Last Taste of Madness

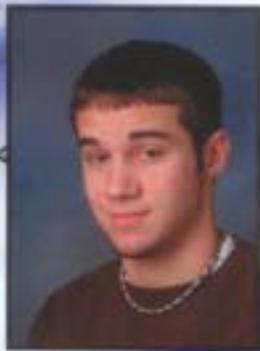

No more worries about if you wore the same shirt as someone else. No more piles of homework EVERY night. No more long nights praying for some natural disaster to cancel school.

With all these worries behind the class of '03, all that is left is their own personal path into the future. Each senior can realistically say that they have had their "Last taste of Madness."

The Organizational Skills of the Seniors

The many hours studying and dreading the cafeteria food are coming to a close for the seniors. Amazingly with the realization that their senior year is almost over, the senior class of 2003 came together, as one. No matter what challenge the class was forced to face they overcame it as a whole. Hidden within the walls of this class are record breaking athletes, wise scholars, talented singers, gifted actors and actresses, along with many other gifted young people that words cannot begin to explain. Challenges, surprises, trial by error, and confusion seem to be the definition of this class but nothing they accomplished went unnoticed or unawarded.

"Question everything!"
-Philip Manning

"Do your best to achieve your goals, in the end you will have great success."
-Carissa Wildman

"Take SAT's early, your harder classes first and push your teachers to their limits."
-Ashley Booher

"Be cool, treat people with the respect that you want to be treated with and you will make it just fine."
-Matt Bird

As experienced students of Southwestern High School, what advice do you have to offer upcoming seniors and underclassmen?

Wisdom Amongst the Chaos

Throughout your high school career, who was your favorite teacher and why?

"Mr. Meane because he is very cool and is able to joke with the students."

-Dustin Goards

"My favorite teacher was Mrs. Albertson. She was always smiling and laughing. It just makes you want to smile."

-Angela Huff

"My favorite teacher was Mrs. Callis because she thoroughly explained everything and she didn't give up on students. I could tell she really cared about ALL of her students. She also helped me develop a love for English."

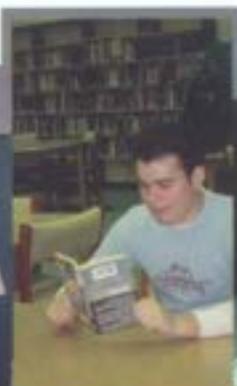

-Kathryn Singer

"Ms. Jackson! She made of all my history classes interesting to me. Her classroom is so orderly and the way she teaches is beneficial to all types of learners. I also admired all the knowledge she has in everything she teaches!"

-Holly Varble

The end of the chaos.....

On June 1, 2003 the Senior class ended its long journey here at Southwestern.

As graduation approached, seniors were nervous and busy preparing for the event. Between open houses, ceremonies, preparing speeches, and making the big decision of what to wear, everyone was bustling around getting ready for the first Sunday in June.

This years class and their sponsor, Mrs. Karen Sanders, pulled together to create a beautiful ceremony. Each class member was presented with a diploma and their class flower, a lily, as they crossed the stage. The class was coronaded by the beautiful music of Espirit as well as the band directed by Mrs. Ruth Nicklos. The class history was read by Kiristen Daugherty and Sarah Kikta while salutatorian, Kathryn Singer, and valedictorian, David Phillippe, shared their words of encouragement with the class. After receiving their diplomas, the anticipated moment of turning the tassels was lead by class president, Autumn Walker. Finally, after closing remarks by Michael Eden, the celebration started and the class dismissed shooting silly string and throwing their caps high into the air.

Congratulations class of 2003 and best wishes in all you do in the future!!!!

Where do you see yourself in 10 years?

Christine Strickland

"I see myself having a good job as an electrical engineer, a house of my own and starting a family."

Seth Gray

"I hope to be working with troubled teens in the juvenile courts."

Mike Furey

"I hope to be married and have a job in pharmacy."

Cody Kelly

"I see myself with a nice house, married, working in a restaurant as owner smanager."

Josh Chandler

"I will be graduated from college and hopefully running my own computer business."

Travis Lichlyter

"I hope to be married and to have a job at Dow Corning."

Annie Austin

"Since I won't be getting out of college for 6 years. I will probably be just getting started at a new job in veterinary medicine."

Shawn Vaughan

"In 10 years I see myself working my rear off supporting my 10 year old, and rarely having time to do anything for fun or entertainment."

Alissa Dean

"I will be in Clarksville with Jeremy Beavin. I see us married and having two kids. I will be working in a hospital as a nurse."

John Ashby

"I will hopefully be married to the girl I will be engaged to. I will have my career and my life in line."

Boys Tennis

The boys tennis team had a rocky beginning but by the end of the season it was smooth sailing. This year the team was composed of two seniors, one junior, three sophomores and two freshmen. The team was coached by David Whalley who quickly had all the boys hitting as if they were professional players. The boys put in hours of practice which helped them to accomplish a great deal in a short amount of time. The boys fought their way through several difficult matches and no match was lost without a fight. They are hard workers and next year they will do even better," said Coach Whalley.

This year the boys wrestling team accomplished many things. This year was especially important for Senior Seth Gray. Seth had a spectacular regular season and then went on to advance to semi state. The boys worked very hard this year and nothing they did went unnoticed. They had to endure hard practices and even harder meets, but they never lost their confidence. Congratulations!

The girls get fired up before the game!

Senior Catherine Gramham shoots another three for the win!

Once again it was a winning season for the Lady Rebels. The girls practiced and played with even more dedication this year. After last year's state championship the girls were determined to do make it back to state again. Although the team suffered many let downs and a few hard loses this year they were still able to make the best of it and bounce back. The girls worked hard both on the court and off the court. Nothing they did went unchallenged or unnoticed. The girls had a winning season and plan to do it all over again next season.

The Ladies Make a Statement

Girls' Fashion

Above: Stephanie Olivio shows that she has "fashion sense"

The 2002-2003 school year brought many new trends in clothes. This year ladies were able to combine extreme punk fashions with super girlie ones. The peasant tops and shear materials seemed to rule the hallways at SHS, however, the relaxed sweat pants and tee made a come back. The fashion for this year was very versital, which made it easy for things "in fashion" to be worn to school without conflicting with the student dress code.

The colors and materials that girls clothes are made out of have been softer and more feminine making the clothes seem a bit more playful. Some days are dress days and other days are casual days, but either way the trend at SHS is to dress in what you are comfortable wearing.

STRANGE BUT TRUE

Thai Motorists Get Massages

Thailand's Health Ministry announced plans to provide free massage services at more than 20 gas stations on major inter-city highways and around the capital city of Bangkok. The initiative was meant to relieve motorists' stress and decrease the number of highway deaths.

Death Not An Option

Mayor Gil Bernardi, of the French Mediterranean town, Le Lavandou, banned local residents from dying after a court order rebuffed his plans to develop a new seaside cemetery. Bernardi found the edict to be "remarkably well followed," as he awaited a decision on his appeal.

Trans-Atlantic Jet Setter

Spanish Count Alvaro de Marichalar set a world record by completing a 5,200-mile, four-month journey across the Atlantic on a jet ski. Marichalar trained for a year before setting out from Rome for Miami on a nine-foot watercraft with a support ship and crew of six bringing up the rear.

Nation Loses Time

It is a common complaint that there is not enough time in a day; however, for the people of Venezuela time is actually slipping away. Clocks in that country are ticking too slowly because a nationwide power shortage is weakening the electric current. Each day, electric clocks lose 130 seconds.

Former President Jimmy Carter was awarded the 2002 Nobel Peace Prize for his efforts to further human rights and democracy, find peaceful solutions to world conflicts and encourage economic and social growth. After serving as president from 1977 to 1981, Carter founded the Carter Center, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to improving the human condition.

The Miss World competition was moved from Nigeria's capital, Abuja, to London after violent protests broke out in Nigeria. The protests began after a Nigerian newspaper printed an article that questioned why Mohammed would not have approved of the Miss World competition and said he probably would have married one of the contestants.

Nearly 200 people died after a bomb was detonated in a popular tourist area in Bali. Terrorist network al Qaeda claimed responsibility on its website for the bombing. The act of terrorism severely hurt the Indonesian island's economy as tourists traveled to alternate destinations.

Two Guatemalan twins who had been joined together at the tops of their heads returned home five months after doctors separated them in a 22-hour operation. Healing the Children, a nonprofit organization, arranged for the girls and their parents to come to Los Angeles for the surgery, and the doctors donated their services.

Jury trials returned to most Russian courtrooms for the first time in 83 years as a result of legislation passed through parliament by supporters of President Vladimir Putin. The law amends the criminal code with 3,500 changes that emulate the Western model of a fair trial.

Nearly 1,000 people died when a Senegalese ferry traveling off the coast of Gambia capsized and sank. Investigators said overloading was the key cause of the disaster, which occurred when passengers moved to one side of the ship to take cover during a storm.

In a historic speech before the Italian parliament, Pope John Paul II strongly urged Italians to have more children to turn the tide against the nation's declining rate of birth. He also called on government officials to show prisoners leniency, when appropriate, by reducing their sentences.

Violence raged in the Ivory Coast after rebels failed in their coup attempt and took control of the northern part of the country. After the northern rebels signed a truce with the government, new rebels attempted to take control of the west. Hundreds of people died during the year, and more than 600,000 fled their homes.

Tensions were high after North Korea began to use one of the nuclear reactors it had agreed to shut down in 1994. North Korea claimed it had to restart its nuclear program to provide power because the United States had stopped sending the country shipments of fuel oil. The U.S. said it only stopped shipping oil after North Korea started to work on its nuclear weapons program. ◀

A raid on a theater in Moscow proved deadly for more than 100 people after the Russian government pumped gas into the building to end the three-day hostage situation. The gas was intended to subdue the Chechen hostage-takers, who were holding 800 people; however, some of the hostages died because they were weakened by hunger and exhaustion. ◀

SPECIAL ON IRAQ

THE WAR ON TERRORISM

John Allen Muhammed and John Lee Malvo were accused of carrying out a string of sniper shootings that killed 10 people and wounded three others during a three-week period in the Washington, D.C., area. Victims, who were selected at random during the killing spree, ranged in age from 13 to 72. ▶

Nine Pennsylvania miners emerged one-by-one from a small, dark, flooded chamber 240 feet below the surface after being trapped for more than three days. The ordeal began when water from an adjacent abandoned mine burst through a breached wall and filled the shaft in which they were working. Rescuers worked around the clock to free the men, who surfaced relatively unscathed. ▲

Memorial services were held around the country on the anniversary of Sept. 11, which President George W. Bush proclaimed Patriot Day. One year after the attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, the sluggish American economy still felt the effects. News about Afghanistan diminished, but al Qaeda and Osama bin Laden were still in the news. Debate continued about what should be built at the Ground Zero site, and colleges were asked to turn over personal information about their foreign students and teachers to the FBI.

The country continued to pursue Osama bin Laden and other threats to national security in its War on Terror. Sometimes the war was subtle, and sometimes it was very noticeable. The Immigration and Naturalization Service began to fingerprint and photograph men who entered the United States from 18 Middle Eastern countries. Bush signed a Homeland Security bill into law that created a new federal department devoted to preventing future attacks and allowed commercial airline pilots to carry guns.

The director of the FBI announced that his organization had thwarted almost 100 terrorist attacks since Sept. 11, 2001. He said some of the attacks were intended for U.S. targets.

The Roman Catholic Church was immersed in a scandal involving forbidden sex and molestation, as well as widespread cover-ups at the hands of some of its most prominent officials. At the center of it all was the Boston Archdiocese, where Cardinal Bernard Law resigned under pressure from allegations that he withheld knowledge of priests sexually abusing children. ▶

The West Nile virus captured the nation's attention during the summer as it spread from coast to coast. The mosquito-transmitted virus, which leads to fever, head and body aches, and sometimes encephalitis or meningitis, killed approximately 250 citizens in 2002. ▶

SNIPER CAUGHT

Seven astronauts perished when the Space Shuttle Columbia broke apart over central Texas as it reentered the atmosphere. The tragedy occurred less than 20 minutes before the planned landing at the Kennedy Space Center. An investigation into the cause of the accident initially centered on possible damage to the craft's protective tiles from flying debris during takeoff. ▼

Not What We Had In Mind

Jersey City, N.J., officials held an anniversary tribute to Sept. 11 victims, where they planned to release a flock of doves at a downtown ceremony. Since all dove suppliers were sold out, they decided to use pigeons instead. The solemn ceremony was interrupted when the birds, having been caged most of their lives, flew around erratically and careened into the crowd.

The Osbourne family, with a smash reality TV hit after its first season on MTV, seemed to be everywhere in 2002 with merchandising and book deals totaling in excess of $20 million. Along the way, The Osbournes won an Emmy, the family hosted the 30th Annual American Music Awards, Ozzy was honored with a Hollywood Walk of Fame star, and Kelly recorded her first album. ▲

◀ A few surprises took place at the 54th Annual Emmy Awards as some old favorites and a newcomer won trophies for television excellence. Friends finally took home the prize for Best Comedy after eight years and four nominations, while star Jennifer Aniston won her first Emmy as Lead Actress in a Comedy. Michael Chiklis grabbed the Lead Actor in a Drama award for his role on FX's The Shield. Another big winner was NBC's The West Wing with four Emmys, including Best Drama. HBO and NBC received the most honors with each earning 24 awards. In addition, Oprah Winfrey was honored with the first Bob Hope Humanitarian Award which was established to recognize Hope's pioneering and humanitarian efforts. ▼

Spies and espionage were all the rage on TV with shows like FOX's 24 starring Kiefer Sutherland and ABC's Alias with Jennifer Garner. Both in their sophomore seasons, the shows captured a wide audience and consistently finished strong in the weekly Nielsen ratings.

Die Another Day became the biggest-opening James Bond movie ever, earning an estimated $47 million its first weekend to break the record previously held by The World Is Not Enough. The film starred Pierce Brosnan as James Bond and Oscar-winner Halle Berry as a female agent. ◀

After a 16-month hiatus, HBO's smash mob hit, The Sopranos, returned for its fourth season. The delay was attributed mainly to creator David Chase's meticulous crafting of every show, from script to music to final edit. Meanwhile, Chase hinted that the fifth season might be the show's last.

First-time novelist Alice Sebold conquered the New York Times best-seller list with The Lovely Bones, which hit number one and stayed on the list for more than 30 weeks. A tale of rape and murder, readers found the story to be less about tragedy and more about the resiliency of the human spirit.

Each member of NSYNC tried a project on his own. Justin Timberlake released a solo album, Joey Fatone performed in a Broadway musical, Chris Kirkpatrick designed clothes, Lance Bass trained for a Russian space mission, and JC Chasez began recording his own album. ◀▶

It Kind Of Sounds The Same

The British musical group The Planets introduced a 60-second piece of silence on its latest album, creating controversy with representatives of the late composer John Cage, who was credited with writing 433 (273 seconds of silence). Lawyers threatened to sue for violation of copyright, but failed when they could not specify which 60 of the 273 seconds had been copied.

Elvis' Hair Has Left The Building

An anonymous bidder paid more than $115,000 for a large, vacuum-packed lock of Elvis Presley's hair in an online auction hosted by Illinois-based MastroNet Incorporated. The King of Rock's former barber, Homer Gilleland, had collected the hair. He gave it to friend Tom Morgan, who then put it on the auction block.

Christmas Carol Court

Fifty-five traffic violators in Columbia, Tenn., avoided paying fines by belting out their favorite Yuletide carol. Those lucky enough to draw the last court date before Christmas were given the choice of singing a carol and donating five canned goods to a local food bank in exchange for having their tickets dismissed.

George & John Philip To The Rescue

Legendary composers Gershwin and Sousa were enlisted to help the Boston transit police drive away delinquent teens loitering in one of the city's high-traffic subway stations. Authorities began piping in a mix of show tunes and marches to the dismay of area youth, who have since found other places to hang out.

MUSIC

Rapper Jay-Z went back to school as a principal during his 10-city Principal for a Day tour. Local radio contests determined which schools he visited to promote education and his blueprint 2 CD. At each of the schools, he performed the daily duties of the principal and spoke to the student body. ▶

Bruce Springsteen's The Rising climbed the charts with stirring songs that focused on the people affected by the Sept. 11 attacks. The tribute album, which was his first studio release of all-new material since 1995, struck a chord with a grieving public and served as a cathartic diversion.

Columbian superstar Shakira won awards in every category for which she was nominated at the first Latin MTV Video Music Awards, including best female artist, best pop artist, artist of the year, video of the year, and best artist from the north region. The top male artist honors went to Juanes, a folk rock singer from Columbia. ◀▶▶

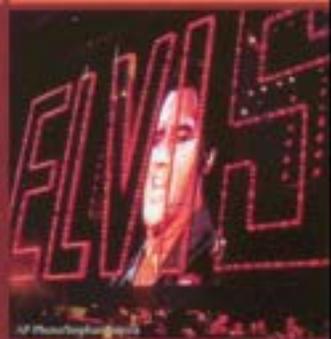

Published by Riverhead Books, Kurt Cobain's The Journals sparked a whole new debate on the life and death of the troubled, yet influential, musician. An 800-page volume, the book consists of 23 of Cobain's private diaries, written from 1987 up until his suicide in April 1994.

Michael Jackson caused an uproar by dangling his 9-month-old baby off a four-story balcony in Berlin as he greeted fans. The pop star later offered an apology, saying he got caught up in the moment and would never intentionally endanger the lives of his children.

Bee Gees' singer Maurice Gibb died at 53 from a heart attack. Gibb sang with his brothers in the Bee Gees for more than 40 years and also played bass and keyboards for the band. Their soundtrack to the 1977 movie, Saturday Night Fever, is often credited with launching the worldwide disco craze. ▶

Elvis set a personal record this year, 25 years after his death: he had his first album to debut at number one on the Billboard chart. RCA records released Elvis 30 #1 Hits for the 25th anniversary of The King's death, which jumped immediately to number one in the U.S. and 17 other countries. ▶

Jam Master Jay died after a man entered his recording studio and shot him during a recording session. Jay, born Jason Mizell, was 37. Mizell was a founding member of pioneering rap group Run-DMC, which he helped form with Run, Joseph Simmons, and DMC, Darryl McDaniels. ▲

That Kid's Got Guts

Rookie defensive end Dennis Johnson of the Arizona Cardinals revealed that he started dominating the gridiron at an early age, beginning his high school football career at age 6. As a 5-foot-7, 170-pound second-grader, Johnson came off the bench to play in several games for Harrodsburg (Ky.) High School going head-to-head with opponents three times older than him.

STRANGE BUT TRUE

The Ohio State Buckeyes won their first college football national championship since 1968 in a double-overtime game in the Fiesta Bowl. The Buckeyes defeated the heavily favored Miami Hurricanes, 31-24, in a game that many national publications touted as the best college football game of all time. The win ended Miami's 34-game winning streak. ▶

After 13 seasons, Emmitt Smith of the Dallas Cowboys holds the National Football League's all-time rushing record, surpassing the late Walter Payton's previous record of 16,726 yards. After the season ended, there was talk that Smith's salary and age would keep him from returning to the team. In February, team owner Jerry Jones released him. ◀

Ted Williams, baseball's last major league player to bat over .400 in a season, died at 83 of cardiac arrest. News of his death was soon overshadowed by a legal battle between his children, who disagreed about whether his body should be cremated or cryogenically frozen. ◀

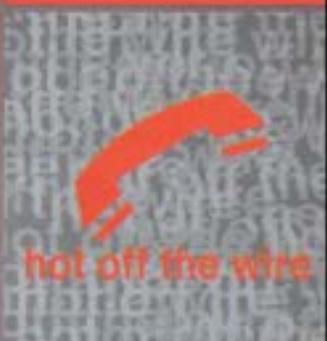

Notre Dame's first-year football coach Tyrone Willingham, the first black head coach in school history, led the Fighting Irish to a 10-2 record and a spot in the Gator Bowl. The season included an eight-game winning streak and an impressive turnaround from the previous year's 5-6 record.

Annika Sorenstam completed the most dominant season the LPGA Tour has seen in nearly four decades by winning 13 times around the world, including a major. En route to shattering her own scoring record, the 32-year-old Swede finished out of the top 10 only three times.

Although her kick was blocked, Katie Hnida became the first woman ever to play in a Division I-A football game when she attempted an extra point in the Las Vegas Bowl. Hnida's team, the New Mexico Lobos, lost the game to the UCLA Bruins, 27-13.

Augusta National Chairman Hootie Johnson started a maelstrom of controversy with his angry response to a letter requesting that the prestigious Georgia golf club, home of the Masters Tournament, admit women. Johnson stood firm in his opposition through the resulting media frenzy and criticism.

Wake up, Sleepyhead! A 16-year-old German student invented a bed with an electric motor that gradually raises the bed's mattress for five minutes after an alarm goes off. After five minutes, the sleepyhead has to get out of bed or be forced onto the floor.

Consumers began to wonder whether hybrid cars would become mainstream after General Motors Corp., the world's largest auto maker, announced it would offer hybrid cars, pickups and sport utility vehicles. Hybrids use a mixture of electricity and gas, making them more fuel-efficient.

FUN FACTS

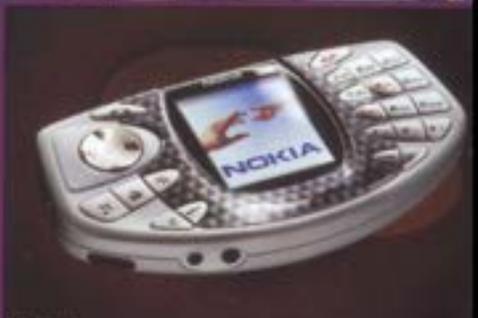

Researchers found out that duct tape removes warts just as well as freezing them with liquid nitrogen. Just apply, wait six days, remove the tape, soak the area in water, scrape the area with a pumice stone, and apply again. Experts say the tape irritates the warts and triggers the immune system to attack them, and they say this approach does not hurt.

This year, Mississippi became the first state ever to have an online computer in each public school classroom.

Reporters writing about the new James Bond movie Die Another Day received self-destructing DVDs to preview the movie's scenes. A letter from the movie's fictional character Q accompanied the discs, warning that the content would only be available for 36 hours. After that, Q wrote, the disc makes a nice coaster.

Companies continued to cram gadgets into cell phones, eliminating the need for people to carry PDAs or computers along with their phones. The new generation of phones can take digital pictures, access the internet, send and receive email and instant messages, and download video games and ring tones.

New studies revealed that ribonucleic acid (RNA) is capable of taking charge of the genetic process, commanding gene activity, or even deleting entire sections of DNA. Researchers hope that RNA will play a vital role in the war against cancer and other diseases.

A worm called Sapphiee was unleashed on tens of thousands of internet servers, resulting in the shutdown of computer systems, a blackout of automatic teller machines and a bog down of web traffic. The author of the worm, if caught and convicted, could face harsh punishment under new U.S. anti-terror legislation.

The Kroger Company, the country's largest grocery chain, tested finger imaging at three of its Texas stores as a new way for customers to pay for their groceries. When customers signed up for the program, their credit or debit card information was linked to their fingerprint, so they no longer needed to take their wallets to the store. The Penn Cambria district in Pennsylvania allows its students to pay for their lunches in the same manner. It is one of about 35 districts trying the biometric program. Other schools across the nation used the system in their libraries.

A fossil unearthed in Africa was dated at between 6 and 7 million years old, pushing the date of the earliest known human ancestor back more than 3 million years. The nearly complete skull, nicknamed Toumai, had some apelike features, but the shape of its teeth and lower face suggested human ancestry.

So That's How It Works

The dynamics of the stadium wave were calculated and published in a scientific journal by a University of Hungary professor. Tamas Vicsek used mathematical models written to study the spread of forest fires and applied them to the wave. His analysis shows it only takes a few dozen fans to trigger a wave. It will move clockwise at a rate of 20 seats per second and is usually about 15 seats wide.

Coloring The Cosmos

Astronomers Karl Glazebrook and Ivan Baldry finally got that nagging "What color is the universe?" question answered. The color is Cosmic Laffin. The color-naming contest evolved from the scientists' speculation of what color the universe would be if all its light were taken together. Their initial findings said light green before they finally settled on beige.

The Institute of Medicine changed its recommendations for Americans' diets and exercise regimes. Under the new guidelines, everyone should participate in at least one hour of physical activity each day and should eat a recommended percentage of carbohydrates, fats and proteins. McDonald's cut the amount of bad fat in its fries, Chicken McNuggets and other products after a New York man sued McDonald's and three other major fast-food chains for allegedly making him fat.

A few weeks later, a lawyer sued McDonald's on behalf of obese children. The suits were later thrown out by a federal judge who said the law is not in place to protect people from their own excesses. The cases argued that the fast-food chains never gave a clear warning about the foods' danger.

People desperate for money turned to the internet to cyberbeg. One woman was able to pay off her $20,000 credit card debt in just five months with the contributions she received from people who read her website and sent money.

The Men Know How To Coordinate Their Colors...

Boys Fashion

Michael Krantz shows that a relaxed look is just the thing needed to get through the school day.

The fellas really strutted their stuff this year. The trend in boys fashion was a preppy yet relaxed. Toboggans were the must have head wear for the beginning of the year. Summer quickly approached though and the trend turned from sweaters and docs to anything that was cool and comfortable. T-shirts and khaki shorts are thing to wear in the summer. The boys had a really easy time keeping in the boundaries of the school's dress code, until jeans with holes and tears in them became all the rage. However, the boys still find a way to stay in style and be comfortable at the same time.

DEREK,

You began as a sweet boy with a heart of gold, and have become a man of faith and integrity. God has blessed you with a voice like an angel and the ability to make people laugh, remember to follow His lead. We love you so much...

Mom, Dad & Joanna

Clifton,

We are so very proud of you for all you have done and continue to do. God sent us "you" and you've been a joy to have around. We wish you the best in everything you do. Good luck in the Navy. We love you SO very much.

Mom & Dad

Brent,

Many things have come and gone like blocks, monster trucks, tractors, & such. But one thing will always be the same, you're loved so very much. Thanks for making us so proud of you! Congratulations. Love Mom, Dad & Brice

Sarah,

My sweet, adorable baby girl. May God bless you wonderfully as you let Him guide you on your path to becoming a beautiful woman, both inside and outside.

Love forever,
Mom & Terry

David,

From the first day of school to now, we have watched you grow. We are so proud of you. Our wishes for you are success and happiness in all you do. Always be true to yourself. And remember how much you are loved!

Love,
Mom & Dad

-PHILIP-A TOUCH OF LOVE

You were six months old and full of fun with a blink of my eye you were suddenly one

There were so many things we were going to do but I turned my head and you turned two

At two you were very dependent on my but independence took over when you turned three

Your third year, another year I tried to ignore but when I looked, you weren't three, but four

Four was the year that you really strived why, look at you now, you're already five

Now your ready for books and for rules this is the year you go to school

The big day came, you were anxious to go, we walked to the bus, going oh, so slow

As you climbed aboard and waved good-bye I felt a lump in my throat and tears in my eyes

Time goes so fast, it's hard to believe that just yesterday you were home here with me

And tomorrow when the bus brings you home and you jump to the ground you'll be wearing your cap and graduation gown

So I'm holding to these moments as hard as I can because the next time I look, I'll be seeing a MAN!

Love Always

Dad & Mom

Brandon,

Yesterday you were a BEAUTIFUL toddler.

Today you are a HANDSOME graduate.

We wish you a very successful future.

Love,

Mom, Dad & Jordan

Cody,

I am so proud of who you are. Congratulations on all of your accomplishments.

Your hard work is paying off. Continue to work hard and good things will come your way.

You are my pride and joy and will always be "my little boy."

I LOVE YOU

Mom

Seth,

"97 out of a hun'erd"

You're perfect, Kane!

Total! All together,

top to bottom, inside and out, and outside in,

our Dane is total Perfect!

Love Mom, Dad, Silas &

Staley
