Silent Sunlight

Silent Sunlight, welcome in
There is work I must now begin
All my dreams have blown away
And the children wait to play
They'll soon remember things to do
When the heart is young
And the night is done
And the sky is blue
Morning songbird, sing away
Lend a tune to another day
Bring your wings and choose a roof
Sing a song of love and truth
We'll soon remember if you do
When all things were tall
And our friends were small
And the world was new
Sleepy horses heave away
Put your backs to the golden hay
Don't even look behind at work you've done
For your work has just begun
There'll be the evening in the end,
But till that time arrives
You can rest your eyes
And begin again

JCIT Cross-Country Trophy

ORVC Conference Champs

CROSS-COUNTRY

Warming up to beat Madison.

Day in and day out, our top runner was Steve Frisque.

Cross-country, more than any other sport, is a test of stamina, strength, endurance, and the will to win. A person can't be made to run; it must come from within. Our cross-country season was great. With a record of 33 wins and only 2 losses, we won the JCIT meet and the ORVC Conference crown. Hard work sure paid off. Steve Frisque placed 2nd in the Conference, Richard Reynolds 3rd, Bobby Gonya 9th, David Schafer 12th, and Robert Reynolds 15th. This is without a doubt the best team in Shawe's history. Our winning was made possible by the great coaching of Jim Barnes and Kelvin Comer.

This year we had the largest baseball schedule in Shawe's history (over 20 games). There were many exciting plays and close contests. At right Coach Comer keeps us in line while Tim Armstrong warms up. At left Tony Goebel stops a hard grounder while our top pitcher Paul Hendrick winds up. Seniors on the team were Paul Hendrick, Mike Kieffer, Mike Knoble, and Robert Reynolds.

GOLF

Shawe's golf team really hit it off well this year under the direction of Coach Kelvin Comer. In his first year as golf coach at Shawe, Coach led the team to impressive wins and consistent good scores, even against top-ranked teams. At right, Joe Zubaty exults at a well hit drive, while below the team demonstrates their ability to have fun anyplace, anytime.

Shawe's golf team watches the birdie and hopes for an eagle or two. The players are Joe Zubaty, Jeff Lopez, Matt Hall, Dan Harnden and Bill Smith.

This year we had a young team (only two seniors), At right MVP Paul Hendrick drives hard against Providence. On the next page, the pep club is in action, Jeff Lopez sails high, and Paul Hendrick and Rob Harmon block out a taller opponent.

The Junior varsity had a great season. The strong coaching of Kelvin Comer developed many players for the varsity. Halfway through the season, the J.V. starting five moved up to varsity level. Still the J.V. kept on winning! What they lacked in height and experience they made up for in speed and scrappiness.

Ralph Pratt leaps high for a rebound as Bob Pratt starts the press-breaker. Tim Armstrong looks anxious to get his hands on the ball, and Rob Harmon plays a tough defense. Other regulars for the team were Tony Goebel, Richard Reynolds, Shaun Toomey, Doug Hamilton and Charlie Vaughn.

HOMECOMING

On February 27, between the J.V. and varsity basketball games, Shawe had its annual Homecoming ceremony. As the final buzzer of the J.V. game sounded and the victorious cheers subsided, the fans of each team remained in their seats and the lights were dimmed. The candidates and their escorts entered one by one into the spotlight until the last couple arrived. Silence, anxious whispers, wild cheers. The 1976 Shawe Homecoming Queen had been announced.

The Queen and her court: Standing from left to right: Richard Toomey, Mary Beth Fuqua, David Schafer, Mel Sims, Reynardo Adorable, Rachel Knoble, Paul Hendrick, Bob Gonya, Leslie Hall, Bill Smith, Carol Knoble, Eddie Loudon, Teresa Koczergo, Jim Hoffman, Linda Anger, and Don Staley. In front are the attendants: Jamie Hendrick and Chris Hammock along with the queen, Margie Schafer and her escort, Terry Ford.

TOPPER

TIMES

Student life at Shawe is diversified. One sees everything here. Jeff proudly displays his decorated locker to Moms and anyone else who happens to be interested. Tim romantically sings to Sharon, and Linda smiles mischievously. Richard Reynolds walks back for seconds (or thirds?) and David inconspicuously tries to cheat in English again without the watchful eyes of Sister Borromeo finding out. Joe Zubaby anxiously tries to non-verbally relay a message to his partner. Jeff seems more interested than Julie in what's happening on "Days of our Lives". After a hard day's classes, Lisa sighs and awaits next weekend.

Donnie Ringwald, dormez-vous?

While crossing the desert known as the school day, the student comes upon the oasis known as lunch time! Shawe students (and teachers) spend these precious 30 minutes in a variety of ways. Mrs. Horton finishes up her gourmet meal, hoping to regain some energy for the day's remaining classes. While Erin Rucker serves up herself, Rob (Killer) Harmon serves up a ping-pong ball. Duane prepares to attack a lollipop and Jimmy digs into a delicious meal.

*Well I don't know if it makes you happy . . .
But it must be healthy
'Cause its certified*

-Cat Stevens

*You keep me awake with your white lily smile
Don't keep me watching your charms all the while*

—Cat Stevens

Smile! The world is watching you and your charms. Julie and Joni smile in spite of French class, and Beth Berry giggles uncontrollably in Chemistry. The senior English class show their "pearly whites", and Rose Marie shows that she uses Ultra-Brite.

*Everybody has a friend, oh
And no one ever has to grab
Everybody shares the love,
Giving everything they have.
-Cat Stevens*

FRESHMEN

Doug Hamilton proves to all onlookers that bobbing for onions can be fun!

First a blindfolded freshman would unsuspectingly kiss the senior's ring ... then open his eyes and see what was wearing the ring. Surprise!

At left:
Elizabeth's shirt
says it all!

INITIATION

Remember freshmen initiation? What a blast! (For everyone but the Frosh).

Danny Semon claps from his ringside seat as the other freshman play more active roles.

Carol Harmon gives Joe Torline her love and a "little something extra."

Debbie Staublin "opens wide" in joyful anticipation of coming delicacies. Are you sure it wasn't a worm?

Yes, Frosh initiation was a lot of fun ... and grease ... and smells ... and hard-to-clean-off makeups and paints ... but it must have been worthwhile, for afterward, the frosh felt truly a part of Shawe as they went to the reception in the lounge where they were last in line.

Seniority!

Danny Harnden shows how happy he is to be a Freshman at initiation while Mary Hierlmeier applies the grease.

CAUGHT ...

*Be like a light in the shadows
Throw down your mask and be real
Don't wish to win, and don't mind to lose
That was just a cycle like a squirrel in a wheel.*
-Cat Stevens

IN THE ACT!

Whether it is loving, cheating, playing, cutting class, or just being surprised by a quick camera, these Shawe students certainly show their fun-loving natures and their ability to have a good time anywhere—even in school!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1975-76 Student Council was very active throughout the school year. Members are as follows: Freshmen representatives—Richard Peak and Lynn Heitz, Sophomores—Rob Harmon and Cindy Jessup, Juniors—Matt Hall and Reenie Rucker (absent), Seniors—Marc Rucker (absent), and Joni Dierkes. Officers were Robert Reynolds, Treasurer; Donnie Ringwald, Secretary; Tim Breitenbach, Vice President; Mrs. Horton, Faculty Advisor; and Kate O'Connor, President.

Kate shows that she's wide-awake this time as she starts the day with a prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Student-Council-sponsored Magazine Drive brought needed funds to the school.

Donnie diligently takes notes as President O'Connor brings the Student Council meeting to order.

Jointly sponsored by the Student Council and the National Honor Society, "Build Up Shawe Morale Week" was held.

Included in the activities were a student-faculty luncheon in the cafeteria, and interclass volleyball tournaments. (See pictures below.)

Here's a smart group of guys; they'll show you their BACKS but not their HANDS!

Eddie proves he's learned something this year: you can bat 1000 without leaving the dugout! Or is it 2000!

The annual school picnic was held at Shawe this year, but that didn't dampen the festivities.

The picnic was a great success with plenty of fun, food, and sun for everyone.

The softball tournaments—the first held in the past three years—were won by the seniors.

Everyone also got plenty of sun while eating, playing ball, sitting around or playing cards.

Each year, the school picnic is sponsored by the National Honor Society under the direction of Mrs. Horton. This year, with so many members, the group outdid themselves and provided a great time for everyone.

*Seagulls singing your Hearts away,
'Cause while sinners sin the Children play, Oh Lord how they play and play, For that happy day for that Happy Day.*

—Cat Stevens

Mr. Corry seems in complete control of the lunch table and proves himself a master hand at mixing something that won't explode.

The Sophomore girls show off their true talent—sitting around and soaking up the sun. But not too much sun, o.k. Beth?

*New Music, Music, New Music
Sweet Music can lighten us
Can brighten the world
Can save us*

-Cat Stevens

Prom King and Queen were Marc Rucker and Kate O'Connor. The court included Joe Boone, Margie Schafer, David Schafer, Teresa Koczergo, Jimmy Hoffman, Linda Thomas, Paul Hendrick, and Joni Dierkes.

*In the sky rides a gleam of white horses
And they glimmer clean in your eye
The bird of dawn is bringing
The simpleness of singing
—Cat Stevens*

The juniors set May 14 as the date of the junior-senior prom. Opposite page: Abraham Rush was contracted to provide the sweet music, which Linda, Carol and Jerry are obviously enjoying. Duane and Nina smile during a break, and even the chaperones are living it up at this annual, but always unique, happening. This page: Sister Thomasita convinces Julie that everything will be O.K., or is it Julie convincing Sister T.? Father Meny is able to listen to Mrs. O'Connor despite that "crazy, loud music", by cupping his hand over his ear.

"NIGHT OF JANUARY SIXTEENTH"

Everybody joined in the show, and Oh, what a show it was! Many hours of practice and hard work by the Drama Club resulted in a great time for all who came to watch "Night of January Sixteenth." The play was a huge success, enjoyed by all who saw it AND by all who participated.

Here we see an important part of the preparations—the applying of make-up. Mrs. Berger, director of the drama club styles Joe Boone's gorgeous hair, while Julie O'Connor beautifies little sister Claire! Alisa Sims touches up Rose Marie Hoffman's face.

Everyone did a great job, making the play an occasion to remember.

*Think about the light in your eyes
Think about what you should know
There'd be no wars in the world
If everybody joined in the show
oh oh
—Cat Stevens*

Charlene Fisher unsuccessfully tries to trap Jeff Lopez during the trial. But no luck, as Jeff remains cool, calm, and collected through anything.

Steve Frisque tries to persuade the jury-members of the audience—that the verdict should be guilty as charged, by questioning his client. Joni Dierkes, as the judge, watches the proceedings to insure a fair trial.

A happy crew makes a curtain call.

Joe proveths that he loveths being the thenter of attention on the thtand.

Wal, now, Lou Ann didn't have nuthin' ta do with that there murder!

Cindy "svears" to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

HONORS DAY

*Cause I've been waiting a long time
Acons been and gone—
looking at the horizon
for my light to dawn —Cat Stevens*

On May 20, 1976, Shawe held the annual Honors Day program.

Sister Laurene announced the awards, which were then distributed by Sister Borromeo and Father Harpenau. Numerous awards, honors, recognition and scholarships were given out.

At the top left, Don Staley gets a smile, a hand-shake, and a certificate. At top right, Ann Colussi smiles eagerly at the reception of her award, while at right, Donnie Ringwald, Senior class valedictorian, receives one of his carload of honors.

Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Comer show off their coordination in adeptly handling salad bowls and filling plates at the same time. Coach Comer, however, discovers that two hands just aren't enough and has Mrs. Barnes help fill his plate. Or is she stealing some special tidbit while his hands are full and he can't stop her?

This crew happily display their many trophies, but it looks like the evening may have been a bit too long.

SPORTS BANQUET 1976

These major award winners at the All Sports Banquet held at the K. of C. Hall proudly exhibit their trophies and awards. Both varsity and junior varsity, boys and girls, were honored, as were cheerleaders, pep club, and many other helpers who made the sports year a success.

Finally, after many long years, Shawe was able to award letter jackets to members of the girls' teams for their performance in varsity sports. Absent when photo was taken was the other recipient, Terri Lemm.

May 21, the date of Baccalaureate, arrived. The Shawe seniors of '76 would attend their last Mass together as a class. Father Lawler was invited by the class to celebrate their Baccalaureate. Upper left: Brian Adams solemnly leads the pack to the front of the auditorium. Above: Father Lawler gives Brian the sign of peace as Father Meny looks on.

Below: All graduates in the singing of the Offertory song. Above: Fathers Meny, Lawler, and Doyle celebrate the Mass. At right: The seniors and the attendants show their love through the sign of peace. Below: Linda Thomas reads the second reading of the Mass.

*They used to call him Jesus
 Long time ago
 They're still calling him Jesus
 Don't you know
 They crossed the wood and hanged him
 A long time ago
 They still misunderstand him
 Those who don't know
 And in the evening
 His love will lead the blind
 In every secret corner
 There in your mind
 -Cat Stevens*

Graduation—The Big Day. Every minute of those twelve years of hard work was well worth it. Clockwise: The graduates march in to the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance". Donald Ringwald, valedictorian, speaks to friends, relatives, and fellow classmates. All graduates pose for the parting shot. Friends and relatives, especially parents, look on and silently say, "They finally made it."

Clockwise: Brian Adams and Joni Dierkes smile their best and dream of things past and future. Duane, Jane, David, and Linda are barely able to believe that the Big Day has finally arrived. Robert Reynolds, class salutatorian, receives his diploma and congratulations from Father Harpenau and Father Drewes. No need to worry, Burt, it's signed. Robert Reynolds turns Peggy Royce's tassel from left to right, officially signifying that they have graduated.

*Come the morning
I'll be far from here
Slowly rising
In another sphere
Old world
Goodbye 'cause I'll be
Home in the sky
In the morning Bye Bye

FOND FAREWELLS

Sister
Borrromeo

Heading the "lineup" of those who left Shawe after the '75-76 year is Sister Borrromeo. As Seniors, we wish to thank Sister for being our moderator. She did everything she could to help us out in choosing colleges, applying for scholarships, and in many other things. As members of the Yearbook Staff, we wish to thank Sister for all the support and slave driving. She has made this Yearbook the success it is.

*And if you want this world to see

love with you ...*

*And though you want to last forever
you know you never

And the goodbye makes the journey harder still.

Thinking about the good things to come
And I believe it could be
