"Look both ways before crossing the street." "No dessert until you eat your vegetables." "If your friend jumped off a bridge would you?" "Clean your room." "Money doesn't grow on trees!" "Finish your homework first." "Be home by midnight." Blah, blah, blah. They started when we were kids, and we still hear them. Rules, priorities, restrictions were thrown at us from every direction. Even our friends added to the overload. "Are we doing something or not?" "Go with me, not with her." Sometimes the messages were crossed and we could not chose between them. "Just do it," or "Just say no." They thought we just tuned them out, but in reality we were there listening with interest. In the end we sorted out all the blah, blah, blah. Our homework was finished seconds before it was due. We came in at 11:59 on the dot. We managed to spend the money that doesn't grow on trees. And we always looked both ways before crossing the street.

Leadership

Senior Heather Moore leads the band at a ballgame.

Yes we do

Amanda Jackson, Bristy Rusk, Amber Fresh, Emily Beitzel, Tonya Smith, and Amber Legrand cheer their fellow classmates on during the Pep Session.

The t-shirt says it all

Senior Scott Bomholt sports a sporty t-shirt that pretty much sums up his life and his families.

Oh Yeah?!

Seniors Bryan Brown and Chris Huntley seem to have a lot to say.

We've got food yes we do

The Senior Class shakes their cans at the Pep Session. Student Council sponsored the annual food drive to collect food for food baskets to be given away before Thanksgiving. Seniors chanting at the Pep Session are Amber Legrand, Carmen Akers, Emmy Coles, Patricia Dean, Amy Gassert and Carrie Barker.

Not so bad

Senior Heather Moore enjoys the tasty food in the cafeteria. Being able to wear a cap at school makes everything a little better.

May I have this dance?

Amy Gassert either lost her shoe or her garter.

Here I come

The guys line up at Prom to begin the garter ceremony. Aaron Childress, Scott Bombholt, Bruce Grimmet, and Jonathon Jones are front and center for the event.

And the winner is

Seniors on the Prom Court are Scott Bombholt, Tamara Dearing, Trevor Crafton, Andy Firth, Jennifer Blasdel, Bruce Grimmet, and Amber Fresh.

Let's make a little noise

Tiffany Degler has her war paint on and is ready to rumble. Tiffany prepares to join the Pep Band in the gym for the Pep Session.

Cheese please

The Senior Class enjoys a break at the Point at Hanover College. They try the traditional line up before they let loose and relax.

Student life

we're told we don't try hard enough, we're slackers. but
at school most of us exist half asleep
and dazed,
if we even go at all.

it's the after school activities

and our friends
that make us come alive
and enjoy being at school.

blah, blah,
blah,

Junior Joe Stilwell shows off his muscular abdomen while standing on his head.

Senior friends since elementary Aaron Childress, Emily Beitzel, and Amber LeGrand are gossiping like usual.

The Freshman class shows their school spirit at the sectional pep rally.

Seniors Katie Ebley and Valerie Post have been seen side by side for as long as we can remember. Their latest motto is Fords rule, Chevys drool.

Prom 1998

"My Heart Will Go On"

Clockwise from above: Larissa Miller and Eric Barnes. Junior Blake Deuser and his date Jenna Daugherty arrive at the prom. The 1998 prom King and Queen, Scott Bomholt and Tamara Dearing. Everyone got up for YMCA.

Clockwise from the top: Princess Tessa Wynn and Prince G.J. Gassert share the first dance. Senior Kati Goins and her date pause for a picture. Dancing the night away is Bruce Grimmert and Heather Moore.

Homecoming

The elected Homecoming Court of 1998 filled the night with magic as the candidates took their places on the stage.

Juniors Penny Pilcher and Chad Robinson were representatives of the Junior class.

The 1998 Homecoming royalty included prince and princess Corey Peck and Marie Cline, and king and queen Jon Simpson and Carrie Barker.

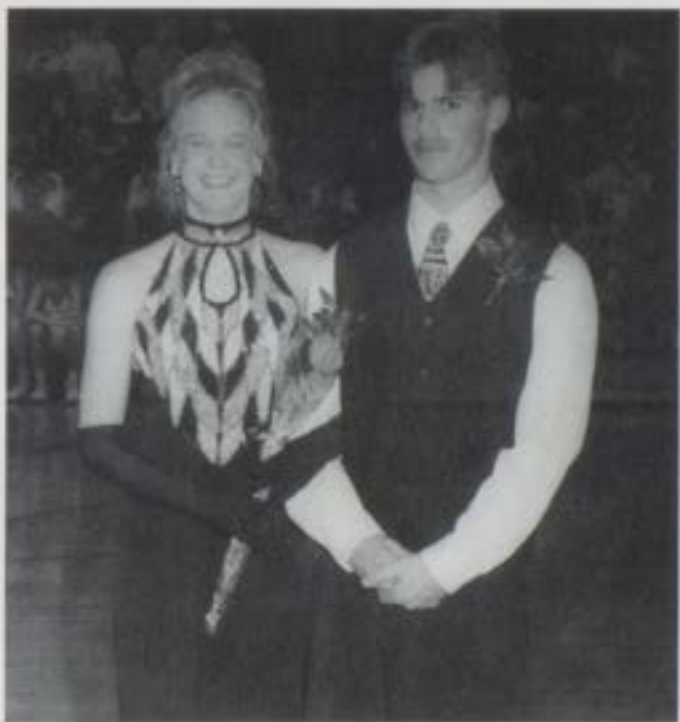

Junior Andy Miller leads Jessica Hay to their place on the court.

The 1997 Homecoming Queen Susanna Childress crowns her successor Carrie Barker.

Seniors Bruce Grimmert, Angie Wycoff, and Justin Wentworth relax on the sidelines.

Junior Corey Peck escorts Mary Phillips onto the court.

The freshmen representatives were Amy Bombolt and Jeremy Barr.

SPIRIT

WEEK

Our true colors shine through during spirit week

The Senior class demonstrates how rowdy they can be during spirit week.

Junior Elise Roberts and senior Tamara Dearing let the wild side come out on mis match day.

Assistant Principal Mr. Doug McClure leads the school in a motivational speech during the pep rally.

Eighth grader Van Crafton shows senior Valerie Post that even the Jr. High has spirit.

New school uniforms? This group of seniors model their attire for mis-match day.

Sophomores Tyler Stilwell and Matt Traylor must have snuck into their father's closets for retro day.

Junior Tessa Wynn pumps up her classmates.

Seniors Katianne Goins, Jennifer Blasdal, Cara Garvey, Amy Gassert, and Amanda Wilson dress up for retro day.

Honors Day held some emotional moments for seniors. Amanda Jackson and Carol Risk read the memorial speak about former classmate Brian Stites. Below at the Senior Breakfast Trevor Crafton receives his Senior Superlative Certificate. Next up is Aaron Childress and to his right Amber Legrand and Elisha Mills walk to the podium for their certificate.

Mandi Tingle and Scott Hackney make that long walk across the gym floor on Honors Day.

Carrie Royalty accepts her award with a smile. Emily Beitzel takes a break from the Senior Breakfast to flash her smile with friends Tonya Smith and Amanda Spencer not far away. Jonathon Jones receives his award from Mrs. Jennifer Orrill and Mr. Kettig Coghill, senior teachers. Joe Stephens and Andy Firth wait patiently for the festivities to begin at the Senior Breakfast. Bristy Rusk, always friendly to everyone, graciously accepts her award.

Salutatorian Aaron Childress speaks to the audience.

Michael Crumley and Trevor Crafton beam at the conclusion of graduation.

Nothing was going to prevent Mendy Thompson from attending her graduation ceremony or even walking across the stage.

Heather Moore receives her academic honors medal from school board member and aunt Mrs. Susan Brown.

The exploding silly string reflects the enthusiasm that can no longer be contained.

Class President Carol Risk-Herald and Student Council President Cara Garvey deliver the welcoming address.

Martin Justice and Christine Sexton performed with the band at graduation. Tamara Dearing sings a song she wrote that she dedicated to her mother. Two years prior her mother was diagnosed with cancer one of her wishes was to see Tamara receive her diploma.

Valedictorian Michael Evans poignant speech about conformity illustrated that even the nonconformist are often conformists.

Mickey Goins glances towards Bruce Grimmet as they are recognized.

Friendship

In the halls of Southwestern

This wild group of friends pile on the bench at lunch. It includes: Adam Barr, Demetrius Boyd, Travis Chatham, Jennifer Cole, Dustin Burress, Lindsey Shelton, Ryan Leach, Emmy Coles, Casey Wilson, Jeremy Miller, Jeremy Beavin, Amber Sedam, Jennifer Gassert and Ashley Starrett.

Friends until the end are sophomore Lara Booher and Senior Cara Garvey.

(Top) Elizabeth Youngblood, Will Boyd, Jesse Daulton, Mike Rector, Robert Martinez, Mary Phillips and Shawn Wiley share many fond lunch room memories.

All fired up are friends Katrina Adams, Brian Phillips, Amy Gassert, Micheal Evans, Elise Roberts, Chris Huntley and Josh Burress.

(Middle) Senior Valerie Post lends a cheerful hug to junior Tina Moore. (Bottom) Seniors Cindy Durham and Carmen Acres show everyone that junior Tim Boldery is the Boss.

Freshman Amanda Jines, Jennifer Kikta and Christy Peters let all of us know that they are true friends.

Juniors Corey Peck, Jimmy Winn, Clint Wynn and Jason Monday show us who is above the rest as they clown around in the hallways.

Junior Derrick Yocum says, "At 200 mph you have no friends."

It's up there. I see it, but I don't know what it is. Junior Andy Miller stares into the sky with amusement.

Senior Angie Wycoff walks into Mr. Brennan Fairchild's class half asleep. She is still in her pajamas.

Senior Justin Wentworth must be studying something else besides calculus, whatever it is, junior Joe Stilwell and senior Emily Lamb is studying the same thing.

Eighth grader April Clark is in the fun and exciting class of study hall. We asked freshman Mark Smith if he was having fun and his reply was, "Huh?"

"Here we come, but we have no idea where we are going," says Seniors Emmy Coles and James Jones and Junior Elise Roberts

Below in French class junior Joe Stilwell ponders about the meaning of life.

The rule, no sleeping in class, applies to everyone except junior Josh Kikta. Shh! We don't want to wake him.

Senior Katianne Goins is stuck in the 70's doing disco, some one needs to tell her it's the 90's.

Clockwise from the top: It was the best of times, it was the worst of times...Brandyn Kiser and Jeremy Miller seem to demonstrate these two extremes as they enter U.S. History. Ty Eblen, Joe Stilwell and Sohil Lad flex their muscles during one of the pep rallies for the Rebels. Kirstie Kleopfer doesn't seem to mind proofing newspaper stories even if it isn't her job. Derrick Yocum and Chad Robison goof around during lunch. Elise Robert is hard at work on the humor page. The junior class unites at the pep rally.

we're told that we can't make it,
the numbers aren't there,
maybe next year,
we aren't dedicated enough...

but we're the ones who drive hours to practice,
run in the pouring rain,
shoot free-throws
before school,
and spend our high school careers

striving to be the best.

blah, blah,

Blake Deuser and Jarrold Bruther show off their running skills.

The 1997-98 Girls Varsity Cross Country team includes: (front) Kristen Andrew, Lorraine Wildman, Joanna Hoskins. (back) Ami Furey, Deede Good, and Coach Marvin Reece.

Deed Good and Ami Furey start their kick for the finish.

Deede Good picks up the pace to catch an opposing runner.

Ami Furey, Joanna Hoskins, and Lorraine Wildman relax before their meet.

This year's cross country teams worked extremely hard but had only one runner advance to regionals, Justin Wentworth.

"I really enjoyed this season. Everyone worked extremely hard. I am sure that next year will be another season of running!" Sophomore Lorraine Wildman.

Varsity Volleyball

Sophomore Jenna Daughtery really reaches on a beautiful spike opportunity.

The 1997 Varsity Volleyball team included (Front) Amanda Jackson, Emmy Coles, and Bristy Rusk (Back) Coach Kim Howell, Penny Pilcher, Jill Hoffman, Sarah Abbot, Jenna Daughtery, Elise Roberts, Lara Booher, Coach Tonia Cline.

Varsity Cheerleading

Before state finals, Elisha Mills, Mandi Tingle and Marcie Bare led the fans in "S-H-S" at a pep rally for the entire school.

The varsity and junior varsity begin the famous "R-E-B-E-L-S" cheer during the school song.

VARSITY BOYS' BASKETBALL

Counter clockwise. During the Turkey Shoot-out game against rival Madison Trevor Crafton prepares to pass the ball past Brian Bullington. Coach Bombholt gathers the team in a huddle for some plays during a time out. Senior Trevor Crafton, future Citadel player, concentrates with the backing of the Rebel fans behind him.

The varsity team lines up to celebrate.

Team members are Blake Deuser, Scott Bomholt, Matt Traylor, Andy Miller, Dale Bird, GJ Gassert, Ryan Shepherd, Trevor Crafton, Justin Wentworth, Andy Firth, and Joe Stephens.

Break.....

Number 4 Blake Deuser is the first out on the floor during the starting line-up. Junior Andy Miller goes to the charity stripe in a game against Scottsburg. The team gets pumped before they resume play.

Records were made to be broken Andy Firth escorted his parents Linda and Don Firth on Senior night. Andy scored more than 1,000 points during his high school career.

Emotions run high Senior night is difficult after a lifetime together playing ball. Some of the seniors honored were Scott Bomholt with his parents, DeeDee and Coach Jerry Bomholt; Trevor Crafton and his father Dale.

Varsity Girls Basketball

Lady Rebels Soar

She shoots! She scores! This year's varsity girls basketball team overcame short numbers this year to obtain a mediocre 6-14 season. The Rebels got off to a rough start, losing three games in a row.

"We are a young team," says coach Donna Cheatham. "We aren't losing anyone, and I believe we will be the team to watch out for in the coming years."

In the sectionals, held this year at Pekin Eastern, the Rebels lost in the second round to a strong Clarksville team.

Says Jenna Daugherty of the team, "we'll be back next year, wait and see."

Hoo-aaaa-hoo-hoo-hoo! The Lady Rebels' patented chant caught on fast with the entire school. Here, they show everyone the proper way to do it.

Rising To The Occasion

(above) The eyes have it! Tessa Wynn, junior point guard for the Rebels, uses her keen sense of sight to sink one of her many free throws. Wynn topped the season off for the Rebels with a trip to Market Square Arena where she participated in the three point contest.

Sarah Abbott, junior forward for the Lady Rebels, drives around her opponent for a quick two points.

Coach Donna Cheatham led this year's Lady Rebels to a fair 6-12 record. Says Cheatham of the year, "We didn't do bad. We are young, and many people didn't expect us to win even one game." Sophomore Jenna Daughtery, starting center for the Lady Rebels, demonstrates perfect concentration during a shot from the charity stripe.

The Varsity Lady Rebels, consisting through the first half of the year of the five girls shown, overcame many obstacles throughout the season, ranging from short numbers to long bus rides. "Teamwork", says Junior Tessa Wynn, "was the key to our success this year."

Rebel Swimming

Hope For Next Year...

The Southwestern Boys & Girl's Swim Team had a successful season overall. Although the team experienced some defeats, they were encouraged by them to work together as a team and put forth their best efforts. The underclassmen looked to this year's seniors as examples of dedication and hope to have the same impact on future underclassmen.

Junior Kirstie Kleopfer and senior Amber Walker and show their love for swimming with a smile.

Sophomore Dustin Singer demonstrates his flexibility before the big meet.

Members of the girl's swim team get set to swim during a home meet at Southwestern.

Senior Bryan Brown, smiles for the camera while relaxing in his fun float after a hard day's work. Bryan has devoted all four of his high school years to swimming, and setting a good example for future swimmers.

Swim Coach Shelly Anderson, worn out from a recent meet, expresses her complete exhaustion.

The J.V. starting five partakes in a pre-game warm-up before the big game.

Junior Varsity Girls Basketball

Short Numbers, Big Wins

This year's girls Junior Varsity Lady Rebels went through many ups and downs throughout their makeshift season. The girls fought through many games, sometimes going into multi-overtime situations. Their season ended early as many j.v.-ers were moved up to fill a short numbered Varsity squad before sectionals.

(right) A conference opponent plays catch-up to freshmen Amber Goebel as she drives to the hoop. Goebel says, "this year was a big learning experience for everyone. It was a lot of hard work, but we made it, and had some fun at the same time."

The 1997-98 Rebel Regiment enjoyed a successful season this year with a new director, Mrs. Ruth Carmody.

Marching Band

"Yeah, I am ready," said Bryan Brown. Marching Band starts in the summer, sometimes early in the day and sometimes until dark. But it seems to pay off in the end.

"Get your nose to the ground and do it right!" Heather Moore well-deserved Calisthenics at the expense of Mrs. Ruth Carmody.

"It's Raining Men!"

yell the girls of Esprit in their lime green rain coats at the end of the number.

"I am trying to be a robot!"

says sophomore Elizabeth Youngblood, in Esprit's Mr. Roboto number featuring Aaron Childress with a solo at the beginning. Following Elizabeth's lead are Stephanie Sanders, Jessica Jones, Elise Roberts and Marcie Bare.

"It is out of this world"

The closing song of Esprit's show is a futuristic number that definitely catches the eyes of their audience.

"Finally!"

says seniors Angie Wykoff, Bristy Rusk and Aaron Childress miling big during their last Esprit choreography camp while learning the show for the year.

Throughout the year, we endured power struggles with our teachers, parents, and friends. No longer will our tasks be considered menial and irresponsible. One phase of our lives is ending as we approach the next. Though we may not realize it, whom we are and whom we will become has been molded by all the details that we considered as blah, blah, blah.

Top to Bottom: With painted faces, sophomore Keri Adams and freshman Beth Burress work hard in the concession stand to support the Rebels. Imitating the infamous Crow, junior Scott Brown and senior Chris Huntley support the Rebels by bringing spirit into the halls of Southwestern. Senior Eric Barnes takes a power nap to energize himself on game day. Senior Jonathon Jones gives a junior Larissa Miller a good-bye hug. The end of the year is a sad time as we end our high school careers and begin adulthood. Life will no longer be handed to us on a platter. We will have to earn what we get.
