Crystal Burks (senior) is attending Health Career classes. She will be a Certified Nurses Aid in May.

Career Center The ROAD to the future

The Southeastern Career Center is a home of much success for Southwestern Students. Many of our students leave the Career Center with the knowledge they need to get the career of their dreams. Past students have left the career center to become chefs, beauticians, nurses, etc. While attending the career center is fun, students who go there are hard workers. Southwestern is proud to be part of the Southeastern Career Center team!

Johnathan Schaffer (senior) studies in the Culinary Arts program. After graduating in May, he will enroll at Sullivan University to further his Culinary Arts Education. Johnathan's Chicken Basalmic Reduction is DELICIOUS!

Far Left: Jessy Stewart (junior) is also attending the Culinary Arts program. Jessy enjoys the business-like atmosphere of the program.

Jennifer Graves (senior) is practicing the skills she has learned in the Health Careers class on Jessica Kendall (junior). Like Crystal, Jennifer will graduate in May with her CNA. Jessica hopes to attend the career center again during her senior year.

Far Left: Tyler Adams (senior) enjoys the bus ride to the career center. He knows he will use the skills he has learned here after graduation.

Josh Watterson (junior) is in the Welding program. He loves the work and plans to attend again during his senior year.
