his support for the wrestlers. Doing their daily routine of walking the halls, Mark Hurt and Kim Traylor chat on their way. Is there steam coming from those ears? Grant Laymon tries his hand at teaching English and finds it is more fun to be a teacher than to put up with Junior High students. Hanging together for one of the last times Ira Sprong, Jodi Giltner, Chad Barnes, and Russ Hensley show off their Senior shirts. Drowning in a bath of balloons to celebrate her birthday while visiting Franklin College, Michelle Childress tries to climb out. Exchange student Virginia Rivera tries her hand at Senior English.

STUDENT LIFE

*Remember certain aspects and make as many memories as possible when the chance arises.
Grasp it and savor it now, because never before and never again will the moment be relived.*

Anybody for a game? Freshman Robby Dobbins and Seth Pennington are looking for a couple of chums to challenge them during P.E. tennis lessons.

Oh yummy day! With fries on his plate and a grin on his face, junior Jeramie Yocum works his way through the lunch line.

Senior Kharon Grimmert concentrates as she kindly crosses class lines to paint Spirit Week graffiti on junior Beth Jenson's face.

"I'm a freakfreakfreak!" As an aid in the library, senior Jason Kikta shows his insane side while he works on library...stuff.

Hey! It's senior Stevie "Yes, it's broken" Snyder working on a computer in the library. Stevie made a goal to break every bone in his body before the end of his senior year. (...No, not really...)

CONGREGATING IN THE HALLS

Clint Wynn and Janelle Stoner stop and talk in the halls between classes.

"Is something on my head?" Asks sophomore Bogie Huff.

Senior Dena Randell and Freshman Jimmy Winn patiently wait for the bell to ring.

"Uugh!" exclaims Tessa Wynn, "I can't make it up the stairs."

Getting out of class Sara Kindlesperger and Rebecca Stoner kill time at Sara's locker.

Even the teachers get caught gossiping in the hallway, this is proven by Mrs. Tami Callis.

Sophomores Elisha Mills and Tonya Smith gather in the hall and goof off.

Late again! Lake Hamilton calmly gathers his books after the tardy bell has already rung.

Getting ready for class, Kandice Box shows us her locker decorations about being insane.

SPIRIT

WEEK

REBELS, REBELS, LET ME HEAR YOUR BEST...

All decked out in their country attire are juniors Lake Hamilton, Josh Lichty er, and Kyle Pelsor.

Senior Coby Cloud says "Yeehaw" on Hanover Hick Day during spirit week as Erin Northern searches for Josh Purvis.

Taking a break from eating his lunch, sophomore Brian Phillips shows us his creativity for red, white, and blue day.

The Senior class of 1996 enjoy their winning during the spirit week pep rally.

Showing that he really can mismatch is art teacher Gene Robertson.

Senior Hollie Adams shows us that she has tons of school spirit.

Freshman Stephanie Sanders is lending a "helping hand" to Erin Hillenberg.

Trying so hard to ignore the camera and study is junior Stephanie Wildman.

Begging for money for the senior class is Camille Andrew.

Whoever this masked student is, he is showing his version of school spirit.

We just have to love that new hairstyle of sophomore Jayr McClain.

Cinderella never had it so good

All dressed up and somewhere to go, the prom was an evening filled with dancing

The 1996 Prom King and Queen... Bill Stidham and Sarah Kindlesperger.

Good friends Jodi Deaton and Stacie Waters having a good time dancing with each other.

How cute! Senior Marylin Piche and her date Brent Taylor dancing the night away!

"Play some music, I want to dance," says Junior Jessie Chandler.

Senior Joey Spray and his date sophomore Emily Lamb show everyone how it's done.

Seniors Brent Turner and Aaron Vaught take a break from dancing for awhile. They were just having too much fun.

Jeremy Glunt and Susanna Childress were named Prince and Princess.

Sara Kindelsperger, Megan Palmer, and Susanne Childress are full of smiles after the crowning.

Juniors Kelly Wehner, Amanda Burress, Sarah Adams, Brittan Eblen, and senior DeLena Escebedo enjoy the prom thoroughly.

Getting a breath of fresh air are alumni Andy Wehner, Jay Mitchell and seniors Matt Eggenpiller, Robert Schürmer, and Jodi Gültner.

When the DJ's say get down Senior Amber Kleopfer and her date literally get down!

Who knew the Garter Ceremony could be so embarrassing? Junior Jeremy Glunt lies down on the floor to take off Jessie Chandler's garter.

Remember

Clowning around before the homecoming ceremony are senior representatives Bill Stidham, Mike Goode, Jason Renschler, and Coby Cloud.

Senior valedictorian Kent Roberts delivers his address at commencement.

Look at all the pretty bubbles! Now that Joanne Jones and Jenny Melton have completed high school they went back to their kindergarten excitement.

Misty Adcock helps Camille Andrew out by changing her tassel while Kevin Barker and Chad Barnes patiently wait in line.

*One door closes

us our memories, friendships and knowledge.*

GOTCHA! Exclaims Kim Traylor after her commencement ceremonies.

The best of times, the worst of times. The turning of the tassel was definitely one of the best times for Jake Ebley and Jimmy Earl.

Usher Kirstie Beach gets drenched in silly string by ecstatic graduates after the ceremony.

SAY CHEESE

Although being a student is stressful, some still find time to smile.

Below: Are we in trouble? Junior Lake Hamilton is peeking in the door at Ms. Orrill after being sent to the hall.

Future rebel tennis player Mr. Todd's son, Logan, shows off his racket and ball.

Future teacher of America, Junior Brittan Eblen acts like she knows what she's doing.

"Shew, this is a hard class." Senior Coby Cloud takes a break in AP English.

Work, Work, and more Work

"Perhaps the most valuable result of education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not."

As always, Jason Smith was found in Chemistry goofing off and finding new uses for a test tube clamp.

Making himself comfortable, Grant Layman finishes his English.

While George Owens is hard at work on the computer, Janelle Stoner sits back and relaxes.

Sticking out her tongue is Kim Traylor response to being told, "Get to work."

"How much longer until I get to graduate?" thinks Jamin Bear as he anxiously awaits to leave class.

"Get that thing out of my face I'm trying to work," said Jenny Melton.

Trying to understand her trigonometry, Jennifer Adams completes her lengthy assingment.

"What the heck are you talking about?" wonders Aaron Vaught.

Desperately hurrying to finish their speech before class begins, Emily Beitzel and Lake Hamilton have taken procrastination as far as it will go.

An extremely difficult Algebra II test does not seem to be worrying Jennifer Blasdal.

A dedication...

Memories

*As I walk down the hall
I notice your presence is missing.
You are not there in English
to give me a piece of gum.
When you laughed
it touched my heart.
Your smile brightened my day
no matter what mood I was in The memories I have of you from when we were young will stay with me forever.
When I start to miss you, I remember all the
good times we shared.
And I know in my heart that you are in a better place than I.*

Pictures

The pictures keep falling around my tear stained face. They scatter around me like rockets returning from outer space. Each time, a place, a face. I try to push them away, but this only brings them closer. I begin to look at each of them and realize how special you were. I then discover that I should not cry over you just because you are gone. I should be happy you no longer endure this terrible world.

*Dedicated to Alesha Shelton
Keith Brooks
and Brian Stites.*

*With Love,
Veronica Shipman.*

Between You and Me

*Patiently you say,
"Don't worry we'll see one another again someday"
How could this be?*

*It's always been you and me,
side by side.*

What will I do without you?

*My best friend,
my only link to what will now be past,*

it all went by so fast.

The tears we've shed.

The pain we've bared.

*Through this
we've never said,
forever we will be paired;
side by side.*

Cautiously I await the day we must part.

Forever you will remain in my heart.

Solely we will never depart.

*For forever you will remain,
right by my side
holding my hand.*

*Together we will stand,
forever in my mind.*

*My best friend,
I Love You!*

...to three friends.

Honors Day Senior Breakfast

It was their last day of high school. Forever.

The United States Army Reserve named Mandy Gray and Russ Hensley National Scholar Athletes.

Jason Kikta received an eighty thousand dollar scholarship from the United States Marines.

The Kiwanis club awarded Misty Adcock with a scholarship.

Jodi Deaton was awarded a plaque for her outstanding year at vocational school.

Chrisdale Crafton awards Karen Grimmet with a scholarship in honor of her mother, Christie Crafton and with a hug.

After enjoying their breakfast, Tami Keith and Charity Marshall pose for one last picture together as seniors.

Miss Personality! Sara Kindelsperger was the nicest girl in the senior class.

Good Friends Lydia Childress, Karen Grimmet and Lena Bryant and their families gather at the senior breakfast.

Sharing one last laugh Rebecca Stoner and Mr. Coghill clown around on the microphone.

The senior class officers, Michelle Beitzel, Michelle Childress, Camille Andrew, and Mandy Gray preside over their class for one last time.

“You can always tell a real friend: when you have made a fool of yourself he doesn’t feel you have done a permanent job.”
-Laurence Peter

(Above): Freeze Frame! Seniors Jodi Stone, Kendra Bruther, and Michelle Childress express their friendship to prove that seniors stick together.

Juniors Josh Purvis and Chad Baldwin remain friends off and on the court.

Friendship

What qualities make up a friend?

"... a person who you can rely on to listen to your problems. They will be there for you always-good and bad, no matter what. What a friendship is really based on is trust. If you don't have trust, you don't have anything."

-sophomore Elisha Mills

"A friend is someone who stands behind you no matter what you do, even if they disagree with it."

-senior Jenny Melton

Junior Brittan Eblen and senior Camille Andrew prove that age makes no difference when it comes to being friends.

Cross Country

For the Team

August 18th what a glorious day
Coach McClure was on his way
To what, he dare but only guess
Cross Country was his next big test
Who would he find on such a team
Paul Daniels said "It'll be ice cream"
Blake Deuser was the first, but what

He jogs around eating corn nuts
Andy Miller the second on this squad
He always made fun of Ty's old broad
And G the man, not a myth

When we hooped he made it swish
Justin, sometimes he would boast
But his favorite line was "Ah, come on Coach"

Excuse me, Ty would you please
Come to practice if cleared with Patty
Coach, whose out so far?

Boys, I thought you knew that's Adam Barr
Joe Stephens with the master plan
Always responds with "OK, man"

Eric B and Rhakim those are the rap guys
Our Eric has bi's and tri's
Andy kept us all in check

Always talking like brother Malcom X
Fellas I've had a lot of fun

Just keep practicing the Coach McClure run

Walker makes state

Sophomore Amber Walker achieved an honor that no other Southwestern athlete has ever achieved...she earned a chance to dive at the state level. Walker had a successful season diving, and after many years of hard work, Walker performed well enough at the sectional level to go to state. For all her hard work, and now her success, we congratulate Amber Walker!

After playing hard, Ricardo Tajonar, Chad Baldwin, Josh Purvis, Josh Lichlyter, and Brent Turner deserve a break

Girls Basketball

What was your most memorable experience this year on the basketball team?

"My favorite memory is the time we Switzerland County on a last second shot. I looked over at Coach McDonald and saw her jump from the coaching box to the free throw line."
Senior Jennifer Matthews

"My most memorable experience this year would have to be beating Shawe and coming close to beating Scottsburg in the Sectionals."

Sophomore Carol Risk

"The memory I will never forget is the time we went to Rising Sun and there was no heat on the bus. It was so cold the snow on Kandice Box's shoes did not melt."

Sophomore Emily Beitzel

Excited to be seniors yet holding back tears since this is their last home game, Kandice Box and Hollie Adams stand with their parents as they are introduced on senior night.

The 1995-96 girls' varsity basketball team included: (front) Jennifer Matthews and Mandy Gray, (middle) Erin Northern, Kandice Box, Hollie Adams, Kristen Howell, (back) coach Laura McDonald, manager Tisha Sullivan, Emily Beitzel, Tessa Wynn, Jessie Chandler, Carol Risk, manager Debra Ebert, and coach Jennifer Risk.

Jessica Hay plans her next move.

Freshman basketball building for the future

Although the freshman boys' basketball team did not have a winning record this year, it was a very productive year for the team. When the team lost three of the starters from their eighth grade year, they were prepared for the worst. Fortunately, the freshman players pulled together to make this year one of their best ever. They played really well against teams that were supposed to blow them away. This says a lot for the hard work and dedication of the team. Overall the boys won more games this year than they were expected to win. The freshmen ended their season with an 8-10 record. The freshman girls cheerleading squad really did an excellent job of cheering on the team this year. The freshman boys really appreciated the support of the cheerleading squad. Who really had a way of getting the fans cheering in the close and competitive games.

Rebel Wrestlers Had Great Season!

The varsity Wrestling team this season started out with two new coaches. Although they had to adjust to coach Tony Brawner and Shawn Keitzman's ways of getting things done it didn't seem to hurt their performance this season. The team ended up having a pretty good season, even though their team record wasn't as good as they expected. The team members did well individually. When asked what he thought about wrestling senior Jason Kikta jokingly said, "Jason like wrestling. Wrestling good. Doctor say Jason's brain messed up from body slam on head. He say wrestling bad. Jason get mad. Jason put doc in new move. Jason like wrestling. Wrestling good." Obviously he liked wrestling, but I don't think he's going to remember his senior year. It sounds like he got dropped on his head one too many times.

Senior Russ Hensley has his opponent pinned and is waiting for the count.

Team members include: Front, Tommy Schneider, Russ Hensley, Chad Barnes, Chad Adams, Back, Jayr McClain, Brad Barnes, Nicholas Graham, Jason Kikta, David Schneider.

Freshman David Schneider gives his opponent a chance to pin him before he "BREAKS BAD" on him.

Junior Tommy Schneider seems to have the advantage in this match with Seymour.

Boys Swimmers

Advance To Sectional Finals!

The 1995-1996 boys swim team had a great season, even though they didn't win that many meets the guys did very well individually in the events that they swam. They broke almost all of the records that were previously held. During the boys swimming sectionals three members of the team made it back to sectional finals as individuals, and the whole team made it back in the relays. Coach Shelly Anderson said, "With only seven members, Smile Chris, Chris Sloan was the only Senior on the boys swim team this season. He sure doesn't seem to be too happy about being at his last home meet.

the boys earned many compliments from both coaches and parents from opposing teams. They were recognized for their talent as well as their sportsmanship. They are a fine group of young men who are a pleasure to coach."

Sophomore Adam Barr watches as he waits for his next event to be announced.

Junior Jay Crawford looks to see his time after one of his events. Crawford led the team in points this season.

S Why are the Juniors complaining?

Is Your Junior year harder than any other year? This is a question we asked several Juniors.

Molly Eggenpiller said her Junior year was harder because the classes were harder. Juniors Kristen Howell, and Kristie Turner agreed.

On the other hand, Junior Dawn Lindsey disagreed. She claims that the classes she is taking are much easier than the ones she took the year before.

Jeremy Leach said, "My classes are hard so that my senior year will be easier. That is what I have dreamed about, an easy senior year."

Brian Grigsby adds, "My U.S. History class is my hardest. It is so hard because of the memorization."

Jeremie Yocum said, "the classes are much harder. We get a lot more homework that is very hard."

H Juniors Rock in SpiritWeek!

Junior Josh Purvis said "The Rock-n-Rebels theme was the best we have had, unfortunately hardly anyone participated."

Rachel Pfeiffer is quoted as saying, "this year's Spirit Week was better than it has been in the past. Our class had great decorations".

Junior Jason Campbell, has this to say "The decorations were pretty cool and colorful." He also said he liked the theme.

Junior class president Kirstie Beach was not happy with the way it was handled. She did feel however, that the theme was the best they had.

"It lacked spirit and did not motivate me in any way," commented Junior Dustin VanTassel.

David Hallgarth said, "The competition got just a little out of hand. The aim was not quite reached."

Beth Jenson briefly mentions "Spirit Week lacked spirit and needed more participation."

S Thoughts For the Future!

When asked what he was looking forward to his senior year, Junior Wes Waterson said, "I just can't wait to get out of this school".

Jessica Wilson commented, "What I am looking forward to is being able to leave this town."

Johnny Morrison said, "I am looking forward to graduating and getting my diploma."

Jay Crawford caught off guard by the camera.

Brian Johnson can't wait to earn his credits and graduate so that he can leave this school and party more.

Jason Smith, "I just want to be able to leave this town and go out on my own. Another thing, I can't wait to get my diploma."

Kirstie Beach, "I can't wait to graduate from this high school and move on to college and to new friends."

Kelly Wehner, "I can't wait to leave this boring town and go on to college and a new life."

Farewell

Wife, mother, teacher. Marcia Morrill was proud of her husband and her three sons, and she was proud of her students. She dedicated twenty-four years to teaching English and to preparing hundreds of students for college and for life. Several times throughout her busy career, Mrs. Morrill was recognized as Teacher of the Year.

She was also active in her community, serving on the board of the Madison-Jefferson County Public Library and participating as an active member of Hanover Presbyterian Church.

Her sudden death on January 29, 1996 left a void felt by both the student body and the staff. She will be sadly missed and fondly remembered by all who knew her.

The 1996 Senior class of Southwestern is one class that has left their mark everywhere they have gone. Through the record breaking seasons of the enormous amount of money raised for prom, from the warnings of the Jr. High teachers to everyone that will miss the great personality of the class. They all say thumbs up to a great Senior year.

Amber Kleopfer, Heather Eaglin, and Kristen Howell will never again look at the 1995 Rebian together.

Never before has a Senior class worked so hard to achieve their goals and never again will they be so united as they have been this year!

Thumbs up and smiles on always!
