ABOVE AND BEYOND

As we come to the close of the millennium, it is time to reflect on the ways we have achieved above and beyond our original hopes and dreams. We have struggled and we have triumphed. The year has been one that we will never forget, filled with laughter, tears, and anticipation. As memorable as this year was, it is now time to move above and beyond, into the next millennium. We hope that this yearbook reflects the incredible year that we have all experienced together.

LEAVING ON A...

For the Class of 1999 it is time to explore the world above and beyond Southwestern's halls-halls that have been filled with fun, friendship, and even a little learning through twelve long, colorful years. Next year the Class of 1999 will be scattered out into the world, their hearts filled with the memories of a lifetime- a lifetime that has only begun. The Class of 1999 will continue its journey above and beyond.

"All my bags are packed; I'm ready to go. I'm standing here outside your door.

I hate to wake you up to say goodbye.

But the dawn is breakin'; it's early morn.

*The taxi's waitin'; he's blowing his horn
Already I'm ready I'm so lonesome I could cry.*

So kiss me and smile for me;

Tell me that you'll wait for me;

Hold me like you'll never let me go.

'Cause I'm leaving on a jet plane,

Don't know when I'll be back again.

Oh, babe, I hate to go."

MORE THAN THEY THOUGHT

Some of the students at Southwestern seem to go Above and Beyond the required expectations of their teachers and peers to make each day productive and perhaps even enjoyable for all. Senior Blake Deuser unwinds in newspaper class, entertaining the staff with his alien disguise and bulging muscles.

It takes all kinds

Honors day for all

The proud and the few

Clockwise on this page: Elise Roberts fiddles with her Honor Cords during the program. Number two Josh Kikta and number one Kirstie Kleopfer receive one of their many recognitions. During the underclassmen Honors Day Mr. Doug McClure assists in giving out the awards for Quill and Scroll, a Journalism Honorary Society. Some of the recipients are Katie Abplanalp, Christina Abbott, Lara Booher, Jennifer Cole, Jessica Beavers, and Jenna Daugherty. WalMart presents a Teacher of the Year award to Mr. Greg Schneider, following the award Schneider gave to Jimmy Winn. Lisa Dunn, along with Lindsay Shelton, Dustin Shelton, Mrs. Brooks, Ryan Shepherd, Mary Phillips and Cory Madison, displays a plaque made in memory of Alesha Shelton. Pondering the deeper questions in life, teachers might be caught wondering: who will these students be when the game is over...what did E=...did that kid sign out...did I reserve that date...did they bring all the drums...where did I put that chalk...now what was I doing...my keys, where did I put them...what am I doing here...now why is that kid throwing an egg at me?
