SHAWNE MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL — VOLUME

WE MAY NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

Life — so they say

Is but a game and they let it slip away.

Love — like the autumn sun

Should be crying but it's only just begun.

Like the twilight in the road up ahead

They don't see just where we're going

And all the secrets in the universe

Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go

And take us up always up.

We may never pass this way again.

Dreams — so they say

Are for the fools and they let them slip away.

Peace — like the silent dove

Should be flyin' but it's only just begun.

Like Columbus in the olden days

We must gather all our courage

Sail our ships out on the open sea

Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go,

And take us up always up.

We may never pass this way again.

So I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy

I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile

I may never pass this way again

That's why I want it with you.

'Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend.

Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end

I may never pass this way again

That's why I want it with you baby.

We may never pass this way again . . .

*LIFE — so they say is but a game
and they let it slip away.*

Everyone has his thing to do and place to be, but not always in that order. Father Lawler gives advice to the incoming freshmen on the first day, while upperclassmen take advantage of having "been around."

... Joe Hodges takes a few minutes to call home for something he forgot and some sophomore French students take advantage of the rare sunlight for some heavy studying.

Hard work always has its rewards; so they say, but all Sr. Borromeo wants is a little hard work. Lisa Kelly, takes advantage of the new additions to the student lounge while Cindy Pratt and Mike Heitz discuss events from their weekend, "en francais" of course!

Every once in a while people actually study right, Sally? Even Jeff is studious over some algebra problem. But the frosh boys seem to have all the fun, who else gets to play basketball during class? STICK!

Where else but at Shawe? Mark Rucker is actually interested in something, and it isn't Kate O'Connor! But Pam Yancey and Linda Kieffer don't seem to be interested in anything but sleep, a necessary activity, as they demonstrate in Typing II.

AHI BLISS

There's always time for relaxation. Lunch time is the best time for that, according to Kathy Rousch, Margaret Urbanik and Cindy Pratt, Activity period also affords some relaxation in the way of checkers. Joe Zubaty and Jeff Lopez have a hot match going. Even French III can be relaxing at times, especially when you're looking at pictures of French wines.

But it's always back to study. Typing I is diligently working while Mike Gosman ponders over a difficult test question in World History.

... And then there are those typical days at Shawe. Reenie Rucker and Gina Wesbecker are studying hard over an algebra problem while Cindy Gauger shows her genuine admiration for Mrs. Horton, Andy Craig counts his "checks" as Don Staley does his imitation of the Diet Pepsi commercial.

Activity period gives Jimmy Hoffman a chance to show up the girls' volleyball team. French II seems engrossed in study while Tim Breitenbach stretches after catching forty winks in study hall.

Cross Country started off the sports year in grand style. Much hard work paid off in the "long run." Richard Reynolds and Mike Knoble put on that extra burst of speed while Matt Hall collapses after his run.

More exciting pictures show the crowded start of a meet but Louis Knoble soon breaks away from the pack. You may wonder how the guys get ready. A few calisthenics never hurt anyone. Just ask Joe, he's one of our hardest workers.

I wanna laugh while the laughin' is easy . . .

. . . And that's just what everyone did do, laugh that is. Freshman initiation was one of the best ever. Our cheerleaders, Ruth Gauger and Carol Knoble, started off the events with a beginning cheer. Mike Gosman gave the school a ballet lesson. Even the "FONZ" made his appearance in the person of Ann Colussi. Fashion Shows were given by Eddie Loudon, Shaun Toomey, Robby Hentz, Richard Reynolds and Mike Gosman, once again. Games were enjoyed by Lisa Vaughn, Mike Gosman and Beth Nichols. They are now full fledged members of Shawe.

The next sport in line just happens to be volleyball. The second year turned out much better than the first, thanks to many helpful hints from Coach Carnes. Whether during a game or at practice, she always had some steps on how to improve the game, not that they needed it or anything.

The J.V. team had a great season thanks to the help of Linda Thomas, Lisa Kelly, Margie Schafer, and all the rest. In fact, their season was better than the Varsity's, but don't tell them that!

The Varsity team had a shimmering season. They had three victories this year. Janie Kelly, the team statistician and good cheer giver, was always working hard on the books.

Beth Hill makes a great return while Ellen Colusse looks on and Marie Rodgers gets off the serve which will eventually lead to one win over Madison. Unfortunately they lost the next two.

In the Sectional against New Washington, Shawe gave them a brilliant game, but ended up losing. It was shots such as these by Annette Lunsford, Jane Vandewater and Cindy Gauger that kept them ahead most of the game. Just wait till next year though!

Here are some of the special events worth remembering in the fall months: Mark Twain's visit to Shawe, Cindy Gauger's leadership at a Pep Club meeting, and the appearance of the New Candy Man!

Catapsis made an appearance for the Halloween Dance, while Senior girls "hammed" it up at an assembly!

No basketball season could start off correctly without the traditional spirit week. It usually begins the week before the first game with such things as stomping hornets (right Duane?) and decorating the halls. I think Mel and Joni are trying to tell us something.

The day of the game brings the pep rally, with those great skits and the words of wisdom from the coach and his helper.

STICK!

The emphasis during the basketball season this year, seemed to be on defense. However, Frank Armstrong's fantastic shooting brought him four scoring records and ranked him 13th in the Shawe career scoring records. Frank displayed his shooting ability often as shown above, and at immediate right. Pat Berry often controlled the ball (upper right) while Andy Craig (far right) controlled the boards. Mr. Barnes (lower right) taught the team much in his first year as coach at Shawe.

Tom Lemm and Bob Gonya showed inspired hustle for the Topper effort all season long. Paul Hendrick and Pat Berry kept opposing defenses on their toes by driving through any crowd. Close scores kept the season exciting.

'Tis the season to be jolly and what better way than at the annual Christmas Dance. A good time was had by all, whether dancing as is the case with Gina Wesbecker, Tom Lemm and Charlene Fischer; or just sitting around socializing. Right Anne and Joe, Kate and Mike, Danny and Vicki?

J.C.I.T. CHAMPS

The decorating was over and the time was here. The Toppers took care of Moores Hill with a score of 73-46 to get into the final game against Rising Sun.

Now that was a game to remember! The score was back and forth all the way. But in the last two minutes Shawe went ahead by eight points with the help of the great ball handling of Tom Lemm, Pat Berry and Paul Hendrick. As the final seconds ticked away on the clock, the pep club had a hard time controlling their emotions and when the final buzzer sounded they went wild! The Old Oaken Bucket was back at Shawe.

The National Honor Society had its induction on February 20. The old members staged a trial in order to decide whether the inductees truly possessed the qualities of a N.H.S. member. Norbert Schafer was the judge, Jim Harnden was the Defense Counsel and, Louis Knoble was the witness for Character.

There was a new sport added to girl's athletics this year. You guessed it, Basketball! They had a great season with a 4-3 record. From the first jump to the final shot all the girls played first rate.

Margie Schafer takes the jump while the consistent fans look on. Jane Vandewater brings the ball down, after getting the pep talk from Assistant Coach Karen Nabbit.

Beth Hill takes one of her many successful shots, and Lisa Vaughn keeps trying. Even the bench support was great! All around it was a great season for the gals!

HOMECOMING

There wasn't a dry eye among the Senior girls as they realized the night had finally come when they would witness their last home game. And what better way than by having Beth Hill reign as queen and Shawe win the game, both in the same night!

The candidates and their escorts were: Seniors, Beth Hill, escorted by Norbert Schafer, and Cindy Gauger, whose escort was Bill Barber; Juniors, Theresa Koczergo, with Joe Boone, and Margie Schafer with Tim Breitenbach; Sophomores, Rose Marie Hoffman and her escort Mark Lucht, and Alisa Sims with her escort Bobby Lunsford; Freshmen, Pilar Adorable and Robby Hentz, and Charlene Fischer with Mike Richetts as her escort.

Some of our basketball games seemed to worry Coach Barnes (below) especially when Frank drew fouls the hard way (right). Louis Knoble became a good ball handler over the season. (bottom) Paul Hendrick overcame taller competition with great leaps and deft passes (lower right).

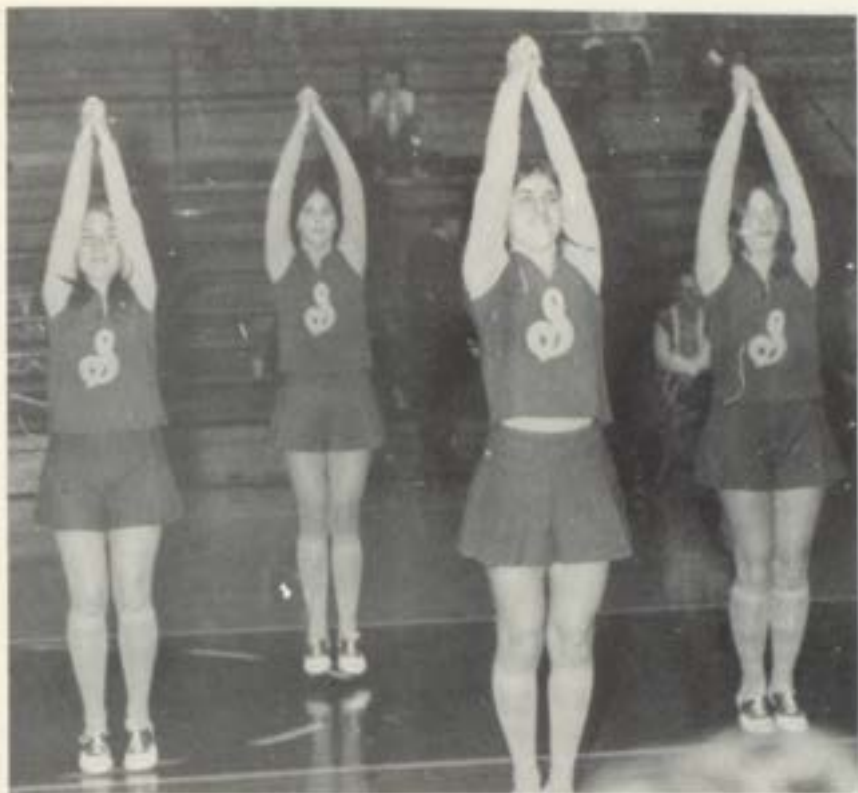

Pat Berry used accurate shots to offset his small stature. Frank "Frog" Armstrong was always ready to leap for one of his famous outside shots. Bob Gonya displayed his "power of pivot" when necessary (left middle). Tom Lemm arched his shots precisely while Mike Gosman was always ready for the rebound underneath (lower left).

J.V. team had a great season this year, under the management of Mr. Kalb. Some of their great moves are shown by Matt Hall, Ralph Pratt, David Schafer, and Jeff Lopez. Leading the cheers were Beth Berry, Reenie Rucker, Gina Wesbecker, and Theresa Kalb.

*TOPPER SPIRIT
DIES*

Everyone knows that Shawe's Pep Club is one of the best in the state, and of course the same goes for our cheerleaders. Margaret, Kathy, Annette, Carol and Joni led the team through the J.C.I.T. and through thick and thin, mostly thin. The team may have had only five victories but as far as spirit is concerned we were 20-0.

Believe It or Not!

T O P P E R S

In order to sum up the winter activities only one word is necessary, "togetherness." Whether at the Valentine Dance or Sectional Spirit Week there was a feeling of oneness throughout.

Even Mrs. Hawley got into the winter spirit at the Christmas program. Mark Lovell and Linda Boone get into the swing of things at the dance, but don't ask me what Terry Ford and Mark Rucker are doing, while Jerry Ralston looks on.

Mike Heitz and Joyce Giltner pose for a few memorable shots, while Spunky gets dressed up for the big game. And then there are those moments when a ride around the lounge seems to be a good way to let out the morning's tensions, right Kay?

GOLF

The "Tee-Totalers" may have been low in scores but they were always high in spirit. Someone was always on hand with advice on how to sink that all important putt, although sometimes that advice would backfire. Right, Matt?

Andy and Steve show true form while Jim comments on Andy's last shot. I wonder what that comment was!

TRACK

Track — the endurance sport! The Shawnee track team displayed their stamina all year long; not always returning first, but always returning proud. David Schafer, Ralph Pratt, Paul Hendrick, and Robert Reynolds all have their eyes on the finish line. While Mike Ringwald strives for distance, Bob Pratt strives for height.

BASEBALL

Another season of baseball come and gone! It was an exciting season with those close 1 pt. games, but unfortunately we were on the losing side of most of them.

Shown here are some of the more exciting playmakers in the persons of Richard (Pogie) Reynolds, Tom Lemm, Frank Armstrong, Paul Hendrick, Ken Taylor, and the ever-loving Bobby Lunsford and Tony Goebel; all under the watchful eye of Coach Kalb.

"LOVE — Like the autumn sun should be crying but it's only just begun"

"A Time For Us" marked the theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Pat Berry and Therese Framme reigned as King and Queen. In their court were Becky Deveary, Kathy Rousch, Pam Yancey, Bill Barber, Frank Armstrong, and Norbert Schafer. As you can see by the smiles on everyone's faces, a good time was had by all.

HONORS DAY

The hard work of the long year was over, and it was time to receive the rewards. Individual awards were presented to the underclassmen as well as to the Seniors. At that time Sister Borromeo was presented with flowers from the Seniors in appreciation of her hard work as their moderator.

It was the beginning of the end for the Seniors on the Friday night of May 16th. Baccalaureate had finally come. Fr. Herber was the visiting priest who gave the homily. Ellen Colussi, Cindy Pratt, and Mike Heitz gave the readings. Beth Hill, Norbert Schafer, Pam Yancey and Mark Lovell presented the offertory gifts. All in all, it was a beautiful Mass, one in which I'm sure will always be remembered by the Senior class.

It was Sunday, the sun was shining, the flowers were in bloom, and graduation had finally come.

Louis Knoble and Donna Hodges, Valedictorian and Salutatorian, gave their addresses; then, Father Gettelfinger awarded the diplomas. Pat Berry is shown receiving his while the class looks on.

The Seniors chose as their final song "My Way" which summed up their feelings and attitudes. Then it was over, and as you can see, they took it all in stride, calm, cool, and collected.

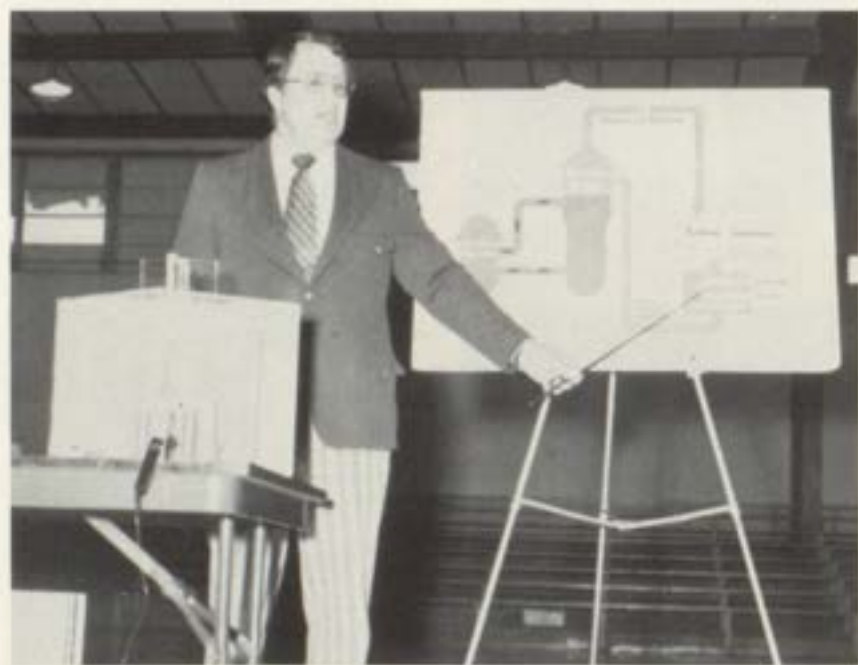

FAREWELL

1975 marked the last year that we would have both Father Lawler and Father John with us at Shawe. Their achievements will long be remembered. We wish them the best of luck always.

Spring brought many new and exciting happenings to Shawe. One of these was the Girls' track team. It was their first year and they had two meets. They won one of them which wasn't bad for their first year.

One of our guests during this season was a representative from Public Service Indiana who had a program on nuclear power plants.

Then there are those annual events such as the school picnic and Varsity cheerleading tryouts. Both were very successful.

On these two pages one finds the hard working Yearbook Staff consisting of Donna Hodges, Ellen Colussi, Cindy Pratt, Steve Frisque and Sr. Borromeo. Mike Heitz and Joe Hodges were not available for the picture taking.

As we come to the end, the Yearbook Staff would like to thank some of the people who made this book possible. First we would like to thank the photographers for the running supply of pictures that were always on hand. And a "big" thank you must go out to Mr. Hodges (no relation to our editor) and the Taylor Publishing Company for the much needed advice and encouragement they rendered in making this book the success it is!

Ah! Yes! The great 78! Those frosh can really show a lot of spirit. The pep club would have been nothing without them. And of course I doubt that Mr. Barnes will forget that boys P.E. class! And with the angelic voices of Debbie Kieffer and Maria Lichlyter the chorus was complete.

Taylor's approach to deadline planning is as unique as CONCEPT IV itself. A disgustingly effortless procedure to sensibly control the factions that cause missed deadlines. Can you possibly visualize having all of the photographs and copy necessary for a deadline in advance of your staff meeting to prepare it? CONCEPT IV will show you how to put it all together.

Taylor's CONCEPT IV provides the first real solution to staff demands for creativity that can be understood. It does so by blending the intangibles of layout, color, design, typography and special effects into a plan of controlled creativity. Never has so much creative genius been available to the yearbook staff. CONCEPT IV will show you how to put it all together!

CONCEPT IV brings together, a plant, a representative, an advisor and a staff that CARES about the outcome of their book. Four teams of individuals working together to insure a Financially Secure, On-Time Yearbook of Excellence.

The goal of every staff is a Financially Secure, On-Time Yearbook of Excellence. CONCEPT IV's Total Control Plan can insure fulfillment of this goal.

Taylor's October finance plan is a common sense solution to an old staff problem. It simply encourages a blend of "get tough" merchandising and "super preparedness" advertising. Can you imagine selling more books and advertising than ever before with every dollar in your hands by Halloween? CONCEPT IV will show you how to put it all together!

JOIN THE PEOPLE WHO'VE JOINED THE ARMY

A lot of young men and women have discovered a good place to invest their time. The Army. What they've found here, they may not have been able to get anywhere else.

Some came to learn a skill. With training in over 300 kinds of jobs to choose from. Some came for the chance to work in Europe, Korea, Alaska, Hawaii or almost anywhere in the U.S.A.

Some came to meet a unique personal challenge. Like the responsibility of doing a good job at an early age. Some came to get a start on their college education. With the Army paying 75% of their tuition.

And some came to do something positive for their Country. Which is a pretty good reason in itself.

As the year comes to an end and the Seniors fade into the past it's nice to remember those happy times. Even studying could be fun, as Eddie Louden and Lucia Garcia demonstrate. Cindy Pratt and Beth Hill get the candy together while Anne Colussi, Cindy Jessup and Julie Lucht puzzle over a History test. Even some Juniors got down to the business of study.

But we always find a way of getting out of studies and into relaxation. Where are Sophie and Ellen taking off to? Ah! What's Mark and Mel up to, or should I say Therese and Margaret? Someone must have told Frank to take a flying leap. Who'd have thought he'd actually try?

Happy Times? Yes, you could call it that. Looking back at it all brings back those once in a lifetime memories. Whether it's spirit week, farewell luncheons or just simple everyday occurrences, one can truly say . . . We may never pass this way again!
